PREFACE

Many people are under the wrong impression that Hungarian is a difficult language to learn. It is true that it is quite unrelated to any other European language, save the Finnish, being of oriental origin, and brought with them by the invading Hungarians into the country now known as Hungary, towards the end of the ninth century A.D.

Though the vocabulary, accordingly, may at first wear an air of strangeness, this strangeness does not mean difficulty, and we venture to say that Hungarian is easier for an English student than French or German. The most striking characteristics of the language are its use of suffixes, where in English pronouns and prepositions are employed, and the law of harmony prevailing between the vowel-sounds of a word and those of its suffixes.

When once these rules, and a few relating to the verb, are grasped, Hungarian will be found to present no great difficulty, and the impression that it is a hard language to learn must be regarded as due to the bad and complicated exposition usually met with in grammars designed to teach Hungarian.

A student who thoroughly masters this short and simple grammar will be well on the way to speaking and reading Hungarian, and to unlocking for himself the golden stores of Hungarian prose and poetry.

In the hope that this book may prove serviceable to any one visiting Hungary, we have added a vocabulary and a number of phrases in common use.

CHAPTER I

THE ALPHABET

VOWELS.

There are in Hungarian fourteen distinct vowel characters:— a, á; e, é; i, í; o, ó, ö, ő; u, ú, ü, ű.

They are pronounced:—

|                         |    |                     |          |             |               |          |
|-------------------------|----|---------------------|----------|-------------|---------------|----------|
| a                | as | o            | in rod,  | e.g. | fal,   | a wall   |
| á                | "  | a            | " far    | "           | vár,   | a castle |
| e <sup>[1]</sup> | "  | a            | " man    | "           | kerek, | round    |
| é                | "  | a            | " pale   | "           | pénz,  | money    |
| i                | "  | i            | " piqué  | "           | piros, | red      |
| í                | "  | ee           | " bee    | "           | ív,    | an arch  |
| o                | "  | o            | " fort   | "           | bor,   | wine     |
| ó                | "  | o            | " roll   | "           | ló,    | a horse  |
| ö                | "  | French eu    | " neuf   | "           | föld,  | earth    |
| ő                | "  | u            | " fur }  | "           | bőr,   | skin     |
|                         |    | or French œu | " sœur } |             |               |          |
| u                | "  | u            | " bull   | "           | futni, | to run   |
| ú                | "  | oo           | " pool   | "           | rút,   | ugly     |
| ü                | "  | French u     | " une    | "           | fül,   | ear      |
| ű                | "  | " ue         | " morue  | "           | tűz,   | fire     |

a, e, i, o, ö, u, ü are short vowels.

There are no Diphthongs.

Vowels are also divided into:—

- (a) Flats: a, á, o, ó, u, ú;
 (b) Sharps: e, ö, ő, ü, ű; and
 (c) Mediates: é, i, í.

Flats and Sharps never occur in the same word, and according as the vowels are of one or the other class the words are said to be sharp or flat, and only take suffixes of their respective class.

kert (garden), " kertek.

Note.—This rule does not prevent the formation of compound substantives of heterogeneous words, and applies only to etymological derivatives. For example, selyemruha is a compound of selyem (silk), and ruha (a dress).

The Mediates may be found in the same word along with either flat or sharp vowels. Such words are called mixed, and take suffixes of either class.

piros (red), pl. pirosak.

CONSONANTS.

The simple consonants are: b, c, d, f, g, h, j, k, l, m, n, p, r, s, t, v, z.

|                                                                                                     |                    |                   |                             |          |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|-------------------|-----------------------------|----------|
| c (or cz )                                                                            | is pronounced like | ts in its, | e.g. citrom , | a lemon  |
|                                                                                                     | " "                |                   |                             |          |
| g (hard)                                                                                     | " "                | g " go     | " galamb ,           | a dove   |
|                                                                                                     | " "                |                   |                             |          |
| j (soft)                                                                                     | " "                | y " you    | " jó ,               | good     |
|                                                                                                     | " "                |                   |                             |          |
| s                                                                                            | " "                | sh " shoe  | " sas ,              | an eagle |
|                                                                                                     |                    |                   |                             |          |
| h is always aspirated                                                                        |                    |                   | " három ,            | three    |
| r is harder than in English, and is always vibrated, whether preceded or followed by a vowel |                    |                   | } " róka ,           | a fox    |
|                                                                                                     |                    |                   | } " ár ,             | price    |

The others are pronounced as in English.

The compound consonants are: cs, ds, gy, ly, ny, sz, ty, zs.

They are pronounced as follows:—

|           |           |           |    |           |             |                 |               |      |
|-----------|-----------|-----------|----|-----------|-------------|-----------------|---------------|------|
| cs | as        | ch | in | church,   | e.g. | csirke , | a chicken     |      |
| ds | ”         | j  | ”  | joke      | ”           | findsa , | a cup         |      |
| gy | ”         | d  | ”  | dew       | ”           | gyöngy , | a pearl       |      |
| ly | ”         | y  | ”  | you       | ”           | ilyen ,  | such          |      |
| ny | ”         | n  | ”  | new       | ”           | nyúl ,   | a hare        |      |
| sz | ”         | s  | ”  | so        | ”           | szabó ,  | a tailor      |      |
| ty | ”         | t  | ”  | tune      | ”           | tyúk ,   | a hen         |      |
| zs | ”         | z  | ”  | azure     | }           | ”               | zsir , | lard |
|           | or French | j  | in | je | }           |                 |               |      |

These compound consonants must be looked upon as single letters, each representing a single and distinct sound or articulation, and cannot be divided in spelling or pronunciation.

If in a word the sound of a compound consonant is heard with greater stress, that is, where these letters are to be written doubly, they are thus abbreviated:—

For cscs, ccs; for gygy, ggy; &c.

But if these consonants meet only through the use of suffixes or the formation of compound words, they must be written out in full. Also, when a word is broken off at the end of a line, the missing letter is to be replaced.

asszony (woman) is divided thus: asz-szony.

The Hungarian language has no mute letters. Every character is to be pronounced distinctly and in full, always retaining the same sound, and each word has as many syllables as it contains vowels.

|              |            |     |       |            |                   |                       |
|--------------|------------|-----|-------|------------|-------------------|-----------------------|
| fi    | aim | has | three | syllables, | and is pronounced | fi-a-im .      |
| leány | aié | ”   | five  | ”          | ”                 | le-ány-a-i-é . |

The emphasis always rests on the first syllable.

FOOTNOTES:

[1] This e is sometimes pronounced like e in men, especially in the case of words in which it occurs several times; e.g. engedelmes (pronounced angedalmash).

CHAPTER II

THE ARTICLE

The Definite Article is a or az.

a is used before words beginning with a consonant.

az is used before words beginning with a vowel.

Whenever any definite object is referred to the definite article is used.

a fiú, the boy; az alma, the apple.

The definite article is used in many cases where it would not be used in English; for example, even after a demonstrative adjective, or where a pronoun precedes the noun.

ez az alma; az én fiam.
(this apple;) (my son.)

jobban szeretem a selymet mint a vásznat.
(better do I like silk than linen.)

In such cases the article must not be translated into English.

N.B.—The definite article az must not be confused with the demonstrative adjective az, that. The article, when accompanying the demonstrative adjective, follows it: e.g. az az ember, that man; az a madár, that bird.

The names of persons, towns, countries, months, and days do not take the article.

|                               |         |
|-------------------------------|---------|
| Károly,                | Charles |
| Magyarország,          | Hungary |
| Európa,                | Europe  |
| Berlin,                | Berlin  |
| január, <sup>[2]</sup> | January |
| hétfő, <sup>[2]</sup>  | Monday  |

The names of mountains, rivers, and lakes take the article.

a Duna, the Danube
a Balaton, Lake Balaton
a Kárpátok, the Carpathians a Gellérthegy, Gellért hill

magyarországi, Hungarian
angol, English
berlini, belonging to Berlin
német, German

Similarly,

egy angol, an Englishman
egy német, a German

The Indefinite Article is egy, which is also the numeral, one.

The indefinite article is much less frequently used in Hungarian than in English. It is not necessary to use egy before a noun if spoken of in general terms only.

embert láttam, I saw (or have seen) a man.
almát ettem, I have eaten an apple.

egy must never be used before an adjective or noun used as a predicate.
Thus—

Szent István király volt, St. Stephen was a king.
A sas madár, the eagle (is) a bird.
József jó fiú, Joseph (is) a good boy.

egy should be used in cases where its meaning is that of “a certain.”

volt egyszer egy ember aki, stb., there was once a man who, &c.

egy is used when stress is laid on the singleness of the object.

csak egy embert láttam, I saw only one man.
egy almát ettem, I have eaten one apple.

The article is not inflected for number, gender, or case.

az ember, az emberek, az embernek, az embereknek.
(the man) (the men) (to the man) (to the men).

EXERCISE I.

A piros virág. Az atya ír. A szép asszony. Ez a fiú. Ez a nagy ház. A jó emberek. Kutyát láttam. Csak egy kutyát láttam. Az az alma.

The swift horse. That brave man. I have eaten only one plum. I saw a beautiful garden. The mother is gentle. Roses are beautiful flowers.

FOOTNOTES:

[2] The names of months and days all begin with small letters. So do the names of towns and countries when used as adjectives.

CHAPTER III

THE NOUN

Number, Case, and Person are expressed by means of Suffixes.

There are also suffixes to express place and direction.

These suffixes are joined to the root, which sometimes undergoes orthographical changes.

Place and direction are also indicated by means of postpositions, which, like the suffixes mentioned above, are equivalent to the prepositions of English grammar, but which, as their name indicates, follow the noun instead of preceding it.

Postpositions only differ from the suffixes which also indicate place and direction by being separate from the noun.

NUMBER.

Rule.—The plural is formed by adding -k to nouns ending with a vowel, or -ak, -ok, -ek, or -ök to nouns ending with a consonant.

|             |           |        |               |
|-------------|-----------|--------|---------------|
| rigó | (thrush), | plural | rigók  |
| ház  | (house),  | ”      | házak  |
| kert | (garden), | ”      | kertek |

a and e at the end of a noun become lengthened in the plural.

|            |           |     |             |
|------------|-----------|-----|-------------|
| fa  | (tree),   | pl. | fák  |
| eke | (plough), | pl. | ekék |

Nouns ending with a consonant preceded by á or é shorten these vowels in the plural, except those ending in -ság, -ség, -ás, or -és, and a few monosyllabic nouns.

|              |         |        |                |
|--------------|---------|--------|----------------|
| madár | (bird), | plural | madarak |
| kerék | (wheel) | ”      | kerekek |

|                               |   |                   |
|-------------------------------|---|-------------------|
| But, ritkaság (rarity) | ” | ritkaságok |
| szépség (beauty)       | ” | szépségek  |
| vágás (a stroke)       | ” | vágások    |
| vetés (a crop)         | ” | vetések    |

If the final consonants of the last two syllables in polysyllabic nouns would admit of an easy pronunciation without the intervention of a vowel, the vowel of the last syllable is generally dropped in the plural. This contraction mostly takes place when the consonants m-r, k-r, k-l, or reversed, r-m, r-k, and l-k meet.

|                             |   |               |
|-----------------------------|---|---------------|
| lélek (soul), plural |   | lelkek |
| ökör (bull)          | ” | ökrök  |
| járom (yoke)         | ” | jármok |

The following monosyllabic nouns ending with a vowel take v in the plural; some of them at the same time shorten their vowel:—

|                           |                                                                             |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| kő (stone), plural | kövek                                                                |
| lé (juice)         | ” levek                                                              |
| ló (horse)         | ” lovak                                                              |
| fű (grass)         | ” füvek                                                              |
| cső (tube)         | ” csövek                                                             |
| tó (lake)          | ” tavak                                                              |
| tő (stem)          | ” tövek                                                              |
| hó (snow)          | ” havak                                                              |
| mű (work of art)   | ” művek                                                              |
| szó (word)         | ” { szavak (consecutive words){ szók (disconnected words) |

NOTE.—Nouns are always used in the singular when preceded by a numeral or any other word expressing quantity, and take the verb in the singular.

két ember (two men); sok fa (many trees).

három ember van a kertben, three men are in the garden.

Many nouns in Hungarian are used in the singular which are in English used in the plural; for example, the names of the various parts of the human body, and of articles of clothing, which occur in pairs—eyes, hands, gloves, boots, &c.

Szép szeme van, she has pretty eyes (literally, a pretty eye).

Fázik a kezem, my hands are cold (literally, my hand is cold).

Keztyűt, czipőt, vettem, I have bought gloves, shoes (literally, glove, shoe).

If one desires to say exactly the quantity bought, one may say, egy pár keztyűt, két pár keztyűt, &c., but if the quantity is not mentioned, it is sufficient to use the singular accusative, as in the above example. If the plural were used it would mean many pairs, and it would then be better to say how many.

It may be well here to point out how such a notion as “a pair of,” “a cup of,” “a pound of,” is expressed in Hungarian. The English “of” has no equivalent in Hungarian.

|                      |                                                      |
|----------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| A pair of shoes      | = egy pár czipő (lit. a pair shoe).           |
| A cup of coffee      | = egy csésze kávé (lit. a cup coffee).        |
| A bottle of wine     | = egy üveg bor .                              |
| A kilogram of apples | = egy kilogramm alma (lit. a kilogram apple). |

In such cases, if the accusative case has to be used, it is only the second of the two nouns that takes the accusative ending -t (see below).

I have bought a bottle of wine = vettem egy üveg bor-t.

Collective nouns are used in the plural when several lots or quantities of the same genus are referred to, but in all other cases they are used in the singular. In Hungarian all generic names are collective nouns, as, for instance, the names of fruits, corn, vegetables, minerals, &c., and stand in the singular.

alma, apple or apples.

buza, wheat.

borsó, a pea or peas.

egy font alma, a pound of apples; szeretem az almát, I like apples.

két itcze borsó, two quarts of peas; borsót vettem, I have bought some peas.

But, a magyar buzák jobbak mint az oroszok.

Hungarian wheats (are) better than Russian.

EXERCISE II.

A házak magasak és a kertek nagyok. A rigók madarak. A vetések zöldek. Az ökrök erősek. A tavak kékek. A hó fehér és hideg. A ló és a kutya házi állatok. A kertben sok szép virág van. Az emberek a kertben vannak.

Apples and pears are pleasant fruits. The dog and the cat are domestic animals. Many strong horses are in the stable. Three beautiful trees are in the garden. Dogs are faithful friends.

| istálló,    | stable   |
| hű,         | faithful |
| barát,      | friend   |

CASES OF THE NOUN.

There are four cases:—Nominative, Genitive or Possessive, Dative and Accusative.

The Nominative is the subject of the verb and is the simple word.

THE GENITIVE.

Two different suffixes are used to indicate the genitive or possessive case.

(1) When the names of the possessor and the thing possessed are both mentioned the name of the possessor takes the suffix -nak for flat-sounding words and -nek for sharp-sounding words to indicate the possessive case.

At the same time the name of the thing possessed takes the personal suffix -a, -e or -ja, -je (see Chapter IV.).

Péter-nek kert-je, Peter's garden.

Péter-nek a kert-je szép, Peter's garden is beautiful.

The genitive with -nak, -nek, stands in an adjectival relation to the thing possessed. In Péternek kertje, Péternek is the attribute to kertje.

This construction, while grammatically correct, is somewhat cumbersome, and as a rule, when the possessive stands only as attribute to its object, it is not inflected, as the object is already inflected with the personal suffix, which expresses amply the relation between possessor and thing possessed.

Thus, Péter kert-je is more usual than Péter-nek kert-je; in fact, this construction is almost invariably employed.

az ember kabát-ja, the man's coat.

Note.—When several substantives occur in succession, and all except the first and last are both possessors and things possessed, while all the things possessed take the personal suffix, only the last possessor takes the genitive suffix, which must never be omitted.

A fa lomb-ja szín-é-nek szépség-e. The beauty of the colour of the foliage of the tree.

VAN. VANNAK.

The Hungarian has no word corresponding to the English verb “to have,” but expresses possession by the possessive case with the verb van, “is,” or other parts of the verb lenni, “to be.”

Péter-nek van ház-a, Peter has a house (literally, there is a house of Peter's).

Péter-nek vannak ház-ai, Peter has houses (literally, there are houses of Peter's).

The form of the possessive with the verb van is called its subjective form, and is always to be translated into English by the nominative and the verb “to have.” With this construction, -nek or -nak must never be omitted if the name of the possessor is mentioned, while the thing possessed must always take the personal ending.

Note.—The name of the possessor is not always mentioned, the personal ending, or the context, being sufficient to show who the possessor is.

Tavasszal sok virág-unk lesz. We shall have many flowers in the spring.

Atyám örült, mert az ősszel sok gyümölcs-e volt. My father was glad, because he had abundant fruit in the autumn.

In this latter sentence neki is understood, but need not be expressed.

The other form, where it governs its object directly, that is, without van, is called its attributive form, and is to be rendered in English by the possessive case.

(2) When the name of the thing possessed is suppressed, the possessive case is indicated by the suffix -é or -éi; -é, if the thing possessed is a single object, -éi, when two or more objects are possessed.

Kinek a háza az? Az atyám-é.

Whose house is that? My father's.

Kinek a házai azok? Az atyám-éi.

Whose houses are those? My father's.

Az a ház az atyám-é.

That house is my father's.

This sentence in full would be: Az a ház az atyám háza, but háza is suppressed and the suffix -é is substituted for it.

This suffix -é or -éi is added to the plural if there are more than one possessor.

Kinek a szobája ez? A gyermek-ek-é.

Whose is this room? The children's.

Kinek a szobái ezek? A gyermek-ek-éi.

Whose are these rooms? The children's.

Note.—This form of the genitive, being a contraction of both possessor and object possessed, may be used as subject or predicate, and can be inflected like an ordinary noun, except that it cannot take the genitive ending again.

Házamat eladtam és Péter-é-t megvettem, I sold my house and bought Peter's.

Here Péter is in the genitive, and has taken also the accusative ending -t, which would be joined to the object were it expressed; thus, Házamat eladtam és Péternek ház-á-t megvettem.

EXERCISE III.

A madarak dala szép. A fák lombja zöld. Péter háza és kertje nagy. A háznak sok ablaka van. Az ökrök járma erős. Jánosnak négy lova van. A rózsáknak édes illata van. Kinek a kertje ez? A szomszédé.

The scent of the flowers is pleasant. Whose are those fine horses? They belong to the king. The colour of the roses of that garden is lovely. That tall house belongs to Peter. The neighbour has a large garden.

dal,            song
lomb,          foliage

|                  |                 |
|------------------|-----------------|
| ablak,    | window          |
| négy,     | four            |
| édes,     | sweet           |
| illat,    | scent           |
| szomszéd, | neighbour       |
| szép,     | fine, beautiful |
| szín,     | colour          |
| gyönyörű, | lovely          |

THE DATIVE.

The dative suffix is also -nak or -nek, which corresponds to the English “to” or “for.”

Ezt Péter-nek adom, I give this to Peter.

Szénát viszek a lovak-nak, I carry hay to the horses.

N.B.—This dative suffix, unlike the genitive -nak, -nek, must never be omitted.

THE ACCUSATIVE.

The distinctive mark of the accusative, both in the singular and in the plural, is the ending -t.

Rule 1.—This -t is added directly to

(a) all substantives ending in a vowel.

|              |         |                   |
|--------------|---------|-------------------|
| férfi | (man),  | acc. férfi |
| rózsa | (rose)  | ” rózsát   |
| kefe  | (brush) | ” kefét    |
| erdő  | (wood)  | ” erdőt    |

Note.—Final -a and -e become lengthened in the accusative.

(b) Substantives ending in j, i, if they are not monosyllables, ny, s (if preceded by a long vowel), dissyllables ending in sz and z, and monosyllables ending in r (except vár, a castle).

|               |          |                    |
|---------------|----------|--------------------|
| zörej  | (noise), | acc. zörejt |
| asztal | (table)  | ” asztalt   |
| leány  | (girl)   | ” leányt    |
| kár    | (damage) | ” kárt      |

|               |           |   |                |
|---------------|-----------|---|----------------|
| hús    | (meat)    | ” | húst    |
| vadász | (hunter)  | ” | vadászt |
| vitész | (warrior) | ” | vitészt |

Rule 2. -t is preceded by a vowel in the case of words ending with a consonant.

(a) By a (for flat words).

In monosyllabic substantives containing a long or short a (excepting those covered by the preceding rule).

|             |            |      |               |
|-------------|------------|------|---------------|
| száj | (mouth),   | acc. | száját |
| váz  | (skeleton) | ”    | vázat  |
| vaj  | (butter)   | ”    | vajat  |

In most monosyllables containing i.

|            |           |      |              |
|------------|-----------|------|--------------|
| díj | (salary), | acc. | díjat |
| híd | (bridge)  | ”    | hidat |

Also, in many nouns which shorten the long á of their last syllable.

|              |         |      |                |
|--------------|---------|------|----------------|
| madár | (bird), | acc. | madarat |
|--------------|---------|------|----------------|

(b) By o (for flat words).

|                |           |      |                  |
|----------------|-----------|------|------------------|
| narancs | (orange), | acc. | narancsot |
| kalap   | (hat)     | ”    | kalapot   |

(c) By e (for sharp words).

In all substantives whose roots have i, e, or é, for their radical vowels.

|                  |           |      |                    |
|------------------|-----------|------|--------------------|
| gyermek   | (child),  | acc. | gyermeket   |
| vitészség | (bravery) | ”    | vitészséget |

In monosyllables with a final l, or with another final consonant preceded by l or r.

|              |          |      |                |
|--------------|----------|------|----------------|
| fül   | (ear),   | acc. | fület   |
| föld  | (earth)  | ”    | földet  |
| völgy | (valley) | ”    | völgyet |

(d) By ö (for sharp words).

In substantives having as their radical vowels ö, ő, ü, or ű, and not covered by the preceding rules.

|              |           |      |                |
|--------------|-----------|------|----------------|
| ezüst | (silver), | acc. | ezüstöt |
| füst  | (smoke)   | ”    | füstöt  |
| köd   | (fog)     | ”    | ködöt   |

CONTRACTION.

The rule for contraction is the same in the case of the addition of the accusative ending as in that of the addition of the plural ending (see page 8).

|              |         |         |                |      |               |
|--------------|---------|---------|----------------|------|---------------|
| lélek | (soul), | plural, | lelkek, | acc. | lelket |
| dolog | (task)  | ”       | dolgok, | ”    | dolgot |

A substantive is declined in the plural in the same way as in the singular.

|             |                    |
|-------------|--------------------|
| Nom. | a házak     |
| Gen. | a házak-é   |
| Dat. | a házak-nak |
| Acc. | a házak-at  |

EXERCISE IV.

Buzát adok a madaraknak. Képeket mutatok a gyermekeknek. Az ember vizet visz a lovaknak és az ökröknek. A hó takarót ad a földnek. A kert gyümölcsöt hoz a gazdának. A tónak a partja virágos és a vize tiszta. A kert füve zöld és fái magasak. Látok egy gazdaságot, két házat és három lovat. A munka díja nagy. A madarat a kertben látom.

The men have a beautiful garden. The king's palace is an imposing building. I do not much admire the houses. Whose books are those? They belong to the student. I shall give this gun to the hunter. I like beautiful flowers.

| nem,         | no, not      |
| nagyon,      | much         |
| bámulom,     | I admire     |
| tanuló,      | student      |
| fogom adni,  | I shall give |
| puska,       | gun          |
| tiszta,      | clean, pure  |

PERSONAL SUFFIXES

As already mentioned, the name of the object possessed is always inflected.

Péternek kalap-ja (Peter's hat).

In Hungarian, the function of the English possessive pronouns (my, thy, &c.) is performed by suffixes.

atyá-m (my father); atyá-d (thy father).

These suffixes are as follows:—

(A.) Where the Object possessed is Singular.

Flat Words. Sharp Words.

|         |            |                  |                  |                |
|---------|------------|------------------|------------------|----------------|
| Sing.:  | 1st person | -m        | -m        | my             |
|         | 2nd "      | -d        | -d        | thy            |
|         | 3rd "      | -ja       | -je       | his, hers, its |
| Plural: | 1st "      | -nk       | -nk       | our            |
|         | 2nd "      | -tok      | -tek, tök | your           |
|         | 3rd "      | -jok, juk | -jök, jük | their          |

When a word ends in a vowel these suffixes are added directly to the word, the vowels a and e being lengthened, as in the case of the formation of the plural.

Examples.

atya (father)

|                                                     |                                                 |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| atyá-m , my father                           | atyá-nk , our father                     |
| atyá-d , thy father                          | atyá-tok , your father                   |
| aty(á)-ja , his or her father <sup>[3]</sup> | aty(á)-juk , their father <sup>[3]</sup> |

eke (plough)

|                                   |                               |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| eké-m , my plough          | eké-nk , our plough    |
| eké-d , thy plough         | eké-tek , your plough  |
| eké-je , his or her plough | eké-jük , their plough |

A large number of words drop the j in the third person singular and plural.

|                       |              |               |
|-----------------------|--------------|---------------|
| láb (foot)     | lába  | lábuk  |
| bér (wages)    | bére  | bérük  |
| szív (heart)   | szive | szivük |
| toll (feather) | tolla | tolluk |
| orr (nose)     | orra  | orruk  |

In general, when a word ends with a consonant the j is omitted, but words ending in two different consonants usually retain the j.

|                      |               |                |
|----------------------|---------------|----------------|
| föld (ground) | földje | foldjük |
| kert (garden) | kertje | kertjük |
| domb (hill)   | dombja | dombjuk |
| rojt (fringe) | rojtja | rojtjuk |

There are exceptions, however.

|                              |                  |                   |
|------------------------------|------------------|-------------------|
| gyümölcs (fruit)      | gyümölcse | gyümölcsük |
| ércz (metal)          | ércze     | érczük     |
| kilincs (door handle) | kilincse  | kilincsök  |

(B.) Where the Objects possessed are more than one.

The mark of plurality is the vowel i in the suffixes.

Flat and Sharp Words.

|         |            |                                          |                |
|---------|------------|------------------------------------------|----------------|
| Sing.:  | 1st person | -im                               | my             |
|         | 2nd "      | -id                               | thy            |
|         | 3rd "      | -i                                | his, hers, its |
| Plural: | 1st "      | -ink                              | our            |
|         | 2nd "      | -itok (flat), itek (sharp) | your           |
|         | 3rd "      | -ik                               | their          |

Examples.

hajó (ship) szoba (room) eke (plough)

|         |            |                  |                   |                 |
|---------|------------|------------------|-------------------|-----------------|
| Sing.:  | 1st person | hajó-im   | szobá-im   | eké-im   |
|         | 2nd "      | hajó-id   | szobá-id   | eké-id   |
|         | 3rd "      | hajó-i    | szobá-i    | eké-i    |
| Plural: | 1st "      | hajó-ink  | szobá-ink  | eké-ink  |
|         | 2nd "      | hajó-itok | szobá-itok | eké-itek |
|         | 3rd "      | hajó-ik   | szobá-ik   | eké-ik   |

Nouns ending in a consonant link these endings by means of a vowel.

Examples.

könyv (book);

ház (house).

1. The Object in the Singular.

- |                                   |                                  |
|-----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1. könyv-em , my book.     | 1. ház-am , my house.     |
| 2. könyv-ed , thy book.    | 2. ház-ad , thy house.    |
| 3. könyv-e , his book.     | 3. ház-a , his house.     |
| 1. könyv-ünk , our book.   | 1. ház-unk , our house.   |
| 2. könyv-etek , your book. | 2. ház-atok , your house. |
| 3. könyv-ük , their book.  | 3. ház-ok , their house.  |

2. The Object in the Plural.

- |                                     |                                    |
|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 1. könyv-eim , my books.     | 1. ház-aim , my houses.     |
| 2. könyv-eid , thy books.    | 2. ház-aid , thy houses.    |
| 3. könyv-ei , his books.     | 3. ház-ai , his houses.     |
| 1. könyv-eink , our books.   | 1. ház-aink , our houses.   |
| 2. könyv-eitek , your books. | 2. ház-aitok , your houses. |
| 3. könyv-eik , their books.  | 3. ház-aik , their houses.  |

Words which contract before adding the plural endings, also contract when adding these personal suffixes.

|                          |               |                              |
|--------------------------|---------------|------------------------------|
| ökör (ox), plural | ökrök  | ökröm (my ox), &c.    |
| malom (mill) "    | malmok | malmom (my mill), &c. |
| lélek (soul) "    | lelkek | lelkem (my soul), &c. |

Note.—If the possessor is the first or the second person, the pronoun must not be put before it ordinarily, as the suffix already indicates to whom the object belongs. The personal pronoun is only to be used when it is desired to lay stress on this ownership, as, az én könyvem, my book (not yours); a te könyved, thy book (not another's).

A noun to which has been added a personal suffix can take further suffixes.

ezt atyá-m-nak adom, I am giving this to my father.
a hajó-m-at szeretem, I like my boat.

EXERCISE V.

A házak ablakai fényesek és ajtói magasak. A gazdának hat lova, nyolc ökre és tíz tehene van. Kié az eke és az ásó? A gazdáé. A hű és szorgalmas szolga bére nagy. Kertem gyümölcsei érettek. Az én kertem kisebb mint a barátomé. A körte íze kellemesebb mint az almáé. A mi atyánk idősebb mint a te atyád. A rózsza színe piros, a búzavirágé kék.

My father's books are very interesting. The scent of the roses is pleasant. The colour of the rose is red. The farmer has many valuable horses. The flowers of my father's garden are beautiful. Whose is that book? It belongs to my friend's little boy.

|                     |                |
|---------------------|----------------|
| fényes,      | bright         |
| ajtó,        | door           |
| hat,         | six            |
| tíz,         | ten            |
| tehén,       | cow            |
| szorgalmas,  | industrious    |
| szolga,      | servant        |
| bér,         | wages          |
| érett,       | ripe           |
| kis, kisebb, | small, smaller |
| barát,       | friend         |
| íz,          | flavour        |
| idős,        | old            |
| búzavirág,   | cornflower     |
| érdekes,     | interesting    |
| értékes,     | valuable       |

FOOTNOTES:

[3] anya (mother), atya (father), and bátya (elder brother), drop the á in the third person singular and plural.

CHAPTER V

SUFFIXES FOR PLACE, DIRECTION, ETC.

Where in English a preposition would be used, in Hungarian either a suffix, or a postposition (see next chapter) is employed.

In the house, a ház-ban.

Flat. Sharp.

1. -ban, -ben = in.

a ház-ban, a könyv-ben.

2. -n (after vowels) = on, at, in.

az ajtó-n, on the door.

Note.—a and e become lengthened when adding -n: as, eke, eké-n.

- on, -en, -ön (after a consonant) = on, at, in.

az asztal-on, on the table.

a föld-ön, on the ground.

Budapest-en, in Budapest.

3. -nál, -nél = with, at the house of, at, among.

ő atyám-nál van, he is with my father, or at my father's house.

a francia udvar-nál, at the French Court.

a görögök-nél, among the Greeks.

(b) Suffixes answering the Question whither.

Flat. Sharp.

4. -ba, -be = into.

a ház-ba megyek, I am going into the house.
tedd a terem-be, put it into the hall.

5. -ra, -re = towards, on, upon.

észak-ra, towards the north.
tedd az asztal-ra, put it on the table.
tíz-re jár az óra, it is getting towards ten o'clock.

6. -hoz, -hez, -höz = to, towards.

a barátom-hoz megyek, I am going to my friend.
menj az épület-hez, go to the building.

(c) Suffixes answering the Question whence.

7. -ból, -ből = out of.

kimentem a ház-ból, I went out of the house.
a halat kifogták a víz-ből, they have drawn a fish out of the water.

8. -ról, -ről = from (downwards from).

a kémény leesett a ház-ról (the chimney fell from the house).

9. -től, -től = from.

a levél az atyám-tól jön, the letter comes from my father.

Other Suffixes.

-ig answers the question How long? or How far?

a ház-ig, as far as the house.
két évig, for two years.

-ért = on account of, because of, for.

barátság-ért, for friendship.
pénz-ért, for money.

Flat. Sharp.

-val, -vel = with, by means of.

ásó-val, with a spade.

Note.—-val, -vel, if joined to a noun ending in a consonant, drops the v, and doubles the final consonant of the noun.

kéz (hand), kéz-zel (by hand), kezem-mel (with my hand).

-vá, -vé is used to indicate the change of an object into something else.

katoná-vá lenni, to become a soldier.

Lót neje só-vá változott, Lot's wife was turned into salt.

Note.—The above rule relating to -val, -vel, applies also to -vá, -vé.

-úl, -ül tells for what purpose a thing has been done.

példá-úl, for example; mintá-úl, as a pattern.

-ként = like, as.

nagybátyját atyja-ként szereti, he loves his uncle like a father.

-stul, stül = together with.

levettem a rózsát szárástul, I plucked the rose with its stalk.

All these suffixes can be used after plural or personal suffixes have already been added to a noun.

ház, ház-ak-ért, ház-am-ért.

They can also themselves take the personal endings mentioned in the previous chapter.

Thus, instead of joining -ben (in) to the pronoun én (I), to express the notion “in me,” the personal suffix m (with the proper connecting vowel) is added to the prepositional affix -ben: thus, “in me” becomes bennem, “in thee,” benned, &c.

|                   |       |                                                                   |
|-------------------|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ben (in)   | gives | bennem, benned, benne,bennünk, bennetek, bennök.      |
| n (on)     | „     | rajtam, rajtad, rajta,rajtunk, rajtatok, rajtok.      |
| nál (with) | „     | nálam, nálad, nála,nálunk, nálatok, nálók.            |
| be (into)  | „     | belém, beléd, belé (beléje),belénk, belétek, beléjük. |

|                            |   |                                                                          |
|----------------------------|---|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ra, re (on to)      | „ | reám (rám), reád (rád), reá (rá),reánk (ránk), rátok, rájok. |
| hoz (towards)       | „ | hozzám, hozzád, hozzá (hozzája),hozzánk, hozzátok, hozzájuk. |
| ből (out of)        | „ | belőlem, belőled, belőle,belőlünk, belőletek, belőlök.       |
| ról (down from)     | „ | rólam, rólad, róla,rólunk, rólatok, róluk.                   |
| től (from)          | „ | tőlem, tőled, tőle,tőlünk, tőletek, tőlük.                   |
| ért (on account of) | „ | értem, érted, érte,értünk, értetek, értök.                   |
| vel (with)          | „ | velem, veled, vele,velünk, veletek, velök.                   |

POSTPOSITIONS

These resemble the suffixes just enumerated, except in the circumstance that they are not joined to the noun, but stand after it as separate words.

az egér fut a macska elől, the mouse runs from the cat.

Many have three forms, according as they answer the question When? Whither? Whence?

alatt, under (stationary): a macska az asztal alatt van, the cat is under the table.

alá, under (towards): menj a fa alá, go under the tree.

alól, under (from under): a növény kikel a föld alól, the plant comes from under the ground.

Such postpositions may be tabulated as follows:—

|                  | Where?  | Whither? | Whence? |
|------------------|----------------|-----------------|----------------|
| under            | alatt   | alá      | alól    |
| before           | előtt   | elé      | elől    |
| above            | fölött  | fölé     | fölől   |
| around           | körött  | köré     | körül   |
| between or among | között  | közé     | közül   |
| behind           | mögött  | mögé     | mögül   |
| beside           | mellett | mellé    | mellől  |
| on               | hegyett | hegyé    |                |
| towards          |                | felé     |                |
| away from        |                |                 | felől   |

|                 |                      |
|-----------------|----------------------|
| ellen,   | against              |
| gyanánt, | as, for              |
| iránt,   | towards              |
| miatt,   | because of           |
| mulva,   | after, at the end of |
| nélkül,  | without              |
| óta,     | since                |
| szerint, | according to         |

|                 |                    |
|-----------------|--------------------|
| után,    | after              |
| végett,  | for the purpose of |
| helyett, | instead of         |

The above postpositions do not necessitate any orthographical modification of the preceding substantive.

a Duna mellett, beside the Danube.

The following postpositions do necessitate some change.

közel, near.

képest, in comparison with, in proportion to.

Before these the substantive takes -hoz, -hez, or -höz.

a templom-hoz közel, near the church.

öccsé-hez képest magas, he is tall compared with his younger brother.

fogva, since, by, from.

The substantive takes the suffix -nál, -nél, or -től, -től.

kezé-nél fogva, by his hand.

tavasztól fogva építik ezt a házat, they have been building this house since the spring.

nézve, in regard to.

The substantive takes the suffix -ra, -re.

a dolog barátom-ra nézve kellemetlen, the business is disagreeable as regards my friend.

a külsejére nézve megnyerő, he is pleasing as regards his appearance.

együtt, together with.

The substantive takes the suffix -val, -vel.

Sándor Mari-val együtt érkezett, Alexander has arrived together with Mary.

Note.—együtt can also be used as an adverb, meaning together.

a három ember együtt érkezett, the three men arrived together.

The following postpositions necessitate the addition to the substantives of the ending -n, -on, -en, or -ön.

a becsáron alul adták el mindenét, all his belongings were sold under their value.

át, által, across, over.

a katonák a hidon át mentek el, the soldiers went away over the bridge.

belül, within, inside.

az ajtón belül, inside the door.

a felhőkön fölül, above the clouds.

innen, this side of.

a folyón innen, this side of the river

keresztül, through, across.

az erdőn keresztül, through the wood.

kívül, outside.

The above postpositions (with the exception of gyanánt, mulva, óta, közel, képest, fogva, nézve, együtt, át, belül, innen, keresztül, and túl) may, like the suffixes in the preceding chapter, take the personal endings.

|                   |            |                   |                   |

| kívülem ,  | besides me | kívüled ,  | besides thee, &c. |

alúl, belül, fölül, kívül, közel, and túl can take the suffix for direction -ról, ről (from), and they then mean from under, from within, &c.

CHAPTER VII

THE ADJECTIVE

The adjective when used attributively is indeclinable.

A szép rózsa, the beautiful rose.

A szép rózsák, the beautiful roses.

Látom a szép rózsákat, I see the beautiful roses.

But when used predicatively, the adjective is declinable.

A rózsák szép-ek, the roses are beautiful.

Also, when the adjective is used by itself as a substantive, it is declinable.

Add nekem a könyvet.    Melyiket?    A nagy-ot.

Give me the book.    Which one?    The big (one).

Add nekem a könyveket.    Melyikeket?    A nagy-okat.

Give me the books.    Which ones?    The big (ones).

An adjective when declined is inflected in the same manner as a substantive. In forming the plural, however, the following exceptions occur.

Adjectives ending in ü take the plural ending -ek.

Adjectives ending in i take the plural ending -ek or -ak.

gyönyörű (lovely), plural gyönyörű-ek

régi (old)    ”    régi-ek

párisi (Parisian)    ”    párisi-ak

In all other cases adjectives follow the same rules as substantives.

Among adjectives are reckoned the participles of the verb, which, when used as adjectives, are inflected like them.

COMPARISON OF ADJECTIVES.

The comparative is formed by adding -bb to adjectives ending in a vowel, or -abb, -ebb, or -obb, to those ending in a consonant.

gyönyörű (lovely), comp. gyönyörű-bb nagy (great) " nagy-obb

After sibilants, which would admit the sound b to be heard without an intermediate vowel, often only -b is added to form the comparative, but it is preferable to use a connecting vowel, unless it is not desired to lengthen the word by a syllable, as, for instance, in poetry. It is correct, for example, to write magasb (higher), though magasabb is more usual.

Final a and e are lengthened when the comparative suffix -bb is added.

drága (dear), drágá-bb; fekete (black), feketé-bb.

Final ó shortens its sound only in jó (good), jobb.

The following are somewhat irregular:—

|               |              |       |                 |
|---------------|--------------|-------|-----------------|
| szép   | (beautiful), | comp. | szebb    |
| könnyű | (easy)       | "     | könnyebb |
| ifju   | (young)      | "     | ifjabb   |
| hosszú | (long)       | "     | hosszabb |
| sok    | (much)       | "     | több     |

Comparisons are made with the aid of the conjunction mint, as, than.

Ez nagyobb mint az, this is greater than that.

A méter hosszabb mint a rőf, the metre is longer than the yard.

as ... as ... is expressed by olyan ... mint ...

Az én házam olyan nagy mint a tied, my house is as large as yours.

Egy font nem olyan nehéz mint egy kilogramm, a pound is not so heavy as a kilogram.

When the comparative is used by itself as a substantive, it takes the affix -ik.

szebb, a szebbik; nagyobb, a nagyobbik.

A két folyó közül ez a mélyebbik, of the two rivers, this is the deeper.

This rule applies also to the superlative.

The superlative is invariably formed by prefixing leg- to the comparative.

|                      |                  |      |                    |
|----------------------|------------------|------|--------------------|
| drága , comp. | drágább   | sup. | leg-drágább |
| nagy "        | nagyobb " |      | leg-nagyobb |
| erős "        | erősebb " |      | leg-erősebb |
| sok "         | több "    |      | leg-több    |

Cardinals.—These are declinable like other adjectives when the substantives which they qualify are not expressed.

They also form derivatives which answer the question: hányan (how many)? For instance: How many ran away? Hárman (= három-an, the o being dropped). The terminations of these derivatives are -an and -en, as, négy-en, öt-en.

egy = egyedül (alone), and kettő = ketten, form their derivatives irregularly; három and ezer become contracted: hárman, ezren.

Száz (100), ezer (1000), and millió may be used as substantives and form plurals if the number of hundreds, &c., is indefinite; as, százak (hundreds), ezrek (thousands), milliók (millions). If, however, the number is stated, the singular must be used; as három száz (three hundred), tíz ezer (ten thousand).

Numerals

|                   | Cardinals.       | Ordinals.     | Fractionals.      | Multiplicatives. |

|-------------------|-------------------|----------------|---------------|-----------|----------------|
| 22 <sup>[4]</sup> | huszonkét (kettő) | huszonkettedik | huszonketted, | 1/22      | huszankétszer  |
| 30                | harminc           | harmincadik    | harmincad,    | 1/30      | harmincszor    |
| 31                | harmincegy        | harmincegyedik | harmincegyed, | 1/31      | harmincegyszer |
| 40                | negyven           | negyvenedik    | negyvened,    | 1/40      | negyvenszer    |
| 50                | ötven             | ötvenedik      | ötvened,      | 1/50      | ötvenszer      |
| 60                | hatvan            | hatvanadik     | hatvanad,     | 1/60      | hatvanszor     |
| 70                | hetven            | hetvenedik     | hetvened,     | 1/70      | hetvenszer     |
| 80                | nyolcvan          | nyolcvanadik   | nyolcvanad,   | 1/80      | nyolcvanszor   |
| 90                | kilencven         | kilencvenedik  | kilencvened,  | 1/90      | kilencvenszer  |
| 100               | száz              | századik       | század,       | 1/100     | százszor       |
| 1,000             | ezer              | ezredik        | ezred,        | 1/1000    | ezerszer       |
| 10,000            | tízezer           | tízezredik     | tízezred,     | 1/10000   | tízezerszer    |
| 100,000           | százezer          | százezredik    | százezred,    | 1/100000  | százezerszer   |
| 1,000,000         | millió            | milliomodik    | milliomod,    | 1/1000000 | milliomszor    |

Ordinals.—These, like cardinals, are adjectives, and are declinable. They sometimes drop the ending -ik if another word is joined to them. This is not usually done, however, and occurs chiefly in words expressing age, as, másod-éves, in the second year; (“two years old” would be kétéves).

Ordinals form adverbs by dropping the ending -ik, and taking -SZOR or -SZER instead. Első is irregular, but the rest are regular.

|                  |        |                    |               |
|------------------|--------|--------------------|---------------|
| első,     | first  | először,    | firstly       |
| második,  | second | másodszor,  | secondly      |
| harmadik, | third  | harmadszor, | thirdly       |
| negyedik, | fourth | negyedszer, | fourthly, &c. |

Fractionals are also adjectives and declinable, but they do not form adverbs. They may be used in the plural, as, negyedek (quarters); e.g. a negyedek nagyobbak mint a nyolcadok (quarters are larger than eighths). If however, these fractionals are preceded by another numeral, they must be used in the singular; as, három negyed (three-fourths).

Multiplicatives are adverbs and therefore indeclinable.

Háromszor négy: tizenkettő, three times four are twelve.

Háromszor irtam levelet, I have written a letter three times.

These multiplicatives form adjectives by adding -es or -os. Kétszer-es, double; háromszor-os, triple, &c.

Other multiples, almost identical in meaning with kétszeres, háromszoros, &c., are:—

|                   |              |
|-------------------|--------------|
| egyes ,    | simple       |
| kettős ,   | double       |
| hármás ,   | triple       |
| négyes ,   | quadruple    |
| ötös ,     | quintuple    |
| hatos ,    | sextuple     |
| hetes ,    | septuple     |
| nyolczas , | octuple, &c. |

By adding -rétű to the cardinal numbers another kind of multiplicative is formed.

egyrétű, single; kétrétű, two-fold; hatrétű, six-fold, &c.

Indefinite Numerals:—

|                    |             |                                                            |

| annyi ,     | so much     |                                                            |
| számtalan , | innumerable |                                                            |

The Time.

The hours are expressed by the respective cardinal numbers, followed by the word óra (hour).

egy óra (one o'clock); tizenegy óra (eleven o'clock).

The half-hours and quarters are expressed by the suitable fraction, followed by the number of the next hour, which number may take the affix -ra, -re.

A quarter-past two = negyed háromra (lit. a quarter towards three).

Half-past two = fél háromra (lit. a half towards three).

A quarter to three = három negyed háromra (lit. three-quarters towards three).

N.B.—The affix is frequently omitted.

The minutes are indicated as follows:—

- 2.5 öt percczel mult kettő (lit. 5 minutes past two).
- 2.10 tíz percczel mult kettő (lit. 10 minutes past two).
- 2.20 tíz percz mulva fél három (lit. 10 minutes before half three).
- 2.25 öt percz mulva fél három (lit. 5 minutes before half three).
- 2.35 tíz percz mulva három negyed három (lit. 10 minutes before three-quarters of three).
- 2.40 öt percz mulva három negyed három (lit. 5 minutes before three-quarters of three).
- 2.50 tíz percz mulva három (lit. 10 minutes before three).
- 2.55 öt percz mulva három (lit. 5 minutes before three).

To ask the time, one says: Hány óra van? or, Hány az óra. (Hány = how much? how many?).

EXERCISE VII.

A liszt fehér, a cukor fehérebb és a hó a legfehérebb. A gazdag országok hatalmasak. A gondolat gyorsabb mint a villám. Atyám birtoka sokkal régibb mint a te atyádé. A kemény drágakövek a bányában vannak. A drágakövek nagyon kemények. Az utczában ötvenkét ház van. Negyedik<sup>[5]</sup> Henrik német császár és Hetedik<sup>[5]</sup> Gergely római pápa kortársak voltak. A gyümölcs egy harmada az enyém, két harmada bátyámé. Négy óra mult nyolcz percczel.

The richest men are not always the happiest. I see many lovely roses in your father's garden. My friend's house is much larger than this. There are seventeen houses in the street, and mine is the eleventh. I shall be at home at twenty-five minutes past six. The king's palace is the largest building in Budapest.

|-------------|-----------|-------------|------|
| én , | I         | mi , | we   |
| te , | thou      | ti , | you  |
| ő ,  | he or she | ők , | they |

Dative.

|                |              |                 |              |
|----------------|--------------|-----------------|--------------|
| nekem , | to or for me | nekünk , | to or for us |

| neki ,  | " him or her | nekik ,  | " them       |

Accusative.

|                |            |                                       |      |
|----------------|------------|---------------------------------------|------|
| engem , | me         | minket or bennünket ,   | us   |
| téged , | thee       | titeket or benneteket , | you  |
| őt ,    | him or her | őket ,                         | them |

The Possessive Pronoun.

(a) Where the object possessed is a single object.

|                |             |                 |        |
|----------------|-------------|-----------------|--------|
| enyém , | mine        | mienk ,  | ours   |
| tied ,  | thine       | tietek , | yours  |
| övé ,   | his or hers | övék ,   | theirs |

(b) Where more objects than one are possessed.

|                 |             |                  |        |
|-----------------|-------------|------------------|--------|
| enyéim , | mine        | mieink ,  | ours   |
| tieid ,  | thine       | tieitek , | yours  |
| övéi ,   | his or hers | övéik ,   | theirs |

This pronoun is not used attributively, like the English my, thy, &c., but predicatively, like mine, thine, &c.

Ez a könyv az enyém, a másik a tied, this book is mine, the other is yours.

Ezek a könyvek az enyém, these books are mine.

The force of the English my, thy, &c., is usually given by the personal endings, as explained in Chapter IV.: as, for instance, a kalap-om, my hat; az atyá-d, thy father. But if stress is laid on the fact that an object is mine, thine, &c., then the simple pronoun én, te, &c., is placed before the substantive, which takes in addition the personal endings.

Ez az én kalap-om, this is my hat.

A magasabbik az én ház-am, a kisebbik az övé, the taller is my house, the smaller is his.

As there is no verb “to have” in Hungarian, the word van (vannak, &c.) is often used with nekem, neked, &c., to express possession (see page 11), the object possessed taking the personal endings.

Nekem van toll-am, I have a pen.

Neked van kert-ed, thou hast a garden.

2. Reflexive Pronouns.

|                                  |                             |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| magam , myself            | magunk , ourselves   |
| magad , thyself           | magatok , yourselves |
| maga , himself or herself | maguk , themselves   |

These pronouns are inflected like substantives. They are sometimes used as equivalent to my own, thy own, &c., as, magam könyve, my own book; magad könyve, thy own book, &c. The object possessed, in such cases, always takes the third person singular personal ending, because magam könyve, magad könyve, &c., strictly means my self's book, thy self's book, &c.

The reflexive pronouns may take the possessive suffix -é; as, a magam-é, mine.

Sometimes these pronouns are used to express solitude; as, magam vagyok, I am alone.

Egymás is a Reciprocal Pronoun = one another, each other.

Szeretik egymást, they like one another.

Levelet irtak egymásnak, they wrote a letter to one another.

The Use of the Second Person.

In Hungarian, when speaking to one or more persons, the second person is only used among members of the same family or by intimate friends, or else in poetry.

In addressing strangers, instead of te, neked, &c., one must use ön or maga, maga being rather less formal than ön.

|         | Nominative. | Dative.  | Accusative. |
|---------|--------------------|-----------------|--------------------|
| Sing.:  | ön          | önnek    | önt         |
| Plural: | önök        | önöknek  | önöket      |
| Sing.:  | maga        | magának  | magát       |
| Plural: | maguk       | maguknak | magukat     |

These are all in the third person, and take the verb in the third person, e.g. ön elmegy, you are going away.

Similarly the words nagyságod, sir or madam; nagysád, madam; méltóságod, nagyméltóságod, your excellency, while formally in the second person, always takes the verb in the third person, e.g. nagyméltóságod tudja, your excellency knows.

kegyed (kegyetek, &c.) resembles ön, but is becoming old-fashioned.

3. Relative Pronouns.

ki, aki, who (only for persons).

mely, amely, which (for things determinate).

mi, ami, which (for things indeterminate, and when the pronoun relates to an abstract idea or a preceding phrase).

These pronouns are inflected like substantives.

4. Interrogative Pronouns.

mi? micsoda? what? (for things).
melyik? which? (for persons or things).

5. Demonstrative Pronouns.

|                        |              |                           |              |
|------------------------|--------------|---------------------------|--------------|
| ez,             | this         | az, <sup>[6]</sup> | that         |
| emez,           | this         | amaz,              | that         |
| ugyanez,        | this same    | ugyanaz,           | that same    |
| ezen,           | this         | azon,              | that         |
| ugyanezen,      | this same    | ugyanazon,         | that same    |
| ily, ilyen,     | such as this | oly, olyan,        | such as that |
| emily, emilyen, | ” ”          | amoly, amolyan,    | ” ”          |

emez, amaz, ezen, azon, ugyanezen and ugyanazon, are rarely used.

ezen, azon, stand before the substantive without the article, while ez and az are always followed by the article. Also, while ez and az are inflected like substantives, ezen and azon are incapable of inflection.

Before suffixes beginning with a consonant, ez and az change their final z into the first letter of such suffix; thus—

|            |               |         |                      |
|------------|---------------|---------|----------------------|
| instead of | az-nak | we have | annak.        |
| ”          | az-ba  | ”       | abba.         |
| ”          | az-ra  | ”       | arra, &amp;c. |

The suffixes -val, -vel, -vá, -vé, usually change their v into a letter like the final consonant of the word to which they are joined. When, however, they are combined with ez, az, either the v may change to z, or the z of the demonstrative to v. It is equally correct to write ezzel or evvel, azzal or avval.

These demonstratives may be used both as pronouns and as adjectives.

6. Definite Pronouns.

|                  |                  |               |                            |
|------------------|------------------|---------------|----------------------------|
| mindenki, | everybody        | egyik, | one (of more)              |
| senki,    | nobody           | másik, | the other                  |
| kiki,     | each one         | semmi, | nothing                    |
| mindenik, | all (of persons) | mind,  | all (of persons or things) | mindnyájan, all        ”        minden, all        ”        ”

7. Indefinite Pronouns.

valaki, somebody    akármí,        anything valami, something    némelyik,    some akárki, anyone       valamelyik, one (of them)

EXERCISE VIII.

Ti már egészségesek vagytok, de ők még betegek. Csak neked mondom meg a titkot. Holnap délután várlak. Téged is kértelek, Ferenczet is. A tietek ez a kocsi? Nem a mienk, hanem barátunké. A réten sok tehén van, az enyéim mind fehérek, az övéik mind feketék. Árpád, aki Magyarországot elfoglalta, nagy hős volt. A könyvtár amelyben dolgozom, csendes. Géza és Béla ismerik egymást. Szerencsét kívánok önnek.

This book is not mine but yours. My garden is not so pretty as theirs. I have a pretty garden. Ilona and her mother often write letters to each other. Everybody likes Ilona. Tell me what (ami) is true.

szerencse,      good luck
kivánni,      to wish

FOOTNOTES:

[6] Az, demonstrative, must be distinguished from az, the article. The demonstrative always stands before the article, and it is capable of inflection, while the article is not.

CHAPTER IX

THE VERB

There are two Conjugations. They are called in Hungarian the ikes (pronounced ik-ash), having ik, and the iktelen, without ik, conjugations, because verbs belonging to the ikes conjugation have the termination ik in the third person singular present indicative, while those belonging to the iktelen conjugation have not.

Every Hungarian dictionary puts (ik) after ikes verbs, to show that they belong to the ikes conjugation; thus, dolgozni (ik). Verbs not so distinguished belong to the iktelen conjugation.

The Hungarian verb has only one difficulty, and when the student has mastered that he will have very little trouble.

Every transitive verb has two forms, called the definite and the indefinite forms, according to whether the object is determinate, or more or less indefinite.

I am writing this letter, ezt a levelet irom.

I am writing letters, leveleket irok.

Irom is the definite form, because the object is a clearly marked-out one.

Irok is the indefinite form, because the object is not so clearly marked out.

The definite form is used when the object governed by the transitive verb is a certain determinate object. For example:—

1. When the substantive is a proper noun.

Péttert várom, I am expecting Peter.

2. When the article az or a precedes the substantive.

A levelet irom, I am writing the letter.

3. When the substantive is used with a personal suffix.

Házamat eladom*, I am selling my house.

4. When the object of the sentence is a demonstrative pronoun, the third personal pronoun, or the reflexive pronoun, magam, &c.

Azt látom*, I see that.

Őt hívom, I am calling him.

Nem hallom magamat, I do not hear myself.

The indefinite form is used when the object is less determinate.

Sok levelet irok*, I am writing several letters.

Emberrt látok, I see a man.

It is used even when the substantive is preceded by a cardinal numeral.

Nyolcz emberrt látok, I see eight men.

But if, by a demonstrative, or by the article alone, we point to some particular man or men, we must use the definite form.

Ezt az emberrt látom*, I see this man.

A nyolcz emberrt látom*, I see the eight men.

The indefinite is used when the object is an infinitive verb (such verb itself having no further object), or a relative pronoun.

Szeretek dolgozni, I like to work.

A levelek, amelyeket irok*, the letters which I write.

Az emberek, akiket látok, the men whom I see.

Note.—Intransitive verbs naturally have but one form, the indefinite—e.g. járok*, I walk.

IKTELEN VERBS.

Example.—Vágni*, to cut.

Indicative.

Indefinite Form.

vág-ok,
vág-sz,

I cut thou cuttest

Present.

vág-om,
vág-od,

I cut (it)
thou cuttest (it)

Definite Form.

vág, vág-unk,
vág-tok,
vág-nak,

he cuts
we cut you cut they cut vág-ja,

vág-juk,
vág-játok,
vág-ják,

he cuts (it)
we cut (it)
you cut (it)
they cut (it)

Imperfect.

vág-ék,
vág-ál, vág-a,
vág-ánk,
vág-átok,
vág-ának,

I was cutting thou wast cutting he was cutting we were cutting you were cutting they were cutting vág-ám, vág-ád,

vág-á,
vág-ók,
vág-átok,
vág-ák,

I was cutting (it)
thou wast cutting (it) he was cutting (it)
we were cutting (it)
you were cutting (it)
they were cutting (it)

N.B.—This tense is obsolete; see page 46.

Past.

vág-tam,
vág-tál,
vág-(o)t(t)<sup>[7]</sup>,
vág-tunk,
vág-tatok,
vág-tak,

I have cut thou hast cut he has cut we have cut you have cut they have cut

vág-tam,
vág-tad,
vág-ta,
vág-tuk,
vág-tátok,
vág-ták,

I have cut (it) thou hast cut (it)
he has cut (it)
we have cut (it)
you have cut (it)
they have cut (it)

Pluperfect.

This is the same as the past tense, followed by volt.

vág-tam volt, I had cut.

vág-tál volt, thou hadst cut, &c.

Future.

fogok vágni, fogsz ” fog ” fogunk ” fogtok ” fognak ”

I shall cut thou wilt cut he will cut we shall cut you will cut they will cut fogom vágni, fogod ” fogja ” fogjuk ” fogjátok ” fogják ”

I shall cut (it) thou wilt cut (it)
he will cut (it)
we shall cut (it)
you will cut (it)
they will cut (it)

Imperative.

vág-j,
vág-jon,
vág-junk,
vág-jatok,
vág-janak,

do thou cut let him cut let us cut cut you let them cut vág-d,

vág-ja,
vág-juk,
vág-játok,
vág-ják,

cut thou (it)
let him cut (it) let us cut (it) cut you (it)
let them cut (it)

Subjunctive.

(hogy-) vág-ják,
vág-j, vág-jon
vág-junk
vág-jatok

(that) I may or might cut thou mayest or mightest cut,
&c.

(hogy-) vág-jam,
vág-d,
vág-ja
vág-juk
vág-játok

(that)
I may or might cut (it),
&c.

vág-janak

vág-ják

Conditional.

Present.

|            |                   |            |                        |
|------------|-------------------|------------|------------------------|
| vág-nék,   | I should cut      | vág-nám,   | I should cut (it)      |
| vág-nál,   | thou shouldst cut | vág-nád,   | thou shouldst cut (it) |
| vág-na,    | he should cut     | vág-ná,    | he should cut (it)     |
| vág-nánk,  | we should cut     | vág-nók,   | we should cut (it)     |
| vág-nátok, | you should cut    | vág-nátok, | you should cut (it)    |
| vág-nának, | they should cut   | vág-nák,   | they should cut (it)   |

Past.

This is formed from the past indicative, with volna.

vág-tam volna, I should have cut.

vág-tál volna, thou shouldst have cut, &c.

Infinitive.

vág-ni, to cut.

With the personal suffixes (see pages 59 and 60):—

Sing.: vág-nom, vág-nod, vág-nia.

Plural: vág-nunk, vág-notok, vág-niok.

Participles.

Present: vág-ó, cutting.

Past: vág-ott, cut.

Future: vág-andó, to be cut.

Adverbial Participles: vág-va, vág-ván.

All regular iktelen verbs whose vowels are flats (see page 2) are conjugated like vágni.

Imperfect Indicative.—This tense is never used now in prose, though it was so used formerly. It is occasionally to be met with in poetry.

Past Indicative.—This is equivalent to both the perfect and the preterite in English. Thus, vágtam means both “I have cut,” and “I cut.”

Future Indicative.—Instead of fogok (I will), with the infinitive, it is customary to use the present indicative with some adverb indicating futurity. Thus instead of holnap fogom vágni a tüzelő fát, it would be better to say holnap vágom a tüzelő fát, to-morrow I (shall) cut the firewood. Hamar elmegyek, I (shall) go soon.

There is no form of future perfect now in use. Its place is taken by either the present or the past tense, together with some adverb indicating futurity.

I shall have finished soon = nemsokára bevégezem (literally, soon I finish).

I shall soon have written the letter = hamar megírtam a levelet (literally, soon I have written the letter).

Note.—The particle meg, in this instance prefixed to írtam, strongly emphasises the completion of an act. It occurs along with very many verbs, and always has this force. Sometimes it is prefixed to the verb, and sometimes it follows separately.

Sokat írtam a feladatból de még nem írtam meg, I have written much of the task, but I have not yet finished writing.

This meg (which must not be confused with the adverb még = as yet) has no equivalent in English.

Subjunctive Mood.—A past tense of the subjunctive was formerly in use, formed from the past indicative followed by legyen, e.g. hogy vágtam legyen. This is never used now, its place being taken by the present subjunctive.

Conditional Mood.—The present tense is identical with the Imperative.

Infinitive.—The use of the infinitive with personal suffixes will be explained in the paragraph relating to the verb kelleni (page 59).

Participles.—Examples:—

Present: Az író ember, the writing man.

Past: Az írott könyv, the written book.

Future: Az írandó levél, the letter to be written.

Adverbial:

-va or -ve. A hegyen állva, beszélt, standing on the hill, he spoke.

A ház fel van építve, the house is built.

-ván or -vén. A munkát elvégezvén, haza ment, having finished the work, he went home.

A lármát hallván, az udvarra sietett, hearing the noise, he hastened to the courtyard.

-ván, -vén, is used more frequently than -va, -ve, but only in cases similar to the above examples, where one clause is dependent on another.

VERBS WITH SHARP VOWELS.

The rules of euphony which regulate nouns and their suffixes (see page 2), apply also to verbs and their endings.

Hence, while vágni, a “flat” word, gives vágok, vágom, &c., “sharp” words like verni (to beat), törni (to break), give verek, verem, &c., török, töröm, &c.

Present Indicative.

| ver-tek     | ver-ték   | tör-tek     | tör-ték   |

In this tense, as in the other tenses and moods, these verbs resemble vágni, except that as the vowel of the stem is a “sharp,” the vowel of the ending must also be a sharp.

IKES VERBS

Many ikes verbs are transitive, and such verbs, like those of the iktelen conjugation, have both the definite and indefinite forms.

The definite form of the ikes verbs is exactly the same as that of the iktelen verbs.

|                   |                 |
|-------------------|-----------------|
| lak-om,    | I inhabit       |
| lak-od,    | thou inhabitest |
| lak-ja,    | he inhabits     |
| lak-juk,   | we inhabit      |
| lak-játok, | you inhabit     |
| lak-ják,   | they inhabit    |

It is in the indefinite form that ikes verbs differ from iktelen verbs.

Examples.

lakni, to dwell      vétkezni, to sin      ütközni, to encounter

Indicative.

Present.

|                |                   |                  |
|----------------|-------------------|------------------|
| lak-om  | vétkez-em  | ütköz-öm  |
| lak-ol  | vétkez-el  | ütköz-öl  |
| lak-ik  | vétkez-ik  | ütköz-ik  |
| lak-unk | vétkez-ünk | ütköz-ünk |
| lak-tok | vétkez-tek | ütköz-tök |
| lak-nak | vétkez-nek | ütköz-nek |

The imperfect indicative is never used.

The past, pluperfect, and future tenses are the same as in the indefinite form of the iktelen verbs.

Imperative and Subjunctive.

|                  |                     |                    |
|------------------|---------------------|--------------------|
| lak-jam   | vétkez-zem   | ütköz-zem   |
| lak-jál   | vétkez-zél   | ütköz-zél   |
| lak-jék   | vétkez-zék   | ütköz-zék   |
| lak-junk  | vétkez-zünk  | ütköz-zünk  |
| lak-jatok | vétkez-zetek | ütköz-zetek |
| lak-janak | vétkez-zenek | ütköz-zenek |

Conditional.

|                  |                     |                    |
|------------------|---------------------|--------------------|
| lak-nám   | vétkez-ném   | ütköz-ném   |
| lak-nál   | vétkez-nél   | ütköz-nél   |
| lak-nék   | vétkez-nék   | ütköz-nék   |
| lak-nánk  | vétkez-nénk  | ütköz-nénk  |
| lak-nátok | vétkez-nétek | ütköz-nétek |
| lak-nának | vétkez-nének | ütköz-nének |

Infinitive.

|               |                  |                 |
|---------------|------------------|-----------------|
| lak-ni | vétkez-ni | ütköz-ni |
|---------------|------------------|-----------------|

which take personal suffixes like those of the iktelen verbs.

Participles.

|                 |                    |                   |
|-----------------|--------------------|-------------------|
| lak-ó    | vétkez-ő    | ütköz-ő    |
| lak-ott  | vétkez-ett  | ütköz-ött  |
| lak-andó | vétkez-endő | ütköz-endő |
| lak-va   | vétkez-ve   | ütköz-ve   |
| lak-ván  | vétkez-vén  | ütköz-vén  |

It will be noticed that it is only in the singular number that the indefinite form of the ikes verbs differs from that of the iktelen verbs; the first person always ending in m (thus resembling the definite form), and the second person in l, while the third person present indicative ends in ik.

NOTES ON THE VERB IN GENERAL.

The Passive Voice. — There is in Hungarian no passive voice, although certain grammarians attempted to introduce one. The only parts of the verb which have a passive significance are the past and future participles. Where, in English, we should say, “I am loved,” in Hungarian it is necessary to say “szeretnek engem” (they love me), or “valaki szeret engem” (one loves me).

Construction of First Person.—If the first person acts on the second person, the distinguishing termination of the verb will be, in all moods and tenses, -lak (for flat words), or -lek (for sharp words). Whereas “I see the dog” would be lát-om a kutyát, “I see thee” is lát-lak; “I saw thee,” látta-lak; “I love thee,” szeret-lek.

Verbs ending with s, sz, or z, double their final letter instead of taking a j in the imperative and subjunctive moods; also in the present indicative, definite form.

hoz-za,     ”   hoz-ja, &c.

Verbs ending in t, preceded by i or a liquid consonant, take, in the imperative and subjunctive moods, an s instead of a j; as gyűjteni, to collect:—

gyűjtsek, not gyűjtjek gyűjts,     ”   gyűjtj gyűjtsön,   ”   gyűjtjön

But in the present indicative these verbs retain the j.

Verbs ending in t preceded by a vowel other than i, and all causal verbs, change their final t into s in the imperative and subjunctive present tense, e.g. látni, to see.

láss, not látj.

In verbs ending in t, preceded by sz, the final t is dropped in the imperative and subjunctive, and sz is doubled, e.g. veszt-eni, to lose.

vessz, not vesztj.

The Infinitive Ending.—If a verb ends in a double consonant, or a single hard consonant, that would not admit an easy pronunciation of the usual infinitive ending -ni, this ending is joined to the stem by means of the vowel a or e.

hall-a-ni (to hear), instead of hall-ni.
tanit-a-ni (to teach)       ”       tanit-ni.

In the case of such verbs, all inflections beginning with a consonant are joined to the verb by means of a vowel; e.g. hall-o-tt, not hall-t. The ending t in such cases is always doubled.

Compound Verbs.—Hungarian abounds with compound verbs, as well as with compound words in general. They are made by prefixing to the verb adverbs, postpositions, or affixes for place and direction, which modify the action expressed by the verb accordingly; as, venni, to take; el-venni, to take away; föl-venni, to take up; le-venni, to take down.

The verb is inflected in the same manner as when it stands by itself.

Note.—These particles or adverbs can also be written separately; as, el akarta venni, he wished to take it away. This construction is always used when the verb containing the affix is dependent upon some other verb.

Also, if the verb is modified by some adverb in such a way that the stress is on the adverb rather than on the verb, the affix is written separately.

Nemsokara elmegyek, I shall go out soon; but ma megyek el, to-day I shall go out.

Formation of New Verbal Roots.—The Hungarian language forms new verbal roots by means of the addition of one or more syllables.

1. Factitive.—at, et, tat, tet, to cause to do something.

ir-ni, to write; ir-at-ni, to cause to write.

olvas-ni, to read; olvas-tat-ni, to cause to read.

The object influenced usually takes the suffix -val or -vel.

A tanító a fiu-val ir-at-ja a leveleket, the teacher makes the boy write the letters.
Sometimes, however, it is put in the accusative.

Vár-at-om az inas-t, I make the footman wait.

2. Frequentative.—ogat; indicates a repetition of the action.

ir-ok, I write; ir-ogat-ok, I keep on taking up my pen.

3. Diminutive.—kál, or gál, gél.

ir, he writes; ir-kál, he is scribbling.

nevet, he laughs; nevet-gél, he giggles.

4. Potential.—hat; indicates permission or power to do something.

ir-hat-ok, I may write.

Note.—"I can write," in the sense of "I have the ability to write," would be tudok irni.

More than one of these syllables may be added to the original root.

ir-at-hat-ok, I am able to make (some one) write.

IRREGULAR VERBS

The most important is lenni, to be.

IMPERSONAL VERBS

esik, it rains.

villámlik, it lightens.

dörög, it thunders.

havazik, it snows.

Some impersonal verbs require to be constructed with either a dative or an accusative.

illik nekem, it is becoming for me.

Among impersonal verbs may be reckoned the verb

kelleni, to be necessary.

This verb need not be used impersonally. Thus, a person may say kellek, I am needed, but its most frequent use is an impersonal one.

kell, it is necessary; (or, kellett, it was necessary, fog kelleni, kellene, &c.) is constructed either with the simple infinitive, or with the infinitive with personal endings. Thus, one may say—

nekem kell irni or kell irnom, I must write.

neked kell irni or kell irnod, thou must write, &c.

If the speaker is merely thinking of the necessity of some action, without referring it to any particular person, the infinitive with kell is alone used.

Vigyázni kell, one must be careful.

Levelet kell irni, a letter must be written.

If the action is referred to some person, it is better to use the infinitive with personal endings, than such a construction as nekem kell irni.

Examples.

Tanulnia fog kelleni, he will have to learn.

Dolgozniok kellene, they would have to work.

Olvasnotok kellett, you had to read.

Szabad (it is permitted), and lehet (it is possible), take a similar construction.

Szabad dohányozni, smoking is allowed.

Szabad dohányoznom, I may smoke.

Nem lehet két urnak szolgálni, one cannot serve two masters.

Nem lehet írnom, I cannot write.

DEFECTIVE VERBS

(1) Nincs or nincsen, is not.

Plural: nincsenek, are not.

Atyám nincs itt, my father is not here.

Nincsenek itt a fiuk, the boys are not here.

Nincs must be translated by “have” or “has” when used with a noun or pronoun in the genitive case.

Az atyám-nak nincs lova, my father has not a horse.

Nekem nincs, I have not.

Neked nincs, thou hast not, &c.

Nincs is a contraction of nem (not), and van (is).

(2) Sincs, sincsen; plural: sincsenek, are contractions of sem (neither), and nincs, nincsen, or nincsenek.

A bátyám nincs itthon, my elder brother is not at home.

Az atyám sincs, neither is my father.

(3) Jer (come thou along), jerünk (let us go), jertek (come you along), are the only forms of this verb.

EXERCISE IX.

Mindennap két órát sétálok. Másold le a költeményt a könyvből. Ha tudnám, hogy találkozom vele, várnék. A két művész zongorázni és hegedülni fog. Kérlek, ülj le. Álljatok fel, gyermekeim. Köszönjük a vendégeknek. Anyám virágot hozat és koszorút köttet belőle. Tavaly két lovunk volt, a nyáron négy lesz.

I have written a long letter to my father. I told him what (amit) you said to me. He will be very angry, but I hope soon to conciliate him. Come into the garden. Sit here and drink a cup of tea. I would read to you if you would like it. Do not go out of the house. I am going for a walk until four o'clock.

FOOTNOTES:

[7] The regular ending is -t; e.g. várni (to wait for), which makes vár-t; but a connecting vowel often has to be used, and the -t is then doubled; e.g. ad-ni (to give) makes ad-ott.

[8] Note that the third person, present indicative, singular and plural, of sharp-sounding verbs takes -i, -ik, instead of -ja, -ják. In other tenses, however, sharp verbs resemble flat verbs.

CHAPTER X

THE ADVERB

1. Adverbs of Manner. These are mostly derived from adjectives, with the aid of the suffix -n, -an, -on, -en, -úl or -ül.

|               |                 |         |                  |
|---------------|-----------------|---------|------------------|
| tiszta | (clean, clear), | adverb, | tisztá-n  |
| szabad | (free)          | ”       | szabad-on |
| rövid  | (short)         | ”       | rövid-en  |
| rossz  | (bad)           | ”       | rossz-úl  |

The primitive adverbs of manner are:—

így, thus, in this way (for things near).

úgy, thus, in that way (for things farther).

2. Adverbs of Time.

|                   |                   |
|-------------------|-------------------|
| ma,        | to-day            |
| holnap,    | to-morrow         |
| tegnap,    | yesterday         |
| most,      | now               |
| akkor,     | then              |
| máskor,    | another time      |
| mindig,    | always            |
| soha,      | never             |
| a múltban, | in the past       |
| a jövőben, | in the future     |
| későn,     | late              |
| korán,     | early             |
| már,       | already           |
| reggel,    | in the morning    |
| nappal,    | in the daytime    |
| este,      | in the evening    |
| éjszaka,   | in the night      |
| gyakran,   | often             |
| ritkán,    | seldom            |
| időnként,  | from time to time |
| addig,     | until then        |

3. Adverbs of Place.

(a) Rest at—

|                                 |            |
|---------------------------------|------------|
| itt,                     | here       |
| ott,                     | there      |
| ben,                     | in         |
| belől,                   | inside     |
| közel,                   | near       |
| messze,                  | far        |
| távol,                   | far        |
| kint, or künn, or kívül, | outside    |
| valahol,                 | somewhere  |
| máshol,                  | elsewhere  |
| mindenhol,               | everywhere |
| lent,                    | down there |
| fent,                    | up there   |

(b) Motion towards or from.

|                    |                 |
|--------------------|-----------------|
| ide,        | hither          |
| oda,        | thither         |
| föl or fel, | up              |
| le,         | down            |
| addig,      | as far as there |
| be,         | into            |
| ki,         | out of          |
| máshova,    | elsewhere       |
| mindenhova, | everywhere      |
| eddig,      | as far as here  |

4. Adverbs of Degree.

|                             |                   |
|-----------------------------|-------------------|
| kevésbé or kissé,    | little.           |
| inkább or jobban,    | more, rather.     |
| leginkább,           | most.             |
| egészen or teljesen, | wholly, entirely. |
| nagyon,              | very, very much.  |

5. Adverbs of Interrogation.

|                |          |
|----------------|----------|
| hogy?   | how?     |
| mikor?  | when?    |
| hol?    | where?   |
| hova?   | whither? |
| honnan? | whence?  |

miért? why?
meddig? how far? or, how long?

In connection with these adverbs must be mentioned the interrogative suffix -e, which is joined to words to mark a question; as, szép-e, esik-e.

This construction is only used, however, in dependent sentences (except in the case of ugy-e? Isn't it so?).

Mondd meg, szép-e a könyv? Tell me, is the book pretty? or, Tell me whether the book is pretty.

Nézd meg, esik-e? See if it is raining.

6. Adverbs of Affirmation.

|                    |          |
|--------------------|----------|
| igen,       | yes      |
| aligha nem, | probably |
| bizony,     | verily   |
| igazán,     | truly    |
| talán,      | perhaps  |

7. Adverbs of Negation.

|                      |                   |
|----------------------|-------------------|
| nem,          | no, not           |
| ne,           | not (in commands) |
| sem,          | neither           |
| semmi esetre, | in no case        |
| aligha,       | hardly.           |

Note.—Ne is only used with the imperative and subjunctive moods; as, ne mondd, do not say; hogy ne írjak, that I may not write. In all other cases nem is used.

The suffix -ig is used for both time and place, and has the force of until or as far as.

tíz órá-ig, until ten o'clock,
tíz percz-ig, for ten minutes.
a kapu-ig, as far as the gate.
a határ-ig, as far as the frontier.

COMPARISON OF ADVERBS.

All adverbs derived from adjectives form their comparative and superlative by adding the adverbial ending to the comparative and superlative of the adjective from which they are derived: as—

|            |                  |                     |                        |
|------------|------------------|---------------------|------------------------|
| Adjective: | szép,     | szebb,       | legszebb.       |
| Adverb:    | szép-en,  | szebb-en,    | legszebb-en.    |
| Adjective: | rossz,    | rosszabb,    | legrosszabb.    |
| Adverb:    | rossz-úl, | rosszabb-úl, | legrosszabb-úl. |

Of primitive adverbs, some take both a comparative and a superlative, while some are lacking in either one or the other.

|               |           |                  |                               |
|---------------|-----------|------------------|-------------------------------|
| távol, | far;      | távolabb, | legtávolabb            |
| erre,  | this way; | errébb    | (has no superlative)          |
| arra,  | that way; | arrább    | ” ”                           |
| elől,  | in front; | legelől,  | foremost (has no comparative) |
| belül, | within;   | legbelül, | innermost ” ”                 |

Inkább has no positive, but is used only in the comparative and superlative, in both cases expressing preference.

EXERCISE X.

Ha magyarul beszélsz, tisztán mondj ki minden hangot. Imre király nemesen győzte le öccsét, mikor ez álnokul támadta meg. “Jobb ma egy veréb, mint holnap egy tűzok.” Nagyon sajnálom, hogy önök nem jöhetnek el. A dinnye belül piros, kívül zöld. A hangverseny tizenegy óráig tartott. Elkísérlek a sarokig. Szeretném tudni, eljössz-e? Ne lármázzatok! A katonák között a huszárok lovagolnak legszebben. Szent László mindig legelől küzdött a csatában.

I like reading very much. You have come very late. I saw him yesterday, and hope to speak with him again to-morrow. Are you going far? As far as the bridge. When did you buy that horse? Tell me if he is a good one. You walk much more quickly than your elder brother. I would rather eat a pear.

EXERCISE XI.

Az egri ütközetben nem a törökök győztek, hanem a magyarok. Nemcsak láttam a királyt, hanem beszélni is hallottam. Mátyás király soha sem haragudott az őszinte szóért, sőt még szerette is. A magyarok sem a latin sem a germán népekkel nem rokonok. Azért jöttem, hogy láthassalak. Habár késő ősz van, a napok derültek. A gazda örül mert kertjének fái sok gyümölcsöt hoztak. Jaj de hideg van! “Oh, ha látná, mily nyomorban élek” (Petőfi). Ejnye de szép lovak!

He is neither handsome nor clever. Not only were they not angry, but they were grateful. If they were rich they would buy a house, but since they are poor they must be content as they are. Pay at once, otherwise there will be trouble. Though you tell me this, yet there is still some uncertainty.

CHAPTER XIII

GENDER

The Hungarian language has no grammatical gender. Names of males are masculine, and those of females are feminine.

To the name or title of a man the suffix -né is added to denote the wife of that person: as, Deákné, the wife of Deák; szinészné, the wife of an actor. If the lady were herself an actress, she might be called szinész (actor or actress); but usually the word nő (woman) is joined to it, and to similar words, to denote that the person spoken of is a woman; as, szinésznő, actress.

If a Christian name is mentioned as well as the surname, the ending -né is added, not to the surname, but to the Christian name.

Thus, Mrs. Déri would be Déri-né, but Mrs. Charles Déri would be Déri Károly-né.

N.B.—In Hungarian, Christian names always follow the surname instead of preceding it, as in English.

It would not be correct form to address Mrs. Déri as Dériné simply, though one might speak of her so in the third person. In addressing an envelope to her some such word as nagyságos, or urnő (madam), must be used.

Thus, Nagyságos Dériné urnő, Dériné urnő, or Dériné ő nagysága.

It is better, if possible, to add the Christian name of the husband in addressing a married woman.

Thus, Nagyságos Déri Károlyné.

In speaking to a lady the name is never mentioned. Instead of saying Mrs. or Miss So-and-so, some such word as asszonyom or nagysád (madam) must be used.

Asszonyom can only be used in addressing married women; nagysád can be used for either married or single.

In addressing a gentleman, it is customary to use his title or office, if he has one, e.g. titkár, secretary; tanár, professor; tanácsos, councillor; kapitány, captain, &c.

On an envelope: Nagyságos Győry Loránd miniszteri osztály tanácsos urnak (urnak is composed of ur, sir, and the suffix -nak, to).

In speaking to Győry Loránd one would say tanácsos ur.

The chief titles of courtesy employed are:—

Ő Felsége, his or her Majesty.

Ő Fensége, his or her Highness.

Kegyelmes, or Nagyméltóságu, his Excellency (for ministers, privy councillors, &c.).

Méltóságos (for such members of the House of Lords as are not styled kegyelmes, secretaries of State, and ministerial counsellors).

Nagyságos (for most persons who in England would be addressed as esquire).

Tekintetes (used for country gentlemen, but it is going out of use and giving place to nagyságos).

The sex of animals is expressed by placing hím (male), or nőstény (female), before the respective name; as—hím farkas, he-wolf.

nőstény farkas, she-wolf.

CHAPTER XIV

ETYMOLOGY

New words are formed in two ways:—

(a) By means of suffixes called formatives.

(b) By putting two or more words together.

Those of the first class are called derivatives, and those of the second class compounds.

A derivative may take a further formative, in which case the derivative is called the primitive of the new word. In the following example each preceding word is the primitive or stem of the following derivative:—

harc (substantive), battle.

harc-i (adjective), pertaining to battle.

harc-i-as (adjective), brave, warlike.

harcias-kod (ni) (verb), to act in a warlike way.

harciaskod-ás (abstract noun), the state of being at war.

harciaskodás-i (adjective), pertaining to warlike behaviour.

This example shows how rich the Hungarian language is in its capacity for forming words and expressing the finer shades of meaning.

The principal formatives only are here given:—

I. Substantives are formed—

(a) By adding -ság, -ség to adjectives.

jó-ság, goodness; szép-ség, beauty.

(b) By adding -ás, -és to verbs.

vág-ás, the act of cutting; fest-és, the act of painting.

(c) By adding -as, -es, -os, -ár, -ér to substantives.

asztal, table; asztal-OS, joiner.

kés, knife; kés-ES, cutler.

kád, tub; kád-ÁR, cooper.

(d) All present participles may be used as substantives.

olvasó, reader; arató, reaper.

(e) Diminutives of substantives are formed by adding -ka, -ke, ocska, ecske, &c.

leány-ka, a little girl; ablak-ocska, a small window.

II. Adjectives are formed by adding—

(a) -as, -os, -es, -ös to substantives.

máz, enamel; máz-as, enamelled.

arany, gold; arany-OS, golden.

hely, place; hely-es, proper.

köd, fog; köd-ös, foggy.

(b) -talan or -telen to substantives, creating negatives.

hely-telen, improper.

(c) -i, especially to names of places.

budapest-i, of or pertaining to Budapest.

ház-i, domestic.

(d) Diminutives are formed by adding -s to adjectives ending with a vowel, or -es, -ás, -os to those ending with a consonant.

sárga, yellow; sárgá-S, yellowish.

öreg, old; öreg-es, elderly.

III. Verbs are formed by adding—

-al, -ol, -el, -oz, -ez to substantives.

ház, house; ház-al (ni),<sup>[10]</sup> to peddle.

dal, song; dal-ol (ni), to sing.

tél, winter; tel-el (ni), to pass the winter.

szalag, ribbon; szalag-oz (ni), to adorn with ribbons.

FOOTNOTES:

<sup>[10]</sup> ni is merely the infinitive ending.

CHAPTER XV

SYNTAX

As nouns and verbs have significant endings there is much greater freedom in the construction of sentences in Hungarian than in English. Thus we may say, Margit szereti Etelkát, or Etelkát szereti Margit, without altering or obscuring the sense of the words, which mean, Margit loves Etelka. The accusative ending -t clearly shows who is loved.

Again, Ilonát szeretik, or szeretik Ilonát, equally states that “they love Ilona,” for the plural ending of the verb shows that Ilonát is not its subject, while the accusative -t in Ilonát proves that Ilona is the object of the people’s affection.

Emphasis is expressed by the order in which words occur. Thus the above instance might be written, Szereti Etelkát Margit, if it is desired to lay stress on the fact of loving.

The general rule is that the word on which emphasis is laid immediately precedes the predicate, whether that predicate is a verb, or (as it may be in Hungarian) a substantive or an adjective.

The following examples illustrate this rule:—

Egernél a magyar nők hősiezen küzdöttek a törökök ellen. Bravely fought the Hungarian women against the Turks at Eger.

A magyar nők a törökök ellen küzdöttek hősiezen Egernél. Against the Turks the Hungarian women fought bravely at Eger.

Az angol nemzet most hatalmas a tengeren. Now the English nation is powerful on the sea.

Most az angol nemzet a tengeren hatalmas. On the sea the English nation is now powerful.

Most az angol nemzet hatalmas a tengeren. The English nation is now powerful on the sea.

If, in a sentence constructed in the present tense, the predicate is an adjective or a substantive, it follows the subject without any copula.

Ilona szép, Ilona is beautiful.

Az épület szálló, the building is an hotel.

If, however, any such statement has reference to a past or future time, then the appropriate tense of the verb “to be” must be placed after the predicate.

Az épület szálló volt, the building was an hotel.

The verb van (is), with its various parts, when used as a copula between subject and predicate, always stands immediately after the predicate. Thus, if in the above sentence the order of subject and predicate were changed, the sentence would run: szálló volt az épület.

CHAPTER XVII

MONEY, WEIGHTS, AND MEASURES

The monetary unit is the korona = 10d., which is divided into 100 fillér.

|              | 1     "          | = | 0         | $\frac{1}{10}$ |

Paper money comprises notes for 10, 20, 50, 100, and 1000 korona.

N.B.—Many shopkeepers still reckon in the old florins and krajczárs. The purchaser should take care to ascertain whether the price marked is in florins or in korona.

1 florin     = 2 korona.

1 krajczár = 2 fillér.

The decimal system of weights and measures is used in Hungary.

1 kilogramm = about 2 pounds.

1 kilométer = about 1100 yards.

1 liter = about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pints.

*** END OF THE PROJECT GUTENBERG EBOOK HUNGARIAN GRAMMAR ***

Updated editions will replace the previous one—the old editions will be renamed.

Creating the works from print editions not protected by U.S. copyright law means that no one owns a United States copyright in these works, so the Foundation (and you!) can copy and distribute it in the United States without permission and without paying copyright royalties. Special rules, set forth in the General Terms of Use part of this license, apply to copying and distributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works to protect the PROJECT GUTENBERG™ concept and trademark. Project Gutenberg is a registered trademark, and may not be used if you charge for an eBook, except by following the terms of the trademark license, including paying royalties for use of the Project Gutenberg trademark. If you do not charge anything for copies of this eBook, complying with the trademark license is very easy. You may use this eBook for nearly any purpose such as creation of derivative works, reports, performances and research. Project Gutenberg eBooks may be modified and printed and given away—you may do practically ANYTHING in the United States with eBooks not protected by U.S. copyright law. Redistribution is subject to the trademark license, especially commercial redistribution.

START: FULL LICENSE

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG™ LICENSE

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase “Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, "Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation."
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
