First Day.

A good action is its own reward.

Dickens.

The will to do well ... is the next thing to having the power.

Mr. Pecksniff.

Forgiveness is a high quality,
an exalted virtue.

Martin Chuzzlewit.

In love of home the love of country has its rise.

Old Curiosity Shop.

Tears never yet wound up a clock or worked a steam-engine.

Sam Weller.

Second Day.

how me the man who says
anything against women,
as women, and I boldly declare,
he is not a man.

Pickwick.

Natural affection and instinct are the most beautiful
of the Almighty's works.

Charles Cheeryble.

It must be somewhere written that the virtues of the mothers
shall occasionally be visited on the children,
as well as the sins of their fathers.

Mr. Jarndyce.

We can all do some good, if we will.

Dickens.

Third Day.

n the cause of friendship ...
brave all dangers.

Pickwick Papers.

Let us be among the few who do their duty.

Martin Chuzzlewit.

Fortune will not bear chiding.
We must not reproach her, or she shuns us.

Old Curiosity Shop.

It is an undoubted fact that all remarkable men have had remarkable mothers.

Haunted Man.

Every man has his enemies.

Old Curiosity Shop.

Fourth Day.

For Heaven's sake
let us
examine sacredly
whether there is any wrong entrusted to us to set right.

Little Dorrit.

Surprises, like misfortunes,
rarely come alone.

Dombey and Son.

What the poor are to the poor is little known excepting to themselves and God.

Bleak House.

An honest man is one of the few great works that can be seen for nothing.

Martin Chuzzlewit.

Thinking begets thinking.

Oliver Twist.

Fifth Day.

t's a world of sacred mysteries,
and the Creator only knows what lies beneath the surface of His lightest image.

Battle of Life.

There is hope for all who are softened
and penitent.
There is hope for all such.

Haunted Man.

What I want is frankness, confidence,
less conventionality,
and freer play of soul. We are so dreadfully artificial.

Dombey and Son.

Sixth Day.

Only time shall show us
whither each traveler is bound.

Little Dorrit.

Women, the tenderest and most fragile of all God's creatures, were the oftenest
superior to sorrow, adversity and distress.

Pickwick Papers.

The consciousness that we possess the sympathy and affection of one being,
when all others have deserted us, is a hold, a stay,
a comfort, in the deepest affliction,
which no wealth could purchase, or power bestow.

Pickwick Papers.

Seventh Day.

Cheerfulness and content are great beautifiers, and are famous preservers of good looks.

Barnaby Rudge.

The sea has no appreciation of great men,
but knocks them about like small fry.

Bleak House.

A joke is a very good thing ... but when that joke is made at the expense of feelings, I set my face against it.

Nicholas Nickleby.

There can be no confusion in following Him
and seeking no other footsteps.

Little Dorrit.

Eighth Day.

here is no situation in life so bad
that it can't be mended.

Pickwick Papers.

If the good deeds of human creatures could be traced to their source, how beautifully would even death appear;
for how much charity, mercy, and purified affection would be seen to have their own growth in dusty graves!

Old Curiosity Shop.

Use and necessity are good teachers—
the best of any.

Stagg.

Philosophers are only men in armour after all.

Pickwick Papers.

Ninth Day.

ou must expect to go out, some day, like the snuff of a candle; a man can die but once.

Little Dorrit.

Energy and determination have done
wonders many a time.

Bleak House.

Ride on over all obstacles, and win
the race.

David Copperfield.

In journeys, as in life, it is a great deal easier to go down hill than up.

Nicholas Nickleby.

Let there be union among us.

Mr. Pecksniff.

Tenth Day.

mong men who have sound and
sterling qualities,
there is nothing so contagious
as pure openness of heart.

Nicholas Nickleby.

There is not an angel added to the Host of Heaven but does its blessed work on earth in those that loved it here.

Old Curiosity Shop.

There is a providence in everything;
everything works for the best.

Dombey and Son.

A man never knows what he can do till he tries.

Pickwick Papers.

Eleventh Day.

Worldly goods are divided unequally,
and man must not repine.

Bleak House.

Do as you would be done by!
Forget and forgive!

Battle of Life.

But for some trouble and sorrow we should never know half the good
there is about us.

Haunted Man.

Gallantry in its true sense is supposed to enoble and dignify a man.

Martin Chuzzlewit.

Twelfth Day.

e should all try to discharge
our duty.

Pickwick Papers.

Unless we learn to do our duty to those in our employ, they will never learn to do their duty to us.

David Copperfield.

Simplicity and plainness are the soul of elegance.

Old Curiosity Shop.

There are dark shadows on the earth, but its lights are stronger in contrast.

Pickwick Papers.

There is always something to be thankful for.

Little Dorrit.

Thirteenth Day.

We all have some bright day—many of us,
let us hope, among a crowd of others,—
to which we revert with particular delight.

Nicholas Nickleby.

Be forever grateful unto all friends. Especially unto them which brought you up by hand.

Mr. Pumblechook.

Dignity and even holiness too, sometimes,
are more questions
of coat and waist coat than some people imagine.

Oliver Twist.

Fourteenth Day.

ice takes up her abode in many temples, and who can say that a fair outside shall not enshrine her?

Dr. Losberne.

Without strong affection and humanity of heart and gratitude to that Being whose code is Mercy, and whose great attribute is Benevolence to all things that breathe,
happiness can never be attained.

Dickens.

Unchanging love and truth will carry us through all.

Dickens.

Don't try the feelings of any.

Martin Chuzzlewit.

Fifteenth Day.

here is a great end to gain,
and that I keep before me.

Old Curiosity Shop.

If your destiny leads you into public life
and public station, you must expect to be subjected to temptations which other people is free from.

Pickwick Papers.

There is no substitute for thorough-going ardent, and sincere earnestness.

David Copperfield.

If our inclinations are but good and open-hearted,
let us gratify them
boldly, though they bring upon us loss
instead of profit.

Martin Chuzzlewit.

Sixteenth Day.

There is no royal road to learning, and what is life but learning.

Our Mutual Friend.

Anxious people often magnify an evil and make it worse.

Old Curiosity Shop.

Try not to associate bodily defects with mental, my good friend,

except for a solid reason.

David Copperfield.

What we have to do is to turn our faces in our new direction, and keep straight on.

Our Mutual Friend.

Be careful to develop your talents.

A Tale of Two Cities.

Seventeenth Day.

Nothing is past hope.

Christmas Carol.

There is scarcely a sin in the world that is in my eyes such a crying one as ingratitude.

Tom Pinch.

Truth and honesty, like precious stones,
are perhaps
most easily imitated at a distance.

Nicholas Nickleby.

Life is made of ever so many partings
welded together.

Great Expectations.

The best among us need deal lightly
with faults.

Dickens.

Eighteenth Day.

Monarchs imagine attractions in the lives of beggars.

Dombey and Son.

No man who was not a true gentleman at heart ever was, since the world began, a true gentleman in manner.

Great Expectations.

All happiness has an end—hence the chief pleasure of its next beginning.

Old Curiosity Shop.

You should feel the Dignity of Labour.

The Chimes.

Nature often enshrines
gallant and noble
hearts in weak bosoms.

Old Curiosity Shop.

Nineteenth Day.

It is the duty of a man to be just before he is generous.

Martin Chuzzlewit.

It is difficult to offer aid to an independent man.

Barnaby Rudge.

Go in and win—an admirable thing to recommend
if you only know how to do it.

Pickwick.

Dishonesty will stare honesty out of countenance any day in the week, if there is anything to be got by it.

Hunted Down.

The world is prone to misconstruction.

Dombey and Son.

Twentieth Day.

here never were greed and cunning in the world yet, that did not do too much and overreach themselves.

David Copperfield.

Be diligent, work for a steady independence,
and be happy.

Dombey and Son.

It is not on earth that Heaven's justice ends.

Old Curiosity Shop.

Women, after all, are the great props
and comforts of our existence.

Pickwick Papers.

Self-praise is no recommendation.

Bleak House.

Twenty-first Day.

Every failure teaches
a man something,
if he will learn.

Little Dorrit.

Mystery and disappointment are not absolutely indispensable to the growth of love,

but they are often very powerful auxiliaries.

Nicholas Nickleby.

The envious man beholds
his neighbor's
honours even in the sky.

Barnaby Rudge.

A man can't at all times be quite master of himself.

Christmas Stories.

Twenty-second Day.

ay every blessing that a true and earnest heart can call down from the source of all truth and sincerity cheer and prosper you.

Oliver Twist.

God bless home once more, and all belonging to it.

Haunted Man.

Perhaps it's a good thing to have an unsound hobby ridden to death.

David Copperfield.

Be as rich as you honestly can. It's your duty. Not for your sake, but for the sake of others.

Little Dorrit.

Twenty-third Day.

Who that has a heart fails to recognize the silent presence of another?

Barnaby Rudge.

Father Time is not always a hard parent, and though he tarries for none of his children,
he often lays his hand lightly on those who use him well.

Barnaby Rudge.

Second-hand cares, like second-hand clothes,
come easily off and on.

A Tale of Two Cities.

It's much easier to talk
than to bear.

Madam Mantalini.

Twenty-fourth Day.

here's the good of putting things off?
Strike while the iron's hot.

Barnaby Rudge.

Money ... some people find their gratification
in storing it up,
and others in parting with it.

Martin Chuzzlewit.

Only the wisdom that holds the clue to all hearts and all mysteries can surely know to what extent a man can impose upon himself.

Little Dorrit.

Every man came into this world for something.

Gabriel Varden.

Twenty-fifth Day.

Perfect coolness and self-possession
... are indispensable
accomplishments of a great mind.

Pickwick Papers.

The hill has not lifted its face to Heaven yet,
that perseverance will not gain the summit of at last.

Nicholas Nickleby.

If you can't get to be uncommon
through going straight, you'll never get to do it through being crooked.

Great Expectations.

Twenty-sixth Day.

heerful of spirit and guiltless
of affectation true practical Christianity ever is.

The Uncommercial Traveller.

Live at least, in peace, and trust in God
to help.

Nicholas Nickleby.

Reflect upon your present blessings—of which every man has many—not on your past misfortunes,
of which all men have some.

Sketches by Boz.

All other swindlers upon earth are nothing
to the self-swindlers.

Great Expectations.

Twenty-seventh Day.

here's a moral in everything, if we would only avail ourselves of it.

Dombey and Son.

It is the highest part of the highest creed
to forgive before memory sleeps, and ever to remember how the good overcame the evil.

Haunted Man.

There is nothing, no, nothing innocent or good that dies and is forgotten.

Old Curiosity Shop.

It does not follow that the more talkative a person becomes
the more agreeable he is.

Dickens.

Twenty-eighth Day.

Blustering assertion goes for proof half over the world.

Little Dorrit.

From rough outsides serene and gentle influences
often proceed.

Dickens.

A generous nature is not prone to strong aversions, and is slow
to admit them even dispassionately.

Little Dorrit.

Twenty-ninth Day.

ork: don't make fine playing speeches about bread, but earn it.

Ralph Nickleby.

If I do my duty, I do what I ought, and do no more than all the rest.

Dombey and Son.

Do not strive and struggle to enrich yourselves or to get the better of each other.

Martin Chuzzlewit.

People accustomed from infancy to lie on down feathers,
have no idea how hard a paving-stone
is without trying it.

Hard Times.

Thirtieth Day.

Memory, however sad, is the best and purest
link between this world and a better.

Nicholas Nickleby.

It's enough for a man to understand his own business,
and not to interfere with other people's.

Christmas Carol.

It's a world full of hearts, and a serious world
with all its folly.

Battle of Life.

Thirty-first Day.

ur judgments are so liable to be influenced by many considerations, which almost without our knowing it, are unfair,
that it is necessary to keep a guard upon them.

Little Dorrit.

There are chords in the human heart—
strange varying strings—
which are only struck by accident.

Old Curiosity Shop.

It is well for a man to respect his own vocation,
whatever it is;
and to think himself bound to uphold it, and
to claim for it the respect it deserves.

Little Dorrit.

FROM DICKENS ***

Updated editions will replace the previous one—the old editions will be renamed.

Creating the works from print editions not protected by U.S. copyright law means that no one owns a United States copyright in these works, so the Foundation (and you!) can copy and distribute it in the United States without permission and without paying copyright royalties. Special rules, set forth in the General Terms of Use part of this license, apply to copying and distributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works to protect the PROJECT GUTENBERG™ concept and trademark. Project Gutenberg is a registered trademark, and may not be used if you charge for an eBook, except by following the terms of the trademark license, including paying royalties for use of the Project Gutenberg trademark. If you do not charge anything for copies of this eBook, complying with the trademark license is very easy. You may use this eBook for nearly any purpose such as creation of derivative works, reports, performances and research. Project Gutenberg eBooks may be modified and printed and given away—you may do practically ANYTHING in the United States with eBooks not protected by U.S. copyright law. Redistribution is subject to the trademark license, especially commercial redistribution.

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG™ LICENSE

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase “Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, “Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation.”
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.

- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES

EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility: www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
