Take a Can of Salmon

Salmon has been nourishing the human race and delighting the human palate since prehistoric times. Today, thanks to modern canning methods, it is becoming known more widely than ever as a cosmopolitan food fish. Its delicious flavor and the convenience of the easy-to-store, easy-to-use can are two good reasons for cooking and serving salmon frequently. But there are even better reasons. The protein in salmon is a complete protein, in the same food group as meat and poultry, cheese and eggs. When you serve salmon, you're serving the kind of food that your family needs every day.

You'll find that most of the recipes in this booklet suggest using the whole can of salmon, including the liquid, bones, and skin. That's because these are good sources of iodine and phosphorus, Vitamin A, Vitamin D, and the B group vitamins.

From every nutritional standpoint—high protein value, strong vitamin and mineral content, easy digestibility—salmon is a good food. It is also an economical food ... and so easy to serve!

If overweight is a problem in your family, you'll be glad to know that equal portions of salmon and lamb chops contain about the same amount of protein but, four ounces of salmon contain only 150 calories while four ounces of lamb chops contain 450 calories.

While canned salmon is the basic ingredient of many glamorous dishes, it is delicious if eaten just as it comes from the can, with perhaps a sprinkling of salt and pepper, some minced onion and mayonnaise. Salmon sandwiches made this way when you were a child were always a treat, and they're still favorites for school lunch boxes. And haven't you made use of the cool look that salmon gives to summer salads? By the way, recipes for the salad opposite, and for the Salmon Buffet on our cover, are on page 16.

Each recipe in this booklet has been prepared imaginatively to open your eyes to the versatility of salmon and the excitement it brings to dinner menus, party refreshments, and luncheon dishes. Try one today!

SALMON APPETIZERS AND DIPS

(RECIPES ON PAGE 16)

The canned salmon that comes to your table was caught in the waters of Alaska, Puget Sound or the Columbia River of the Pacific Northwest. It is a popular food all over the United States, partly because it is so easily adaptable to regional tastes and fits in so well with every local culinary tradition. In this booklet we have suggested a number of recipes of regional interest—yet all of them will fit in with your own meal planning wherever you live. First, look at these dishes ... smart for a luncheon or cocktail party in New York—or anywhere!

New York loves party food like this!

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.
