Change and Many a Change. Fcap. cloth, 3s. 6d.

“A little tale with a moral and religious bearing, showing how the sorrows and struggles of Fanny Powell, the daughter of a Welsh clergyman, served to develope her spiritual nature, and to make her the beloved of all.”—London Review.

ANDERSON, Rev. R.—A Practical Exposition of the Gospel of St. John. By the late Rev. ROBERT ANDERSON, Perpetual Curate of Trinity Chapel, Brighton. 2 vols. 12mo. cloth, 14s.

ANDREWES, Bishop.—Selections from the Sermons of LANCELOT ANDREWES, sometime Lord Bishop of Winchester, with a Preface by the Venerable the ARCHDEACON OF SURREY. Fcap. cloth, 3s.

ANLEY, Miss C.—Earlswood: a Tale for the Times. By CHARLOTTE ANLEY. Second Thousand. Fcap. cloth, 5s.

“We can recommend it with confidence.”—Christian Times.

BACON, Rev. H. B.—Lectures for the Use of Sick Persons. By the Rev. H. B. BACON, M.A. Fcap. cloth, 2s. 6d.

“The Lectures possess two very great recommendations. First,—they are brief, concise, and to the point; and secondly,—the language is plain, free from ambiguity, and scriptural. * * * It may be very profitably meditated upon by the sick; and young clergymen will not lay it down after perusal without having derived some instruction.”—Christian Guardian.

BATEMAN, Mrs.—The Two Families; or, the Power of Religion. By J. C. BATEMAN, Author of “The Netherwoods of Otterpool.” Fcap. cloth, 3s. 6d.

“This is an entertaining book, written in an unambitious and clear style, showing the elevating influence of religion, and the baneful effects of neglecting it. The moral of the story is healthful and not overdrawn, although rather hackneyed. We cordially praise the book for its earnestness and simplicity.”—Public Opinion.

“This little book is so well written, that we trust it will have a very wide circulation. Mrs. Bateman’s clever volume is admirably adapted for young people, but all may profit by its contents.”—Examiner.

“A simple, but touching biography. It records the trials and the consolations of one whose father died after a lingering illness, shortly before the period of her own dissolution; and whose mother survived this shock for a few months only. The experience of sorrow is thus sketched, under no ordinary circumstances, by the only surviving member of the family. There is nothing of maudlin sentimentalism in the book; it conveys some weighty lessons to the Christian reader.”—Liverpool Courier.

“A volume of excellent tendency, which may be put with safety and advantage into the hands of well-educated young people.”—Evangelical Magazine.

GRAY, Mrs. H.—History of Rome for Young Persons. By Mrs. HAMILTON GRAY. With numerous Wood Engravings. Second Edition, corrected. 1 vol. 12mo. cloth, 6s.

“A very ingenious attempt to bring the recent discoveries of the critical school into working competition with the miserable Goldsmiths and Pinnocks of our youth.”—Christian Remembrancer.

“The clear, lively, and pleasing style of narration is admirably calculated to awaken and sustain the attention.”—Athenæum.

— Emperors of Rome from Augustus to Constantine: being a Continuation of the History of Rome. 1 vol. 12mo. with Illustrations, 6s.

“So many applications are made to us for histories suited to a period of life when the mind is beginning to develop its power, and to find satisfaction in connecting the past with the present and the future in human affairs, that we are induced to recommend these volumes, which, however widely circulated, have not half the circulation which they deserve. They are clearly written. They neither minister to childish imbecility, nor take for granted a measure of knowledge which cannot be lawfully expected of the young. They present the page of history as it really is—not a series of dry details, nor of gorgeous spectacles, but with enough of plain fact to instruct the understanding, and of romantic incident to kindle the sympathies and affections.”—Christian Observer.

“We have no hesitation in saying, that this is one of the best histories of the Roman Empire for children and young people which has come under our notice. Mrs. Hamilton Gray has made herself acquainted with at least some of the more important ancient writers on the subject of which she treats, and also with the criticisms of Niebuhr and other modern investigators of Roman history.”—Athenæum.

“It may be recommended as a clear, rapid, and well-arranged summary of facts, pointed by frequent but brief reflections.... The book is a very good compendium of the Imperial History, primarily designed for children, but useful for all.”—Spectator.

“It would be an erroneous impression to convey of this volume, that it is written solely for schools and children. In reality it is an abridgment far more likely to be useful to grown-up persons, who can reflect upon the working of general laws, and make their own observations upon men and things. A striking characteristic of the book is the impartiality of its political tone and its high moral feeling.”—Examiner.

— The History of Etruria. Part I. Tarchun and his Times. From the Foundation of Tarquinia to the Foundation of Rome. Part II. From the Foundation of Rome to the General Peace of Anno Tarquiniensis, 839, B.C. 348. 2 vols. post 8vo. cloth, each 12s.

“A work which we strongly recommend as certain to afford pleasure and profit to every reader.”—Athenæum.

— Tour to the Sepulchres of Etruria in 1839. Third Edition. With numerous Illustrations, post 8vo. cloth, 1l. 1s.

“Mrs. Gray has won an honourable place in the large assembly of modern female writers.”—Quarterly Review.

“We warmly recommend Mrs. Gray’s most useful and interesting volume.”—Edinburgh Review.

GRIFFITH, Rev. T.—The Lord’s Prayer: contemplated as the Expression of the Primary Elements of Devoutness. Second Edition. Fcap. cloth, 2s.

— The Spiritual Life. Eighth Edition. Fcap. cloth, 4s.

GRIFFITH, Rev. T.—The Fatherhood of God. By the Rev. THOMAS GRIFFITH, A.M. Prebendary of St. Paul’s, and Minister of Ram’s Episcopal Chapel, Homerton. Fcap. 8vo. cloth, 4s. 6d.

“This is a thoughtful and valuable book, from an Author advantageously known by his former publications. It is divided into three parts: the Fatherhood of God Asserted, the Fatherhood of God Vindicated, the Fatherhood of God Established. There are phenomena which seem to contradict the notion we are justly taught to form of the Deity. How are we to understand them? What are we to infer from them? Questions of this kind have perplexed and distressed many minds. Mr. Griffith considers them sensibly and scripturally; and we feel convinced that the study of his work will satisfy many doubts. We are much pleased with the chapter on the toleration of Moral Evil. There are also some judicious remarks on prayer, the position it holds in regard to God’s assumed immutability. In short, many of the topics now specially exercising men’s thoughts are here well treated.”—Church of England Magazine.

“The Divine Fatherhood is the most soul-invigorating and soul-raising of all truths; whilst practically disregarded by the world, it is often concealed from congregations by the cloudy dogmas of the pulpit. We gratefully hail, therefore, every attempt of the pulpit to bring out this grand truth in bold relief before the consciences of men. This is no commonplace production. Many of the thoughts are strikingly original, the reasoning is everywhere close and cogent; the illustrations are telling; the style is pithy and pungent; and the spirit that of a manly and catholic evangelism.”—The Homilist.

“They are, in truth, as appears to us, compositions of very rare merit, and realise a notion we have always entertained, that a sermon for our rural congregations there somewhere was, if it could be hit off, which in language should be familiar without being plain, and in matter solid without being abstruse.”—Quarterly Review.

HATCHARD, Rev. T. G.—The Floweret Gathered; a Brief Memoir of a Departed Daughter. By T. GOODWIN HATCHARD, M.A. Rural Dean, Rector of St. Nicholas, Guildford. Third Thousand. Square 16mo, 1s.

“This is an account of one of the lambs of Christ’s fold, who exhibited the truest simplicity and natural character of a child, united to unwavering trust in and love to that Saviour, who took her early to himself. It is calculated both to interest, and, we trust, greatly to profit, our young friends, as a pattern of early piety.”—Church of England Sunday-school Monthly Magazine for Teachers.

“No one can rise from the perusal of this little volume without feeling deeply interested in the lovely character of the dear Addie.”—Jewish Intelligence.

“This is a touching little narrative for the young. Few will read it without a full heart, and the shedding of a tear of sweet sympathy with ‘The Floweret Gathered.’”—Children’s Jewish Advocate.

“A set of plain, spirited discourses, which are not unlikely to disturb the repose of the drowsy, and to send home simple truths to the hearts that heed them. The Sermons are, besides, scriptural in their doctrinal views, charitable in temper, unpolemical rather asserting the truth than contending for it.”—Christian Observer.

HEADLAND and SWETE.—St. Paul's Epistles to the Thessalonians. With an Introduction, Notes, Practical Thoughts, and Prayers, for Private and Family Use. By EDWARD HEADLAND, M. A., Rector of Broadway, Dorset, late Fellow of Caius College, Cambridge; and HENRY BARCLAY SWETE, M.A., Fellow of Caius College, and Curate of Blagdon, Somerset. Crown 8vo. cloth, 4s.

“This work is admirably adapted to answer the purpose for which it has been prepared and published; viz. that of supplying the wants of intelligent and inquiring readers of the Holy Scriptures with the means of becoming acquainted with the best results of modern Biblical research, who have not the learning requisite for seeking them in the critical and elaborate works which have been put forth of late.”—Clerical Journal.

“This will be found a valuable little book, illustrating the Epistles in question rather with a devotional than a critical purpose.”—John Bull.

“We can bear testimony to the scriptural orthodoxy, evangelical spirit, accurate scholarship, and lucid style which characterise it throughout. The notes are brief, but to the point, and omit no topic of interest or importance, and are interspersed with apposite sayings from commentators, ancient and modern, which often contain a world of truth. The ‘Practical Thoughts’ bring the truth of each chapter to bear on the heart and the conscience in a plain and instructive way, which renders the book very useful for reading at family worship; and a carefully-written Appendix presents the reader with a digest and criticism of the various interpretations which have been put forth on the Man of sin of the second chapter.”—Record.

Nothing can be more simple or in better taste than the style of the buildings here recommended; and an examination of the designs will show that Lady Kerrison has here made a very useful contribution to the efforts now being made to improve the condition of the labourer.”—Gardeners' Chronicle.

MOORE, Rev. D.—Thoughts on Preaching: specially in relation to the Requirements of the Age. By DANIEL MOORE, M.A. Incumbent of Camden Church, Camberwell, and Tuesday Morning Lecturer at St. Margaret's, Lothbury.

Contents:—1. Preaching as an Ordinance of God—2. The Office of Preaching—3. The Intellectual Demands of the Age—4. The Final Object of Preaching—5. The Parts and Arrangement of a Sermon—6. Style—7. Subject-Matter of Sermons—8. Delivery—9. Extempore Preaching—10. Supplemental Topics—Conclusion.

“A volume much wanted, well considered, sufficiently comprehensive to form a manual for clerical readers, &c.”—Christian Observer.

“This is a valuable work ... the most valuable manual we have on the subject.”—Christian Remembrancer.

“Mr. Moore has succeeded in advancing many principles and suggestions by which success (in preaching) may be obtained. A work of the kind was wanted.... The various topics included in the idea of a good sermon are fully discussed, and many admirable hints are furnished on the parts and arrangements of a sermon,—on style in relation to preaching,—the delivery of a sermon, on extempore preaching, &c.”—Journal of Sacred Literature.

“So far as we are aware the present will be found to be the most exhaustive treatise upon the subject that exists. Mr. Moore writes in a tone of excellent common sense. Its perusal is almost a duty for the clergy, and will not be without interest for the laity.”—Literary Gazette.

“Mr. Moore is a master in pulpit addresses; his suggestions are therefore entitled to great attention. We should like to put this volume into the hands of all candidates for the university, of all young clergymen, and of many old ones too. There is much of wise observation and judicious admonition in the book. It deserves to be carefully studied.”—Church of England Magazine.

“It is an admirable treatise. The young clergyman, and those who are not young, but who have yet a good deal to learn, will do well to make themselves familiar with it.”—British Quarterly Review.

“On all these subjects Mr. Moore treats fully, clearly, and earnestly, and introduces a great deal of illustration in the way of anecdote, or quotations from various well-known authors. The book is thus very interesting, apart from the great end it contemplates, and cannot be read without profit.”—Clerical Journal.

NESBITT, EMILY G.—Stories about St. Paul. By EMILY G. NESBITT, Author of “Mamma’s New Bible Stories, &c.” Square 16mo. cloth, 2s. 6d.

“A companion volume for the ‘Peep of Day;’ we cannot give higher commendation.”—Our Own Fireside.

“Teachers of very little children will find Miss Nesbitt’s ‘Stories about St. Paul’ a serviceable book.”—Athenæum.

“A concise narrative of the most memorable incidents connected with the life and death of the Apostle, rendered in familiar language, adapted to the awakening intelligence of very young children. The events are given in separate chapters, and may be referred to as daily lessons or otherwise; and as the pleasant style of the authoress is exceedingly well suited to the perceptions of the little ones for whom she has laboured, we have no doubt her ‘Stories about St. Paul’ will become popular in the nursery, and also in the infant schools.”—St James’s Chronicle.

“The little readers of ‘Stories about St. Paul’ will, by the time they have reached the last page of this pretty volume, know more about the apostle, prophet, and martyr, than many a painstaking reader of the New Testament of more mature age.”—Morning Advertiser.

“Very nicely written accounts of the facts of St. Paul’s life, for very young children.”—Spectator.

“Sermons distinguished by brevity, good sense, and a plainness of manner and exposition which well adapt them for family perusal, especially as their style is neat and simple, not bare.”—Spectator.

“The many who have read the first volume of these sermons will welcome, no doubt with joy, the appearance of the second. They are readable and preachable; and those of the second volume are even plainer and simpler than their predecessors. We recommend both volumes most heartily.”—English Review.

“Mr. Niven has done ample justice to this beautiful chapter. He has gone thoroughly into the literature of the subject; has fairly grappled with all the difficulties of the passage as they arise; has given his solution of them in a clear and convincing manner; and has so conducted the whole argument, that while it is all along expository it is also, and pari passu, eminently practical.”—British and Foreign Evangelical Review.

“It is replete with very precious lessons touching the great subject of which it treats. Let this book be thoroughly worked into the head, and into the heart, and death will have no terrors. It exhibits the Saviour's work in reference to mortality and immortality, with great beauty and feeling.”—British Standard.

“A plain, simple, and practical exposition of one of the most cheering and consolatory portions of Holy Writ that was ever given to the Christian Church, combined with an earnestness of purpose which does infinite credit to the clergyman who has prepared it.”—Bell's Weekly Messenger.

“We think this an admirable specimen of thoroughly Evangelical Pulpit teaching; and it is our earnest prayer that, from all the pulpits of our land, matter so good touching the King may be heard from Sabbath to Sabbath. We heartily commend this volume to our readers.”—Weekly Review.

“We have much pleasure in commending this little work to the public, for we believe it will carry comfort into many a bereaved and mourning home, and prove useful in throwing much light on the great subject with which it deals.”—Record.

“We think this a valuable little book. We are much interested with the chapter on ‘the resurrection body;’ and we willingly recommend the volume for its devout tone and weighty practical lessons.”—Church of England Magazine.

“We give this volume our heartiest commendation. It is suitable either for family reading, for the study, or for the closet.”—English Presbyterian Review.

“We can only hope that Mr. Niven's book will afford the comfort to many a sorrowing mourner which it is so fully calculated to give.”—Christian Advocate.

“We can safely say that this little volume contains as safe an exposition and treatment of the pre-millenarian system as we know; and its style is chaste, classic, and free from all tawdry ornament.”—British and Foreign Evangelical Review.

“Mr. Niven writes on a difficult subject with moderation and ability, and shows that the subject of the Redeemer’s kingdom may be so studied as to be practical and profitable to the simple Christian.”—Christian Observer.

PEARS, Rev. S. A.—Over the Sea; or, Letters from an Officer in India to his Children at Home. Edited by the Rev. S. A. PEARS, D.D. Fcap. cloth, with Illustrations. 4s. 6d.

“These letters from ‘Over the Sea’ contain just the kind of information that one wishes to have about the country and the people of India, and the mode of life of the English in the East. The description of scenery and sketches of native character and customs are graphic and entertaining, and the pictures are all the more vivid from the style being such as was deemed most adapted for youthful readers.”—Literary Gazette.

“... their tone is so manly, sensible, and affectionate, with a pervading element of unobtrusive religious principle, that it is impossible to read them without a feeling of regard for the anonymous writer, and interest in his youthful correspondents.”—Guardian.

“These letters possess two valuable qualities—reality and simplicity.”—Record.

“Are chiefly worth noticing for the preface about ‘Essays and Reviews,’ prefixed to the volume. It contains a great deal of good sense, and of sound and thoughtful remark, well expressed; and it deals with the case on its true footing, by treating the imperfect scepticism of the advanced portion of the Essayists as merely a gateway to the more logical and consistent infidelity of the ‘Westminster Review.’”—Guardian.

OWER, Mrs.—Tales illustrative of the Beatitudes. By Mrs. HARRIET POWER, Author of “Beatrice Langton,” &c. Crown 8vo. cloth, 6*s*.

“Mrs. Harriet Power is an old-established favourite. On this occasion she has written eight stories to illustrate the Beatitudes contained in the introductory verses of the portion of Scripture known as the Sermon on the Mount. They are full of incident, admirably illustrate human character, and enforce the blessedness of the peculiar graces of meekness, purity, peacemaking, humility, mercy, and forgiveness, which it is their purpose to enforce.”—Press.

“In this well-bound and admirably printed volume we have eight tales of a religious character, likely to increase the love of the young for religion, and to lead those of mature years to serviceable reflections. As aids to serious thought, and as a choice contribution to religious literature, we can cordially commend this work.”—Public Opinion.

Crown 8vo. cloth, 9s.

“We have had heretofore occasion favourably to notice productions from Mr. Rawnsley’s pen. We are glad to say that we find much to commend in the present volume. The Sermons it contains are plain, earnest, and devout. We cite a sentence in which our readers will see how faithfully Mr. Rawnsley maintains the doctrine of the atonement.”—Church of England Magazine.

“The matter of the Sermons is simple, mostly derived from Holy Scripture and the common occurrences of life; and the style is plain, yet earnest and affectionate. The practical improvement of the hearers seems everywhere to have been kept in view.”—Clerical Journal.

Reading without Tears; or, a Pleasant Mode of Learning to Read. By the Author of “Peep of Day,” &c. With numerous Woodcuts. Sixteenth Thousand. Part I. Square cloth, 2s.

* In this little work the attempt is made, by the classification of words, removing all perplexity, to prevent TEARS, and by a succession of pictures, furnishing constant entertainment, to preserve the SMILES of happy childhood while learning to read.

“That this elementary volume is the work of the authoress of the ‘Peep of Day’ will be a sure passport to the hearts of thousands, both parents and children. But apart from its authorship, the book itself is admirable; the arrangement, pictures, typography, and reading exercises being alike adapted to realise the idea of the title, learning to read ‘without tears.’ Teachers are addressed in some valuable prefatory remarks. The authoress lays great stress on the exclusion of the element of fiction from the narratives which she has introduced as lessons.”—Record.

“One great advantage of English sermons over those of most foreign preachers—we speak of good specimens of either class—is, that the former will bear reading as well as hearing. Those now before us, by Mr. Stokes, illustrate this good quality, they do not deal with any controverted subject, and very little with doctrine at all; but there is a tone of real piety and of love towards Christ pervading them, which stamp them as essentially Christian sermons.”—Literary Churchman.

“Exhibiting much research, the author presents his arguments in a clear and forcible manner, and without any personal invective he overwhelms with ridicule the deductions which infidels draw from scientific evidence. Throughout he preserves a dignified style, and while taking great pains to expose the assumption of philosophy, he never neglects to attack the lesser, but no less mischievous assaults of ignorance. As a valiant champion, our author is well armed at all points, and uses his weapons dexterously.”—Public Opinion.

YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
