1. One day in March, Nurse Jane bought a new rug, and Uncle Wiggily helped her take it home to the hollow stump bungalow. "If you hadn't helped me I never could have carried it," said the muskrat lady housekeeper. "My! how hard the wind blows!" Uncle Wiggily could feel it on his pink, twinkling nose. "The wind is getting worse!" he shouted. "Hold the rug, Nurse Jane! My hat is blowing off my head!"

2. Uncle Wiggily let go his end of the rug and reached up to grasp his hat as it blew off his head. But the wind was so strong that it filled the tall hat like a balloon, and lifted the bunny rabbit off his feet. “Uncle Wiggily! Help me!” cried Nurse Jane, as she felt the March wind beginning to raise the rug and her with it. But the bunny rabbit gentleman was having troubles of his own. Just look!

3. Uncle Wiggily heard Nurse Jane's cries and knowing that if he wished to save his housekeeper he would have to let go his hat, he did. Away it sailed, and then up in the air went the rug, taking the muskrat lady with it. "Come along, Uncle Wiggily!" shouted Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy, "I don't want to go adventuring alone!" The bunny hopped along until he grasped one corner of the rug. "Pull me up!" he begged.

4. Nurse Jane leaned over the edge of the rug, which was like a raft in the air, and caught hold of Uncle Wiggily. "Up you come!" she cried. "We're sailing away on a regular voyage!" "That's right!" agreed Uncle Wiggily, twinkling his pink nose very fast. "Mind your bonnet, Janie! It'll blow away." The muskrat lady said she had it tied by a string so it couldn't. "How will we ever get down?" she asked.

5. At last Nurse Jane pulled Uncle Wiggily up on the rug, and there they were safe for a while, at least. “But what is going to become of us?” asked the muskrat lady. Uncle Wiggily did not answer. He seemed to be looking at something in the air. “What is it?” asked Nurse Jane. “It looks like Mrs. Twistytail, the lady pig,” the bunny rabbit gentleman answered. “It must be a strong wind to blow her!”

6. The wind blew harder and harder. All at once it blew Mrs. Twistytail along so that she was directly over the rug on which were sailing Uncle Wiggily and Nurse Jane. “Quee! Quee!” cried the lady pig. “Oh, this is terrible!” Nurse Jane whispered and said: “It will be if she falls on us!” Uncle Wiggily twinkled his nose again. “She would be a good anchor to bring us to the ground,” said the bunny.

7. “If you can fall in between us, Mrs. Twistytail,” called Uncle Wiggily to the lady pig, “you will bear us to the ground.” The lady pig tried, but she missed the rug and fell on some hay. “Oh dear, we’ll never get down!” sighed Nurse Jane. “Yes! Yes!” cried Uncle Wiggily. “Mrs. Twistytail struck on some hay and she’s bouncing up! She will land on us yet and weight us down so that we can land!”

8. “Mrs. Twistytail! Mrs. Twistytail! This way if you please!” called Nurse Jane, when the lady pig, lovely and fat, was up in the air again, above the rug. “Fall here, Mrs. Twistytail, and you’ll help bear us to the earth!” Mrs. Twistytail squealed: “Quee! Quee! I’ll do my best,” she grunted. And down she fell, landing on the sailing rug, safely between Uncle Wiggily and Nurse Jane. Down they went!

9 “It’s a good thing you landed here with us, Mrs. Twistytail,” said Nurse Jane, as the pig lady fell softly on the rug. “It’s a good thing I didn’t alight on a church steeple!” grunted Mrs. Twistytail. “Oh, I never felt such a wind in all my life!” Uncle Wiggily said he was glad the pig lady happened to drop in. And then down to the ground went the rug with a bump. “How jolly!” laughed the Squiggle Bugs.

And if the lemon squeezer doesn't pinch the rubber ball and make it squeal like a little pig having his face washed, the next pictures and story will tell how

THE OLD FOLKS THINK IT'S EASY TO BE VERY GOOD IN SCHOOL. WELL; UNCLE WIGGILY TRIED IT, BUT BROKE NEARLY EVERY RULE. HAVE A LOOK!

1. One day, as he was hopping through the woods, Uncle Wiggily met Curly and Floppy Twistytail coming from school with their books. "Why are you so late coming from school?" asked the bunny. "We were kept in," grunted Floppy. "For being bad and having fun," squealed Curly. "Tut! Tut!" scolded Uncle Wiggily. "You should be good in school. Tomorrow I'll go to school and show you how."

2. The Lady Mouse Teacher said she would be very glad to have Uncle Wiggily come to the Hollow Stump School and show the animal boys and girls how to be good. So the bunny gentleman, next day, took his place at one of the desks. But you know how it is—Jackie Bow Wow couldn't help trying his new bean-blower. "Zip!" went a bean on Uncle Wiggily's nose. Right away Uncle Wiggily felt like a boy again.

3. “Oh, zippie!” whispered Uncle Wiggily out loud when he felt the bean sting him on the nose. “I’ll fix you for that, Jackie!” Then, forgetting he was there to show the pupils how to be good, Uncle Wiggily threw his wet sponge straight at the doggie boy. “Uncle Wiggily, I am surprised at you!” squeaked the Lady Mouse Teacher. “Why did you do that?” But Uncle Wiggily wouldn’t tell why he did it.

4. "I'll ask you to come up and sit in the front seat, Uncle Wiggily," squeaked the Lady Mouse Teacher sadly. "You said you wanted to come here to show my pupils how to be good in school, but you are cutting up worse than any of them ever did." So the bunny gentleman took his place in the punish seat. But still he wouldn't tell that Jackie had first hit him with a bean. Uncle Wiggily was a "SPORT," I think.

5. “Now that Uncle Wiggily sits where he can’t play any more of his tricks,” squeaked the Lady Mouse, “we shall go on with our lessons.” But while she was at the blackboard, Billie Wagtail, the goat, fastened a feather on a long stick, and, reaching over, tickled Mr. Longears. This was more than the bunny could stand. He turned around and Oh! he gave Billie such a look! And then something else happened.

6. Being tickled by a goat's feather—I mean by a feather the goat boy had—was too much for Uncle Wiggily. “Billie, I’m going to tickle you!” laughed Uncle Wiggily in his jolly voice. Then, forgetting all about being in school, the bunny snatched the stick away from Billie Wagtail and poked him in the ribs. “Oh, Ho! Ho! Ha! Ha!” laughed the goat. “Uncle Wiggily, I’m surprised at you!” squeaked the Mouse.

7. “Why did you tickle Billie with that stick, Uncle Wiggily?” asked the Lady Mouse Teacher. “Oh, because,” answered the bunny. And that was all he would say. He wouldn’t be a tattletale and tell on Billie. No, indeed! “I’m sorry, but I shall have to ask you to stand in the corner,” said the Lady Mouse. “I am afraid you aren’t doing my children much good.” So Uncle Wiggily stood in the corner.

8. All of a sudden, just as the Lady Mouse was going to ask the Kindergarten Class to sing, there was a noise at the door and in burst the bad old Skillery Scallery Alligator with the double-jointed tail. "Oh, my goodness!" squeaked Miss Mouse "Don't be afraid," bellowed the Alligator. "All I want are some nibbles from Uncle Wiggily's ears!" And the Skillery Scallery creature made a jump for the bunny.

9. All of a sudden, just as the Alligator was going to grab him, Uncle Wiggily blew chalk dust from the blackboard eraser into the eyes, nose and mouth of the bad chap. "A-ker-choo! Ker-zoo! Ker-snitzium!" sneezed the 'Gator, and he flopped a somersault and jumped out of the window, not nibbling any ears at all. "Uncle Wiggily, I shall forgive you because you saved us from the bad Alligator," said Miss Mouse.

And If the Ice Cream Doesn't Catch Cold When It Goes to the Rag Doll's Party With the Chocolate Cake's
Little Sister, the Next Pictures and Story Will Tell How

NURSE JANE MADE A PUDDING AND SHE MADE
IT HOT AND SWEET. THE DOGGIE BOYS SCRATCHED
SNOW UPON THE 'GATOR WITH THEIR FEET. DIDN'T THEY?

1. One day Nurse Jane said to Uncle Wiggily: "Here is a fine hot snow pudding that I have made for Mr. Bow Wow, the dog gentleman. Will you take it to him?" The bunny rabbit twinkled his pink nose and said that he would. "Is Mr. Bow Wow ill?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Just a little cold," answered nurse Jane. "I think the hot snow pudding will do him good." The bunny laughed "Ha! Ha!"

2. Uncle Wiggily, with the pail of hot snow pudding, hopped along until he met Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow with their sled. "Oh, ho, doggie boys!" cried the bunny. "I am taking this pail of hot pudding to your father." Then Jackie and Peetie barked joyfully and said they would give the pudding a ride on their sled. "And maybe," said Jackie to Peetie, "when we get the pudding home we can have some."

3. All of a sudden, as Jackie and Peetie were talking of how good the snow pudding would taste (if they had any) all at once Uncle Wiggily looked around and cried out: "Oh, the Wolf is coming after us! He wants the snow pudding, I guess!" Then the bunny and the doggie boys ran, and Jackie barked: "The Wolf can't have daddy's pudding!" But the Wolf howled: "Zoo! Zoo! I'll get that pudding!"

4. Uncle Wiggily, Jackie and Peetie ran so fast with the pudding on the sled that they kept ahead of the Wolf. But the bad chap ran faster and he was almost catching up when, all of a sudden, the sled struck a stone under the snow. "Oh, see what has happened!" barked Jackie. For the tin pail of pudding bounced off the sled and hit the Wolf on the end of his soft, tender nose, bumping and burning him.

5. The Wolf was so frightened when the pail of pudding hit him on the nose that he ran away. And, as the pudding wasn't in the least harmed, Uncle Wiggily picked it up and put it on the sled. "I'll sit with it and hold it," said Jackie. Then, all of a sudden, the Bob Cat began to chase after the three friends, howling: "I want ears! I want ears!" Uncle Wiggily told the doggie boys not to be afraid.

6. On and on raced Uncle Wiggily, helping Peetie pull the sled, while Jackie sat on it holding the pudding. “Why shouldn’t we be afraid, Uncle Wiggily?” asked Jackie. “How can you save us?” The Bob Cat caught up to them and took the cover off the pudding pail. Out popped the hot steam. “Oh, wow! I’m burned!” howled the Bob Cat. “Just what I thought would happen!” said Uncle Wiggily.

7. The Bob Cat dropped the pail of pudding after it burned him. Uncle Wiggily picked it up, put the cover back on the pail and started off again. "You sit on the sled and I'll ride you and the snow pudding," said the bunny. They had not gone very far before Jackie howled: "Something is chasing us, Uncle Wiggily!" The bunny asked who it was. "It's the Skillery Scallery Alligator!" said Peetie.

8. Uncle Wiggily hopped as fast as he could, but still the 'Gator came on. "Wait a minute, Uncle Wiggily!" barked Jackie. "Let Peetie and I stop this bad chap from chasing us." The bunny wanted to know how the doggies could do this. "We'll show you!" cried Peetie. He and Jackie scratched so much snow in the eyes, nose and mouth of the 'Gator that he could chase them no more.

9. “Oh, wiffie-woofie!” howled the ‘Gator as he felt the snow in his face. “I must have run into a blizzard! This is too much!” He turned about and ran home and the doggie boys hauled Uncle Wiggily on the sled with the pudding to their house. “Why did Nurse Jane call it a snow pudding?” asked the dog lady. “I guess because we had such fun bringing it to you over the snow,” laughed Uncle Wiggily.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
