

Sweets for Leisure Hours

A. Phillips and E. Phillips

The background of the lower half of the image is a solid blue field. Overlaid on this are various red geometric shapes. These include several downward-pointing triangles of different sizes, a single circle, and numerous horizontal and vertical line segments of varying lengths. Some of these lines are connected at right angles, forming a stepped or architectural pattern. There are also curved lines, including a large arc in the lower-left quadrant and a smaller arc in the center-right. The overall effect is a complex, abstract composition of primary colors.

THE FROZEN BIRD.

See, see, what a sweet little prize I have found!
A Robin that lay half-benumbed on the ground:
Well hous'd and well fed, in your cage
you will sing,
And make our dull winter as gay as the spring.

But stay,—sure 'tis cruel, with wings
 made to soar,
To be shut up in prison, and never fly more—
And I, who so often have long'd for a flight, Shall I keep you prisoner?—mamma, is that right?
No, come, pretty Robin, I must set you free—
For your whistle, though sweet, would sound sadly to me.

MAMMA AND THE BABY.

What a little thing am I!
Hardly higher than the table;
I can eat, and play, and cry,
But to work I am not able.

Nothing in the world I know,
But mamma will try and show me;
Sweet mamma, I love her so,

She's so very kind unto me.

And she sets me on her knee
Very often for some kisses:
O! how good I'll try to be,
To such a dear mamma as this is!

THE DUTIFUL SON.

Poor Susan was old and too feeble to spin,
Her forehead was wrinkled, her hands
they were thin;
And she must have starv'd, as so many have done,
If she had not been bless'd with a good little son.

He went every morning, as gay as a lark,
And work'd all day long in the fields till
'twas dark,
Then came home again to his dear
mother's cot,
And joyfully gave her the wages he got.

Oh then, was not little Jem happier far Than naughty, and idle, and wicked boys are?
For, as long as he liv'd, 'twas his comfort and joy,
To think he'd not been an undutiful boy.

THE CHIMNEY-SWEEPER.

Whilst you are asleep, the poor little sweep
At the dawning of morning must go,
With brushes and bags, and cloth'd all in rags,
In the winter, thro' frost and thro'
snow.

We're oblig'd, I am sure, for what they endure,
To save us from smoke and from fire;
And often I weep to think that the sweep
Must do such sad work for his hire.

Then we'll keep in mind, that the sweep's very kind,
For us such a service to do,
And never feel fright when he comes in our sight,
Because of his dark sooty hue.

TUMBLE UP.

Tumble down, tumble up, never mind it,
my sweet,
No, no, never beat the poor ground;
'Twas your fault you could not stand straight on your feet,
Fall you will, if you twirl yourself round.

Oh dear! what a noise:—will a noise make it well?

Will crying wash bruises away?
Suppose that it should bleed a little, and swell,
'Twill all be gone down in a day.

That's right; be a man, love, and dry up your tears,
Come, smile, and I'll give you a kiss;

If you live in the world but a very few years,
You must bear greater troubles than this.

A WALK TO THE MEADOWS.

We'll go to the meadow, where cowslips do grow,
 And buttercups looking as yellow
 as gold;
And the daisies and violets beginning to blow,
 For it is a most beautiful sight to behold.

The honey-bee humming about there is seen,
The butterfly merrily skims it along;
The grasshopper chirps in the hedges
so green,
And the linnet there sings us his liveliest song.

The birds and the insects are happy and gay;
The beasts of the field all are glad,
and rejoice;
We, too, will be thankful to God every day,
And praise His great name in a loftier voice.

THE OLD MAN's COMFORTS.

“You are old, Father William,” a young man did say,

“And life must be hast’ning away;
You are cheerful, and love to converse upon death:

Now tell me the reason, I pray.”

“I am cheerful, young man,” Father
William replied,

“Let the cause thy attention engage:
In the days of my youth I remember’d
my God,
And he hath not forgotten my age.”

CONTENTMENT.

No glory I covet, nor riches I want,
Ambition is nothing to me;
The one thing I beg of kind heaven to grant,
Is a mind independent and free.

With passion unruffled, untainted with pride,
By reason my life let me square;

The wants of my nature are cheaply supplied;
And the rest is but folly and care.

The blessing which Providence kindly has lent
I'll justly and gratefully prize;
While sweet meditation and cheerful content Shall make me both healthful and wise.

MORNING HYMN.

My Father, I thank thee for sleep,
For quiet and peaceable rest;
I thank thee for stooping to keep An infant from being distrest.

My voice shall be lisping thy praise,

My heart would repay thee
with love;
O teach me to walk in thy ways,
And fit me to see thee above.

As long as thou seest it right That here upon earth I should stay,
I pray thee to guard me by night,
And help me to serve thee by day.

EVENING HYMN.

The sun that lately fill'd the skies
With all his sparkling rays, Now hides his glories from our eyes,
And night comes on apace.

And now to him who made the Sun,
The world by day to light,

Who gave the gentler Moon to cheer
The still and gloomy night.

To him, O let my willing tongue
Send up the grateful strain;
And let my heart join with the song,
Or all my praise is vain.

TO BLESS, IS TO BE BLEST.

When young, what honest triumph flush'd
my breast,
This truth once known,—To bless, is to be blest!
I led the bending beggar on his way; (Bare were his feet, his tresses silver-grey;)
Soothed the keen pangs his aged spirit felt,

And on his tale with mute attention dwelt.
As in his script I dropp'd my little store,
I griev'd to think that little was no more;
He breath'd his pray'r,—“Long may such goodness live!”
'Twas all he gave, 'twas all he had to give.

THE LITTLE MOUSE.

In this neat little house
Liv'd a poor little mouse,
He had plenty to eat every day;
Till, enticed by another,
Without leave of his mother,
He ventured one day out to play.

But the cat he soon spied,
As he walk'd the bank-side,

And soon of his folly repented.
She put out her paw,
Seized him with her claw,
And eat him before she relented.

LOVE TO GOD

PRODUCES LOVE TO MEN.

Let gratitude in acts of goodness flow;
Our love to God, in love to man below.
Be this our joy—to calm the troubled breast,
Support the weak, and succour the
distrest;
Direct the wand'rer, dry the widow's tear;

The orphan guard, the sinking spirits
cheer.

Tho' small our pow'r to act, tho' mean our skill,

God sees the heart;—he judges by the will.

TRUE KINDNESS.

“Pray help me, young master,” an old woman cried,
Who many an effort successlessly tried,
Across some rough pavement to
go;
“For I’m very lame, and besides,
almost blind,

And so, without danger, my way I can't find;
You'll help a poor woman, I know."

"With great pleasure I will," the little boy said,
"Come, lean on my shoulder, and be not afraid,
I'm able to help you, indeed;
And I'm sure I am willing, for I have been taught,
That if, my good dame, I would do as I ought,
I must help all I can, who're in need."

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. 1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. 1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
