The Story

Of A Bit Of Mischief And

What Came Of It

Wee Peter Pug

My Dame has lost her shoe and knows not where to find it.

Now if you had seen the eager smile on the face of Wee Peter Pug you might have suspected that he had something to do with the loss of Dame's shoe—and you would have been right. What pup could have resisted such a nice red fluffy shoe?

So he marched with it triumphantly into the garden and hid it behind the lawn roller.

Feeling very proud, Wee Peter trotted off to tell his chum, Nigger, the black kitten, all about his little joke. “What do you think I’ve done?” he cried.

“I’ve hidden the Dame’s shoe!”

“Surely not!” cried Nigger. “How funny!”

And she shook with laughter.

At the other end of the garden was Mrs. Hen with her chicks.

“Let’s come and tell her,” suggested Nigger, and off they went.

“Such a lark!” cried Wee Peter. “I’ve hidden the Dame’s shoe!”

Mrs. Hen’s angry cackle-cackle turned into a very merry one.

“What fun!” she cried, and

“What fun!” squeaked the little chicks.

All three ran eagerly down the pathway until they came across Sir Cockerel perched in a dignified attitude on the fence.

“What do you think?” asked Mrs. Hen, who, being the eldest, thought she was entitled to speak first; but before she could open her mouth Wee Peter Pug cried, “I’ve hidden the Dame’s shoe!”

“What a splendid joke!” exclaimed Sir Cockerel.

“Does Mrs. Duck know?” asked Sir Cockerel.

“No, let’s see if we can find her,” said Wee Peter.

“What’s all the excitement about?” demanded Mrs. Duck when she saw them coming to the lakeside.

“I’ve hidden the Dame’s shoe,” said Peter.

Mrs. Duck quacked uproariously.

“I’ve never heard anything so funny!” she declared.

Mrs. Duck waddled ashore. “We must tell somebody else,” said she.

At that moment Billy Rabbit poked his inquisitive nose through the hedge.

“You seem very much amused,” said he.

“So will you be when you know. I’ve hidden the Dame’s shoe!” Billy’s laugh spread from ear to ear.

“That’s fine fun!” he cried, and off he ran to tell the woodfolk.

So many of them had collected by now that there was quite a procession.

“Let’s go back and see my Dame look for her shoe,” suggested Wee Peter Pug.

He led the way and they all followed him. They were all speaking at once and made such a commotion that all the wee creatures in the garden wondered what had happened.

“Can’t we find a better place to hide it?” said Wee Peter.

“Put it behind my house,” suggested Mrs. Hen.

“Or in the lake,” quacked Mrs. Duck.

“Or in the hedge,” suggested Billy Rabbit.

Suggestions came from all of them, and the noise was so great that my Dame hurried out into the garden to see what was the matter.

It is a sad ending to the story of Wee Peter Pug. But just as the Dame came out into the garden Wee Peter had picked up her shoe and was thinking of another hiding place, when she caught sight of him.

“Oh! You naughty Peter!” she cried. And she spanked him with the shoe which had caused all the fun. Everybody laughed delightedly, except Peter.

So you see instead of Wee Peter Pug hiding the shoe, it was the shoe that gave poor Peter Pug a hiding! Perhaps he deserved it. What do you think?

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
