

The Boke
of Saint . . .
Albans by . . .
Dame Juliana
Berners: 1486

The Boke
of Saint . . .
Elbans by . .
Dame Juliana
Berners: 1486

The Project Gutenberg eBook of The boke of Saint Albans

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

Title: The boke of Saint Albans containing treatises on hawking, hunting, and cote armour

Author: Juliana Berners

Author of introduction, etc.: William Blades

Release date: July 24, 2023 [eBook #71266]

Language: English

Original publication: United Kingdom: Elliot Stock.

Other information and formats: www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/71266

Credits: Richard Tonsing and the Online Distributed Proofreading Team at <https://www.pgdp.net> (This file was produced from images generously made available by The Internet Archive)

 START OF THE PROJECT GUTENBERG EBOOK THE BOKE OF SAINT ALBANS ***

Transcriber's Note:

New original cover art included with this eBook is granted to the public domain.

The Boke of Saint Albans

The Boke of Saint Albans

BY DAME JULIANA BERNERS

CONTAINING

TREATISES ON HAWKING, HUNTING, AND COTE ARMOUR:

PRINTED AT SAINT ALBANS BY THE SCHOOLMASTER-PRINTER
IN 1486

REPRODUCED IN FACSIMILE

With an Introduction by

WILLIAM BLADES

AUTHOR OF "THE LIFE AND TYPOGRAPHY OF WILLIAM CAXTON"

LONDON
ELLIOT STOCK, PATERNOSTER ROW, E.C.

“Manhood I am, therefore I me delyght
To hunt and hawke, to nourish up and fede
The greyhounde to the course, the hawke to th’ flight,
And to bestryde a good and lusty stede.”

From SIR THOMAS MORE’S Poems.

Introduction.

Several independent printing presses were established in England before the close of the fifteenth century; and from them issued numerous books which are invaluable to all students of antiquity from the light they throw upon the social habits and literary progress of our nation. Of these it may safely be said that not one exceeds in interest that work of an unknown typographer, which is here presented in facsimile, and which, from the town in which it was compiled, as well as printed, is known to all bibliographers as “The Book of St. Albans.” This work has always been a favourite, partly because our feelings are appealed to in favour of the writer who for centuries has taken rank as England’s earliest poetess, and is still, in all our Biographical Dictionaries, reckoned among “noble authors;” and partly because we love mysteries, and a mystery has always enshrouded the nameless printer. The subjects, too, so curiously alliterative—Hawking, Hunting, and Heraldry, have an enticing and antique flavour about them, being just those with which, at that period, every man claiming to be “gentle” was expected to be familiar; while ignorance of their laws and language was to confess himself a “churl.”

As to the language and orthography of the book, it is a never-failing source of interest, being quite different from any other printed work of the fifteenth century, except the St. Albans’ Chronicle from the same press. Among bibliographers it ranks as “rarissimus,” the known copies being so few that they might probably be counted on the fingers of one hand.

Looking at the book, then, all round, it will be a convenient plan to consider these subjects separately, and to treat the volume in its four aspects of Authorship, Typography and Bibliography, Subject-matter, and Philology.

CHAPTER I.

Authorship.

Historians and Biographers, together with Librarians and Booksellers, have a natural antipathy to anonymous books; and, wherever they can, are willing to accept the smallest amount of evidence as proof of paternity. It saves much trouble and avoids numerous errors in cataloguing, when a recognised name can be associated with an anonymous work. From this tendency a bad habit has arisen of attributing to particular writers books concerning which the evidence of authorship is doubtful, if not altogether untrustworthy.

In this very book we have a striking instance of such erroneous attribution. The three treatises, of which the book is made up, are quite distinct, and to a portion only of one of these is there any author's name attached. Yet that name, "Dam Julyans Barnes," altered by degrees to "Dame Juliana Berners," is now universally received as the name of the authoress of the whole volume. With even less show of reason she is credited with the authorship of a "Treatise on Fishing" for which there is not the shadow of evidence, that treatise having been added ten years later by Wynken de Worde, who, when reprinting the Book of St. Albans, thought that the subject of Fishing would complete the work as a Gentleman's Vade Mecum.

There are really four distinct tractates in the Book of St. Albans, although the two last being on Heraldry are generally counted as one.

The first is on Hawking; to this no name of the author is attached, but it has a prologue which no one acquainted with the other writings of the printer can doubt to be his. Of this we shall have more to say anon.

The second tractate is on Hunting: it is specially associated with the name of Dame Juliana Berners, and will require a more extended elucidation than the others.

Here the evidence of authorship is as good as for most pieces of fifteenth-century production—a period at which literary rights did not exist, and when the scribe, if at all acquainted with the subject upon which the book he was copying treated, did not scruple to interpolate his own ideas, and that without any egotistical vanity, but merely from a feeling that all books being written for the good of men, and not from vanity in the author, it was a duty to improve them where possible. But as improvement mostly meant the addition of something on the same subject taken from another manuscript, we have the constant occurrence of one MS. being a compilation of two or three others, and yet appearing under the name of the last compiler.

In this treatise on Hunting we have the express statement at the end of the twenty-fourth page—“Explicit Dam Julyans Barnes.” This might certainly apply to the transcription only, but, when taken with Wynken de Worde’s version, the probability is, that the lady compiled as well as wrote it. In the reprint by Wynken de Worde, only ten years later than the original, he varies the colophon thus:—“¶ Explicit dame Julyans Bernes doctryne in her boke of huntynge,” the whole reprint ending “Enprynted at westmestre by Winkyn the Worde the yere of thyncarnacōn of our lorde. M . CCCC . lxxxvj.” So that he, a contemporary, evidently believed her to be the authoress. Later authorities attributed the whole book to her pen, but as they were in possession of no more evidence than we now are, and probably not so much, we should attach no weight to such statements, which were founded simply on a vivid imagination.

But what is known of the lady who is admitted to have compiled the twenty-four pages on Hunting? Who was Dame Julians Barnes? Here, unless a sentimental and inventive sympathy be employed to throw an artificial light upon the darkness, we are in total ignorance. A biography of her has certainly been written, and all our Dictionaries and Encyclopædias devote a page or two to her history, which, in 1810, under Haslewood’s nurture, attained its full development. Even so far back as 1549, or nearly a century after her supposed death, the learned Bale, who wrote an account of all our English celebrities, allows his gallantry to bedeck her memory with garments fine. “Fœmina illustris!” he exclaims, “corporis et animi dotibus abundans ac forma elegantia spectabilis” (An illustrious lady! abundantly gifted, both in body and mind, and charming in the elegance of her mien). Considering that the name of the lady is the whole of the text upon which Bale had to build, this is by no means a bad specimen of imaginative biography, and became a good foundation for future commentators. The story, however, fared rather badly at first; for Holinshed, in 1577, while echoing Bale very exactly, is made, by a curious error of the printer, who mistook the letters rn for m, to call the authoress Julyan Bemēs; while Baker in his Chronicles, too careless even to refer to the original text, adds another blunder to the story, and, thinking that Julyan must be a man’s name, dubs the authoress “a gentleman of excellent gifts, who wrote certain treatises of Hawking and Hunting.”

Chauncy, in 1700 (History of Hertfordshire), restored her sex to the lady, and then set to work upon making a family history for her. His first discovery was that, being a “Dame,” she was of noble blood. Finding also that the family name of Lord Berners was, in olden time, spelt occasionally Barnes, he soon supplied a father for our authoress, in the person of Sir James Berners. And so the game of making history went on merrily up to the time of Joseph Haslewood, who, in 1810, reprinted Wynken de Worde’s edition of the Book of St. Albans, and supplied a full-blown biography of the authoress, giving particulars of her birth and education, the occupations of her youthful days, and a most imposing pedigree. Let us quote Haslewood’s own words: “Julyans, or Juliana, Barnes, otherwise Berners, who has been generally designated as the authoress of the present volume, is supposed to have been born, towards the latter end of the fourteenth century, at Roding-Berners, in the county of Essex. The received report is that she was the daughter of Sir James Berners, whose son was created Baron Berners, temp. Henry IV., and that she once held the situation of Prioress of Sopwell Nunnery, in Hertfordshire.” He then attributes to her the authorship of all four works in the Book of St. Albans. The difficulty of accounting for a lady so placed writing upon such subjects, is cleverly, if not satisfactorily settled by assuming that she passed her teens at court, partaking of the amusements of the field, and writing for her own use a commonplace book on various subjects. Then retiring through disappointment (doubtless a love affair) to a cloister, her rank raised her to the position of prioress. There in her seclusion, writing amidst the solitude of listless hours and vain regrets, she versified the general rules of sport from her own pleasant recollection, and from the diaries of her youthful happiness, which fortunately she had preserved. If we remember the mania which seized all classes for diary-keeping at the beginning of this century, when Haslewood wrote this, it will deepen our sense of humour to note that he attributes private diary-keeping to a young lady who lived ante 1450.

But enough of such sham biography; let us return to facts.

The word “Dame” did not in the fifteenth century, as it does now, imply any connection with a titled family, it meant simply Mistress or Mrs. Chaucer speaks of Dame Partlet in this sense; and had the Dame Julyans Barnes of the fifteenth century lived now, she would have been just “Mrs. Barnes.”

Similarity of name in history, like similarity of sound in philology is a will-o'-the-wisp which has led many a writer into a bog. Allowing that Lord Berners' name was sometimes spelt Barnes, is that sufficient reason for making our authoress a member of his family? I think not.

That the greater portion of the book on Hunting was compiled by Mistress Barnes, is probably correct,^[1] and had she written much more, and produced even an original work on the subject, she would not have stood alone, even at that early period, as an authoress. Crystine de Pisan, two of whose works were printed by Caxton, was contemporary with Julians Barnes, and left not only numerous original writings behind her—one of which was upon the Art of War—but left her mark, and that no mean nor ignoble one, upon the political course and moral development of her countrymen. But Dame Julyans' work upon Hunting is certainly not original, as indeed very few works upon any subject were at that period. This is evident from a glance at the text and the grouping of the subjects. It begins with distinguishing the varieties of beasts and their ages; the proper names by which to designate the beasts, singly and together; on hunting and dressing a Roe, a Boar, a Hare; of flaying; of the horns of a Roebuck; of the Hart; of the seasons; of the Hare. Then follows, from another source, an interpolation of a discourse between a Master of the Hunt and his man, going over portions of the same ground again; and this ended, we get back again to the original MS. and the dismemberment of various beasts. All through, with the exception of the interpolated conversation, the text is addressed to “My deare childe.” Thus we read—“Do so, my child;” “Think what I say, my son;” “My lief childer;” “Say, child, where you go? my dame taught you so.” Evidently that portion was originally written for a mother to use as a school-book, by which her son would learn to read, and, at the same time, become familiar with the terms of venery.

¹. Taking Berners and Barnes to be the same word, it is curious to note—in connection with the work attributed to Dame Juliana, viz., The Book of Hunting—that the masters of that sport employed men called Berners, to be ready with relays of horses and to feed the hounds.—See Halliwell’s “Dictionary of Archaic and Provincial Words.”

In the Bodleian Library is a small manuscript on the Terms of the Chase, the beginning of which is:—

“Mi dere sones, where ye fare, be frith or by fell, Take good hede in his tyme how Tristram wol tell.”

This manuscript was probably copied by some youth as a school-exercise, which would account for the following odd colophon—“Explicit, expliceat, ludere scriptor eat.”

Compare the above with the opening stanza of the verses we attribute to Mistress Barnes:—

“Wheresoever ye fare, by frith or by fell,^[2]
My dear child, take heed how Tristram doth you tell.”^[3]

². “By frith or by fell” = by forest or by plain; but see Halliwell’s Dictionary.

³. Sir Tristram, the well-known knight of the Round Table, was a mighty hunter, and the great authority upon all subjects connected with the chase. Popular belief attributed to him the origin of all the special terms used in hunting, and his name was invoked to give authority to any statement upon this subject, just as in a later century the arithmetical rules of Cocker give rise to the popular phrase —“According to Cocker.”

The rest of the Oxford MS. is in similar accord with the print, but nowhere in it is there a word about Mistress Barnes.

The words “Explicit Dam Julyans Barnes” have been considered to prove that the lady was alive when the book was printed. If, however, Sir James Berners were her father, of which there is no evidence, she must have been close upon a hundred years old in 1486, as he died in 1390. But this is importing a needless difficulty into the theory, which is not rendered more probable by making the authoress and printer contemporary.

It may here be as well to say a few words about Sopwell Nunnery, over which, without a particle of evidence, our authoress is supposed to have presided. Sopwell Nunnery, Hertfordshire, was founded about 1140, under the rule of St. Benedict, and subject to the Abbot of St. Albans, from which it was not far distant. The rule of life among the inmates was very severe, and at the first the nuns were enclosed under locks and bolts, made additionally sure by the seal, on the door, of the Abbot for the time being (Chauncy's History, p. 466). How long this lasted, and how the nuns liked it, history saith not; but, in 1338, a re-organisation had become imperative, and the Abbot of St. Albans, among other instructions, ordered that no nun should lodge out of the house, and no guest within it (Newcome, p. 468). There does not seem much scope left here for the Prioress to take an active part in field sports, though a hundred and fifty years later, which was about the period of our "Dame," many relaxations of the strict rules may have become common. But, then, we have apparently accurate lists of all the Prioresses of Sopwell in the fifteenth century, and the name of Juliana Barnes does not appear at all in them. The known dates are these:—In 1416, Matilda de Flamstede was Prioress. Four years before her death, which was in 1430, she was succeeded by Letitia Wyttenham. The next whose name is known was Joan Chapell; the date of her appointment is not recorded, but as she was set aside in 1480 on account of her age, she had probably occupied the position for many years. In 1480, Elizabeth Webb succeeded Joan Chapell.

What is really known of the Dame is almost nothing, and may be summed up in the following few words. She probably lived at the beginning of the fifteenth century, and she possibly compiled from existing MSS. some rhymes on Hunting.

There is still the authorship of the other parts of the book to determine, and if similarity of wording and phraseology may be taken as evidence, they were all from one pen.

At the end of the book on Heraldry the printer has put the following—"Here endeth the book of Blasing of Arms translated and compiled together at Seynt Albons." Here we have the printer's own statement as to the origin of his text, and doubtless this, as well as the treatise on Hawking, were made up or "compiled" from more than one manuscript in French. Haslewood gives a list of such as are in the British Museum, in several of which portions of the printed work are contained. Works on Hunting and Hawking were not uncommon in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries, and are still found in all large collections of manuscripts. There were several in the libraries of the Dukes of Burgundy in the fifteenth century, and many are still extant in the national collections of England and France.

The other tractates in the volume have an origin very similar to that of the Book of Hunting. The Book of Hawking is an evident compilation from several manuscripts, which accounts perhaps for its deficiency in arrangement and want of continuity. The Book of Coat Armour also has two distinct sources in contemporary works, one of which was the "De Officio Militari" of Nicholas Upton. From this the schoolmaster copied Book IV. almost word for word, supplementing it from "The Book of the Lineage of Coat Armour," as stated already. The only other literary work which can be attributed to our printer is the extensive compilation known as the St. Albans' Chronicle or the Fructus Temporum. But neither in the Chronicle, where he simply combined two histories into one, nor in the Book of St. Albans, which is also a compilation, does the schoolmaster show any literary ability above the average of scholars of his period.

As specimens of the schoolmaster's powers of composition we annex the following, the originals of which can be seen in the ensuing facsimile pages:—

Prologue to the Book of Hawking.

“In so much that gentlemen and honest persons have great delight in Hawking, and desire to have the manner to take hawks: and also how and in what wise they should guide them ordinally: and to know the gentle terms in communing of their hawks: and to understand their sicknesses and infirmities, and to know medicines for them according, and the many notable terms that be used in hawking both of their hawks and of the fowls that their hawks shall slay. Therefore this book following in a due form shows very knowledge of such pleasure to gentlemen and persons disposed to see it.”

Prologue to Mistress Barnes' Compilation on Hunting.

“Likewise, as in the Book of Hawking aforesaid are written and noted the terms of pleasure belonging to gentlemen having delight therein, in the same manner this book following sheweth to such gentle persons the manner of Hunting for all manner of beasts, whether they be beasts of Venery, or of Chace, or Rascal. And also it sheweth all the terms convenient as well to the hounds as to the beasts aforesaid. And in certain there be many diverse of them as it is declared in the book following.”

Prologue to the Book of Coat Armour.

“Here in this book following is determined the lineage of Coat Armours: and how gentlemen shall be known from ungentle men, and how bondage began first in angel and after succeeded in man kind, as it is here showed in process, both in the childer of Adam and also of Noe, and how Noe divided the world in three parts to his three sons. Also there be showed the nine colours in Arms figured by the nine orders of Angels, and it is showed by the foresaid colours which be worthy and which be royal; and of regalities which be noble and which be excellent. And there be here the vertues of Chivalry, and many other notable and famous things, to the pleasure of noble persons shall be showed, as the works following witnesses, whosoever liketh to see them and read them, which were too long now to rehearse. And after these notable things aforesaid followeth the Blasing of all manner Arms in Latin, French, and English.”

So wrote the schoolmaster. Let us now see what kind of book this is typographically.

CHAPTER II.

Typography and Bibliography.

Old books must be loved, and their idiosyncrasies carefully studied, before they will yield up all their treasures; that done, the observant lover will obtain possession of both soul and body; he may revel in the intellectual feast provided by the author, or he may study the material and mechanical features of the books as represented by the peculiarities of paper and the habits and customs of the various printers. Then, by grouping these as a botanist does his flowers, according to their organisation into classes, orders, genera, and species, he may extract from his volumes true replies to questions which otherwise would remain hidden for ever. So true is the dictum, "The Mind it is which sees, and not the Eye alone."

Many bibliophiles, however, of education and taste have been positively blind when outside the circle of their own particular studies. So it was with the Rev. Dr. M'Neille, a well-known critic and book-collector of sixty years ago. When addressing Dr. Dibdin he wrote thus of "The Book of St. Albans"—"This book is itself useless, and only a bon morceau for the quizzical collector." With such feelings towards one of the most curious works which this country produced during the infancy of the printing press, it was simply impossible that the interest of its pages should be revealed to him; and however rich in divinity and editiones principes of the classics the library of the worthy doctor may have been, it is evident that our Book of St. Albans could never have been aught but an alien on his book-shelves.

The works printed by William Caxton were almost without exception in the English tongue, while the contemporary presses of Oxford, St. Albans, and Machlinia were nearly all in Latin. Of the eight books at present known to have been printed at St. Albans, the only two in English were the "Fructus Temporum" and the work under review. The "Fructus" or St. Albans' Chronicle is the same as that printed two years previously by Caxton, with the addition of certain ecclesiastical events and Papal chronology, probably added by the printer himself to please the monks.

The Book of St. Albans' and the St. Albans' Chronicle make a class of themselves; but as it is impossible to understand their position without a glance at the other works from the same press, we will give a tabulated description of the whole eight.

BOOKS PRINTED AT ST. ALBANS IN FIFTEENTH CENTURY.

	Title of Book.	Language.	Size.	Date of Printing.	No. of Printed Leaves.	Type.	Size of Printed Page.	Signatures.	Printed Initials.	Ink.	Device.	Woodcuts.	Lines in Page.
1	Augustini Dacti elegancie	Latin	4to	n. d.	18	1	5¾ × 3½	none	none	black	none	none	36
2	Laur: de Saona Rhetorica nova	Latin	4to	1480	81	2–1	5¾ × 3½	signed	none	black	none	none	24
3	Alberti quest. de modo Significandi	Latin	4to	1480	46	3–1	5¾ × 3½	signed	none	black	none	none	32
4	Joan: Canonici Quest. sup. Phys. Arist.	Latin	fol.	1481	174	3	8 × 5	signed	none	black	none	none	44
5	Exempla sacre scripture	Latin	4to	1481	83	3	5¾ × 3½	signed	none	black	none	none	32
6	Ant. Andreae super Logica Aristotelis	Latin	4to	1482	335	3	5¾ × 3½	signed	none	black	none	none	32
7	Chronicles of England	Engl.	fol.	1483?	295	2	8 × 5	every leaf signed	yes	black & red	with	yes	32
8	The Book of St. Albans	Engl.	fol.	1486	88	2–4	8 × 5	signed	yes	black & red	with	yes	32

But who was the printer? What was his name? Was he associated with the great Abbey? and is there any internal or external evidence in his works to connect him with any other printer or any other town?

The only notice we have of the printer is an accidental one by Wynken de Worde, who, in reprinting the St. Albans' Chronicle, says in the colophon, "Here endith this present Chronicle ... compiled in a book and also enprinted by our sometime Schoolmaster of St. Alban." He was a schoolmaster, then, and this will account for the nature of his early works, all scholastic and all in Latin. Not till the end of his typographical career did he realise the fact that the printing press, instead of being the hobby of a few learned men, was the educator of the people, the whole nation; and then he gave his countrymen what they wanted—a history of their own country and a book upon the whole (secular) duty of the gentleman, as then understood.

The name of the schoolmaster-printer is quite unknown. No notice of him is found in the records of the Abbey, nor does he appear in any contemporary document. Yet here, as in Mistress Barnes's case, imagination has come to the rescue and a legendary name has been provided.

Finding that the Prologue to the Book of Hawking began with the words, "Insomuch as gentle men and honest persons have great delight in Hawking;" finding also that the St. Alban's Chronicle from the same press began thus: "Insomuch as it is necessary;" and bearing in mind that certain old authors had veiled their names in the first words of their works, Dr. Chauncy arrived at the sagacious conclusion that the St. Albans printer wished to veil his name, which really was "Insomuch." The joke, for it almost seems like one, does not bear even the scrutiny which itself invites, for although the schoolmaster uses the words in two other places, in neither case are they at the beginning of a chapter.^[4] It should be added that in this the worthy historian of Hertfordshire only followed the lead of both Bale and Pits.

⁴ On sig. a j recto of "Cote Armour" is "Insomuch as all gentleness comes of God;" and upon sig. b iiij verso is "Insomuch that in the fifth quadrat," &c. The use of the word in these cases could have no veiled meaning, and it was probably only a peculiarity of diction which had become a habit with the schoolmaster.

Was he connected with the Abbey? I think not. There is not a word to suggest such a connection, although we may take it for granted that the Abbot and his fraternity could not have frowned upon the printer, or he would never have established himself. His imprints all mention the town of St. Albans, but never the Abbey, and his position was probably similar to that of Caxton, who was simply a tenant of the Abbot of Westminster, but, so far as is known, nothing more.

Was he connected with Caxton and the Westminster press? Without a shadow of doubt I say, No! Mr. E. Scott, of the MS. department in the British Museum, has indeed strung together a number of surmises to show that the Schoolmaster was employed by Caxton, and that all the books without date or place hitherto attributed to Westminster were really printed at St. Albans. But internal evidence is against any such gratuitous assumption. There is nothing in common between the two printers in any of their habits or customs except the possession of Caxton's No. 3 type. This is the only one of Caxton's types used outside his own office (for W. de Worde, his successor in house and business, must not be regarded as a separate printer). Caxton employed it from his arrival in England in 1477 till 1484, when it makes its last appearance in the headings of "Æsop," the "Order of Chivalry," and "The Golden Legend." In 1485 Caxton obtained a new fount, similar in shape and character, and from that time the old No. 3 disappears to make way for the new and smaller type No. 5. This being more suited to the taste of the day, we find the larger and worn fount passing over to the country press of St. Albans, where the Schoolmaster first uses it in 1486, being the identical year in which its successor appears in Caxton's "Royal Book." We may here observe that after the stoppage of the St. Albans' Press the same fount finds its way back again and is seen in W. de Worde's reprint, in 1496-97, of the two English St. Albans books. But the discovery of a copy of Caxton's Boethius in the old Grammar School at St. Albans, and the numerous fragments of old books extracted from its covers, are quoted as confirming the idea. Yet the book itself and all these fragments were from Westminster, not a single one being from a known St. Albans book, and they included the Caxton "Chronicles," 1480, the "Dictes," 1477, and the still earlier "Life of Jason;" so that we had better at once remove the whole Westminster press, dated and undated, to St. Albans, if such an argument is to have any force. These fragments, indeed, can only point to the fact that the copy of Boethius was bound in the printing office, as was commonly the case with the books from Caxton's press.

Again, Mr. Scott draws attention to the fact that a page of the St. Albans' Book, 1486, has been copied by a contemporary writer on to the blank leaves of one of Caxton's earliest books. 'Tis true; but this copying of part of one book into another, printed ten years before, has no typographical bearing whatever. Lastly, the name Causton appears in an old St. Albans' Register of the early part of the fifteenth century. But this, again, means positively nothing. Caxton's name was not at all uncommon; there were Caustons or Caxtons in nearly every English county, and I have quite a long list of them.

It is highly probable that Caxton, while at Westminster, in the van of all the literature of his day, would have communications of some sort with the important town of St. Albans; but that the two printers assisted one another in the production of books, is, so far as any evidence goes, a pure fiction.

Let us now glance at the bibliographical aspect of the book.

The work itself has no title. It is difficult in our time, accustomed as we are to "teeming millions" of books, each with its own title-page, to conceive a period when the press sent out works without even the shadow of a title-page. Before the invention of printing, the author simply headed his first page with the name of the work, as "Here begins the Confessio Amantis," or "Hic incipit Parvus Catho," and, without preface or more ado, the text commenced. Sometimes even this little notification was omitted, and, as in Caxton's "Jason," "The Chess Book," "Tulle," and many other fifteenth-century books, the subject of the work had to be learned by reading the text. So it is with the book now under review; it comprises four distinct works, but to one only is there any heading, and that has the bare line "Incipit liber armorum." The first, "The Book of Hawking," starts straight off—"This is the manner to keep Hawks," and occupies three signatures, a, b, and c, of eight leaves each, and sig. d, which has but four leaves, on purpose that this portion might be complete alone, if so desired. The same idea controlled the arrangement of "The Book of Hunting," which, beginning on sig. e j, ends with Dame Juliana's "Explicit" on the recto of sig. f iiij. This left the last seven pages of the quaternion to be filled up. Now it was a common practice, both with the scribes and with the early printers, when they got to the end of their text and found that a page or two of blank paper was left, to occupy the blank pages with such common household aphorisms or popular rhymes as came easily to the memory, or were at hand in some other book. So here the schoolmaster-printer fills up his vacant pages with a number of odd sentences and rhymes, most of which occur over and over again in numerous manuscripts of early poetry. Among others we notice the well-known:—

"Arise erly, serue God deuouteli, and the world besily."
&c. &c.

Also the folks proverb:—

"Too wyues in oon hous,
Too cattys and oon mous,
Too dogges and oon boon,

Theis shall neū accorde oon.”

Then the list of proper terms to be used by gentlemen and those curious in their speech is of very common occurrence:—

“An herde of Hertis
An herde of all mañ dere
A pride of Lionys
A sleuth of Beeris.”
&c. &c.

This was evidently copied from some MS., and ends with “¶ Explicit,” and nothing more. On the next page we have the proper terms for carving or dismembering beasts, fowls, and fishes, followed on the last leaf by a list of bishoprics and provinces.

Having thus filled up all his leaves, the printer begins his third subject on a fresh signature, and introduces the “Liber Armorum” with the Preface (already printed). A long work on the “Blasing of Arms” follows, beginning on sig. c j, and ending on sig. f 10.

This is extremely interesting, both in matter and in the very rude woodcut representations of armorial bearings with which the text is profusely illustrated. Except in one or two cases of uncommon tints, these are all colour-printed, as are the initials to paragraphs. In the Grenville copy, the pressman having forgotten to roll the “forme,” the initials all appear in that semi-tinted state which would be the natural result of such an omission. We notice, too, that where the coats of arms require, say, three colours on one page, then the initials are also in three colours; but if only one colour is required for the arms, only one colour, and that the same, is used for the initials. Occasionally, where a peculiar colour was necessary, a brush was used to insert that tint by hand.

In workmanship the St. Albans printer, especially in the English books, is much inferior to the contemporary issue from the Westminster press. The types are worse, the arrangement worse, the presswork worse, and the ink worse. From this point of view alone, the theory that he would print for Caxton so much better than he did for himself, is not worth serious consideration.

The Book of St. Albans went through many editions, particulars of which are difficult to obtain.

1486. The Boke of St. Albans (Brit. Mus.).

149—. By Wynken de Worde “at the sygne of the Sonne.”

1496. By Wynken de Worde (Brit. Mus.).

15—. By W. Powell. “Imprinted at London in Fletestrete at the sygne of George next to saynt Dunston’s Church by Wylliam Powell.”

15—. By W. Copland. “Imprinted at London in Flete Street at the sygne of the Rose Garlande by Wylliam Copland for Richard Tottell” (Brit. Mus.).

15—. By W. Copland. “In Lothebury” 4to.

15—. By W. Copland. “In saynt Martyns parish in the Vinetre uppon the three crane wharfe.”

1548? By W. Copland. “Imprynted at London in the Vyentre vppon the thre Craned Wharfe by Wylliam Copland.”

1550. By W. Powell. “Hawkyng Huntynge and Fishynge.” 8vo. London.

1551? By Abraham Vele.

15—. By Henry Tab. “Imprynted at London in Paul’s chyrch yarde by me Hēry Tab” (Brit. Mus.).

15—. By J. Waley. “Imprinted at London in Foster laen by Johñ Waley” 4to.

1561. By Copland. In this year Copland was fined for “a book of Hawkyng, Huntynge, and fyshynge cōtrary to the orders of this howse—iiij d” (Herbert, p. 367).

1586. By E. Alde. 4to. (Bib. Dec.).

1590. By John Wolfe “at the sygne of the Gunne.”

1595.

By H. Lownes. "The Gentleman's Academie or the Booke of St. Albans * * * Compiled by Juliana Barnes in the year from the incarnation of Christ 1486. And now reduced into a better method by G. M." (Gervase Markham). London. 4to. (Brit. Mus.).

1596. By Wolffe.

1596. By Islip. "Hawking Hunting Fowling and Fishing," by Adam Islip. 4to.

1596. By E. Alde. "Hawking Hunting Fowling and Fishing," by Edward Alde.

1600. By Wolffe.

1606. By Wolffe.

1614. By Helme. "A Jewell for Gentry by S. T." 4to. (Brit. Mus.).

1793. "The Book of Cote Armour." London, 4to, reprinted by J. Dallaway, with an excellent introduction (Brit. Mus.).

1810. The Boke of Hawking Hunting and Cote Armour. Hazlewood's reprint. London. 4to. (Brit. Mus.).

How did the schoolmaster at St. Albans obtain his types? This is a puzzling question in the present state of palæotypography. Mr. Bradshaw of Cambridge has, by unwearied study of early printed books, thrown great light upon the connection and genealogy of numerous founts used by fifteenth-century printers, and systematic attention to the minute peculiarities of each printer is doubtless the only way in which those old books can be forced to yield up their secrets; but the task is immense, and beyond the powers of any one man to complete. Some day, however, when the palæotypography of this country, as well as of the Continental presses, shall have received that full technical and philosophical analysis which time is sure to bring, the more fortunate bibliographer of the future will be able with certainty to track the footsteps and operations of the early typefounders, and will be enabled to state for certain to what extent Caxton and the St. Albans printer were their own typefounders, and to what extent and to whom they looked for outside help. As the case now stands, we can only confess our ignorance of where the St. Albans types came from.

CHAPTER III.

The Subjects Treated.

In the rude civilisation of the fifteenth century, a year's experience of which would send most of us to our graves, the mental occupation as well as the bodily recreation of our ancestors was almost confined to hunting and hawking. "Fishing with an Angle" came in as a bad third, being too tame a pursuit for men who were no men if not men of war. Mimic war—war on the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air—war which could be pursued in times of peace, and which yet required knowledge, patience, fortitude, and courage—this had great attractions, and we cannot wonder at the general popularity of these pursuits.

The first treatise in the following reprint is upon Hawking, a pastime essentially aristocratic from the great expense it entailed in the purchase, breeding, and maintenance of the birds. This, indeed, coupled with the diminution of game consequent on the progress of civilisation and the increase of the population, led to the gradual decadence of the sport, and nearly to its extinction in the eighteenth century, although, in very rare cases, falconry is even now practised.

As we have seen, one of the most difficult objects in hawking was to obtain an easy command of the proper vocabulary, and so at first start our author instructs us in "The manner to speak of Hawks, from the egg." We must not say a young hawk is hatched, but 'disclosed;' they do not breed but "eyer;" it was a want of culture in any falconer to say that hawks were building their nest, they "timbered" it. When the young could first leave the nest they were "Bowesses," and when they could fly they were "Branchers," and then was the time to catch and train them.

When the young were caught, which was with nets, the first thing was to "ensile" them, that is, to "take a needle and thread and sew up the eyelids,” so that they “see never a dele.” After a night and a day the threads were cut softly for fear of breaking the “lyddis of the ighen,” then they were fed with well-washed flesh, but kept awake the next night and day, after which they were supposed to be tame, or “reclaimed.”

The various diseases to which Hawks are liable are then explained, and medicines prescribed for them. Some of these are very absurd and some contradictory. Then comes a variety of terms for every movement and habit, for every limb or part of the body, and for almost every feather in the plumage. In this minute description the author begins at the feet of the bird and so works upwards, as when “Knyghttis been harnesside.”

Next we are instructed how important it is to be careful of the manner of guiding the Hawk the first time it is ready to “nomme a partridge;” how to reward her by giving her the head and neck, after which on no account is she to fly again till she has “rejoiced,” i.e., sharpened her beak and shaken her feathers. More medicines follow, among which is how to get rid of “lies” (lice). “Take a piece of rough blanket and hold it to the fire till it is quite hot; wrap the hawk therein, and without hurting hold her ‘softely and stilly’ in your hands, and all the vermin will creep into the cloth.” A happy thought this!

The “Gessee,” or strip of leather by which the Hawk is held when carrying her on the hand, is next described, together with the creance or long line. More medicines still, and then how to treat Hawks when “in mew,” or moulting, a matter of great importance. To promote “mewing” give the flesh of a kid, a young swan, and especially rats flesh; stewed adders are also strongly recommended, or chickens which have been fed upon wheat soaked in broth of vipers.

Gout seems a common disease in various parts of the Hawk’s body, which may be known by swelling and “ungladness;” also rheum and fever and blains and agrum, which last is cured by a red-hot silver needle thrust into the nostrils. Botches in the jaw should be “kutte with a knyfe.” More terms follow for various habits and actions, the last paragraph being upon the variety of Bells used for Hawks. There should be two, one a “semytoyn” (semitone) below the other. “The Bells of Melen (Milan?) were the best, but,” says the author, “there be now used Dutchland bells, of a town called durdrigh (Dordrecht), and they be passing good, sonowre (sonorous) of ringing in shrillness, and well lasting.”

The whole ends with a list of various species of Hawks and their appropriateness to the various stations of life, among which are—

An Eagle for an Emperor.
A Gerfalcon for a King.
A Peregrine for an Earl.
A Merlyon for a Lady.
A Goshawk for a Yeoman.
A Sparehawk for a Priest.
A Muskyte for “an holiwater clerke.”

The second treatise is upon Hunting, and has a short preface, which probably came, like the first, from the pen of the Schoolmaster.

The work is all in metre, and evidently intended for boys to learn by heart. It begins by telling “my dere chylde” the various kinds of beast to be hunted; the changes of name they take as they grow older; the variety of horns; how to skin and dismember; the various cries and noises to be used; the seasons of hunting various beasts.

Then follow instructions how to hunt the Hare, and what to say to the hounds, who must always be addressed in French, as “arere!” when he enters the kennel-door; “this is the first word, my son, of venery.” “Sa sa cy auant,” “Sweff mon amy sweff,” and other similar cries are noted down, some to be shouted twice only and some thrice, the chief cry being “So how.” The knowledge of when and how often these cries should be used was most important, as their proper use would bring “worship among all men.” Here, apparently, in the midst of one essay, another is interpolated, and we are treated to a portion of some old dialogue like “The Master of the Hunt,” in which the “Man” asks all sorts of questions and the “Master” replies. It might indeed be dubbed “The Hunter’s Catechism.” This occupies eight pages, and then we fall back upon the original rhyme again and the instructions of the Dame to “my childe,” ending with the “Explicit” of Dam Julyans Barnes. Some leaves remaining to be filled up, the moral and other sentences, as already described at page 21, were added.

Perhaps the third treatise upon Coat Armour and the Blason of Arms is the most interesting portion of the book. The quaintness of some of the explanations is very amusing, and many people will find more points of sympathy, both historical and technical, with this than with the others.

The headline, "Incipit Liber Armorum," gives us at once the title of the manuscript from which the text was compiled. "Heraldry Run Mad" might indeed have been an appropriate title for this, as well as all similar tractates; for the author, in his anxiety to honour the science, does not scruple to take the reader back historically not to Noah only, but to Adam, whose spade, he tells us, was the first shield in Heraldry, and who was the first to bear Coat Armour. The argument, if it may so be called, is:—All "gentilnes" comes from God; there were originally in heaven ten Orders of Angels bearing Coat Armour, but now only nine, Lucifer with "mylionys of aungelis" having fallen out of heaven into hell and other places. As a bondman might say that all men come from Adam, so might Lucifer say he and his angels came from heaven.

Cain, for his wickedness, was the first churl, and all his offspring were churls also by the curse of God. Seth, on the other hand, was a gentleman by his father's blessing; Noah, too, was a gentleman by nature, but of his three sons, "Sem, Cham, and Jafeth," Cham, for his unfilial conduct, was made "ungentle." The address of Noah to his three sons is curious, and is thus supplemented:—

"Of the offspring of the gentleman Japhet came Abraham, Moses Aaron, and the prophets, and also the King of the right line of Mary, of whom that gentleman Jesus was born, very God and man, after his manhood King of the land of Judah and of Jews, a gentleman by his mother Mary, and Prince of Coat Armour."

Some say that Coat Armour began at the siege of Troy, but it was of far greater antiquity than that, and was founded upon the nine Orders of Angels, who were crowned each with a diadem of precious stones—the Topaz (truth), Smaragdus (hardihood), Amethyst (chivalry), Loys (powerful), Ruby (courageous), Sapphire (wisdom), Diamond, a black stone (durable), Carbuncle (doughty and glorious). These represent Gentleman, Squire, Knight, Baron, Lord, Earl, Marquis, Duke, and Prince. Here we probably have the origin of the shape of various crowns and coronets. Everything is treated in nines, and the nine virtues and nine vices of gentleness follow, with nine rejoicings, nine articles that every knight should keep, and nine manner of gentlemen, in which we learn that the Evangelists and Apostles were all gentlemen of the right line of that worthy conqueror, Judas Machabeus, who in course of time had fallen to labour, and so were not called gentlemen. The four doctors of the Church—St. Jerome Ambrose, Augustine, and Gregory—were also gentlemen of blood and of Coat Armour. There are nine differences of Coat Armour and nine quadrats, all of which are explained. The “Blasyng of Arms” comes next, the preface to which is by the author, and not by the printer. It begins with the varieties of the Cross as borne in arms, each being illustrated by a rude woodcut printed in its proper colours, and the blason, or technical description of each is given in Latin, French, and English. All varieties of arms follow, with the mysteries of bends, engrail, borders, chequers, balls, cakes, rings, &c., offering but little which can be quoted, but forming an interesting and useful book of reference.

CHAPTER IV.

Philology.

There is a strongly marked individuality in the spelling throughout all the treatises in this work. If the Hunting rhymes belong to Dam Julyans, their orthography, like the prose portions, is that of the Schoolmaster, who appears to have been a North-countryman, many words leading to that conclusion. The formation of the plural by adding the letters “is” or “ys” strikes the attention at once. Thus the plural of bells is bellis; egg, eggis; vetch, fetchis; fulmert, fulmertis; hawk, hawkys; herd, herdys; person, personys, and so on. The change of a y at the end of a word to an i is common, as onli, softeli, unthrefti; and for if; algate; awth for all the; bowke; chylder; clepit; clees; knaw; ken; yowre; and many others are Northern. As might be expected, many Anglo-Saxon and Anglo-Norman words now obsolete are found, such as benymme, blynne, byzete, canell, clepit, colver, dagon, gobbit, kawe, kydde, liggen, merde, nasethrils, nym,^[5] raton, and many others.

⁵. In the slang of thieves to steal is to nim at this day.

The following vocabulary will show the chief words in which peculiarity of spelling or dialect are noticeable:—

alfe, half algate, always and, used for “if” appillis, apples arn, are assone, as soon awntelere, antler awth, aught

awth, all the barris, bars beestys, beasts beke, beak bellis, bells bene, be benymme, take away blynne, to cease boon, bone bodi, body bowellis, bowels bott, but bottre, butter bowke, crooked bridde, bird broght, brought bysprenged, sprinkled byzete, gain calt, called calde, called cattis flesh, cat's flesh canell, cinnamon callish, call (imper.)
chycon, chick chykynnes, chickens chooce, choice chylde, children clepit, called cloos, close communeli, commonly commythe, cometh cowntenansis, countenances coluer, a dove colode, cold cogh, cough contenyt, contained cowples, couples

croampe, cramp currage, courage cum, cumme, come dais, days daon, a piece dayes, daisies deeil, a portion defawte, default diueris, divers dookes, ducks doon, do doys, does echeon, each one ech, each eeg, egg eegis, eggs ellis, else elis, eels errabull, arable eseli, easily eueri, every euerose, rosewater euyn, eeuen, even eyre, air eygh, eyghen, eye, eyes febulness, feebleness fechens, stoats faukeneris, falconers feederis, federes, feathers fetchis, vetches feldis, fields fosterys, foresters folowys, follows flee, flay forder, further forrgeet, forget fostewt, fost

fowrith, fourth fulmertis, polecats gedder, gather glayre, white of an egg gobbit, piece gres, grease groyn, grown gyde, guide habull, able hawkys, hawks hawtyn, proud hakke, hack haare, hare heepis, heaps hedgis, hedges herdys, herds howndys, hounds hoole, whole hould, holde, old hoom, home hudge, small huntid, hunted hunteryys, hunters hennys, hens huicles oppon hir houghis hanylon, wiles of a fox igh, ighe, iyen, eye, eyes ingraylyt, engrailed inowgh, enough ilich, alike iren, iron ilke, each juse, juice kawe, call ken, know knaw, knawe, know knottis, knots

kneys, knees kow, cow knyue, knife kydde, known kyndeli, natural kut, cut layserly, leisurely lew warme leppys, leaps leif, dear leuer, liver lies, lice linne, lynne, linen littyl, little liggyn, lie luke water lyddis of the ighen, eyelids lymayall, iron filings looff, loaf maake, make mary, marrow markeris, markers merde, dung medecyne, medesyn, medlide, mingled meele, melis, meal, meals medill, mingle moch, much mony, many mowothe, mouth moystour, moisture myddes, midst mynne, mine nasethrillis, nostrils nares, nostrils naamys, names natheless, nevertheless neppe, catmint nettis, nets notabull, notable no moo, no more nombur, number not, a nut nyghtis, nights nym, nomme, take, taken okys, oaks onli, only ony, honey ones, onys, once oouen, oven

oon, one oppyn, open ordenatili owte, out parlous, perlous, perilous pennyd, feathered personys, persons pellittis, pellets pike, pick proceis, process puttith, putteth praty, pretty properteis, properties quarterit, quartered rad, ? afraid raton, a rat restith, resteth rede, ready rebuket, rebuked roys, roes roungeth rowse, rouse saauue, save serven, sew

semytoyn, semitone se, see shewys, shows slau, slow snakys, snakes
softeli, softly somwatt, somewhat soore, sore sowre, soar soper, supper sowkyng, sucking sonnys, sons spanyellis, spaniels
snakys, snakes
taake, take takys, takes tempur, temper termys, termis, terms tho, thei, they thridde, third theyem, them threis, thrice theys, thighs togeyder, together toon, two tweys, twice tymeli, timely thredis, threads varri rede, very red veri, very vnthrefti, unthrifty vreyne, urine warbellith, warbelleth watt, what weere, where weere, weary ware, were wengys, wings whaan, when whote nat, wot not wroght, wrought wode, wold, would wight, swift woddys, woods wylis, while yche, each yghes, eyes yolow, yellow yowre, your yowris, yours

We have now traced the various aspects in which this curious work may be viewed. There is not one of them that would not repay much deeper study, and the reader will, doubtless, sympathise with the writer in the wish that more could be discovered concerning the schoolmaster-printer. That his pioneer attempts to establish a printing press met with many discouragements was a matter of course; and, doubtless, he had many technical, business, and even social difficulties to overcome; for a reading public had to be created and patronage was scantily afforded. Nevertheless he struggled on for at least seven years, as we learn from the dates on his books, and whatever may have been his shortcomings, either as author or as printer, the fact of his having been one of the earliest promoters in this country of the grandest discovery which the mind of man has yet made, will unite all of us in honouring the memory and respecting the name, shadowy though it be, of the "Scole mayster of St. Albion."

WILLIAM BLADES.

In so moch that gentill men and honest persones haue greete delite in haukyng and desire to haue the maner to take haukys: and also how and in waat wyse they shulde gyde theym ordynateli: and to knaw the gentill termys in communynge of theyr haukys: and to vnderstonde theyr sekeneses and enfirmittees: and also to knawe medicines for theym accordyng. and mony notabull termys that ben vsed ī haukyng both of their haukys and of the fowles that their haukys shall sle. Therefore this book fowlowyng in a dew forme shewys veri knowlege of suche plesure to gentill men and psonys disposed to se itt.

Thys is the maner to begynne to kepe haukys: bot not all maner haukys. bott oonli Goshawkys: and Tercellis of Goshawkys. and spare haukys. and in watt maner thay shall be taake.

The maner to speke of hawkis fro an eeg to thei be habuſt to be takene.

Now to speke of hawkys. first thay been Egges. and afterwarde they bene disclosed hawkys. and comuneli goshawkys been disclosed. as sone as the choughe and in some place more tymeli after the contre is of hete. and tymeli bredyng.

¶ And we shaſt say that hawkis doon Eyer. and not brede. in the woodes. And we shaſt say that howkys doon draw when they bere tymbering to their nestes. and nott they beld ne make ther nestes And in the tyme of their loue they call. and not kauke. And we shaſt say that they trede.

¶ And when they bene vnclosed and begynneth to feder any thyng of lengthe Anoon be kynde they wiſt draw somwatt out of the nest: and draw to bowis. and come agayn to ther nest And then thay be clepit Bowessis ¶ And after saynt Margaretis day thay wiſt flie fro tree to tree. And then thay bene calde Brawncheris. And then it is time for to take hem

¶ And .vij. nighttis be fore saynt Margaritis day & .vij. nightis after is beste takyng of spare hawkes.

How ye shall demeyn yow ī takyng of hawkis & with wat instrumētis & how ye shall kide them

Who so wil take hawkes he must haue nettis wich ben kalled vrines and tho must be made of good small threde. and it hade need to be died other green or blwe for espieng of thee hawke. and he most take with hym neede and threde to ensile the hawkes that ben takien. And in this maner they must be ensiled. Take the neede and threde: and put it thorow the ouer igh lid and so of that other. and make hem fast vnder the beke: thatt she se neuer a deede and then she is ensiled as she awthe to be. Sum vsen to ensile hem with the needer igh lidde a bone the beke on the hede almost: bot that is the wors way For of reeson the ouer igh lidde closith more iustly then the nether be cause of the largenesse. When she is ensiled then bere thi hawke home on thi fiste and cast hir on a perch and let hir stande ther a night and a day and on that other day towarde eeven. then take and cut eseli the thredes and take hem a way softeli for brekyng of the lyddis of the ighen. Then softie and faire begynne to fede her. and fair fare with her til she wil sitte weel vpon the fist. For it is drede for hurtyng of hir wengys. And then thesame night after the fedyng wake her all nyght and the morow all day. Then shee wil be preui Inowgh to be reclaimed. And the first meete that she shall eete: lett it be hoot. and yeue her Inowgh ther of

Whan yowre hawke may be draw to reclayme and the maner of hir dyette

And if yowre hawke be harde pennyd: she may be drawne to be reclaymed
For all the while that she is tender pennyd: she is not habuill to be reclaymed
¶ And if she be a Goshawke or Tercell that shall be reclaymed euer fede hym with washe meete at the drawyng. and at the reclaymyng. bot loke that hit be hote. and in this maner washe it. Take the meet and go to the water and strike it vpp and downe in the water. and wringe the waater owte. and fede hir ther with and she be a brawncher. And if it bene an Eyesse thow most wash the meete clenner then ye doo to the brawncher. and with a linne cloth wipe it and fede hir. And euermore the thrid day yeue her castyng when she is fleyng if she be a Goshawke or Tercell in this maner: Take new blanket cloth and cut .v. pelettis therof of an inche longe. And take the flesh and cutt .v. morceilis: and withe a knyues poynt make an hoole in eueri morcell. and put therin the pellettis of cloth. and take a fair dish with water and put hem therin. Then take the hawke and yeue her a morcell of hote meete the mowntenawns of halfe hir soop. Then take hit that lyth in the waat. and fede hir for all nyght.

How ye shall fede yowre hawke. and to knawe hir infirmiteis. & ther bene mony diueris of them

If yowre hawke be a spare hawke: euer fede hir with vnwasch meet and looke that hir castyng be plumage. than looke that it be cleyn vnder the perch. and in the morow ye shal fynde the castyng vnder the perch. and ther ye sha  knowe whether the hawke be clene or noo. For sum gobbit wil  be yolow and sum greene. and sum glaymous. and sum cleere And if itt be yolow she engenderith the frounce. the wych is an eue  that wil  riese in the mowothe or in the cheke. And if it be grene. she engenderith the Ry. The condicion of this eue  is this. it wil  arise in the hede and make the hede to swell. & the iyen a  glaymous. and dyrke. and bot it haue helpe: it wil  downe in to the legges. and maake the legges to rancle. and if it goo fro the legges in to the hede a gayne. thi hawke is bot loost. And if it be glaymous and roping she engenderith an eue  callid the Cray. that is whan an hawke may not muteyse

Merke wele yowre medicines here folowyng

¶ A medicine for the frounce ī the mowth

Take a siluer spoone and put the smaḥ ende in the fyre tiḥ it be hoote. Then let holde the hawke and oppyn hir beke and brin the soore and anoynte it with the mary of a goose that hathe lyne longe. and she shaḥ be hoole. And if the frounce be wex as greete as a note. Than ther is a grubbe ther in. and then thow most cutt it with a Rasure in this maner. Lette hoolde the hawke: and slitte ther the soore is. and thew shalte fynde ther as it ware the mawe of a pegeon. Take it owte aḥ hoole. and take a payre of sheeris and cutt the hoole of the soore. and make it as fayre as ye may with a lynne cloth. and wipe clene the bloode a way. and anoynt the soore with bawme .iiii. dais arewe and afterwarde with papylyen. tiḥ it be hoole.

¶ how the frounce commythe.

The frounce commyth whan a man fedith his hawke withe Porke or cattis flesh .iiii. days to geyder.

¶ how the Ry commythe.

For defawte of hoote meete this sekenese the Ry commyth.

¶ how the Cray commythe.

The Cray commyth of wash meete the wich is wash withe hoote water in the defawte of hoote meete. Also it commythe of thredis the wtch ben in the flesh that the hawke is fedde with. For though thow pike the flesh neuer so clene. yit thow shalte fynde thredes ther in.

¶ whan thyn hawke shall bathe hym.

And euermore ech thridde day let thyn hawke bathe hym. all the somer if it be mere wether. and onys in a weeke in wynter if it be fayre wether. and not ellis. And whan thow bathes thy hawke: euer yeue hir a morceſſ of hoote meete vnwash though she bene a Goshawke.

How ye may cawse yowre hawke to flye withe a currage in the morow.

Iff ye will that yowre hawke flye in the morowtide. fede hir the nyght before with hoot mete. and wash thessame meete in vreyne and wryng owt the water clene. and that shall make hir to haue lyst and currage to flie ī the morow in the best maner.

How ye shall gyde yow if yowre hawke be full goorged and ye wode soone haue a flyght.

Iff yowre hawke be full goorged. and that ye wold soone vppon haue a flighte take .iiij. cornes of whete. and put hem in a morceſſ of fleſh. and yeue theſſame morcellie to the hawke. and ſhe wiſſ caſt anoon aſſ that ſhe hath with in her. and anoon after that ſhe hath caſt. Looke ye haue a morceſſ of hooſe meete to yeue hir ¶ And if yowre hawke be ouergoorged. yeue her theſſame medesyn.

¶ A medecyne for the Ry

Take dayſes leeuys. and ſtampe hem in a mortar. and wrynge owt the Iuſe. and with a penne put it in the hawkis nares Ones or twyes whan the hawke is ſmalle goorged. and a non after let hir tyre. and ſhe ſhaſſ be hoole as a fyſh ¶ Or ellis take percelli Rootis and ſerue hir with theyem in theſſame maner. and when ſhe tyrith holde rew ī yowre honde with the tiring and that ſhaſſ make hir voide. bot it is perlous to vſe it often that the Iuce fall ner ſpryng in to hir yghes.

¶ Also and ye yeue yowre hawke freſh butter or the marow of hogges that is in the bone of the butte of porke. it ſhaſſ make hir to caſt water wele at the nares. and it will kepe the nares opyn. bot it wiſſ make hir hawtyn and prowde

¶ A medecyne for the Cray & moo folow

Take and chafe with yowre hondys the fundement of yowre hawke with luke water a longe tyme. and after that take the powder of Saxifrage or ellis the powder of Rewe. and a quantite of may butter. and temper hit weeſſ to geder tiſſ thay ben euen medlide. than putte it in a littyſſ box and ſtoppe it faſte. & as oftyn as yow fede yowre hawke an hoole meeſe anynt hire meete a littyſſ ther with. and that ſhaſſ make hir to loue meet the bettir for loue of the oyntement. and it sha  saue hir fro the Cray and from mony oder sekeneses: that gender ofte in an hawke.

¶ Also take the hoot hert of a swyne or of a pigge and feede her .ij. days therwith. and she sha  be hoole.

¶ Also take porke and weete it in hoot mylke of a cowe. & fede the hawke therwith. and that sha  make hir mutyse att the best.

¶ Also poorke with the mary of the boon of the but of porke sha  make hir mutise & fede hir with booth to geder.

¶ Also vse hir to fresh butter and it wi  doo thessame.

¶ Also oon mele or .ij. at the most of the hoot leuer of a pig sha  make hir to mutyse wee . be ware ye yeue hir not to grete a goorge therof. for it is a perlous meete

¶ Also take y^e white of an egge. & labur thessame i a spoge as wee  as ye wolde make glayre for rede Inke ti  it be like wa . put thessame i a vessell. & let the meete y^t sha  be for hir sop: ly a stepe ther in a  the day be for. & at night fede hir therw^t and that the wich sha  be for hir dyner in the mornyg let it ly a  the nyght. bot in any wyse that ye haue alway fressh gleyre. and if hir fedyng be poorke it is the bettir. y^t is proued

¶ The kyndeli termis that belong to hawkis

In the begynnyng of kyndeli spech of the termys that belong to hawkys here ye may fynde theym ¶ The first is holde fast at a  timys. and specially whan she batith. It is calde batyng. for she batith with hir selfe most oftyen causeles

¶ The secunde is rebate youre hawke: to yowre fyst. & thatt is whan yowre hawke batith. the leest meuyng that ye can make with yowre fyst she wi  rebate ayen vppon yowre fyst

¶ The thride is feede yowre hawke. and not gyue hir meete ¶ The fawrith is an hawke snytith. or sewith hir beke and not wipith hir beke ¶ The .v. youre hauke Ioukith. and not slepith ¶ The .vi. youre hawke proynith. and not pikith and she pronyth not bot whan she begynnyth at hir leggys. and settheth moystour like oyle. at hir taił. and bawmeth hir fete & strikyth the federis of hir wynges thorow her beke. and it is calde the note. than as she fetchis the oyle. And ye shał vnderstonde an hawke wolde not be letted of hir proynyng. For that tyme that she proynyth she is lykyng and lusty. and whanne she hathe doone she wił rowse hire myghtyly.

And sum tyme yowre hawke cowntenansis as she piked hir. and yet she proynith not. and then ye most say she Reformith hir federis and not piketh hir federis. ¶ The .vij. yowre hawke colyeth and not beckyth ¶ The .viij. she rowsith and not shakith her selfe ¶ The .ix. she streynith and not Clithith nor Cratchith ¶ The .x. she mantellith and not stretchith whan she puttith her leges from hir oon after an other: and hir wynges folow after hier legg . then she dooth mantił hir and whaan she hath mantilled hir and bryngith booth her wynges to geider ouer hir backe ye shał say yowre hawke warbellith hir wynges. and that is oon terme dewe therfore ¶ The .xi. ye shał say yowre hawke mutessith or mutith and not sklysith. ¶ The .xij. ye shał say cast yowre hawke to the perch. and not set youre hawke vpon the perch.

Here shal ye vnderstonde furthermore other maner of termys that belong vn to hawkis for to cōmende them for diuerse of theyre propirteis

First ye shal say This is a fayr hawke. an hudge hauke a longe hawke. a short thike hawke. & say not this is a grete hawke. also ye shal say this hauke has a large beke Or a shortt beke. and call it not bille. an hudge hede or a small hede fayre sesoned ye shal say yowre hawke is full goorged and not cropped. and yowre hawke puttithouer and endueth. and yet she dooth booth dyuersely.

¶ How yowre hawke puttithouer

An hawke puttithouer when she remeuith the mete from hir goorge in to hir bowillis. And thus ye shal knawe it whan she puttithouer she trauersith withe hir bodi. and specialli with the necke: as a Crane doothe or an other bridde

¶ whan ye shall say enduth & embowellid

An hawke enduth neuer as long as hir bowillis bene full at her fedyng. bot assone as she is fedde. and restith she enduthe littill and littill. And if her goorge be wide and the bowell any thyng stiffid. ye shal say she is embowellid and hath not fully endewed and as long as ye may fele any thyng in hir bowellis it is perlous to gyue her any mete.

¶ Merke well theys termys folowyng

Say an hawke hath a long wyng. a faire long tayll with vi barris owt. and stondith vppon the .vii. This hawke is entirpenned That is to say when the federis of the wynges bene bitwen the body and the thighis. This hawke has an hudge legge or a flat leg. or a rownde legge. or a faire enserid legge

¶ To knowe the maill of an hawke

Hawkes haue white maiþ. Canuasmaiþ or Rede maiþ. And som call Rede maiþ Iren mayþ. white maiþ is soone knowe. Canuasmaiþ is betwene white maiþ and Iron maiþ. And Iron maiþ is varri Rede.

¶ Plumage. and Caste yowre hawke.

¶ A Goshawke nor a tercell in thare sore aage haue nott thau mayles named. bot it is calde their plumage. and after the cote. it is calde theyr Maiþ ¶ And if yowr hawke reward to any fowle by countenance for to flee ther to ye shaft say cast the hawke ther to. and not lett fli ther to.

¶ Nomme or seesid.

¶ And if yowre hawke Nomme a fowle. and the fowle breke a way fro hir. she hath discomfet mony federes of the fowle. and is brokyn a way for in kyndeli spech ye shaft say youre hawke hath Nomme or seesid a fowle and not take it

¶ werfore an hawke is calde a Rifelere.

¶ And oft tyme it happith mony an hawke for egernesse when he shulde Nomme a fowle he seesith bot the federis. and as ofte as he doos so he Riflith. therefore such hawkys been called Rifelers if they doo ofte so.

How ye shall naame the memberes of yowre hawkis in conuenient termes.

Now ye shall vnderstande the naamys off the membries of hawkys: to begynne at hir fete and goo vpwarde as knyghttis been harnesside and armed. & so we shall enarme her ¶ Talons.

Fyrst the grete Clees behynde. that strenyth the bake of the hande. ye shall call hom Talons ¶ Pownces.

The Clees with ī the fote ye shall call of right her Pownces ¶ Longe Sengles.

Bott certaynly the Clees that are vppon the medy^{ll} stretcheris ye shall call the loong Sengles.

¶ Pety Sengles.

And the vttermest Clees ye shall call the Pety Sengles

¶ The key or Closer.

Vnderstond ye also that the longe Senclees be calde the key of the fote. or the Closer. For what thyng som euer it be y^t yowre hawke strenyth: open that Sengle. and all the fote is oppen· for the strength ther of fortyfieth all the fote.

¶ Seris of watery or waxy colowre.

Knawe ye: that the skynne a bowte yowre hawkys legges & his fete is calde: the Seris of hir legges and hir fete. whether thay be watery hewed or of waxy colowre yolowe.

¶ The Beme feder. Full Sommyd and Reclaymede.

An hawke hath .xij. federis vppon his tayle. and oon principall feder of thessame is in the myddis. and in maner all that oder bene couertid vnder thessame feder. and that is called the Beme feder of the tayle. And ther gooth blacke barris ouerwarde the tayle. and thos same barris shall telle yow whan she is full summed. or full fermyd. For whan she is full barrid she stondith vppon .vij. and then she is perfite rede to be Reclaymede.

¶ Ye shall vnderstonde that as longe as an hawke stondeth vnder the nombre of .vij. barris. And she be in hir sore aage: it most be sayde that she is not full summed. for so longe she is bot tender Pennyd whether she be brawncher or Eyes.

¶ And iff she be a mewed hawke. and stonde within .vij. barris. ye shall say she is not full fermed. for she is not habuill to be Reclaymed. be cause she is drawe to soone owt of the mewe for she is not harde pennyde. no more than a soore hawke.

¶ Brayles or Braylfederys. Degouted

To know forthermor of hawkes. an hawke hath long smale white federis. hangyng vnder the tayll: from hir bowell downe warde. and the same federis ye shall call the brayles or the brayle federis. And communely euery goshawke and euery tercellis braylis bene bysprenged with blake speckes. like Armyns. and for all that thay bene accomptid neuer the better. Bot and a sparehawke be so Ermyned vppon the brayles. or a Musket. oder ye shall say she is Degouted to the vttermost brayle. and much it betokynis hardenes.

¶ Brest federys. Plumage. Barbe federys. Pendaunt federys.

The federis abowte the formore parteys of an hawke: becalled the brest feederis. & the feederis vnd the wynges are plumage The federis vnder the beke be calde the barbe federis. And the federis that bene at the Ioynte: at the hawkes kne thay stonde hangyng and sharppe at thendes. thos be calde the pendaunte federis.

¶ Flagg or faggis federys.

The federis at the wynges next the body be calde the flagg or the fagg federis.

¶ Beme federes of the wyng Sercell

And the long federis of the wynges of an hawke bene calde the beme federis of the wyng. And the federis that sum call the pynyon feder. of a noder fowle. of an hawke: it is calde the Sercell ¶ And ye shall vnderstonde iff an hawke be in mewe y^t same sercell feder shall be the last feder that she will cast. and tyll that be cast. she is neuer mewed. yit it has bene seen: that hawkes haue cast that same first as I haue herde say. bot that other Rewle is gendraill. and whan she hath cast hir sercellis in mew. then and not erst it is tyme for to fede hir with wash meete and to begynne to ensayme hire.

¶ Ensayme

Ensayme of an hawke is the grece. and bot if that be take a way with fedyng of wash meete and otherwyse as it shall be declared here after. she will gedder a panell wich may be hir vttermost confusion. and she flye therwith. and take blood. and colde ther vppon.

¶ Couertis or couert

Ther bene also federis that cloos vppon the sarcellis. and thossame be calde the couertis or the couert federis. and so all the federis be calde that bene next ouer the long beme federis. and the fagg federis vppon the wynges.

¶ Backe federis.

¶ The federis vppon the backe halfe be called the backe federis.

¶ Beke Clape Nares Sere

- ¶ The Beke of the hawke is the vpper parte that is croked.
- ¶ The neder parte of hir beke is calde the clape of the hawke.
- ¶ The Hoolis in the hawkes beke bene callede the Nares.
- ¶ The yolow be twene y^e Beke & y^e yeghen is calde y^e Sere.

¶ Crýnettis.

Ther be oon an hawke long smale blake federis: like heres about the sere & thossame: be calde Crinettis of y^e hawke.

¶ Sore aage.

¶ Ye shall vnderstonde that the first yere of an hawke whether she be calde Brawncher or EYESH. that first yere is calde hir sore aage. and all that yere she is calde a sore hawke. for and she eskafe that yere. with good fedyng she is likly to endure longe.

¶ To Reclayme an hawke

Iff ye wil Reclaym yowre hawke ye most departe oon mele in .iiij. melis. vnto tyme that she wil come to Reclayme. and whan she wil come to Reclayme encrece her melis euery day better and better. And or she come to the Reclame make her that she sowre not. For thogh she be wele Reclaymed hit may happyn that she wil sowre: so hegh in to the Eyre. that ye shall Nether se hir nor fynde hir.

¶ And iff yowre hawke shall flie to the partrich. looke that ye Ensayme her or she flie. whether she be Brawncher or Eyes Or mewed hawke.

¶ why an hawke is called an Eyes.

An hawke is calde an Eyes of hir Eyghen. for an hauke that is broght vp vnder a Bussard or a Puttocke: as mony be: hath wateri Eyghen. For whan they be disclosed and kepit in ferme tyll thay be full summyd. ye shall knawe theym by theyr wateri Eyghen. And also hir looke wil not be so quycke as a Brawncheris is. and so be cause the best knowlege is by the Eygh. they be calde Eyeses.

¶ Ye may also knawe an Eyes. bi the palenese of the seres of her legges of the sere ouer the beke. And also by the tayntys that be vppon her tayll and her wengys wiche tayntys com for lacke of fedying. when thay be Eyes.

¶ what a taynt is.

A Taynt is a thyng that gooth ouerwarte the federis of the wynges. and of the tayll lyke as and it were eetyn with wormys and it begynyth first to brede at the body. in the penne and that same penne shall frete asonder. and falle a way thurrow thessame taynte and then is the hawke disparagid for all that yere.

¶ Medecynys to Ensayme yowre hawke

Take the Rote of Rasue and do it in clene water. and lay thy flesh ther in. to temper a grete whyle. and yeue it to yowre hawke to eete. and if she eete therof. drede not bot hit sha  benymme hir grece. bot within .iij. days she sha  not grettely abate.

¶ Also take pulia  and garlek and stampe it wele to geder. and wrynge owte the Iuce in a dys . and then weete the flesh ther in. and fede yowre hawke therwyth. and bot it tempur yowre hawke. that is to say ensayme yowre hawke. with in .iiij. days. I merue  Bot looke eueri day that ye make new Iuce and whan ye fede hir. weete yowre meete ther in.

¶ Also take the Iuce of percelly Moris otherwise calde percelly Rootis. and thossame of Isop. and wash yowre flesh ther in and yowre hawke sha  be Ensaymed kyndly. and no grete abate to the hawke.

¶ Som vse to lay thare flesh in water almost a day. and yeue thessame to the hawke at soper. and that at lyth a  nyght. to geue to hir in the mornyng. and thus to fede hem in mew or thay be drawen a bowte a monyth or .vi. weekys. and to ensayme theym or thay com on fist. as sone as thay cast theyr cerce . then is the tyme to begynne to fede hem soo.

¶ How yowre hawke ensaymythe

Understonde ye for certayn: that as longe as yowre hawkes fete be blakys  and rough: she is full of grece. and euer as she ensaymyth. hir fete wi  wax yolow and smothe

How ye shall gyde yow whan yowre hawke is redy to flie. Also ye shall say put vp a partriche

Whan ye haue ensaymed yowre hawke: and Reclaymyd hir. and that she is redi to flie to the partrich. ye most take a partrich in yowre bagge. and goo in to the felde. and let yowre spanyellis fynde a Couy of partrichys. and when thay be put vpp. and begynne to scatre. ye most haue markeris to marke som of thaym. and then cowple vp yowre houndys. wan ye haue so doon. let sum fellow of yowris preueli take the partrich owte of yowre bagge. and ty it by the legge: with a creaunce. and cast it vp as high as he can. and as soon as the hawke seith hir she wiþ flie ther to. and if yowre hawke sees the partrich a boone. yeue hir a rewarde: theruppon. and go after y^t by laysoure to the partrich that be marked and doo as I shaþ tell yow here folowyng.

¶ Iff ye haue a chastised hounde: that wiþ be rebuket: and is a Retriuer. vncouple him and no moo of yowre houndis. and goo to a sengler partrich: of the couy so sparplid. and be as nygh as ye can to the Risyng therof and if yowre hawke desire cast hir to it. and if she take it then is yowre hawke made for that yere. and of thessame partrich that she sleth. thus ye moost rewarde hir as it shewith here next folowyng.

¶ how ye shall rewarde yowre hawke.

Take a knyfe and cutt the hede and the necke from the body of the partrich. and stripe the skynne a way from the necke. and yeue that same to the hawke. and couer the body of the fowle with a bonett or an hatt. and lay thessayd hede and the necke theruppon. and if she wiþ forsake the fowle that she plumyth on. and com to the rewarde. then preuyli take a way the partrich. and rewarde yowre hawke with the Brayne. and the necke. Beware that she eete no bonys. for that is eueþ to endewe. and it wiþ make hir vnlusty: for to flye. And thus ye most serue hir of as many as she sleth. bot let hir rewarde be the lasse. for ellis she may be sone full goorged. and then she may flye no more a grete while.

¶ how yowre hawke shall Reioyse.

And whan yowre hawke hath sloyne a fowle. and is rewarded as I haue sayde. let hir not flie in no whise tyll y^t she haue Reioysed hir. that is to say. tyll she haue sewed. or snyded her beke. or ellys rowsed her. and whan she hath done any of theys. or aȝ. go and retriue moo and she wiȝ nym plente.

Whan yowre hawke hath nomme a fowle how ye shall do that ye rebuke not the hawke.

Lerne wele oon thyng. and beware therof. whan yowre hauke hathe nomme a partrich. stonde a goode way of. and come not to nygh her. and dryue a way yowre houndys for rebukying of hir. for many hawkys loue noon howndys. and also many howndys wiþ benymme theym theyre gamme from ther fote. and that is parlous. and whiles yowre hawke plumith cumme softely towarde hir. alway nere and nere. and if she leue plumyng. and loke vppon yow. stonde styll and cherke hir. and whistyll hir. tyll she plume ayen. and thus serue hir tyll ye be right nere hir. Than softe and layserly: fall oppon yowre kneys. and preuely while she plumyth sett yowre honde and be sure of the gesse. and than ye may gyde all thyng as ye wyll. and if ye doo the contrary: she wiþ for feere cary hir game or let it go quyke. and that is bot losse to yow and yowre hawke also.

A medecyne for to make an hawke to cast that is a comberȳd with castȳng with in her body

Take the Iuce of Salandyne. and wete a morceſſ of fleſh therin. the mowntenaunce of a Note. and yeue that morceſſ to the hawke. and that ſhaſſ make hir for to caſt hir olde caſtȳng. and the hawke ſhaſſ be ſafe.

¶ A medecyne for an hawke that will ſoure

Waſſh the fleſh that yowre hawke ſhaſſ be fedde with: in y^e Iuce of fenell. and that ſhaſſ take away that pride from hir and make hir to leue hir ſowryng whether ſhe be lene or fatte. And mony tymes an hawke will ſowre whan ſhe lackyſh bathyng.

¶ A medecyne for an hawke that is lowſe.

Take quycke ſiluer and put it in a baſſien of brasse. and do ther to ſaladyne: and askys. and medyſh it wele to geder. tyll all the quycke ſiluer be dede. and medyſh therto fat of bonnys. and anoynte the hawke ther with. and hang it aboute hir necke tyll it faſſ a way. and that ſhaſſ ſlee the lies.

¶ Also powdre of orpement blowen vppon an hawke: with a penne ſhaſſ ſlee the lies.

¶ Also take a dagon or pece of Rough blanket vnſhoron and holde it to the fire. vnto tyme it be thorough owte warme and wrappe the hawke therin. and than holde hir ſoftely and ſtylly. for hurtyng in yowre hondys. and the vermyn will crepe in to the cloth.

¶ Also holde hir in the ſonne in a fayre day. & ye ſhaſſ ſe the vermyn crepe owte vppon her federis. then take a knyfe and wete the oon ſide of the blade therof w^t yowre mowth. & alway as thay appere lay the wete ſide of the knyfe to theym. and they will cleue ther to. and then ye may ſlee thaym.

¶ The opynyon of Ostregiers.

After the opynyon of many Ostregiers: and ye fede yowre hawke contynually with Porke with Iayes. with Pyes. Or especially bere hir moch in Rayeny weder. thay sha  be lowse.

¶ Ostregeris. Speruiteris. Faukeneris.

Now be cause I speke of Ostregeris: ye sha  vnderstonde that thay be calde Ostregeris that kepe Goshawkys. or Tercellis. and tho that kepe Sperhawkys and muskettys ben called Speruiteris. and keperis of a  other hawkys ben callidde Faukeneris.

¶ The length of the Gesse. Lewnes. T rettis. and how they be fastined. & Bewettis Hawkys haue aboute ther legges Gesse made of leder most commynly. some of silke. wich shulde be no lenger bot that the knottis of theym shulde. appere in myddys of the lefte honde: betwene the longe fynge and the leche fynge. be cause the lewnes shulde be fastened to theym. with a payre of tyrettis. wich tyrettis shuld rest vppon the lewnes. and not vppon the gesses. for hyngyng and fastynyng vppon trees when she flyeth. and the saame lewnes. yow sha  fastyn than abowte yowre lytty  fynge slackely. in compaysyng the saame in .iiij. or .v. folde. as a bowstryng vnocupyede and the terettys serue to kepe hir from wyndyng whan she bathes ¶ Also thessame letheris that be putt in hir bellis: to be fastyned a boutte hir leggys ye sha  calle Bewettis.

¶ Creauce.

Also ye sha  call the long lyne that ye do call youre hawke to Reclaym with: yowre Creauce. what so euer it be.

¶ A medecyne for an hawke that will cast flesh

Putt the flesh that yowre hawke shałł eete: in fayre water. and fede her therwith .iiij. days. and she shałł holde hir flesh at the best.

¶ A medecyne for an hawke that has lost here corrage.

An hawke that hath loost her corrage: aman may knawe if he wiłł take good hede. For sicke is hir maner. whan she is cast to a fowle. she fleith a waywarde as thogh she knewe nott the fowle. Or ellis she wiłł flie a littył way after. and a noon she yeueth it vpp. and for suche an hawke thys is a goode medecyn.

¶ Take Oyle of spayne and tempere it with clere wyne. and with the yolke of an egge and put therin befe. and therof yeue to yowre hawke .v. morcellis. and then set hir in the sonne. and at euen fede hir with an olde hote coluer. and if ye fede hir th iij tymys that hawke was neuer so lusty nor so Ioly before. as she wiłł be after and come to hir owne corege.

¶ Othir make poudre of mecles that stynkith. and putt the poudre on the flesh of a pecoke and mediłł the blode of the pecoke among the poudre. and make hir to eete the flesh.

A medecyne that an hawke shall not lie ī mew for vnlustynese.

Take ferne Rotis that growith on an Oke. and oke appillis and make Iuce of theym. and wete hir flesh therin. &̄ feede the hawke .ij. timys or .iiij. and that shaļ make hir to leue that

¶ A medicine for an hawke that hath the teyne

An hawke that hath the teyne a man may sone knaw if he take hede. for this is hir maner She wiļ pante more for oon batyng then an other for .iiij. & if she shulde flie a littyļ wile she shuld almost lese her breth. whether she be fatte or lene. and alway she makyth heuy chere. and for that this is the medycyne.

Take a quantyte of the Redenesse of haseļ with the poudre of Rasne and peper and somewhat of gynger. and make thereof in fresh grece iij. pellettys and holde the howke to the fire and when she felith the hete make hir to swalowe the .iiij. pellettys by strength. and knytte fast her beke that she cast it not owte and do so thries. and she shaļ be safe.

¶ Also take Rasne and Rubarbe. and grynde it to gedre. and make Iuce therof and wete the flesh therin. and yeue it hir to eete. and she shaļ be hooļ.

¶ Also take alisawndre and the Roote of prima rose and the Roote of gro gnauteles and seeth aļ in the bottre of a kow and yeue hir .iiij. morcellis euery day vnto the tyme that she be hoole. and looke that she be voide when ye yeue hir the medecyne.

How a man shall take an hawke fro the Eýrer

Who so takys an hawke from the Eyerer: hym behoueth to doo wisely. in bryngyng hym easeli. and to kepe him wele from colde. and from hurtyng of theyr bonys. for thay be full tendre. and thay most haue grete rest. and thay may not haue stynkyng & filthy Eyre bot as clene as can & may be thoght. and euermore yeue him clene meete. and hote. & a littyll & oftyn. & change oftyn ther meete bot loke it be hot and cutt her meete in to smale morcellis. for thay shulde nott tyre on bonys tyll they myght flie. Then after when she begynnyth to penne. and plumyth. and spalchith and pikith her selfe. Putt hir in a cloose warme place. that no fulmertis nor fecheus. ne other vermyn com nott in to hir. and let the place be secure from wynde and rayne. and then she wil preue hir selfe and euer more yeue hir good hote meetys. For it is better to a man to fede his hawke while she is tendre with hote meetis. to make hir good with somme cost. then to fede hir with euell meetis to make hir vnthrefti with lytyll cost. ¶ And looke whan she begynnyth to ferme then yeue hir bathyng.

A medecýne for wormys in an hawke wiche sekenesse is called the Fýlaundris.

Merke wele this sekenese and beware therof. This is the medecyne therfore. ye shałł take an herbe that is called Neppe and putt it in a smałł gut of a Capon or of an henne. and knyť it with a threde. and let hir Resaue it hoołł. and she shałł be hoołł and saafe ¶ Thus ye shałł knawe whan yowre hawke hath wormys in hir bowke. Looke whan she hath castyng and ye shałł fynde oon or .ij. a bowte hir castyng place iff she haue ony.

¶ A medecýne foor an hawke that castys wormys at the foundemēt what wormis that thei be

Take the lymayłł of Iren: & medyłł it w^t flesh of porke & yeue it to y^e hauke .ij. days for to heete. and she shałł be hoołł

A medecyne for an hawke that hath a sekenesse the wich is called the aggreteyne.

Whan ye se yowre hawke hurte his fete with his Beke. and pullyth her tayll. then she hath the aggreteyne. For this sekennese take Merde of a dove. and of a shepe. and of an allow. and stronge vynegre. and do all softely in a bassyn of brasse. & Medyall hem wele to geder: to serue .iij. days after. and yeue hir flesh of a coluer with ony and with powder of peper. and set hir in a derke place. and doo so .iv. days. and when ye see New federis in the tayll. wash hir with euerose. and she shall be hoole and saafe.

¶ A medecyne for an hawke that hath the croampe in hir wynges and how it cummyth.

For this Croampe take a whyte looff of brede sumwat colder then it commyth owt of the ouen. and let holde the hawke sooftely for hurtyng. and kut the loofe almoost thorow owte. and display the wynges esely. and holde it betwene the .ij. partes of the loofe. and let it be hoolde so. the space of alfe a quarter of an howre. and she shall be hoole.

¶ The Croampe commyth to an hawke with takyng of coolde in hir yowthe. Therefore it is goode for an hawke to kepe hir warme: yonge and hoold. and this medycyne is good at all tymes for hir whether she be yonge or holde.

Let not an hawke be put in mew to late bot in this maner as it folowth. if ye loue youre hawke

Iff ye loue wele yowre hawke. kepe her wele. and put hir nott late in mewe. for who so for couetesnese of flieng leses the tyme of his hawke mewyng. and withholdis her to long therfro he may after putt hir ī mewe at auenture. for then a parte of hir mewyng tyme is past. ¶ Who so puttyth his hawke in mewe in the begynning of Lentyn. if she be kept as she awth to be she shall be mewed. in the begynnyng of Auguste.

¶ how ye shall dispose and ordayn yowre mewe

Sett and dispose yowre mewe. in this maner so. that no weseþ ner pulcatt ner non other vermyn entre ther to Ner none wynde. ner no grate colde Ner that it be ouer hote. Let that on parte of the mewe be turned to warde the sonne. so that in the moost parte of the day: the sonne may come Inne.

¶ Also ye most se that she be not auexed ner greued withe mych noyse. ner with song of men. and that no manner folkes come to hir. bot oonly he that fedyth hir.

¶ It behouyth that yowre hawke haue a fedyng stokke in hir mewe. and a longe stryng tyed therto: to fastyn hir mete with for ellis she wilþ cary it a bowte the hous. and soyle it with dust And perauenture she wilþ hyde it til it stynke. and then fede vppon it. and that myght be hir deth. and therfor when it is bondyn to the sayd fedyng stocke. she shall nether at the fedyng ner at the tyryng ne at the lightyng ne at the Rysyng hurtte hir selfe. And whan she hath fedde. take a way the remenaunt if any leeu. and in anywyse that she haue clene mete. and att euery meeþ fresh. for of stale metis and euell metis she shal engender mony sekeneses. ¶ And loke ye go neuer to yowre mew hot when ye shall yeue yowre hawke meete. or ellis to bryng water to bathe her. and suffyr no Rayn to weete hir at no tyme. and ye may. and as for hir bathyng that shall no thīg hynder hir mewyng.

¶ The maner how a man shall put an hawke in to mewe. and that is to be wele nooted.

Off oon thyng ye most be ware weell yff she haue any sekenes that ye make her hole or ye put hir in mewe. for as I vnterstonde a seke hawke shall neuer mew weell. for though she mewe she shall not endure bot while she is grete and fatte. for at the abatying of hir astate she may no lenger endure.

¶ Some tyme with owt any medicyne many men deuysyn hou thay myght mew ther hawkys for sum put hawkys in mew at high estate. and sum when thay be right low. and sum whan thay be full. and sum when they be Empty and lene. and sume when thay be myserabull lene. Bot therof it is no force. iff she be hole Neuertheles. I shall say myn aduyce as I haue sene & lerned.

Who so puttith a Goshawke or a Terceill or a spere hawke in to mew so high that she may be no higher. she will holde hir longe in the poynt: or that she lese or lent any federis. And who so puttith hir in mew lene. it will be long or she be remounted and who so puttith hir in mew to hungry and to lene: if she haue meete at hir will she will eete to moch. be cause of hungre. and p̄auenture she may be dede ther by. as hath ofte be sene

Bot who so will that an hawke endure and mew kyndli. myn counceill it is that she be not to high noder to low. noder in grete destresse of hungre. bot like as she wolde flee best then take hede the first day of to moch eetyng. vnto tyme that she be stawnchid and after that a man may take her sich mete as I shall tell more playnli here after

In what maner and how a man shall fede his hawke in mewe.

Loke with wat meetis she hath bene most vsed to be fedde and fede hir therwith .viij. days contynuali. and tho .viij. days yeue hir birdis Inow. both morow and euyn. and let hir plomme vppon hem wele. and take castyng of the plomage. and that shaʒt talawnt hir wele. and cause her to haue goode appetite and it shaʒt clense wele hir bowillis and whan she is weeth clensed. ye may yeue hir what meete that ye wiʒt so it be clene and fresh ¶ Bot the beste mete to make an hawke to mewe moost sone wyth owte any medecyne is the fleshe of a kydde and of a yong Swanne and of a chikyn and especiaʒt Ratonys flesh so thei be not assaughte Noon like to hit and of a yong goos for sich meete is hote of it selfe.

¶ And take gobittis of grete fresh Elis. and specialli the colpon next the Naueth. and weete it in hote blode of moton it is goode to make her to mewe. bot specialli it shaʒt make her wight after hir soore aage

¶ Thees sayd fleshes bene goode to mewe an hawke: and to kepe hir in state bot loke she haue goode plente euery day. so that she Rather leue parte then lacke any. and euery .ijj. day let hir bath if she lyst

¶ And when she waxith nygh ferme yeue hir hennys and fatt porke and of an hounde is passing good.

¶ An hawke is neuer full ferme nor redy forto drawe owte of mew vnto tyme hir sarceʒt be full groyn. yet haue I sene sū folkys take hem owte of mewe when the sarceʒt were bot halfe ispronge. and that is parlous. for they are not then harde penned.

¶ Som folkys vsen when an hawke has cast hir sarceʒt to begynne and wash hir meete. and fede hir so in mew with wash meete a monyth or .vi. weekys or euer thay drawe thaym.

¶ Bot of aʒt fleshes after she is mewed. a resenable goorge of an hote haare is beest. and also of a crowe hote. bot it moste be wash in water: and then it is the better. For that wilþ not benymmen hem hastily theyr grece. ner put hem in no grete febulnes. for it durith sumwat with hir.

¶ To make an hawke to mew tȳmeli with owt any hurtȳng of hir.

Now I shaþ teþ þow verray true medecynes for to mewe an hawke hastyly that ye shaþ beleue for trowthe and ye wilþ as-say theym.

¶ Ther be in woddys or in hedgis wormys calde edders that ben Redde of nature. and he is calde vepa. and also ther be snakys of thessame kynde. and they be verri bitter. Take .ij. or .iij. of theym and smyte of ther hedes and thendys of theyr taylis. Then take a new erthen pot: that was neuer vsed. and cut hem ī to smaþ gobettys. and put thossame therin. and let hem sethe stronglich. a grete while. at good layser. and let the pot be couered. that no ayre com owte of it ner no breth and let it sethe so long that the saame colpons seth to grece. then cast it out and doo a way the bonis. and geder the grece. and put it in a clene vessiþ. and as oft as ye fede yowre hawke: anoȳt her meete therin. and let hir ete as moch as she wilþ. and that meete shal mewe her at yowre awne wilþ.

¶ A nother medecȳne.

Take whete: and put it in the brothe that thedderis were sothen in. and when ye se the whete begynnyth to cleue: take it owt and fede hennys or chykynnes therwith. and fede yowre hawke with thessame polayn.

Who so will that an hawke mewe not nor fall noon of hir federis. therefore here is a medecyne

Take powder of Canell. and the Iuce of franke cost and the Iuce of paranye. and take morcellis of flesh .iij. or .iiij. if ye lust and weete them therin. and make the hawke to swallow hem and serue hir so many tymys.

¶ Also take the skynne of a snake or of an Edder. and cut it in to smale peces. and temper it with hote blode: and cause yowre hawke oftyn tyme to fede therof and she shall not mewe.

¶ For the gowte in the throte.

When ye se yowre hawke blaw oftyn tymes: and that it commys of no batyng. ye may be sure she hath the gowte in the throte And for that Take the blode of a pekoc. and Encense myrabolanana. and clawis of gelofre. and canell and gynger. and take of all thes eynlich and medyll hem with pecokkys blode and seth it tyll it be thycke. and therof make morcellis. and yeue the hawke therof eueri day. at mydmorne and att Noone.

For the gowte in the hede and ī the Raynes.

When ye se yowre hawke may not endew her meete nor remoūte her astate. she hath the gowte in the hede and in the Raynes.

¶ Take Momyañ oderwise called momyñ. among Poticaries ye may haue it. and the skynne of an haare and yeue it to yowre hawke to eete .ix. tymes with the flesh of a catt. and iff she may holde that meette she shaļ be saafe.

¶ A medecyne for a sekenes called the fallera

When ye se that yowre hawkes clees wax white: then she has the fallera. For this sekenes take a blacke snake. and cutte a way the hede. and the tayļ. and take the myddyļ. and fry it in an erthyn pote. and take the grece and saue it. and anoynt the flesh of a pecoke therwith and yeue it to the hawke for to eete viij. days: and ye haue no pecoke yeue hir flesh of a colū and after the .viij. days yeue hir a chekyn. and wash it a littil and yeue it hir to eete. and take the tenderist of the brest withe the ffreshell bone and let hir eete it. and if she amende anythyng she shaļ be hooļ.

A medecyne for the crampe in the thigh in the legge and in the fote of an hawke.

When ye se youre hauke lay hir oon fote vppō her oder fote. she is take with the crampe. Then drawe hir blode vppon the fote y^t lies vppon that other fote. and vppon the legge also. and she shałl be hoole.

¶ For the Cogh or the poose.

Take powdre of Bays: and put it vppon the flesh of a Coluer. and yeue it ofte to yowre hawke and with owte dowte she shałl be hoole.

¶ A medecyne for the podagre.

When yowre hawkes fete be swollyn she hath the podagre then Take fresh may butter and as moch of Oył of olyf and of alyn. and chaufe it wele to gedre at the fiere and make therof of anoyntement. and anoynt the fete .iiij. days. and set hir in the sonne. and yeue hir flesh of a cat. and if that auaył nott Seth the cuttyng of a vyne. and wrappe it a bowte the swellyng. and let hir sit vppon a colde stone and anoynt hir with butter or freshe grece. and she shałl be hooł.

A medecyne for a sekenes within the body of an hauke and it shewith not outewarde how she shall be holpen and in what maner.

A man may know by the chere. and vngladnes of an hawke this infirmyte bot yit it is straunge to knawe: thyngys that a man may not se: in what sekenes and what maner thay be greuyde and specialli whan a man whote not wherof it commyth ¶ Fede yowre hawke wele vppon an henne and then make her to fast .ij. days after: to avoide weeke hir bowellis. The thryd day take hony sodeñ and fyll hir body full. and bynde hir beke that she cast it not owt of hir body and then set hir owtt in the sonne. and when it drawith toward euen fede hir with an hote fowle. for as I herde my maystris say and she be nott hooft herof. loke neuer oder medecyne.

For the passion that Goshawkis haue fastyng

¶ Take the Rote of small Rysshes. and make Iuce of hem and weete yowre flesh therin and make her to eete it.

¶ For hawkis that ben wounded.

Take a way the federis abowt the wonde and take the white of an Egge and Oyle of Olyue. and medill it to geder. and anoynt the wonde and kepe it with white wyne. vnto tyme ye se dede flesh. and then put in the wonde Escompe saff vnto tyme the dede flesh be wastyde. after take encence: and clene as myche of that oon as of that oder. medill it infere. and whan ye will anoynt the soore heete yowre oyntement and anoynt it with a pen: tyll the tyme the skynne grow ayenne. and if ye se dede flesh theron: and woll haue it a way Take venecreke & then anoynt itt with this Oyntement afforsayde and she shall be hooft

¶ A medecine for an hauke that has the artetik

When ye se yowre hawke fat abowte the hert trust it for trouth she hath the artetike. Therefore do let hir blode in the Origynal vayne. and after that yeue hir a frogge for to eete. & she shall be hooft

A medecine for an hauke combred ī the bowillis

When yowre hawke is Encombred in the bowillis ye shaſſ know it by hir Eyghes. for hir Eighen wiſſ be derke and she wiſſ looke vngladli and hir metessing wiſſ defowle hir foundement. Then take the hawkes meete and anoynt it with powdre of canneſſ and yeue it hir to eete. and she shaſſ be hooſſ.

¶ A medecyne for an hawke that has the goutte

Fede yowre hawke with an Irchyn onys or twyes. & it shaſſ helpe hir:

¶ A medecyne for an hawke that hath mites.

Take the Iuce of wormewode and put it ther thay be and thei shaſſ dye.

¶ That an hauke vse hir craft all the seson to flye or lefe.

When ye go to the felde in the latter ende of hawkyng and desire that yowre hawke shaſſ vse hir crafte. Do to hir in this maner let hir sle a fowle. and let hir plym vppon it asmoche as she wiſſ. and when she hath plymmed Inough go to hir softly for frayng. and rewarde hir on the fowle. and after that ye may cast hir on a perch. & aswell she may vse hir craft so. as that she slew aſſ the yere.

¶ A medecyne for an hauke that has the stoon

¶ Anoynt hir fundement with Oyſſ. and put the powder of alym with an hole straw.

¶ Also take an herbe callid cristis lardder. & anoynt hir mowthe within and she shaſſ be hooſſ.

¶ Also take smale flambe rotis and polipodi and the cornes of sporge and grinde it weel and seeth it in butter. and drawe it thorough a clooth. and make throf .iiij. pellettis of the grettenes of a Not. and put it in his mowth in the morowtide. and loke that she be voide. and then let her fast till euensong. and fede hir littill and littill. and she shall be hooft.

¶ A medecyne for vermyn.

Take the Iuce of the Roote of ffeneft. and do it where the vermyn be. and thay shall dye.

¶ A medecine for the Reume that haukis haue

When ye se yowre hauke cloose her Eyghen. and shakith hir hede. then hath she the Reume in the hede. Therefore yeue hir larde of a gote the first day and the secunde yeue hir epatike with the flesh of a chycon and she shall be hooft.

¶ A medecyne for haukis that bene dry and desyre to drynke, to kepe hem moyst in kynde.

¶ Take the Iuce of haarhonde and weete thyn hawkys mete therin. and fede her therwith onys or twyes. and she shall be hooft.

For sekenes that haukis haue ī their Entrellis.

An hawke that is seke withi then trayles: is of an oder aray then in oder sekeneses. for if she holde not her mete bot cast it. that is tokyn of the foule glet. for surfete of federis that be yeuen to hawkis in theyr yowth and afterwarde when thay come vnto trauayll. and ben anoyde of the Reuer then thay waxen slow to flye and desire forto rest. and when thauke is vppon hir perch then she wiill slepe forto putouer. at then trīg and if she holde flesh any while in hir goorge: it wiill loke as it wor sooden and when she is waked she assayeth to put ouer at then tryng. and it is agluttide and colded: with the glett y^t she hath engenderid. and if she shulde ascape she most put ouer. or ellis she most dye. or cast it and if she cast it she may be holepe with the medecyne.

¶ A medecyne for the Entreyllis.

Take yolkys of Egges rawe. and whan they be wele beton to geder. put therto spanshe salte. and as mych hony therto. & weete therin thy fleshe. and fede thyn hawke .iij. days therwith and if she make daunger to eete it. let holde thyn hawke. and make hir to swallow .iij. or .iiij. morcellis in a day. and securli she shaill be hooill ¶ Yit I shaill say to yow a noder thyng. take hony at the chourgyng of the moon. and a kene nettyll and therof make small powdre and when it is well grownde. take y^e brest boon of an henne. and a noder of a coluer. and hakke it with a knyfe. and do a way the skynne. and do theron the powdre and all hooite with the powdre fede hir. and do so thries. and she shaill be hooill.

¶ For sekenes of Swellyng.

Iff an wicked felon be swollyn in sich a maner y^t a man may heeill it. that the hawke shaill not dye thus a man may helpe hir strongly. and lengthe hir lyfe. bot the hawke wiill be very eegre and glettous of the sekenes. and therfor ye moost Take the Rote of comfory and sugre iliche mych. and sethe it in fresh grece with the thridde parte of hony. and then draw it thorogh a fayre clooth. and oft yeue it to the hawke and she shaſſ amende.

For blaynis ī haukes mouthes cald frounches

Off the frounches it is dredde for hawkes. for it is aṇoyus sekenes. and drawith hir to deth. and with holdeth hir strengthe. for men sayn that it commyth of colde. For colde doth hawkes mych harme. and makyth flewme fall owte of the brayne & the Eyghen wiḥ swell and empeyre in her hede. and bot she haue hasteli helpe it wiḥ stoppe her nase thrillis. And therfor Take Feneḥ Maryaḥ and Kersis ilich moch. and sethe it & draw it thorough a cloth. and oderwhiles: wash her hede therw^t and put som in the Roofe of her mowth. and she shaḥ be saafe

¶ A medicine for an hauke that castis hir flesh

Wete hir fleshe in sarfoiḥ or ellis seeth Rafne in water and put her fleshe therin: when it boylith.

¶ A medecyne for the Reume clepid Agrum

¶ When thou seeth thy hauke vppon his mouth and his chekis blobbed. then she hath thys sekenes calde Agrum. Therfor take a nedeḥ of siluer and hete it ī the fire. and brynne the Narellis thourogh owte. then anoynt it with oyle of Olyff.

¶ For to make an hawke grete and fatte.

Take a quantyte of poorke and ony and butter lliche myche and porgede grece and do a way the skynne. and sethe hem to geder. and anoynt thy flesh therin. and fede yowre hawke therwith. and she shaḥ encrece myghtely. Ellis take the wynges of an Eued. and fede hir and kepe hir from traueḥ and do so ofte though the eued be neuer so fatte. and if yowre hawke be not passing fat within a fortinet wondre I thynke.

¶ For booches that growe in an hawkis Iowe

Kutt theys botches with an knyfe. and let owte the mater of theym. and after clense theym clene with a syluer spone or ellis fille the hooft with a powdre of arnement Ibrent. and vppon that powdre do a littill larde: that is resside and so it wiill a way.

Here is a goode medecyne for an hawke that wyll not coom to Reclayne.

¶ Take fresh butter and put therto sugre and put it in a clene cloth and Reclayne her to that and kepe it in a box in youre. bagge.

A medecyne for hawkis that bene Refreyned.

When ye se yowre hawke Nesyng and Castyng wat thorough her Nostrellis or hir nares then dowteles she is Refraned. For that sekenes: take ye greynes of shaffelegre and of peper and grynde it weel. and temper it with strong vynegre and put in hir Nares and in the Rooff of hir mowth and yeue hir flesh to eete. and she shall be saaff.

A medecyne for hawkys that haue payne in theyr croupes.

¶ Ye shall take fayre Morsum and poudre of gelefne: and medditt it to gedre. and yeue it to yowre hawke to eete. and if she holde it past the secunde day after. she shall be hoole.

A medecyne for the stoone in the fundement

¶ When yowre hawke may not metese then she hathe thatt sekenes calde the stoon. And for this sekenes: ye sha  take the hert of a swyne and the grece of a swyne. and cutt it with the fles  of the hert and she sha  be holpe.

¶ A medecyne for the dry Frounce.

For thys sekenes take the Roote of Pillipody that growth vppon Okys. and seth it a grete while then take it fro the fire and let it stonde and wax lew warme. then wash yowre fles  therin. and feede yowre hawke .iij. tymes. and she sha  be hoole

¶ A medecyne for wormys called anguellis

Take pressure made of a lombe that was borne in vntyme & maake therof .iij. morcellis and put it in a gut of a coluer and fede her therwith and loke the hawke be voide when ye yeue hir thys medecyne.

¶ Also take Iuce of dragonys and put full the gut of a pegion and then cut it and departe it as the hawke may ouerswolow it. and put it in his body. and knytt his beke for castyng

¶ Also yeue hir the ballockys of a Buc as hote as thay ben cut owte. and make powdre of the pynty  and cast it vpp  the fles  of a Cat. and fede her therwith & she sha  be hoo .

An hawke Týrith. Fedith. Goorgith. Bekith. Rousith.
Enduýth. Mutith. Perchýth. Ioykith. Puttithouer. Proýnýth.
Plommyth. She warbullith. and mantellith.

She tyrith vppon Rumppys. She fedith on all maner of flesh. She goorgith when she fillith hir goorge with meete. She bekyth when she sewith: that is to say she wypith hir beke. She Rousith when she shakith all hir federis and hir body to gedre. She Enduýth when hir meete in hir bowellys fall to digestion. She mutith when she auoydith hir order. She perchith when she stondyth on any maner bowe or perch. She Ioykith when she slepith. She puttithouer when she Euoidith hir meete owte of hir goorge in to hir bowillis. She proynith when she fetchyth oyle with hir beke ou hir tayle and anoyntith hir fetr & hir federis. She plōmyth when she pullith federis of any fowle or of any other thyng and castys hem from her She warbbelyth when she drawith booth her wyngys ouer the myddys of her boeke. and ther they mete both and softly shakyth them. and let hem fall ayen. And she mantyllith when she stretchith her oon wyng a long after her lege. and afterwarde that other wyng. and moost comynly she doth that affore or she warbelyth hir.

¶ The namys of a Spare hawke as Ostrigers and Sparuiters haue determined

Ther is a question axyd whether a man shall call a spare hawke Or a spere hawke Or an aspere hawke. & Ostrigers. and also Sparuiters: sayen she may be callid all .iij. Namys. for thees resonys. She may be callid a Spere hawke for of all the hawkys that ther be she is moost spere. that is to say moost tendre to kepe. for the leest mysdyetyng and mysentendyng sleth

¶ Also she may be calde an aspere hawke of sharpenesse of hir corage. and of hir lokyng quicly. and also of her fleyng For she is moost asper and sharpe in all thyng that belong vnto hir of any other hawkys

¶ She may be also callid a spare hawke for .ij. Resones. oon is she sparith goshawkys and tercellys both. sicke as ben in their soore aage. vnto tyme thay may be Reclaymyd. and made redy to flye. as Goshawkys and tercellys that be not fully mewed: vnto tyme they may be clene ensaymyd and redy to flye. for all the whyle thay bene vnabull. the spare hawke occupithe thesseson. and sleth the partrich weeth. that is to say from saynt Margaritys day vnto it be lammes. and so forth in the yere.

¶ And she wyth slee weeth yong fesawntis: yong heth cockys in the begynnyng of the yere. And after Michelmas whan partriches passe her daunger I haue seen them made sum to sle the pie sum to sle the Tele vppon the Reuer: at the Iutte. sume to sle the wodecok and sum for the blacke bride and the thrushe.

¶ The wodecok is comborous to sle: bot if ther be crafte. therefore when ye come to a wode or a quech of bushus. cast yowre sparehawke in to a tre and beete the bushes then and if any wodecok arise she will be sure therof. ¶ Ye most first make hir to a fowle cast vp owt of the bushes. and yowre hawke most sit on loofte as ye make hir to a partriche. Also as I sayde ye may call hir a spare hawke: for an oder cause. for and ther weer a shippe fraght full of hawkis. and no thyng ellis. and ther were a spare hawke among thaym ther shuld no custom be payd because of hir. And so for the most comune name thay be calde spare hawkes for the resones a forsayd.

An hawke flieth to the vew to the Beke. or to the Toll. Nō Crepe Querre Fer Iutty &c

An hawke fleeth to the Ryuer dyuersis ways. and slethe the fowle dyuerli. That is to say she flieth to the vew or to the beke. or to the toll. & all is bot oon. as ye shall knawe here after She fleeth also to the quarre: to the crepe. and no mo ways bot thoos .iiij. And she Nymmyth the fowle at the fer Iutty or at the Iutty ferre.

Now shall ye know what theis termes betokyn & moo folowyng.
as Hut. Iutty ferry. Mounte Raundon. Crepe. Ennewed.

A Goshawke or a tercel that shall flee to the vew. to the toff or to the beke. in this maner she is taught ye most fynde a fowle in the Reuer or in a pitte preueli. and then sett youre hauke a grete space of. vppon a mooft hill or on the grownde. and crepe softeli towarde the fowle: from yowre hawke streght way and when ye come almost ther as the fowle lyeth. looke backwarde towarde the hawke. and with yowre hande or with yowre tabur styke: becke yowre hawke to come to you. and when she is on wyng. and comyth low bi the grounde. and is almost at yow. then smyte youre tabur. and cry huff. huff. huff and make the fowle to spryng. and with that noyse the fowle wil rise and the hawke wyll nym it.

¶ And now take hede. Iff yowre hawke nym the fowle at the fer side of the Ryuer or of the pitt from yow Then she sleeth the fowle at the fer Iutty and if she slee it vppon that side that ye ben on. as it may hape dyuerse times. Then ye shall say she hath sleen the fowle at the Iutty ferry.

¶ Iff yowre hawke nym the fowle a lofte: ye shall say she toke it at the mounte or at the souce.

¶ And if the fowle spryng not bot flee a long after the Reu and the hawke nym it then. ye shall say she slew it at the Raundon.

¶ Creepe.

And yowre hawke fleeth at or to the Creepe when ye haue yowre hawke on yowre fyst and crepe softely to the Ryuer or to the pit. and stelith softeli to the brynke therof. and then cry huff. and bi that meane Nym a fowle. Then it is slayn at the Crepe oder at the fer Iutty. or at the Iutty ferry. as a booue is sayde.

¶ And if it happyn as it dooth oftymes the fowle for fere of yowre hawke woff spryng and fall ayen in to the Ryuer. or the hawke sees hir. and so lie styll and dare not arise. ye shall say then yowre hawke hath ennewed the fowle in to the Ryuer. ond so shall ye say and ther be moo fowles in the

Ryuer then thatt yowre hawke nymmyth if thay darenot arise for fere of yowre hawke

¶ A thefe.

Understonde ye that a Goshawke shulde not flie to any fowle of the Ryuer with bellis in no wise. and therfore a Goshawke is calde a theef.

¶ Querre.

And yowre hawke fleeth to the querre. when ther be in a stobull tyme Sordes of mallardes in the felde and when she espith theym and commyth couerte her selfe. and flie preuyli vnder hedges or law bi the grownde. and nym oon of hem. or thay rise then ye sha  say that the fowle was slayn at the querre.

Merke this terme draw

Som folke mysuse this terme draw. and say that thayr hauke wiþ draw to the Ryuer. And that terme draw is propurli assigned to that hawke that wiþ slee a Roke or a Crow or a Reuyn: vppon a londe sittying. and then it most be sayd that sich an hawke wiþ draw weeth to a Rooke.

Nowe ye shall vnderstonde if a man will make an hawke to the querre in this maner he most do

Take a tame Malarde and set hym in a fayr playn. and let hym goo where he wil. then take yowre hawke vppon yowre fist. and goo to that playn. and holde vp yowre hande a praty way of from the Malarde. and looke if the hawke can espie it. by hir awyn corage and if she haue fowde the fowle and desire to flee ther to. let hir slee it. and plymme we. vppon hir. and serue her so .ij. or .iij. tymes and then she is made to the quarre.

I haue knawyn gentylmen that whensoever and whersoeuer thay se any tame Dookes. and if theyr hawkys wolde desire to thaym. then thay wolde let flee to theym in coragyng theyr hawkys to be we. fleyng to the quarre an oder tyme.

A praty craft to take an hawke that is brokyn owt of mew. and all maner of fowlȳs that sȳt in trees if a man wȳll.

Looke where an hawke perchith for aȝ nyght: in any maner place. and softe and layserly clymbe to her with a sconce or a lanterne that hath bot oon light. in yowre hande and let the light be towarde the hawke so that she se not yowre face and ye may take hir by the leggys or oder wise as ye lyst. and in lyke wise aȝ other maner fowle.

Of hawkys Bellys.

The bellis that yowre hawke shaft wheer looke in any wise that thay be not to heuy ouer hir power to weyr. also that noon be heuyr then an other bot like of weyght. Looke also that thay be sonowre and weþ sowndyng and shil and not both of oon sowne: bot that oon be a semytoyn vnder a noder. and that thay be hoole and not brokyn and specialli in the sowndyng place. For and thay be brokyn thay wyþ sowne full dulli.

Off spare hawke bellis ther is chooce and lyttill of charge of thaym: for ther beeth plenty.

¶ Bot for Goshawkes somtyme Bellis of Melen were calde the best. and thay be full goode for thay comunely be sownden with siluer and solde ther after. Bot ther be now vsed of Duchelande bellys: of a towne calde durdright. and thay be passing goode. for thay be wele sortid weþ sownded. sonowre of Ryngyng in shilnes and passing weþ lastyng.

¶ Here endyth the proceis of hawkyng. And now foloys the naamys of all maner of hawkys & to whom they belong.

¶ Theys haukes belong to an Emproure

Theys be the names of all maner of hawkes. First an Egle. a Bawtere. a Melowne. The symplest of theis .iiij. wiþ slee an Hynde calfe. a Fawñ. a Roo a Kydde. an Elke. a Crane. a Bustarde a Storke. a Swañ. a Fox in the playn grownde. And theis be not enlured. ne reclaymed. by cause that thay be so ponderowse to the perch portatiff. And theis .iiij. by ther nature belong to an Emprowre.

¶ Theis hawkes belong to a kyng.

Ther is a Gerfawken. a Tercell of a gerfauken. And theys belong to a kyng.

¶ For a pryncce.

Ther is a Fawken gentill. and a Terceſſ gentill. and theys be for a pryncce.

For a duke.

¶ Ther is a Fawken of the rock. And that is for a duke

For an Erle.

¶ Ther is a Fawken peregryne And that is for an Erle

¶ For a Baron.

Also ther is a Bastarde and that hauke is for a Baron

Hawkes for a knyght

¶ Ther is a Sacre and a Sacret. And theis be for a Knyght.

Hawkis for a Squyer.

¶ Ther is a Lanare and a Lanreth. And theys belong to a Squyer.

For a lady

¶ Ther is a Merlyon. And that hawke is for a lady

An hawke for a yong man

¶ Ther is an Hoby. And that hauke is for a yong man And theys be hawkes of the towre: and ben both Ilurid to be calde and reclaymed

¶ And yit ther be moo kyndis of hawkes

¶ Ther is a Goshawke. and that hauke is for a yeman

¶ Ther is a Terceſt. And that is for a powere man.

¶ Ther is a Spare hawke. and he is an hawke for a prest

¶ Ther is a Muskyte. And he is for an holiwater clerke

And theis be of an oder maner kynde. for thay flie to Querre and to fer Iutty and to Iutty fferry.

¶ Explicit.

Lyke wise as ī the booke of hawkyng aforesayd are writyn and noted the termys of plesure belongyng to gentiſh men hauyng delite therin. In thessame maner thys booke folowyng shewith: to sych gentiſh personys the maner of huntyng for aſh maner of beestys. wether thay be Beestys of venery. or of chace. or Rascaſh. And also it shewith aſh the termys cōuenyent as weſh to the howndys as to the beestys a forsayd. And in certayn ther be many dyuerse of thaym. as it is declared in the booke folowyng.

Bestys of venery.

Wheresoeuere ye fare by fryth or by fell
My dere chylde take hede how Tristram dooth you tell How many maner beestys of venery ther were Lystyn to yowre dame and she shałł yow lere Fowre maner beestys of venery there are
The first of theym is the .hert. the secunde is the hare
The boore is oon of tho. the wolff and not oon moo

Bestys of the Chace.

¶ And where that ye cum in playne or in place
I shaʒl yow tell which be beestys of enchace
Oon of theym is the .Bucke. a nother is the Doo
The Fox and the Martron. and the wilde Roo
And ye shaʒl my dere chylde other beestys aʒl.
Where so ye hem fynde Rascaʒl ye shaʒl hem call
In fryth or in fell: or in forest I yow tell.

Note here the aage of an hert.

¶ And for to speke of the hert iff ye will it lere
Ye shall hym a .Calfe. call at the fyrst yere
The secunde yere a .Broket. so shall ye hym call
The therde yere a .Spayad. lerneth thus all
The fowrth yere a .Stagge. call hym by any way
The fithe yere a .grete Stagge. youre dame bide yow say
The vi. yere call ye him an .hert.
Doth so my childe wylis ye been in quart

To know the hede of an hert. & that is dyuerse

¶ And of the horny that he then berith a bowte
The fyrst hede sha   be Iugett wyth owte
Ther in fyndyn wee suche dyuersite.
Natheles the .vi. yere euermoore at the leest
Thow shalt we   Iuge the perche of thesame beest
When he hath Awntelere with owt any lett
Rya   and Surria   also there Isett
And that in the toppe so when ye may hym keen
Then sha   ye call hym forchyd an hert of tenne
And when he hath in the toppe .iiij. of the selue
Then ye sha   call hym trochid an hert of .xij.
And afterwarde in the toppe when ther .iiij. bene
Then sha   ye call hym sommyd an hert of .xvi.
And from .iiij. forward w  t so befa  
Be he neuer of so many ye sha   hym summed call Ryght of the nombre euyn that he is Callith hym from .iiii. forth summed Iwys
Also haue ye sele an hert heded wee  .

An Heerde. A Beve. A Sounder. A Route.

¶ My chylde callith herdys of hert and of hynde
And of Bucke and of doo where yo hem fynde
And a Beue of Roos what place thay be in
And a Sounder ye shaʒ of the wylde swyne
And a Rowte of wolues where thay passin inne
So shaʒ ye hem caʒ as many as thay bene

A Littill herde. A myðýll heerd A grete heerd

¶ .xx. is a littyll herde though it be of hyndis
And .xl. is a mydyle herde to call hym be kyndis
And .lxxx. is a grete herde call. ye hem so
Be it hert be it hynde buche or ellis doo

How ye shall say a gret hert & not a fair & oder

¶ A grete hert when ye hym se so shall ye hym call Bot neuermore a fayre hert for no thyng that may be fall
A grete hynde a grete bucke and a fayre doo
My sonnys where ye walke call ye hem so
So ye shulde naame sich dere: and do as I yow lere

¶ what is a beuy of Roos grete or small

¶ And sex is a beue of Roos on a rawe
And .x. is a mydyll beuy full wele I it kawe
A grete beuy is .xij. when thay to gedre be
And so call hem sonnys woere that ye hem se
The moore nombur than ywis: the gretter the beuy is

What is a Sounder of swýne grete or small

¶ Twelfe make a Sounder of the wylde swyne
Xvi. a medyff Sounder what place thay be inne
A grete sounder of swyne .xx. ye shafl call Forr geet not this lession for thyng that may fall
Thynke what I say: my sonne nyght and day

Of the Roo huntýng. brekýng. and dressýng

When ye hunt at the Roo then shaþ ye say thoore
He crossies and tresones yowre howndys byfoore
A grete Roobucke ye call hym not so Bot a fayre Roobucke and a fayre doo
With the bowellis and with the bloode
Rewarde ye yowre howndes my sonnys so goode
¶ And eche foote ye shaþ cutte in .iiij. I yow kenne Take the bowellis and the bloode and do aþ to gedre then Yeuyth hit than to yowre howndys so
And moche the glaadder then thay wiþ go
That to yowre howndes a rewarde is calt
For hit is eeten on the grownde and on the skynne dalte
¶ The Roo shaþ be herdeled by veneri I weene
The .ij. forther legges the hede layde by twene
And take oon ender legge vp I yow pray
And that oder forder legge right as I yow say vppon the oder forder legge booth ye hem pytte
And with that other forther legge vp ye hem knytte
Oon thys maner thus when ye haue wroght
Aþ hoole to the kechen then hit shaþ be broght
Saue that yowre howndes eete: the bowillis and the fete.

Now of thage & vndoýng of the boore

¶ Now to speke of the boore the fyrst yere he is A pygge of the Sounder called ale haue I blis
The secunde yere an hogge and so shaþ he be
And an hoggestere when he is of yeris .iiij.
And when he is of .iiij. yere a beore sheþ he be
From the Sounder of the swyne then deþtiith he
A Synguler is he so: for a lone he wiþ goo.
¶ when ye haue slayn the boore and wiþ do hym right
Ye shaþ vndo hym vnflayne when he shaþ be dight
Xxx. bredys and .ij. of hym ye shaþ make
By the law of venery as I dare vnder take Thurgh yowre houndys by stryngth iff that he be dede
Thay shaþ haue the bowyllis boyle with the brede
Cast vppon the grownde ther the boore was slayne
And that is calde a Rewarde so hunteris it sayne vppon the erth so haue I blis: for that so eeten is Now of the hare.

¶ Now for to speke of the hare my sonnys secureli
That beest kyng shaʒ be calde of aʒ venery
For aʒ the fayre spekyng and blawyng lerf sere Commyth of sechyng and fyndyng of the hare
For my leif chylder I take it on honde
He is the meruellest beest that is in ony londe
For he fymaes and crotis and Roungeth euermooore
And beerith talow and gris: and a boue teeth hath be foore
And other while he is male: and so ye shaʒ hym fynde
And other while female and kyndelis by kynde ¶ And when he is female and kyndelis hym with in
In .iiij. degrees he hem berith or he with hem twyn
Too Rough and .ij. smoth who wiʒ hem se
And ij. knottis also that kyndelis wiʒ be
When he is female so tell I my tale.

¶ The rewarde for howndys.

¶ When yowre houndis by strenath hath done her to dede
The hunter shaʒ rewarde hem then with the hede
With the shulderis and the sides and with the bowellis aʒ
And aʒ thyng with in the wombe saue onli the gall
The paunche also: yeue hem noon of thoo.
Wich rewarde when oon the erth it is dalt.
With aʒ goode hunteris the .halow. it is calt
Then the loynes of the hare loke ye not forgete
Bot bryng hem to the kechyn for the lordis meete
And of this ilke hare speke we no mare.

Wiche beestes shall be flayne & wich stripte

¶ Now to speke of the bestes when thay be slayne
How many be strypte and how many be flayne
Añ that bere skyne and talow and Rounge leue me Shall be flayne safe the hare for he shall stripte be
And añ that berith greece: and piles ther vppon
Euer shall be strypte when thay be vndoon
Oñ theys maner play: thus ye shall say.

Whiche beestis shall be reride with the lȳmer.

¶ My dere sonnys echeon now wiȝ I yow lere
How many maner beestys as with the lȳmere
Shalȝ be vpreryde in fryth or in felde
Booth the hert and the bucke and the boore so wilde
And aȝ other beestys that huntid shalȝ be Shalȝ be sought and founde with Ratchis so fre Say thus I yow tolde: my childer so bolde

The discreuyng of a Bucke.

¶ And ye speke of the Bucke the fyrst yere he is A fawne sowkyng on his dam say as I yow wis
The secunde yere a preket. the .iij. yere a sowrell
A sowre at the .iiij. yere the trowthe I yow tell
The .v. yere call hym a Bucke of the fyrst hede
The .vi. yere call hym a Bucke and do as I you rede

Of the hornys of a Bucke.

¶ The hornys of a grete Bucke or he so be Most be summyd as I say herkenyth to me Too braunchis first pawmyd he most haue
And .iiij. avauncers the soth iff ye will saue
And xxiiij. espelers and then ye may hym call Where so ye be a grete Bucke I tell yow all

Of the Roobucke.

¶ And iff ye of the Roobucke wiſſ know theſſame
The firſt yere he is a kyde ſoukyng on his dame
The ſecunde yere he is a gerle: and ſo be ſiche all
The thirde yere an hemule loke ye hym call Robucke of the firſt hede he is at the iiij. yere
The .v. yere a Roobucke hym call I yow lere
At ſaynt andrew day his hornys he wiſſ caſt
In moore or in moos he hidyth hem faſt
So that no man may hem ſone fynde
Ellys in certayn he doos not his kynde
¶ At ſaynt Iamys day where ſo he go
Then ſhaſſ the Roobucke gendre with the Roo
And ſo boldely ther as ye durne
Then is he calde a Roobucke goyng in his turne
And iff ye may a Robucke ſle with owt any fayle
And ye fynde that heue grece at his tayle
As ſum Robuckys haue when ye hit fynde
Then ſhaſſ ye rere it as ye do of hert and of hynde
Also the Robucke as hit is weeſe kyde
At holyrode day he gooth to Ryde.
And vsith the bit: when he may gete hit

Now of the hert and of the hynde.

¶ Sonnys of the hert and the hynde lerne yit ye may Ther thay draw to the herde at holi roode day
To the stepe then thay goon yche hote day at noon
Which stepe thay vsen my childer I yow say Till hit be Myddesomere at the last way
The cause of the stepe is to weere hym fro the flee
Who so commyth to that place may se hit with his ighe
An other thyng thay vse my chylde also
The same seson of the yere to soyle to go

Of the criyng of theys beestys.

¶ An hert belowys and a bucke gronys I fynde
And iche Roobucke certayne bellis by kynde
The noyes of theyes beestys thus ye shaſſ call
For pride of theyre make thay vsen hit all Say chylde where ye goo: yowre dame taght you so

Merke well theys sesonys folowyng.

¶ Tyme of grece begynnyth at mydsomer day
And tyll holi Roode day lastyth as I you say
¶ The seson of the fox fro the Natiuyte
Tyll the annunciacion of owre lady fre
¶ Seson of the Robucke at Ester shall begynne
And till mychelmas lastith nygh or she blynne
¶ The seson of the Roo begynnyth at Michelmas
And hit shall endure and last vntill Candilmas
¶ At Michelmas begynnyth huntyng of the hare
And lastith till mydsomer ther nyll no man hit spare
¶ The seson of the wolfe is in iche cuntre
At the seson of the fox and euermore shall be ¶ The seson of the boore is from the Natiuyte
Till the purification of owre lady so fre
For at the Natiuyte of owre lady swete
He may fynde where he goth vnder his feete
Booth in wodys and feldis corne and oder frute
When he after foode makyth any sute
Crabbys and acornys and nottis ther thay grow
Hawys and heepes and other thyng ynow
That till the purification lastys as ye se
And makyth the Boore in seson to be
For while that frute may: last his time is neuer past

Of the huntýng of the haare

Now to speke of the haare how all shall be wrought
When she shall with houndes be foundyn and soght
The first worde to the houndis that the hunt shall owt pit
Is at the kenell doore when he openys it
That all may hym here: he shall say arere.
For his howndes wolde cum to hastely
That is the first worde my sonne of venery
And when he hath couplyd his houndes ychoon
And is forth with hem to the felde goon
And when he has of cast his cowples at will Then shall he speke and say his howndes till Hors de couple auaunt se auaunt twis so
And then So ho so ho. thries and no mo
And then say .Sa sa cy auaunt So how I you pray
And iff ye se yowre howndes haue good will to renne
And draw a waywarde fro yow say as I yow kenne
Here how amy. agayne hem call so Than .Sweff mon amy sweff. to make hem soft go
And iff any fynde of the haare ther he hath bene
And he hight Richer or Bemounde thus to hym bedene
Oyes a Bemounde le vaillant. and I shall you avowe
Q^e quida troñ la cowarde on la court cowe
That Bemonde the worthe with owt any fayle
That wenyth to fynde the coward with the short tayle

¶ And iff ye se where the haare at pasture hath bene
Iff hit be in the tyme of the corne grene
And iff yowre houndes chace weell at yowre will Then .iij. motis shall ye blaw booth lowde and shift
There oon and there an other there be pasturyde has Then say .illoques illoques in thessame place
So say to hem in kynde: vnto tyme that ye hir fynde

¶ And then cast a signe all the feld abowte
To se at hir pasture where she hath be in or owte
Oder at hir forme for gladli to be she is not lefe
Ther she hath pasturid in tyme of Relefe
And any hounde fynd or musyng of hir mace
Ther as she hath byne and is goon owt of that place
Ha sy touz cy est yll. so shall ye say venez auez so how sa. also lowde as ye may Sa cy ad este so how. after that Sa sa cy auaunt. and therof be not lat
And when ye se vnto the playne her at the last
In felde or in errabull londe: or in to the wode past
And yowre hounde will fynde of her ther then Say .la douce amy la est a. and do as I yow ken
That is to say swete frende: ther is he come low
For to dry here. and ther with ye shall say so how Illoques ey douce ey vaylaunt so how so how. then twy
Thus may yē now dere sonnys lerne of venery
And when ye come ther as ye trow he will dwell
And so semeth to yow well then say as I yow tell La douce la est a venuz. for to dwell thoore
And therwith .iij. sohow. say ye no moore
And iff it semes woll yow to fynde all in fere
And wenen so to do then say .douce how here how here
How here douce how here how here he sittys
So shall ye say my chyldre and for no thyng lettyz
All maner bestys that euer chasede wore Haue oon maner of worde .so how. and no more
To fulfill or vnfill eche maner of chaas
The hunt euermoore in his mowth that worde he haas
And iff yowre houndys at a chase renne ther ye hunt
And the beest begynne to renne as herttis be wont
Or for to hanylon as doos the fox with his gyle
Or for to crosse as the Roo dooth oder while Oder dwell so that yowre honndys cannot owte go
Then shall ye say. hoo sa amy sa sa
A complex sa arere so how. sich is the play

And sohow as moch is as sa how to say Bot for .sohow is short in speche when it is brought Therefore say we .sohow bot sa how say we noght
And iff yowre houndis chase at hert or at haare
And thay renne at defaute thus ye sha   say thare
Icy sohow assayne assayne ston hoho
Sa assayne arere sohow theis wordes and no moo
And iff yowre houndes renne we    at fox or at doo
And so fayle at defaute say thus ferther or ye goo
Ho ho ore swef aluy douce a luy. that thay here
Ho hoy assayne assayne sa arere
So how so how venez a coupler. and do as I yow kenne
The moore worshyp may ye haue among a   menne
Yowre craftis let be kydde: and do as I yow bydde
A   my sonnys in same: and thus may ye konne of game

The boost that the mayster hunter makythe to his man now here foloyng ye may here.

The mayster to his man makyth his Roys
That he knowith be kynde what the hert doys
Att huntyng euermoore when he goys
Quod the man to his maister that were good loore
For to know what he doos the houndes befoore
What dooth he mayster quod the man
He dooth quod he eeuyne as thow mayst se Brekyth. and so dooth no beest bot he
When brekyth he quod the man what is that to say
With his feete he opynys the erth ther he gooth a way
What is the cause quod the man maister I the pray
That the hert be foore the houndes when thay hym hunt ay
That then to the Ryuer he wellis for to goon
Quod the maister to the man ther ar causes toon

For .ii. cawses the hert desirith to the Ryuer. & note wele theis termys foloýng descende & oder

¶ Oon cause for the Ryuer descende he is ay
And so is he to the water when he takith the way
Why callist thou hym .descende. mayster I the pray
For he payris of is myght the sooth I the say
A nother is to the water whi he gooth other whyle
The howndes that hym sewen to founde to begyle ¶ Yit of this hert quod his man maister wolde I ken
In to the water when he leppys what he makes then
He proferith quod the mayster and so ye shall say
For he wot not hym selfe yit how he will a way
Whether ouer the water he will for passe
Or turne ayen thessame way ther he fyrst was Therefore hit is profre as theys hunteris sayne
And Reprofer iff thessame way he turne ayene
At that oder side of the water iff he vp sterte
Then shall ye call hit the .soule. of the hert
And that is for the water of his leggee weete
Downe in to the steppis ther fallyn of his fete
Ayen the water his way eeuen iff he hent
Then brekyth he water ther to take yow tent
And iff with the water go algate yow hit shall Defoulant the water an hert so hym call

Now of the Nomblis merke wele the termys

¶ The man to his mayster spekyth full blyth Off the nomblys of the hert that he wolde hym kith
How mony endys ther shaþ be hem with inne
Quod the mayster bot oon thyk nor thynne
And that is bot the Gargilon to speke of aþ bi dene
And aþ theys oder .crokes and Roundulis. bene

The Auauncers. the Forchers

¶ Yit wolde I wit and thow woldest me leere
The crokes and the Roundellis of the Nomblys of y^e dere Oon croke of the Nomblis lyth euermoore vnder the throote bolle of the beest be foore
That callid is .a. auauncers. who so can hem kene
And the hyndermost parte of the Nomblis thene
That is to say the Forchers that liggyn euer betwene
The .ij. theys of the beest that oder crokis euene
In the Mydref that callid is the rondeȝ also
For the sides rownde a bowte coruen it is fro
My deere sonnys bolde: say of game I thus yow tolde

¶ Yit wolde I witt maister whi theys houndes aȝ
Bayen and cryen when thay hym ceche shaȝ
For thay wolde haue helpe that is thayr skyȝ
For to slee the beest that thay renne tyȝ
¶ Tell me mayster quod the man what is the skyl
Why the haare wolde so faynne renne ayenest the hyl
Quod the mayster for her leggyss be shorter be foore
Then be hynde: that is the skyȝ of yore
¶ What is the cause quod the man y^t men say of y^t beest
That the haare sittith aye when she takyth heir reest
And oder beestys ly: as comuneli men sayne
For .ij. causes quod the mayster I tell the playne
Oon is for she hurcles vppon hir houghis ay
And aȝ other beestys: can the side to the grownde lay
An oder cause ther is and that is noo lees
For she beerith booth sewet and pure greece

¶ yit wolde I mayster quod the man fayne witt more
Where lyth the suet of the haare be hynde or befoore Ouer the loyne quod the mayster of iche haare thow take
By twix the tayle and the chyne euen oon the backe

¶ yit wolde I mayster quod the man thees at the leer
What thow walkest in the felde with thy lymeer
Ther as an hert pasturred hath: or y^t thow hym se
To knawe faatt or lene whether that he be
I can quod the mayster weell tell the thys caas
Whaite wele where he lay: and where he fumeyed haas Yolow and englaymede iff that it be Then is he fatt I the tell lerne theys of me
And iff it be booth blacke and harde and clene
Then he is meegre larbre and leene
And of thys ilke thyng iff thow leue not me
Take heede in the wyntre and then thow may it se

¶ Yit mayster of the haare fayn wolde I wit moore
What he dooth when he gooth the howndys befoore
He sorth and resorth ther he gooth a way
Pryckyth and reppyckyth the sooth for to say
Bot wat is that quod the man when thay so doone
That shaft I quod the mayster tell the full soone
In the feeldes wheer he gooth no ways beene
Ther he sorth when he steppyth and hit may not be seene
And after when he dowblith and turnyth agaynne
Then he resoorth as goode hunteres saynne
And when he rennyth in the way dry or weete
Then men may fynde fostalx of clees or of feete
That pryckyth the haare aye when he dooth soo
And reppyckyth then iff he agaynne goo

¶ Maister yit quod the man what is this to say
A vauntellay a lay. and a Relay.
That shaft I tell the quod he: for a littill byzete
When the howndys ar set: an hert for to mete
And other hym chasen and folowyn to take Then all the Relais thow may vppon hem make Even at his comyng yf thow lett thy howndys goo
While the oder that be behynde fer arn hym froo
That is .a vauntelay. and so thow shaft hit call

For thay are than fer before thoos oder howndes all
And an hynderyng grete all oder vntill
For thay may not that day nomore sewe at will
And holde thyn houndes styll iff that thow so do
Till all the houndes that be behynd be cum therto
Than let thyn houndes all to geder goo
That called is an allay. and looke thow say so
And that hynderyng is yit to them that be behynde
For the restede will ouergo the weere by kynde
A relay is after when the houndes ar past
Fer be fore with the hert that hiet hem fast
To let thyn houndes fer after hem goon
And that is then a fortheryng to hem echoon
For and thyn houndes haue ouertake thees oder bi destres
Then shall they all folue hym of oon sweftnes

What is a forloȳng.

¶ Yit mayster wolde I fayn thus at yow leere
What is a forloȳng for that is goode to here
That shaft I say the quod he the soth at lest
When thy houndes in the wode sechyn any beest
And the beest is stoht a way owt of the fryth
Or the houndes that thow hast meten therwith
And any other houndes before: than may with hem mete
Thees oder houndes arn then forloȳned I the hete
For the beste and the houndes arn so fer before
And the houndes be hynde be weere and soore
So that thay may not at the best cum at ther wilh
The houndes before forloȳne hem and that is the skyht
Thay be ay so fere be fore to me iff thow wilh trust
And thys is the forloȳne lere hit iff thow lust

Wiche thre thýnges cause the houndes to endure

¶ Yit wolde I weete mayster iff it ware thy will Whan thyn houndes renne an hert vntill
And ay the forther they goo the gladder thay bene
For .iiij. causes quod he oft tyme is sene
Oon is when the hert rennys fast on a rese
He swetith that hit rennyth downe thorough owt his clees
The houndes when thay fynde of that it is swete
Then ar thay leuer to renne and lother to lete
An oder cause when the hert ny no moore may Then will he white froth caste ther he gooth a way
When thyn houndes fynde of that then ar thay glad
In hope thay shaþ hym haue and renne so rad
The .iiij. cause is of the hert when he is nygh dede
Then he castys owt of his mowth froth and blade rede
The houndes know that he shaþ be take soone than
And euer the forther they goo the gladdir they renne Thes are the causes .iiij. that cawses hem gladde to be

Wich best a slau hounde takis as sone as aswift

¶ What beest yit mayster I ax it for non y^h
That moost hoole a^h houndes rennen vntill
And also sone the slowyst sha^h hym ouer take
As the swyftist sha^h do what way so euer he take
That beest a Bausyn hight a Brok or a Gray
Thees .iij. namys he hath the sooth for to say
And this is cause therof: for he wi^h by kynde
Go thorough thornys a way the thykest he may fynde
Ther as the swyftist houndes may no forther goo
Then the slowest of foote be he neuer so thro

Why the hare fumays and croteis.

¶ yit mayster wolde I wete whi that men sayn
That the haare fumays and croteys booth playn
And aȝ other maner beestys that huntid be Femyoñ or fenoñ as we wele hit se
That shaȝ I weeȝ teȝ the quod the mayster then
For why that he femays and crotis weeȝ I ken
He femaith for he beryth talow. this is no lees
And he croteis men sayn for he beerith grees
And Roukis on his houghis when he lettis it go
And beestys of sich kynde fynde wee no moo
How mony beestis femayeñ mayster fayñ I wolde lere
And how many fenoñ that ware goode to here
Aȝ this to teȝ quod the mayster I holde hit bot lihgt
Aȝ beestis that beere talow and stonde vpright
Femayen when thay do so say as I the kenne
And aȝ oder fenoñ that rowken downe thenne.

How nonȝ maner beestis of veneryȝ Releue

¶ How many maner beestis yit mayster me tell Off venery Releuen by fryth or by ffell
To this quod the mayster I shaȝ the answare
Off aȝ beestis bot .ij. the hert and the haare
From the Annunciacion of owre lady day
The hert then releues the sooth for to say Tiȝ saynt Petris day and paule. and the haare right:
From the Purificacion of owre lady bright:
Tiȝ the translacion Releuys: leue ye me Off saynt Thomas tide of Caunturburie.

To vndo the wylde Boore.

¶ Yit my chylde of the boore for to speke moore
When he shaƿ be vndoon I tell yow be foore xxxij. bredis ye shaƿ of hym make Now wilƿ yow my sonnys wit weere ye shaƿ them take
The fyrst of theym is the hede what euer be faƿ
An oder is the coler and so ye shaƿ hit caƿ
The sheldys on the sholderis: therof shaƿ .ij. be Then eyder side of the swyne depertid in .iiij.
The peestellis and the gambons deƿte theym .ij.
And .ij. feleteys he hath: forgete not thoo
Then take is legges and is feete & shewith yowre sleght
For they shaƿ of his bredys be countid for .viiij.
Departith the chyne in .iiij. pecis and nomoo
And take ther yowre bredis .xxx. and .ij.
And fayre put the grece whan it is take a way
In the bledder of the boore my chylde I yow pray
For hit is a medecyne: for mony maner pyne

¶ how ye shall breeke an Hert.

And for to speke of the hert while we thynke ooñ
My chylde fyrst ye shaƿ hym fue when he shaƿ be vndoon
And that is for to say or euer ye hym dyght
With in his owne hornys to lay hym vpright
At thessay cut hym that lordys may see:
A noon fat or leen wheder that he bee
Than cut of the coddys the bely euen froo
Or ye begynne hym to flee: and then shaƿ ye goo
At chaulis: to begynne assone as ye may
And slyttith hym downe euen to thassay
And fro thassay euen dewne the bele shaƿ ye slitt
To the pissitt ther the codde was a way kytt

Then slit the lyfte legge euen first before
And then the lyfte legge by hynde or ye do moore
And thees oder legges vppon the right syde vppon thessame maner slyt ye that tyde
To goo to the chekys looke ye be prest
And so fleeth hym downe euen to the brest
And so fleeth hym forth right vnto thessay
Euen to the place where the codde was cut a way
Then fleeth thessame wyse aȝ that oder syde
Bot let the tayȝ of the beest stiȝ ther oon byde
Than shaȝ ye hym vndo my chylde I yow Rede
Ryght vppon his awne skynne and lay hit on brede
Take heede of the cuttyng of thessame dere
And begynne fyrst to make the Erbere
Than take owt the shulderis. and slyttith a noon
The baly to the syde from the corbyn bone
That is corbyns fee: at the deeth he wiȝ be Then take owt the sewet that hit be not lafte
For that my chylde is good for lechecraft
Than put thyn honde softly vnder the brest bone
And ther shaȝ ye take owt therber a noon
Than put owt the paunche. and from the paunche taas:
A way wightly the Rate sich. as he haas
Hoole it with a fyngre. do as I yow kenne
And with the bloode and the grece fillith hit thenne Looke threde that ye haue and nedeȝ therto:
For to sew it with aȝ or ye moore do.
The smale guttis than ye shaȝ owt pyt
From hem take the maw. foryet not it.
Than take owt the leuer. and lay hit on the skynne
And after that the bledder with owt moore dynne
Than dresst the Nombles: first that ye reke
Downe the avauncers kerue that cleues to the necke
And downe with the bolthrote put them a noon
And kerue vp the flesh ther vp to the hach boon
And so forth the fillittis that ye vp arere
That fallith to the nombles. and shaȝ be ther:

With the neres also and sewit: that ther is Euen to the mydryf that vppon hym is Than take downe the mydrif from the sides hoote
And haue vp the nombles hoole by the boſt throte
In thyn hond than them holde. and looke and se
That all that longith them to. to geder that thay be
Than take them to thy broder to holde for trist
Whylis thow them dowblyst and dightis as the list
Than a way the lyghtis. and oon the skynne them lay
To a byde the querre my chylde I yow pray.
Than shall ye slyt the slough ther as the hert lith
And take a way the Eres from it and by slyth
For sich heris hath his hert: ay it vppon
As men may se in the beest when he is vndoñ
And in the myddis of the hert a boon shall ye fynde
Looke ye yeue hit to a lorde. and chylde be kynde
For hit is kynde for mony malydies
And in the myddis of the hert euermore it lies
Than shall ye kyt the skyrtis the teeth euen fro
And after the Ragge boon cuttis euen also
The forchis: and the sydes euen betwene
And looke that yowre knyfe ay whettyd bene
Than turne vp the forchis. and frote them with bloode
For to saue the grece. so do men of goode
Than shall ye cut the nek the sydes euen fro
And the hede fro the nek cuttyth also
The toong the brayn the paunch and the necke
When thay wash be weell with water of the becke:
The smale guttis to the lightis in the derys:
A boue the hert of the beest when thow them reris
With all the blode that ye may gete and wyn
All to geder shall be take. and layde oon the skyn.
To geue yowre houndes. that callid is I wis:
The quyrre. a boue the skyn for it etyn is
And who dightis hym so by my counsayle
Shall haue the lefte shuder for hys trauayle.
And the Right shulder where so euer he bee

Yeueth to the foster for that is his fee
And the lyuer also of thessame beest
To the fosterys knaue yeueth at the leest
The nombles trussith in the skynne. and hardett hym fast
The sides and the forches to geder that thay last
With thender legges. be dooñ so it shałł
Than bryng it hoom. and the skynne with ałł
The nombles. and the hornes. at the lordis yate
Than boldely blow the price tharat.
Yowre play for to mynne. Or that ye come Inne

¶ Explicit Dam Iulyans
Barnes in her boke of huntyng.

Bestis of the chace of the swete fewte & stinkīg.

Ther be beestys of the chace: of the swete fewte. And tho be the Bucke. the Doo. the Beere. the Reynd the Elke. the Spyccard. the Otre. and the Martron.

¶ Ther be beestis of the chace of the stynkyng fewte And thay be the Roobucke. and the Roo. the Fulmard. the Fyches. the Baude. the Graye. the Fox. the Squyreñ. the whitrat. the Sot. and the Pulcatte.

¶ The namys of diuerse maner houndis

Theis be the namys of houndes. First ther is a Grehownd a Bastard. A Mengreñ. a Mastyfe. a Lemor. a Spanyeñ. Rachys. Kenettys. Teroures. Bocheris houndes. Myddyng dogges. Tryndeltayles. and Prikherid curris. and smale ladies popis thai beere a way the flees and dyueris smale fawtis.

¶ The propreteis of a goode Grehound.

A Grehounde shulde be heded like a Snake. and necked like a Drake. Foted like a Kat. Tayled like a Rat. Syded lyke a Teme. Chyned like a Beme

¶ The first yere he most lerne to fede. The secund yere to felde hym lede. ¶ The .iiij. yere he is felow lyke. The .iiij. yere ther is noon sike. ¶ The .v. yere he is good Inough The .vi. yere he shañ holde the plough ¶ The vij yere he wiñ avayle: grete bikkys for to assayle. ¶ The .viiij. yere likladiñ. The .ix. yere cartsadyñ. ¶ And when he is commyn to that yere: haue hym to the tanner. ¶ For the beest hownde that euer bikke hade. at .ix. yere he is full badde

The propretees of a goode hors.

A Goode hors shulde haue .xv. propretees. and condicions. y^t is to wit .iiij. of a man .iiij. of a woman .iiij. of a fox .iiij. of an haare and .iiij. of an asse.

Off a man boolde prowde and hardy.

Off a woman fayre brestid faire of here & esy to lip vppon.

Off a fox a faire tayle short eris with a goode trot.

Off an hare a grete eygh a dry hede. and weþ rennyng

Off an asse a bigge chyne a flatte lege. and goode houe.

Weþ trauelid women ner weþ trauelid hors wer neu goode

¶ Arise erly. serue god deuouteli. and the worlde besily doo thy werke wiseli. yeue thyn almese secretly Go by the way sadly. Answer the peple demurely. Go to thi mete appetideli. Sit ther at discretely. Of thi tonge be not to liberalli. Arrise therfrom tempatly. Goo to thi soper soborly And to thy bedde merely. Be in thyn Inne Iocūdely Plese thy loue duly. And slepe surely.

Merke wele theys .iiii thynges.

¶ Ther be .iiij thyng principall to be drad of euy wise man
The first is the curse of owre holy fader the pope.
The secunde is thindignacion of a prince Quia indignacion regis vel principis mors est
The thridde is the fauor or the wilf of a Iuge.
The iiij. is Sclaunder & the mutacion of a comynalte.

Who that makith in Cristynmas a doog to his larder.
And in Marche a Sow to is gardyner.
And in May a fole of a whise mannys counsell.
He shall neuer haue goode larder. fayre gardyn. Ner wele kepyd cowncell.

¶ Fer from thy kynnysmen keste the.
Wrath not thy neighborys next the.
In a goode corne cuntre threste the.
And sitte downe Robyn and rest the.

Who that byldys his hous all of salowes.
And prickyth a blynde hors ouer the falowys.
And suffrith hys wyfe to seche mony halowys.
God sende hym the blysse of euerlastyng galowis.

If theis be not directid then go thei at aventyr

¶ Ther be .iiij. thynges full harde for to know.
Wyche way that thay will drawe.
The first is the wayes of a yong man.
The secunde the cours of a vessayll in the see.
The thridde of an Edder or a serpent sprent.
The .iiij. of a fowle sittying on any thyng.

Too wyues in oon hous. too cattys and oon mous:
Too dogges and oon boon: theis shall neu accorde 1 oon

Who that mannyth hym with his kynne.
And closith his croofte wyth cheritrees.
Shall haue many hegges brokynne.
And also full lyttyll goode seruyes.

The Compaynys of beestys and fowlȳs.

AN Herde of Hertis
an herde of aȝ man dere an Herde of Swannys an Herde of Cranys an Herde of Corlewys an Herde of wrennys an Herde of harlottys a Nye of ffesaunttys a Beuy of Ladies a Beuy of Roos
a Beuy of Quaylis a Sege of heronnys a Sege of betouris
a Sorde or a sute of malardis a Mustre of Pecoockys a walke of Snytis a Congregacion of peple an Exaltyng of Larkis a wache of Nyghtingalis an hoost of men a ffelishippyng of yomen a Cherme of Goldefynches a Cast of Brede
a Couple or a payer of botillis a fflight of Doues an vnkyndenes of Rauenes a Clateryng of choughes a Dissimulacion of breddis a Route of Knyghtis
a Pride of Lionys
a Sleuth of Beeris
a Cete of Graies a Bery of Conyis

a Riches of Martrons a Besynes of ferettis a Brace of grehoundis of ij a Lece of Grehoundis of .iij a Coupull of spaynellis a Couple of rennyng houndis a Litter of welpis
a Kyndyll of yong Cattis a Synguler of Boris a Dryft of tame Swyne an Harrasse of horse a Ragg of coltis or a Rake a Baren of Mulis a Trippe of Gete a Trippe of haaris a Gagle of gees a Brode of hennys a badelyng of Dokis a Noonpaciens of wyues a State of Prynces a Thongh of barons a Prudens of vikeris a Supfluyte of Nunnys a Scole of clerkes a Doctryne of doctoris a Conutyng of prechouris a Sentence of Iuges a Dampnyng of Iurrouris a Diligens of Messangeris an Obeisians of fuauntis a Sete of vssheris a Draught of boteleris a Proude shewyng of taloris a Tempans of cokys a Stalke of fosteris
a Boost of saudiouris a Laughtre of Osteloris

a Glosyng of Tauerneris a Malepertnes of pedleres a Thraue of Throsheris a squatte of Dawberis a Fightyng of beggers an vntrouth of sompneris a Melody of Harpers
A Pauuerty of pypers a sotelty of sergeauntis a Tabernacle of bakers a Drifte of fishers a Disgysyng of Taylours a Bleche of sowteris a Smere of Coryouris a Clustre of Grapys a Clustre of chorlis a Rage of Maydenys a Rafull of Kнауys a blush of boyes an vncredibilite of Cocoldis a Couy of partrichis a Sprynge of Telis a Desserte of Lapwyng a fall of woodecockis a Congregacion of Pleuers a Couert of cootis a Duell of Turtillis a Titengis of Pies an Ost of sparowis
a Swarme of bees
a cast of haukis of y^e tour .ij a Lece of thessame haukis .iij a Flight of Goshaukes a Flight of swallowes a beldyng of Rookes a Murmuracion of stares a Route of woluess

a Lepe of Lebardis a Shrewdenes of Apis a Skulke of Theuys a skulke of ffoxis
a Nest of Rabettis a Labor of Mollis a Mute of houndes a Kenett of Rachis a Sute of a lyam a Cowardnes of curris a Soundre of wilde swyne a Stode of Maris a Pase of Assis
a Droue of Nete a fflocke of Shepe a Gagle of women a Pepe of chykennys a Multiplieng of husbondis a Pontificalite of prelatis a Dignyte of chanonys a Charge of curatis a Discrecion of Prestis a Sculke of freris
a bhomynable sight of mōkis a Scoth of ffysh a Example of Maisteris an Obfuans of herimytis an Eloquens of laweyeris an Execucion of Officerys a faith of Marchandis a p̄uision of steward of hous
a Kerff of Panteris a Credens of Seweris an vnbrewyng of Kerueris a Safegarde of Porteris a Blast of hunteris a Thretenyng of courteyeris

a Promyse of Tapsteris a Lyeng of pardeneris a Misbeleue of paynteris a Lash of Carteris a Scoldyng of Kemsteris a wonderyng of Tynkeris a waywardnes of haywardis a worship of writeris a Neüthriuyng of Iogoleris a ffraunch of Mylneris a Festre of Brewris a Goryng of Bochouris a Trynket of Corueseris a Plocke of Shoturneris a Dronkship of Coblers a Sculke of foxis a Clustre of Nottis a Rage of the teethe a Rascaß of Boyes
a Disworship of Scottis

¶ Explicit

Here folow the dew termys to speke of breekýng or dressýng of dýuerse beestis and fowlis & c And thessame is shewed of certaýn fýsshes.

A Dere brokenne.

A Goose rerede
a Pigge hedede and sydede a Capoon sawsede a Checoon frusshyd a Cony vnlacedde a Crane displayde a Curlew vnioyntede a ffesawnt alet
a Quayle wyngged
a Plouer Mynsed
a Pegeon thyghed Brawne leechyd a Swanne lyfte a Lambe shulderide a Kidde shulderide an Hen spoylede a Malarde vnbrasid an Heron dysmembrid a Pecoke disfigured a Beture vntachid a Partrich alet a Raale brestyde a Wodecoker thyghed an Egge Tyred
a ffyre Tymbered

Now of fysshes

A Sawmon Chyned
a Pyke splatted an Haddocke sided a Cheuen fynned a Sole loyned a Gurnarde chyned a Tenche sawced an Ele trousoned a Breme splayed a Barbiſt tuskyd
a Trought gobettid

¶ ye shall ſay thus.

An hert Herbourghith a Bucke lodgith an Esquyer lodgith a Roo beddith
a yoman beddith
an haare in her forme shulderyng or leenyng.
a Cony sittying.
a Wodecoke beekyng

Here now foloyng shall be shewed all the Shyreys and the Byshopryches of the reolme of Englund And ye shall vnderstonde that the Shyres be written before and the bisshopriches of thesame ar writ folowyng next aft and then afterward ar shewed the Prouynces of this londe.

¶ Kente. Caunturbury. Rouchestre.

¶ Southesex. Chychestre.

¶ Haampshyre. Sutherey. Wynchestre.

¶ Wyldeshyre. Barkeshyre. Salybury.

¶ Somersete shyre. Dorset shyre. Bathe.

¶ Deuenshyre. Cornewayle. Excestur

¶ Essex. Medelsex. London.

¶ Northfolke. Suthefolke. Norwyche.

¶ Cambrygeshyre. Elye.

¶ Laycetre. Huntyngdon. Northampton. Hertford. Bedford.

Bokyngham. Oxynford. Lyncolne. Lyncolne

¶ Gloucetur.

Worcetur.

Wigorñ.

¶ Herfordshyre.

Herford.

¶ Chesshyre. Shropshyre. pte of Lācashire. Chestre.

¶ Yorkeshire. Stafordshire. Darbshire. Notyngghamshyre.

and oder as parte of Lancastreshire.

Yorke.

Prouynces of England.

Caunturburi. and Yorke. Stafford. Darby Notingham. Northumberlonde.
Durham. Westmerlond. Tendale. Karlile

Here in thys booke folowyng is determyned the lynage of Coote armuris: and how gentilmen shall be knowyn from vngentill men. and how bondeage began first in aungeill and after succeded in man kynde. as it is shewede in processe boothe in the childer of Adam and also of Noe. and how Noe deuyded the worlde in .iiij. partis to his .iiij. sonnys. Also ther be shewyd the .ix. colowris in armys figured by the .ix. orderis of aungelis. and it is shewyd by the forsayd colowris wych ben worthy and wych ben Royall. and of rigaliteis wiche ben noble and wich ben excellent. And ther ben here the vertuys of chyualry and many other notable and famowse thyngys to the plesure of noble personys shall be shewyd as the werkys folowyng witteneses who so euer likyth to se thaym and rede thaym wych were to longe now to rehers. And after theys notable thyng aforesayde folowyth the Blasyng of all maner armys in latyn french and English.

¶ Incipit Liber armorum.

Beyng in worthenes aarmes for to beere by the Royall blode in ordynance all nobyll and gentyll men from the hiest degre to the lawyst ī thys booke shall be shewed. and to deseuer Gentilnes from vngentilnes. ¶ In so moche thatt all gentilnes cummys of god of heuyn. at heuyn I wyll begyn where were .x. orderis of aungelis and now stonde bot .ix. in coote armuris of knowlege encrowned full hye with precious stones. where lucifer with mylionys of aungelis owt of heuyn fell vnto hell and odyr places and ben holdyn ther in bondage. and all where creatid in heuyn of gentyll nature. A bonde man or a churle wyll say all we be cummyn of adam. So lucifer with his cumpany may say all we be cummyn of heuyn. ¶ Adam the begynnyng of man kynde was as a stokke vnsprayde and vnfloreshed. and in the braunches is knowlegge wiche is rotun and wiche is grene.

How Gentilmen shall be knowyn from churlis & how they first began. And how Noe deuýdýd the world in .iii. partit to his iii sonnys.

Now for to deuyde gentilmen from chorlis in haast it shaß be preued. Ther was neuer gentilman nor churle ordenyd by kynde bot he had fadre and modre. Adam and Eue had nother fadre nor modre. and in the sonnys of Adam and Eue war founde bothe gentilman and churle. By the soonnys of Adam and Eue Seth Abeß and Cayn deuýded was the royall blode fro the vngentiß. A brother to sley his brother trary to the law where myght be more vngentelnes. By that did Cayn become a chorle and aß his ofsprýng after hym by the cursyng of god and his owne fadre adam ¶ And Seth was made a gentilman thorow his fadres and moderis blissyng. And of the ofsprýng of Seth Noe come a gentilman by kynde

¶ Noe had .iiij. sonnys begetyn by kynde. by the modre .ij. were named Cham and Sem. and by the fadre the thirde was namyd Iafeth. Yit in theys .iiij. sonnys gentilnes and vngentilnes was founde ¶ In cham vngentilnes was founde to his owne fadre dooñ to discuuer his preuytes and laugh his fadre to scorne ¶ Iafeth was the yongist and repreued his brodre. Than like a gentilman take mynde of Cham. for his vngentilnes he was become a chorle: and had the cursyng of god and his fadre Noe. And whan Noe awoke he sayde to Cham his sonne: knowyst nott thow how hit become of Cayn Adam soon: and of his churlish blode. Aß the worlde is drownde saue we .viij. And now of the to begynne vngentilnes and a cause to destroye vs aß: vppon the hit shaß be & so I pray to god that it shaß faß. Now to the I gyue my curse wycked kaytife for eù. and I gyue to the: the north parte of the worlde to drawe thyn habitacion for ther shaß it be. where sorow and care colde and myschef as a churle thow shalt haue. in the thirde parte of the worlde wich shaß be calde Europe that is to say the contre of churlys.

¶ Iafeth eù heder my sonne thow shaß haue my blissing dere ī stede of Seth Adam son I make the a gentilman to the weste parte of the worlde. and to the occident ende: where as welth and grace shaß be. ther thyn habitacion shaß be. to take that other therde parte of the worlde which shaß be calde asia that is to say the contre of gentilmen.

¶ And Sem my son also a gentilman I the make to multipli abellis blode that so wykkedli was slayn. the oryente thow shalt take that other theirde parte of the worlde which shaft be calde affrica. that is to say the contre of tempurnes.

¶ Of the ofspryng of the gentilman Iafeth come Habraham Moyses Aron and the profettys. and also the kyng of y^e right lyne of mary. of whom that gentilman Ihesus was borne very god and man: after his manhode Kyng of the londe of Iude & of Iues gentilman by is modre mary prynce of Cote armure.

How longe Cote armures wer begunne afore thyncarnacion of owre lorde Ihesu crýst.

Iafeth made first Barget and ther in he made a baſt in token of aſt the worlde. and afterwarde .ij^m. yere and .xviij. before thyncarnacion of Criſte: Cote armure was made. and figurid at the ſege of troye where in geſtys troianorum it telleth thatt the firſt begynnyng of the lawe of armys was. the wiche was effugured and begunne before any lawe in the worlde. bott the lawe of nature. and before the .x. cōmawndementis of god

¶ And thys lawe of armys was grounded vppon the .ix. orderys of angelis in heuen encrowned with .ix. dyueris precious ſtonys of colowris and of vertuys dyueris. alſo of them ar figurid the .ix. colouris in armys. as in nowmbre to begynne the firſt ſtone is callid Topaſion

¶ Prim lapis

The firſt ſtone is calde Topaſion ſignifyng golde in armys.

¶ This ſtone Topaſion is a ſemy ſtone. and golde it is calde in armys. The vertue ther of is: that the gentylman the wiche thys ſtone in his cote armure berith a fare meſſangere in his kyng batyſt ſhaſt be. The wich ſtone is refued in the angelis crowne that was a trwe maſſanger and a ſure in his kyng batayſt of heuen whan they faught with Lucifer

¶ Secūd lapis

The ſecunde ſtone is cald Smaragdus a grauely ſtone ſignifyng vert in armys

¶ The ſecunde ſtone is calde Smaragdus a grauell ſtone. & vert it is calde in armys. The vertu ther of is: that the gentylman the wich in his cote armure it berith kene and hardy in his kyng bateſt ſhaſt be. the wiche ſtone is reserued in tharchangelles crowne that was kene and hardy in his kyngis bataile of heuen whan thei faught with lucifer

¶ Tercius lapis

¶ And this stone is calde bruske colore ī armys

¶ The thirde stoñ is calde an Ametisce a dusketli stoñ bruske hit is calde in armys. The vertu ther of is: that he the wich berith in his Cotearmur that stone. fortunable of victori ī his kīges batayh shall be. the wich stone is reserued to the virtutys crowne that was fortunable and victoriows in his kyng batail of heuen whan thay faught with Lucifer

¶ Quartus lapis

¶ And this stone is calde plūby color ī armys

The .iiij. stone is calde a Margarete a cloudy stone Plumby hit is calde in armys. The vertue ther of is. what gentilmā that ī his Cotearmure that stone berith grete goūnawnce of chivalrie in his kyngys batayh he shall haue. the wich stone is refued in the potestatis crowne that was cheualrius of goūnaunce in his kyngys batayh of heuyn whan thay faught with Lucifer

Quintus lapis

¶ A loys is calde sinamer or sanquine ī armys

¶ The .v. stoñ is calde a Loys. a sanquine stone or sinamer hit is calde in armys. The vertue therof is: the gentilman thatt in his Cotearmure this stone berith myghtifull of power in his kyngys batayll shall be. the which stone was reserued in dominacionys crowne that was myghtifull of powere in his kyngys bataill of heuyn whan thei faught with Lucifer

Sextus lapis

¶ And thys stone is calde gowlȳs in armȳs

¶ The .vi. stone is calde a Ruby a redly stone. gowlȳs it is calde in armȳs. the vertue therof is. the gentylman that ī his Cotearmure that stone berith hote and full of corage in his kyngys batayȳ shall be. the wich stone is reserued in the principatis crowne that was hote brinnyng as fire in his kyngys batayȳ of heuyn whan thay faught with Lucifer

¶ Septim lapis

¶ A blue stone it is & it is cald asure ī armȳs

The .vij. stone is calde a Saphyre a blew stone Asure hit is calde in armȳs. The vertue therof is. the gentilman that in his Cotearmure berith that stone: wyse and vertues in his werkyng in his kyng batayȳ shall be. the wich is reserued to tron crowne that was wyse and vertues in his kyngys batayȳ of heuyn whan they faught with Lucifer

Ottau lapis

¶ This stone is blake and it is called Sabull

¶ The .viij. stoñ is a Dyamond a blake stone. Sable it is calde in armys. The vertue therof is. what gentilman that ī his Cotearmure thatt stone berith: durabull & vnfaynt in his kyngys batayll he shaļ be. The wich stone was reserued ī the cherubyns crowne that was durable & vnfaynt in his kyngys batayll of heuyn. whan thay faught with Lucifer

¶ ix lapis

¶ A shynýng stoñ and is calde Siluer ī armýs

The .ix. stone is calde Carbuncle a shynyng stone. Silu hit is calde in armys. The vertue therof is: what gentilman y^t in his Cotearmure this stone berith. full doughti glorious & shynyng in his kyngys batayll he shaļ be The wich stone was reserued in the Serophyns crowne: that was full doughti glori & shinīg ī his kīg batayll of heuyn whan thei faught w^t Lucifer

¶ Of the diýse coloreis for the feld of cotearmuris .v. bene worthy and .iiii. bene Royall

Ther be .ix. dyýse coloris for the felde of Cotearmuris v worthy & .iiij. Royall. The .v. worthy be theys: Golde verte Brusk Plumby & Synam. And the .iiij. Royall be theis: Gowlis Asure Sable & Siluer Bot now aft blaseris of armys ther be bot .vi. coloris of y^e wich .ij. be metaļ & .iiij. coloris. Golde & Silu for metaļ. vert Goulis Asure & Sabull for coloris. & theys be vsid and no moo.

¶ Of nine preci stonis .v. be noble & .iiii. of dig

¶ Ther be .ix. precious stonys .v. noble & .iiij. of dignite The .v. noble stonys be theys Topasion Smaragmat Amatisce Margaret & Aloys. The .iiij.

of dignite be theys Rubi Saphyr Dyamond and Carbuncull

¶ Of thorderis of āgelis .v. be ierarch & .iiii. trō

Ther be .ix. ordys of angelis .v. Ierarchie. & .iiii. Trōly The v. Ierarchie be theys: Angelis Archangelis virtutes Potestates & dominacoēs The .iiii. Tronli be theys Principat Trony Cherubyn and Seraphyn.

¶ v. of the dignites of regalite be noble & .iiii. &c

¶ Ther be .ix. dignites of Regalite .v. noble and iij excellent The .v noble be theys Gentilmā Squier Knyght Baron and Lorde. And .iiii. excellēt be theis Erle Mark Duke and Prynce

Nyne vertues of preci stonys

Nyne vertues of preci stonys ben ther .v. generall and iiij. speciall The v. genall ben theys A sure messenger Kene & hardy fortunat of victori Cheualri of goūnaunce & myghtifull of power The .iiij. speciall be theis: hote of corage wyse & redy & vertues in werkyng Durable & vnfaynt full doughti & gloriose shynyng.

¶ The .iiii. vertues of cheualry

Fowre vertues of cheualry ben ther: The first is iuste in his beestis. clennes of his psone. peti to haue of the poore. to be gracious to his presoñ. to be reuerent and faythfull to his god The secunde is that he be wyse ī his bataill. prudent ī his fightīg knowyng & hauyng mynde ī his wittis. The .iiij. is y^t he be nott slow ī his werris loke be fore y^t his q̄rit be true thanke god euer of his victory & for to haue mesure ī his sustināce. The iiij is to be strōg & stedfast ī his goūnāce. to hope to haue y^e victory And vode not frome the felde and not to shame his cote armure. Also that he be not to bostfull of his manhod Loke that he be curtes lowly and gentill and with owte rebawdry in his langage.

Here shall be shewed the .ix. artikelis of gentilnes. v of them ar amorows and iiij souerayn

¶ Ther be .ix. artycles of gentilnes. and of theym .v. bene amorows. and .iiij. soueren. The .v. amorows gentilneses ben thees Lordeli of cowntenawnce Treteable in langage Wyse in his answeare Perfite in gouernawnce. and Cherefull to faythfulnes. The .iiij. souerayn gentilneses ben theis Fewe othes in sweryng. Boxom to goddis byddyng. Knowyng his owne birth in beryng. and to drede his souerayn to offende.

¶ Ther be ix. vices contrary to gentilmen

¶ Ther ben .ix. vices contrari to gentilmen of the wiche .v. ben indeterminable and .iiij. determynable The .v. indeterminable ben theys: oon to be full of slowthe in his werris. an other to be full of boost in his manhode. the thride to be full of cowardnes to is enemy. the faurth to be full of lechri ī his body. & the fifthe to be full of drynkyng & dronckunli. Ther be .iiij. determynable: on is to reuoke is owñ chalange. an other to sley his presoner with his owñ handis. the thride to voyde from his soueraygnes baner in the felde. and the fifthe to tell his soueraygne fals talys

¶ Ther be .ix. iestimable reioyngis in armys

¶ The .ix. inestimable reioyng of armys ben theys

First is a gentilman to be made a knyght ī the felde at batill ¶ The secunde is lyuelode of hym to resayue after manhode The .iiij. is cheualry to do by fore his soueren ¶ The .iiij. is ambassatt to be put in his honde for wisdom. ¶ The .v. is proues of knyghthode done be fore alioundis ī honor of renowne. ¶ Theys be calde in armys the .v. autentyke Now folowith the .iiij. endyng stremytallis personall ¶ The first is a poore knyght to be married to the blode Royall ¶ The secunde is to haue thanke of his souereyn perpetuall. ¶ The

.iii. is to kepe his Cote armure vnshamyd in triall ¶ And the .iiij. is to kepe all poyntis of is knyghthod as gestys troianorum declarith.

Know ye that theis ii. orderis wer. first wedlok & then knýhthode. and knýhthode was made before Cote armure was ordered.

¶ Ther was non order bot .ij. wedloke first and knyghthod after. A knyght was made before ony cote armure. and Olybion was the first knyght that euer was. Asteriali his fader come bi the right lyne of that gentilman Iafeth and saw the peple multiplie & had no gouerner And the cursed peple of Sem wered ayenys them Olibion was the stryngest and the manfullest man in his tyme And the peple cried oñ Olibion to be theyr maister and their gouner A thowsand men wer than multiplied of Iafethis lyne. Asteriaht made to his soñ a garlande abowte his hede of .ix. diueris precieuse stonys in tokenyng of chyualri to be a gouner of a .M. men. & vnto thys same day y^e kīg haue his name ī latē y^t is as moch to sai y^e gouñ of .i^m. mē Olibion knelyd to Asteryaht his fader and askyd his blissyng. Asteryaht toke Olibions swerde that was Iafethis fawlchoñ that Tubaht made be fore the floode: and smote flatlyng .ix. tymys vppon the rygth shuldre of Olibion in tokenyng of the ix. vertuys of the forsayde precious stonys and gaue him his blissing with a charge to kepe the .ix. vertuys of charyte now foloyng as ye shaht here.

¶ Theis be the charges or artikelis that euery knýght shlude kepe by the dignýte of his order & they be ix. v. tempall and iiij goostly

Ther be .v. temperaht ùtuys & .iiij. gostly ùtuys of charite the .v. tempaht vertuys be theys. he shaht not turne his backe to his enemy for to flee. The .ij. is that he shaht truly holde his promyse to his frende: and also to his foo. The .iiij. is he shaht be free of mete and drinke to aht his meny a boute him The .iiij. is he shaht vpholde maydonys rygth. The .v. is that he shaht holde vp wydoys rygth. Theys be the .iiij. vertuys of charite goostly. The first is: he shaht honoure his fader and his moder. The .ij. is he shaht do noon harme to the poore. The .iiij. is he shaht be mercifull. The .iiij. is he shaht holde with the sacrifice of the grete god of heuyn. And than Asteryaht did make to Olibion a targett of Olyfe tree with iiij. corneris .ij. a bouen is face and oon downe to the growndwarde. in tokenyng that thys Olibioñ was the cheue of all the blode of the .iiij. sonnys of Noy By the Olif tree he vnderstode victory for to wyñ By the poynt of his target to the grownde the cursed brothir Cham By the corner of his target a bouen firtherest that other brothir Sem.

That othir corner next to hym selfe betokenyth that gentelman Iafeth the blissed brothir of whome god and man come by right lyne

¶ The maner of knyghthodis ben .ii. oon with the Swerde An other with the Bath

Ther be .ij. maner of knyghthodes oon with the swerde and an other with the bath The bath is the worstest by cause of iiij. Royalties. Oon is whan an vnaged prynce is made knyght or be crowned kyng The secunde is whan a Kyng or an Emperoure is crowned. The thyrde is whan a quene or an Emperis is crowned. The iiij. is whan a Kyng or an Emperowre cum to speke with an other of dyuerse londys

Nýne maner of gentylmen ther bene

- ¶ Ther is a Gentyلمان of Auncetre and of blode
- ¶ And ther is a Gentyلمان of bloode
- ¶ Ther is a Gentyلمان of Cootearmur: and theos be .iij Oon of the Kyngys bage. An other of a lordeship. And the therde is of the kylling of a Sarysoñ
- ¶ And ther is a gentylman vntryall
- ¶ And ther is a gentylman Ypocrafet
- ¶ And ther is a gentylman Spertyuall
- ¶ Ther is also a gentylman sperituall and temperall. and all theys ben more playnly declared in thys booke

¶ Gentilmen be calde .iiii. maner of wyse one of awncetreis and iii of Cotearmure

Ther be .iiij. diuerse maner of gentilmen. Oon his a gentylman of awncetreys: wich muste nedis be a gentilman of blode. Ther be .iiij. gentilmen of Cotearmure and not of blode Oon is a gentylman of Cotarmure of the kynges bagge. that is to say his deuice by an herawd Igoueñ. An other gentilman of Cotarmure is and not of blode a kyng geuyng a lordshipp to a yoman vnder his seall of patent to hym and to his eyrys for euer more he may were a Cotarmure of the same lordshipp

The thride his a yoman cristenyd yif he kill a gentylman sorsyn he may were the sarsyns Cotarmure and noo sarsyn a sarsynis cotarmure nethir cristennys cotarmure bi feghtyng in noo wyse Yit sum men say that a cristen man ouercomyng a cristen man feghtyng in the list shall bere the cotarmure of him that is ouer comyn. Or if a souereyn kyng make of a yoman a knyght that same knyght is a gentylman of blode by the royalte of the kyng and of knyghthood

¶ A gentylman spirituall

¶ Ther is a gentylman a churle sone a preste to be made and that is a spirituaſſ gentylman to god and not of blode. Butt if a gentylmannys sone be made preste he is a gentilman both spirituaſſ and temperaſſ. Criste was a gentilman of his moder behalue and bare cotarmure of aunseturis. The .iiij. Euangelist berith wittenese of Cristis warkys in the gospell with all thappostilles. They were Iewys and of gentylmen come by the right lyne of that worthy queroure Iudas machabeus bot that by succession of tyme the kynrade fell to pouerty. after the destruccion of Iudas Machabeus and then they fell to laboris & ware calde no gentilmen. and the .iiii. doctoris of holi chirch Seynt Ierom Ambrose Augustyn and Gregori war gentilmen of blode and of cotarmures

¶ Also the diuisionys of cotarmuris be .ix. thatt is to witt .v. perfyte and .iiii. vnperfyte

Ther be .ix. dyuisionis of cotarmures .v. perfite & .iiii. vnperfite. The .v. perfite be theys. Termynaſſ Collateraſſ Abstrakte Fixaſſ and Bastard.

¶ Diferens Enbordýng

¶ Termynaſſ is calde in armys all the bretheren of right lyne hethir by fadre or by modre may bere the right heyris cotarmure with a differens calde Enbordýng

¶ Dyferans Iemews

¶ Collateraſſ is calde in armys the sonnys of the bretheren of the right heyre beryng the cotarmuris of theyr faderis with a dyfferans Iemews

¶ Diferens molet

¶ Fixaſſ in armys is calde the thirde degre by the rightlyne from the right heyre by line male. thay may bere there faderis cote armure with a differans

molet

Diferans countertreuis

¶ The bastarde of fixaþ shall bere his faderis cotarmure counturtreuis. that is to say what so euer he berith in his felde he shall bere in the colowris dyuerse and no more

How ther be .iiii. cotarmurys imperfite and be borȳn wȳth owte diferans

Ther be .iiij. cotarmuris vnperfite: and be borne with owte differance. The first cotarmure is if a lordshipp a fore sayde be gouen vnder patent bi the kyng. and if he die with oute heyr his cotarmure is Idoñ.

¶ The secunde is the cotarmure of the kyng gyfte yif he dye with owte heyr his cotarmure is done. and yif theys .ij. cotarumuris haue vsshew forth: the fith degre of theam bering lyne by male be gentilmen of blode by lawe of armys

¶ The threde cotarmure of the Sarsyn yif the cristyn man dye with owte vsshew his cotarmure is done. and if he had vsshew forth vnto the fith degree from him by right lyne of vsshew male he is a gentylman of blode

¶ The fawrith cotarmure of the chefe blode yif he dye with owte ony vsshew the hole cotarmure is lost than it fallith to be a cotarmure of thymperfite beryng with a differans

¶ All the bastardis of all cotarmuris shałł bere a fesse Sū całł hit a bastoñ of oon of the .iiij. dignites of colouris. excepte the bastarde of the fixiales and the bastarde of the brethyrne of the cheue blode where theritaunce is deparded to eũych brothir e like moch theys bastardis shałł adde more bagy to his armys or take a way a bagy of armys

Note here well who shall gyue cotarmures

¶ Ther shall none of the .ix. orduris of regalite bot all onli the soueregne Kyng geue cootarmur. for that is to hym improperid bi lawe of armys. And yit the kyng shall nott make a knyght with owte a cootarmure by fore.

Euy knyght cheftayn ī the felde mai make a cootarmur knight

In how many places a knyght may be made

A Knyght is made in .v. dyuerse placis In musturing in londe of werris. In Semblyng vnder baneris. In listys of the bath And at the sepulcur

¶ A lassed cotarmure is on the moderis parte

¶ A lassed cootarmure is calde the coote of a gentylwoman hauyng lyuelode weddyd to a man hauyng noo cootarmure. hir sone may were hir cootarmur with a differance of armys duryng his liue by the curtesy of law of armys. and his sone shafl none bere bot so be that the gentylwoman be heyr or next of blode to that cootarmure. Or ellis beyng hir byrth of the blode Royall and than shafl hir heyre bere hir cootarmure

How Gentyll men be made of Gromis that be nott of cootarmure nether blode and they be cald vntriall and apocrifate as hit shewith foloyng

Ther be .ij. dyuerse Gentyllmen made of gromys: that be nott gentilmen of cotearmure nother of blode. Oon is calde in armys a gentylman vntriall that is to say made vp among relygyous men as priorys Abbottis or Bysshoppis. That other is called in armys a gentill man appocrifate that is to say made vpp and gouyn to him the name and the lyueray of a gentylman.

¶ In armys be vi differences that is to say ii. for excellent and iiij. for nobullys

Ther be .vi. Differences in armys .ij. for the excellent. and .iiij. for the nobles. Label and Enborduryng for lordis. Iemews Molettys Flowre delyce and Quyntfoyles for thee nobles.

In blasýng of armýs be .ix. quadrattis that is to say .v. quadrate finiall and iiij. Royall

In blasýng of armys ther be .ix. quadrattis for to consider .v. quadrate finiaþ and .iiij. Royall. Fyue quadrate finiaþ be theys. Gereri. Gerundi. Fretly. Geratly. and Endently.

¶ Gereri is called in armys whan cootarmuris ar .ix. quarteris dyuerse colowris.

¶ Gerundi is called in armys whan the cootarmure is of .ix. dyuerse colowris: & a fusitarget with in the cootarmure of whatt colowre that hit be of

¶ Fretly is calde ī armys whan the cootarmure is counterfesid

¶ Geratly is calde in armys whan the cootarmure is powderd Bot a blaisar shaþ not say he berith Ermen. Siluer powderd with Ermen Bot he shaþ say he berith Ermen or ellis in sume armys he muste say demy Ermen: wich is to sai whitli Ermen

In so moch that ī the fifthe quadrat finiaþ hit is determyned of the tokenys of armys. or I procede to hit: is shewed whatt maner of tokeny a gentyþ man may weer.

A gentilman mai not weer tokynys of armys bot of steinīg colowre. that is to say his cootarmure ynyat or ellis I geratt with precieuse stonys

Gerattyng haue .ix. bagges of cootarmuris. First with croslettis. and of theym ther be .iiij dyuerse. and tho bene theys Cros fixyly. Cros paty Cros croslettis. and Cros flory

¶ The secunde bage is flowre delyce.

¶ The threde baage is roslettys

¶ The fowrith baage is prymarose.

¶ The fifthe baage is quynfolis.

¶ The sexthe baage is diaclys

¶ The seuenith baage is chappelettys

¶ The .viij. baage is Molettys.

¶ And the .ix. baage is Cressauntis that is to say halfe the moone. theys be powderygis of cootarmuris.

¶ The fifthe quadrate is calde Endently of .iiij. diuse weis that is to say bebally lentally and fyesly.

¶ Bebally is calde ī armys whan a cotearmure is calde Endentyde of .ij. dyuerse colowris in the length of the cotearmure

¶ Lentalli is calde in armys whan y^e cootarmure is Endentid with .ij. dyuerse colowris in the berde of the cootarmure

¶ Fyesly is called in armys .iiij. manere weys Fesybagy fesy target and fesy generall.

Fesy bagy is whan tokenys of armys be disseiuered from the cheef of the cotearmure to the right spleyer in the feelde

¶ Fesy target is whan a scogioñ or an engislet is made in the myddull of the cootarmure.

¶ Fesy generall is calde in armys whan the cootarmure is Endentid with .ij. dyuerse colouris from the laste poynt of the cootarmure to the spleyer

The chefe is calde in armys the myddys of the cootarmure of the right syde.

Quadrat is calde in armys whan the felde is set with sum tokyn of armys.

¶ A quadrant finall is called in armys whan the felde is discolourid with tokenis of armys hauyng no beest in the felde.

A Quadrant Royall is calde whan the feelde occupyeth y^e token of a beest or ony other tokyn set with in the coōtarmure to the nowmbre of fiue.

¶ The first quadrant is oon tokyn of armys allonli sett and whatt after his byrthe he beerith.

¶ The secunde quadrant Royall is beryng in his cootarmur iiij. thyng calde the tokenys of armys. that is to say iiij. flowredelice in fylcyals .iiij. rosis .iiij. chapplettis iiij. lebardis .iiij. lyonys. and so the .iiij. quadrat Royall is to bere a beest Raunpande: bebaly. lentally. and fessely.

Here shall be shewed what Cootarmuris restrýal ben and weer the blaser shall begyn to blase.

Thre cootarmuris be ther called restrýaþ in armys. Oon is whan a cootarmure is barri of dyuerse colowris to the poynt. and what colowre the poynt be of. the poynt is the felde. Ther the blaser shaþ begynne.

¶ The secunde cootarmure restriaþ is calde ī armys whan a cootarmure is paly of dyuerse colouris to the poynt. & whatt pale medyþ in the poynt y^t coloure is the felde The blaaser shaþ blase from that colowre to the next coloure pale.

¶ The threde cootarmure restriaþ is calde in armys whan a cootarmure is sentry of dyuerse colowris to the poynt and whatt settre mydyþ in the poynt y^t colowre is the felde. The blaseyr shaþ blase from y^t colowre to the next colowre of the lefte side of the cootarmure and blase the colowre sentri.

Merke what sentre Fixal Mangis Gorgis & other diuerse here now folowyng be calde ī armys

- ¶ A Sentre in armys is called stakar of tentis.
 - ¶ Fixiaḥ be called in armys mylner pykes.
 - ¶ Mangys be called in armys a sleue.
 - ¶ Gorgys be called in armys water bulgees.
 - ¶ Elynellis be calde in armys .iiij. quadrantis truncholis.
 - ¶ Oglys be calde in armys gonestonys.
 - ¶ Tortlettis be calde in armys wastell.
 - ¶ Diaclys be called in armys scopprellys.
 - ¶ Myrris be calde in armys merowris or glasses.
 - ¶ Feons be calde in armys brode arow hedys.
 - ¶ Tronkys be calde in armys any bestys hede or neck Ikytt chagikli a sonder.
 - ¶ Demy is calde in armys halfe a best in the felde.
 - ¶ Countretreuis is calde in armys whan halfe the beest is of oon coloure and that other halfe of an other coloure
- ¶ Eny cotarmure that berith a crosse to the poynt: the poynte is the felde. as Seynt George berith gollis fowre anglettis of Siluer. bot ayens this rule sum blaseris of armys repungne as hit is shewed in the boke foloyng.
- ¶ Theis .iiij. termys. of. and. with shaḥ not be rehersed in armys bot onys any of thaym

¶ Ther be diuerse beryngys of feeldys

- Dyuerse beryngis of feeldis ther be ¶ Oon is beryng hole felde. hit is clepyd in armys claury
- ¶ The secūde is berīg too feldis. hit is calde ī armis Coūcli
 - ¶ The threde is beryng too feldis in .iiij. quarteris: hit is calde in armys quarily

¶ Ther bene .iii. cote armurys grytty

Thre cootarmuris grytty ther bene in armys. Oon is called checky that is whan the felde is chekerd with diuse colouris

¶ The secunde is calde wyndi that is to say whan the felde is made like wawis of oon coloure or of diuerse colouris

¶ The threde is calde werry whan the felde is made like gobolettys of dyuerse colowris.

In armys be ii. pinyonys. also it shewys wat clawry cownterly and quarterly bene with other

¶ Ther be in armys calde .ij. pynyonyz Oon is whan the feeld his a sawtri. Seynt andrewys crosse may be clauri counterly quarterly. Clawri is called playn of oon coloure. Cownterly is whan colowris quarterly be .ij. colowris sett in .ij. quarteris

¶ The secunde pynyōn is called cheffrounce that is a couple of sparis. and that may be claury counterly quarterli gereri and byally.

¶ Gereri is whan .iiij. cheffrounce be to gedur or moo.

¶ Byall is called whan a barre is be twene .ij. cheffrounce

Here endeth the mooste speciall thyngys of the boke of the lynage of Coote armuris and how gentylmen shall be knowyn from vngentylmen. and now here foloyng begynnyth the boke of blasynge of all man armys: ī latyn french & English ¶ Explicit prima pars.

Here begynnȳth the blasȳng of armȳs

I haue shewyd to yow in thys booke a foore how gentilmē began. and how the law of armys was first ordant. and how moni colowris ther be in cootarmuris. and the difference of cootarmuris with mony other thynggis that here needis not to be rehersed. Now I intende to procede of signys in armys and of the blasȳng of aȝ armys. Bot for to reherce aȝ the signys that be borne in armys as Pecok Pye Bacc Dragon Lyon & Dolfyn and flowris and leeuys it war to longe a tariyng. ner I can not do hit: ther be so mony. Bot here shaȝ shortli be shewyd to blase aȝ armys if ye entende diligentli to youre rulys. And be cause the cros is the moost worthi signe emong al signys in armys: at the cros I wiȝ begynne. in the wich thys nobuȝ and myghti prynce Kyng Arthure hadde grete trust so that he lefte his armys that he bare of .iiij. Dragonys. and ouȝ that an other sheelde of .iiij. crownys. and toke to his armys a crosse of Siluer in a feelde of verte and on the right side an ymage of owre blessid lady with hir sone in hir arme. and w^t that signe of the cros he dyd mony maruelis after. as hit is writyn in the bookis of cronyclis of his dedys Also I haue red thys signe of the cros to be sende from god to that blessid man Marcuri as vincencius sayth. in speculo historiali. of the maruellis deth of Iulian thappostita Emproure. li^o .xv^o. he saythe thangele brought vn to the foresayd Mercuri aȝ armure necessari with a shelde of asure and a cros fluri with .iiij. rosis of golde. as here ī this And I fonde neuer that euer any armys waar sende from heuyn bot in theym was the sygne of the cros. Exceppid in tharmys of the Kyng of fraunce the wiche armys certanli war sende bi an awngeȝ from heuyn that is to say. in flowris in maner of Swerdis in a felde of asure. as hit shewis here. The wich certan armys ware geuyn to the forsayd kyng of fraunce in sygne of euerlastyng trowbuȝ and that he and his successaries aȝ way with bataiȝ and swereddys shulde be punyshid.

I aske here moo questionis of the crossis signe

Now I turne agayne to the signe of the cros and aske a question: how many crossis be borne in armys. to the wich questtion vnder a certan nowmbur I dare not answere. for crossis innumerabull ar borne now dayli. bot decendyng to eueri cros the wich a fore tyme I haue seen as fer as I can I entende to discribe. emong the wich first the playn cros shall be discribed of the with cros moo dwtis be made then of mony odyr crossies. for as moch as wyse men in blasyng of armys holde for a veri rule that ye moost begynne to blase at the lowyst poynt of the sheelde. if the poynt be of oon coloure. and so that coloure thatt is in the poynt of the sheelde is the felde of the armys

¶ Bot in that rule to remeue a way all dwtis ye most merke dyligently: that. that rule is true with a littyll addicion. y^t is to witte that in armys to be blased it is all way to begynne at the poynt of the sheelde: if the poynt be of oon coloure that is true: if the coloure of the poynt be more copiose or gretter in thos armys. and then with owte dowte ye shall begyn ther. or ellys not ¶ And weer the colowres be equall ptid other on length or ouerwart then euermore ye shall begynne to blase thoos armys in the right side. and in that case ye shall haue no respecte to the poynt.

¶ And iff it be asked how berith Seynt george. it is to be know that ye most say. latine. ¶ Portat vnum scutum de argento cum quadam cruce plana de rubio. ¶ Gallice. Il port dargent vng cros playn de gowlez. ¶ Anglice. He beris a felde of Siluer with a playn cros of gowles. as here apperith in theys armys.

And the same maner of wyse ar all crossis hauyng a playn cros to be blased Therefore thay er: y^t say Seynt george beris the felde of gowles with .iiij. quarteris of Siluer of whome the resonis I lowue not. for by thoos resonis a playn cros shulde neuer be founde in armys ner welny no differens in armys.

¶ Off an cros of an equall length on eueri parte.

A Playn cros is founde in armys differyng from the first cros. and hit is of an equall length on eui parte as it apperith here. and theys armys be harder then the other to blase as hit is opyn. for thendys of thys cros towchis not the hemmys or the vtter parte of y^e sheelde ī no parte in wich ye shaft say that he: that beris theis armys. latine. sic ¶ Ille portat de asuro cum vna cruce plana aurea equalis longitudinis ey omni parte ¶ Gallice. Il port daser vng cros playn dung longur p̄ tont. ¶ Anglice. He berith asure with a playn golden cros of equall length on euy parte. And this is the differans in blasyng. that all thendys of thys cros arne of equall length the wich mai not be in the playn cros a fore. for the foote is the lengest parte. and hit be well made. And this differens shaft appere bettir in a cootarmure: then it doth in a sheeld & so ther is an euydent differens be twix y^e .ij. crossis aforsaid ¶ Off a playn cros strayte.

Ther is an oder cros aquall straythyr in the myddis then in thenddys with opyn corneris as here not touchyng the vtterist parte of the sheelde in any parte ther of. and hit is calde a cros patent. And ye shaft say that he the wich beris this cros beris ī this man. ¶ latine sic. Ille portat vnam crucem argentatam patentem in campo nigro. ¶ Gallice. Il port de sable vng cros patee dargent. ¶ Anglice sic. He berith Sable a cros paty of Siluer.

¶ Off a cros patent fixibyll.

This cros patent is made dyuerse in the footo of the same as hit apperith here. And then hit is calde a cros patēe fixible. for ī the erth sych a cros may be pycchit. in the wich cros .iiij. of the heyr partes ar opyn in the corneris and bradder thhan in the myddys. & his foote is disposid to piche ī the erthe. latine. ¶ Ille portat de rubio cum vna cruce figitiua de albo ¶ Gallice. Il port de gullis vng cros patee fiche dargent. ¶ Et anglice. He berith Gullys and a cros paty fixibyll of Siluer. And knawe ye that ther be mony crossis the wych may be maade fixibiſſ as hit ſhaſſ be ſhewd here folowyng in dyuerse.

Off a playn cros cordyd.

Emong odyr crossis oon is founde the wich is calde a corddid cros as here it is shewed ī this cros the wich is calde a corddid cros: for hit is made of cordys. the wich certan cros I se bott late: in tharmys of a nobull man: the wich in very deed was summe tyme a crafty man a Roper as he hym selfe sayd. And ye shaſſ say of him that berith theys armys latine ¶ Ille portat gowlles cum vna cruce plana cordata de argento. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port de goullez & vng cros playn cordee dargent. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith gullis and a cros playn cordyd of Syluer.

¶ Off a cros playn pforatid.

Ther is an odyr cros playn the wich meruelusly fro the playn cros of Saynt george differis. as here apperith. And here it is to be merkyd. that thoppynyon of sum men: sayng is. that theis armys be chekkerd armys. and this oppynyon is vtturli to be repreuyd for armys may not be checkerd bot at the lest in the nombur of .iiij. and in a grettyr nombur they may wele be made. as afterward shaſſ be shewed. Therfor it is to be said. latine sic. ¶ Ille portat vnam crucem argenteā pforatam in campo nigro. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de Sable vng cros dargent ptee. Anglice. ¶ He berith Sable and a cros perforatid of Siluer.

¶ Off a besantid cros.

Over theis crossis we heue an odyr cros the wiche I sawe late in tharmys of a certan Ianuens as here it shewis And this is calde a besant cros for it is made all of besanttis. and sych a cros may be made als sone with lytiſſ cakys as with besanttys. for besantys and lytiſſ cakys differ not bot in colore. for besanttis be euer of golden coloure. ne the coloure of the besant shall be expressid in blasyng of armys. for it nedis not to say a besant of golde for ther be no besantis bot of golde Therfor it is to be sayd. latine sic. Ille portat vnam crucem talentatam in campo rubeo. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowlez vng cros besauntee. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith gowles and a cros besauntid.

¶ Off a cros flurry.

Now folowith an odyr cros flurry. the wich is so called as hit apperith here. And therfor hit is calde de florishyng cros. for hit has flouris in eueri ende vpwarde that is to say saue the foote. thys cros flurri sum tyme is borne in armys fixabull. And then it is calde in armys a cros flurri fixabull. for in iij. of his endys he is florishyng and in the foote pichabull or fixabull. Therefore it is to be sayde of him that beris hit. latine.

¶ Portat vnam cuccem auream floridam in campo asoreo. Et gallice. Il port dasor vng croys flourettee dor. Anglice. ¶ He berith asure and a cros flurri of golde.

¶ Now here shall be shewyd of a cros flurri patent ī armys

Now folowith a nod cros the wich is called a cros flurry patent. as here it apperith. And hit is calde a cros flurri patent for he hath his endis opyn and ī y^e myddys of eueri ende apperith an other thryde in the maner of a flowre as it is opynli shewed in this cros. Therefore it shall be sayd that the berer of theys armys: beris in this wyse as foloth first in latyn thus. ¶

Portat vnam crucem floridam patentem de auro in campo asureo. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port dasor vng patee flourettee dor. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith asure with a cros patent flurri of golde.

¶ Ye shall vnderstand here of a playn wateri cros.

Moore ouer ye shaft vnderstonde that ther is an othere playn cros the wich certainly is calde a watery cros. and hit is calde a wateri cros for hit is made bi the maner of water trowbulled with wynde. as here hit shewys ī theys armys. Therfor he the wich berith theys armys beris in this wyse as it shaft folow first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat vnam crucem planam vndosam de argento in campo rubeo. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowlez vng cros playn vndee dargent. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith gowles and a playn wateri cros of Syluer.

¶ Also ther is a cros that is calde inueckyt.

In armys also ar founde moo crossis the wich ar made of colowris inueckyt or indentit as here in thys cros apperith And it is calde a cros inueckyt for the cause that hit has .ij. colouris. oon put in to an other. And of him that beris theys armys ye shaft say first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat vnam crucem planam inuectam de coloribus albis & nigris in campo rubeo. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowlez vng cros playn verre dargent & sable. Anglice. ¶ He berith gowles and a cros of Siluer and Sable inueckyt.

Off an other maner cros that is calde a cros croslet.

Yett folowith an other cros the wich es calde a cros crossit or croslet. and hit is calde crossit for ī eūr ende he is crossit as here apperis. Bot this cros is not so oft borne in armys by him selfe as other crossis neuer the lees mony tymys hit is borne ī dimynutiuis that is to say in littyll crossis crossit And then tharmys ar powderit with littyll crossis cruciatit. And ye shall say thus of hym y^t beris theys armys first in latyn. Ille portat vnam crucem cruciatam de argento in campo asoreo. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port dasor vng crois croycee dargent. Anglice sic ¶ He berith asure & a cros croslet of Siluer. And whan such crossis ar borne and put ī armys as I said afore ī dymynutiuis & w^t owte any ctan nombre then thay ar called in french Croslettys.

¶ More ouer ther is a cros masculatit as here it folowis.

Wytt ye well yit y^t ther is an other cros the wych is called a cros masculatit as here it apperis. And this cros is called a cros masculatit for he is made of masculys of the wich certan masculis ye shall se afterward in the chapitur of fusyllis mascult: and losyngys where this mater shall be moor playnly tretit. And he that beris thys armys beris as it is shewed here after. first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat vnam crucem masculatam de argento in campo asereo. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port dasor vng cros masculee dargent. Anglice sic. He berith asure and a cros masculatit of Syluer.

¶ Also ther is a cros masculatit and perforatit as here.

Be it knowe: that thys cros masculatit sum tyme is pforatit. in the masculys as it is opyn in the persyng he e folowyng. And thus ye most blase hym. first in latyn in thys wyse. Ille portat vnam crucem masculatam perforatam de rubeo in scuto argenteo. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port dargent vng cros de gullez masculine psee. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith Siluer with a cros of gowles masculatit persit.

¶ Ther is a mylneris cros as here it shall be shewed.

Here folowis an other cros the wich is calde the cros of a milne for hit is made to the simylitude of a ctan istrument of yrne in mylnys the wich berith the mylne ston by the wich istrument: that ston in his cors is borne equally that he declyne not ouer myche on the right pte ner on the lefte parte. bot mynisteryng to eueri parte that: that is his equally and with owte frawde. And thys is geuyn to Iugis to bere in theyr armys: and to thos that haue Iurisdiction vnder theym. That is to say as the forsayd istrumēt is directe: to the mylne stone equalli and with owte gyle. So thos Iuges ar bondyn to gyffe equalli to eueri man his right. And it is to be sayd y^t the possessor of theis army beris ī this wyse. first ī latyn thus. ¶ Portat vnam crucem molēdinarem argenteam in campo rubeo. Et iam gallice. ¶ Il port gowlez vng cros moleyne dargent. Anglice. He berith gowles and a mylneris cros of Syluer.

Now it shall be shewed of a cros that is turnyt a gayn.

Certain we haue a cros the wich is calde a cros turnyt agayn. and this cros is calde retornyt: for the cause y^t thendys of this cros on eueri side ar retornytt agayn bi the maner of a Rāmys horne. And he that beris theis armys beris ī this wise first in latyn thus. Portat vnam crucem auream iūsam in scuto asureo. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port dasor vng cros recercilee dor. Anglice sic. ¶ He beris asure with a cros reuersit of golde.

¶ Off a cros fforkyd.

Under stande ye that ther be other men the wich beer in theyr armys a certain forkyd cros as thys is. And hit is called forkyd: for as moch as that aȝ thendys of hit ar clouyn and forkyd. Therefore hit shall be sayd of thos men that berit theys armys in this whise. primo latine. ¶ Portat vnam crucem furcatam de auro in campo asereo. Gallice. Il port dasor vng cros dor. Anglice. ¶ He berith asure with a cros forkyd of golde

¶ Off a cros engraylid or engradid.

Also ther be certayn nobull men the wich beer a cros engradyd or engraylid. as it apperis here folowyng And hit is calde a cros engraylid for hit is not playne in ony parte of him bot engraylid also weȝ ouer his length as ouer his breed. Neuer the lees this engraylyng is no propur langage aftir the sight of thys cros: bot rather an endentyng as truth is Bot it is the comune maner of spekyng in theys armys. Therefore ye most say as I sayd afore. And ye shall say of him that beris theys armys in thys wyse. First in latyne thus. Portat vnam crucem ingradatam de albo in campo rubeo. Et iam Gallice.

¶ Il port de gullys vng cros ingral dargent. Anglice
¶ He beris gowlys and a cros ingrayled of Syluer.

¶ Off a cros cutoff.

I Fynde yet an othyr cros: the wich is borne mony timys ī tharmys of nobuþ men. the wich is calde a cros trūcatid. And hit is calde trunkatid for hit is made of .ij. treys the boys cut a way. as here. Therefore it is to be sayd that the possessor of theys armys beris in latine thus. ¶ Portat vnam crucem truncatam de argento in campo rubeo. Et gallice. Il port de gullez vng cros recopee dargent. Anglice. ¶ He berith gowles with a cros trunkatid of Siluer.

¶ Off a knotty cros.

Knowe ye yit after theys crossis ther is an other cros the wiche is calde a knotty cros: the wich ī certan is calde so for hit has in eūy ende certan knottis. as here. And it is to be sayde of hym that beris theys armys in thys wyse. Primo latine. Ipse portat vnam crucem auream nodulatam ī scuto asoreo. Et gallice. ¶ Il port dasor vng cros botone dor. Anglice. ¶ He beris asure with a cros knotty of goolde.

And thys cros is founde other while pycche or figityue ī armys. and then his foote is figityue as I sayd a fore.

¶ Off a cros flurri knottid.

Over thies crossis we haue a certan cros flurri of the wiche it is spokyn a foore. the wiche cros flurri is founde knotty as here. And that is as I soyd a foore whan knottys ar founde ī thendys and the anglis of the sayd cros. And the berer of the sayd armys latine. ¶ Portat vnam crucem nodulatam floridam auream in campo de asuro. Et gallice sic ¶ Il port dasor vng cros floreteee botone dor. Anglice. ¶ He berith asure and a cros flurri knotty of golde.

¶ Off a cros dowbuþ ptitid.

A Cros dowbuþ is founde in the armys of dyuerse nobuþ men the wych certan cros is calde a dowbuþ ptitid cros. For if it be deuydid or partid after the long way or the brode way yit ther a bydys on dowbuþ cros as we may se here. Yit I haue seen many nobuþ men dowtting of thys cros moore then of any cros a fore said: the wich neuer the lees aftir long disputacionis in thoppynion a foresayd restid and concludid. Therefore he that beris theys armys. latine sic. ¶ Portat vnam crucem duplicatam argenteam in campo nigro. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port sable vng cros dowble petie dargent. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith Sable and a cros dowble pertitid of Siluer.

¶ Off a cros dowble ptitid florishid

This cros dowble ptitid is varied sum timys. and then hit is called a cros dowble partitid florishid. as here. Neuertheles hit is calde a cros flurri inpropurli as sum men sayen for hit faylith the myddys of that flowre as a noon hit shaþ folow in the next armys. the wich certan myddys by no maner of wyse in that cros dowble ptitid may be. as a noon it shaþ be shewed. Bot he that berith theis armis latine. ¶ Portat vnam crucem duplam ptitam auream in campo rubeo. Gallice. ¶ Il port de gowlez vng cros double ptie floreteee dor. Anglice. ¶ He berith gowles and a cros dowble ptitid flurri of golde.

¶ Off a cros tripartitid florishid.

Bot as is shewed a fore this cros is calde a cros dowble ptitid florishid for ther faylith the myddys of the cros by the wich the cros florishid is made pfite. as here hit is opyn. the wich certan myddys putt ther to it shaþ not be called a cros dowble p̄titid florished Bot rathir it shaʒ be calde a cros threfolde p̄titid flurri. And then it is weʒ blased. for and it be dyuidid after the longnes or after the brodenes. aʒ way oon parte shaʒ a byde triptitid in the myddis of the cros as it is opyn ī tharmys a fore writtyn. And therefore he that berith theis armis. latine. ¶ Portat vnā crucē triptitā de argē° ī cāpo de asuro. Gallice. ¶ Il port daser vng cros trefoys p̄tee florete dargent. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith of asure with a cros triptitid floree of Siluer.

¶ Off a mylneris cros shadowyd or vmbratid.

A dowte theer is yit of a certayn shadow of a mylnerys cros as it shewith here folowyng. And know ye that it is called a shadow of a cros for euermore thys shadow is made of blacke coloure. of what sum euer coloure the felde be of. the shadow is made of blacke. and the bodi of the same shadow is of y^e same coloure with the felde. ¶ And he that berith theys armys. latine. Portat vnam crucem vmbratam in campo aureo. ¶ Gallice sic. Il port dor vng cros moleyne vmbre. ¶ Anglice. He berith of golde with a mylneris cros vmbratid or shadowyd.

¶ Off a cros floree patent vmbratid.

Another sampuʒ is sene of the vmbracion of a certayn cros. and thys cros is calde a cros floree vmbratid as apperith here. bot truly spekyng and propurli it is no cros: bott a shadow of such a cros. and the reson is. for the bodi of the said shadow is of the same coloure with the felde. And so the colore that is in the felde shewith by aʒ the body of the sayd shadow. ¶ And thoo that beer thes armys. latine. Portant vnam crucē floridam patentem vmbratam in campo rubeo ¶ Gallice sic. Il port de gowlez vng cros patee floritee vmbre ¶ Anglice sic. He berith of gowles and a cros potent flore vmbratydy.

¶ Off a cros flori patent vmbratit and perforatid.

Neuertheles after sum men thys shadoyd cros other wyle is persid maruelusly as hit folowith here and than hit is calde a cros floori patent vmbratyed and perforatid for hit accordis with the croos precedyng exceppid the persyng in the myddys of the sayd shadoo. ¶ And then hit shaʒ be sayd that he the wiche berith this cros. latine. Portat vnā crucem floridam patentem vmbratam perforatam cum rubio in campo aureo

¶ Et gallice sic Il port dor vng croys patee florotee vmbre & partee de gowlez.

¶ Anglice He berith of golde a cros patent flurri shadoyd & persyd with gowles.

Blaseris moost be ware of theis armys vmbratid of the wich: mony rewles be shewed a fore. Bot for the blasynge of theis certan armys sum ignorant men of thys crafte take the rule goyng a fore that is to wite of the colowris transmutid as ye saw a fore Bot ther be certan nobuls and gentilmen in englonde the wich beere shadoys diuerse in theyr armys as Lyon Antlop and other. and they that bere theys armis and hit be a lyon ye shaʒ sai in latyn ¶ Portat vnum leonē vmbratam in campo aureo ¶ Gallice. Il port dor et vng leon vmbree. ¶ Anglice. He beerith of golde and a lyon vmbratid. ¶ And men say that suche psonys as beer theys vmbratid armys had there pgenitoris beryng the same not vmbratid bot hole Bot the possessionis & the patrimonyes descendid to other men. then the Neuoys or Kynnysmen leuyng in goode hoope and trustyng to haue the possessionis of their pgenitoris: beer their armys vmbratid. aʒ oder differens a fore said leuīg. for when they haue that patrimony: that thai trustit oon. soon thay may beer that lion or other beest of the same coloure the wiche theyr progenytoris bare. and it is bettyr to beer thos armis vmbratit then hoolly to leeff theyr progenitouris armys.

¶ Yitt here folowis an odir cros hemyt or borderit as apperis

A Gret dowte yit remaynys a nendys blaseris of armys ī dyfferens be twix thys cros fimbriatit or borderit. as here now apperis and the forsayd cros vmbratit. in so moch that they are mych like. and it apperis in the first sight that they be bot oon. bot and a man beholde weſt ther is a gret differens. for the bordir of thys cros is variet as weſt fro the coloure of the cros as fro the coloure of the felde. and elles is ther no dowte. Therfore it shaſt be sayde of hym that beris theys armys in thys wyse first in latyn thus. Portat vnam crucem nigram perforatam floridam patentem fimbriatam siue borduratam cum argento in campo rubeo. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gullez vng crois flourettee patee percee de sabuſt bordure dargent. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith goules with a cros flurri patent persit of Sable borderit w^t Silu.

Now folowis an Ermyn cros as it sha  be shewyd

For certan ther is an Ermyn cros. & hitt is a meruelus cros of y^e wich ther was a disputacion at london by a certan herrowde of Bretan. And it was determynyt that theys armys may be in non other coloure bot as here it apperis And thys cros is calde an Ermyn cros. and it sha  be sayd of him that beris theys armys in thys wyse as it sha  folow. first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat vnam crucem ereminalem. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port vng croys Eremmee Anglice sic. ¶ He berith a cros ermyn And here ye moost note that the coloure ī theys armys sha  not be expressit for this cros ner theis armis may not be made bot of theys colouris that is to say allone of blacke and white the wich ar the propur coloris of theys armys.

Sufficientli is spokyn of crossis afore. now folowis an odir treteys of dyuerse armys quarteryt as here sha  be shewyt.

Off armys quarterit sum ar armis quarterit playn Sum quarterit engradit. Sum quarterit irrasit. Sum quarterit inueckyt. Sum quarterit indentit of the wich it sha  be spokyn euerich oon after other. and first of tharmys playn

Itt sha  be shewyd first of armys quarterit playn.

Thre maner of wyse armys may be quarterit. The first maner is opyn whan .ij. dyuerse armys ar borne quarterli as it is opyn and playn in tharmys of the kyng of Fraunce & of Englund And ye sha  say of hym y^t beris theys armys thus as folowys. first   latyn. Ille portat arma regis Francie & Anglie qurteriata. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il Port lez armes de Francee et dangleterre quarteles. Anglice sic. ¶ He beris tharmys of France & Englonde quarterli. And it sha  not be tedeus to no man that Fraunce is put before Englonde   blasyng. bot the cause is this. for tharmys of Fraunce in armys be put afore and we haue a ge a  rule y^t whensume  in armys be .ij. colouris or moo   the poynt of the shelde. then ye sha  not begyn at the poynt to blase them. bot in the right pte or side of thos armys. that same coloure ther founde   the right side of y^e shelde is not the felde of tharmis. for it mai fortune it is not the gretist coloure   tharmys aforsayd bot les or with othir equa . and ne  the les ye sha  begyn to blase ther.

Off armys quartly borne now it shall be shewyd.

The secūde maner of wyse of beryng quarterit armys is when .iiij. diūse armys quartli be borne as here is shewyt And he that beris theys armys: beris .iiij. diūse armys quartli. latine sic. Ille portat quatuor arma diūsa quartiata. Gallice sic.

¶ Il port quarter armes diūsez quarteleez. Anglice sic He berith .iiij. armys diūse quartli. And then if it be askyt how theys armys shulde be blasit. The blaser most begyn ī the heyst corneſt ou the right side pcedyng to eūy armys. tharmys in the right side blasit: ye most go to the odir side & then to the thirde side & aft to the last. And ye most know that theys armys rehersit afore be playn armys quarterit.

Ther is an othir mañ of beryng of armys quartit when ij armis quarterit be borne quartli. and it is borne most ī armis of quenys and so bare that noble quene of Englonde quene Anna wyfe to that royall prince Kyng Richard the secunde: the wiche bare tharmes of Englonde & of Fraunce and of thempore of Almayn quartli & in .xvi. ptes. that is to say in the right side of the shelde in the first quarter she bare tharmys of fraunce .iiij. floredelucis of golde ī a felde of asure. & ī the secunde quart .iiij. Libartis of golde ī a felde of gowles. & ī y^e thirde quart an Egle splayd w^t .ij. neckis. & ī the .iiij. a blake Lyon rampyng ī a felde of Silū. and so chaungeably she bare theys armys in .xvi. quarteris the wiche seldyn is seen in any armys.

¶ Off armys quarterit and engraylyt now shall be shewytt

Now I shew yow y^t sum time we haue armys quarterit & engraylit. that is to witt whan eūy armys ī his quart is engraylit as here apperis. & it shall be sayd of him y^t beris theis army thus. first ī latyn ¶ Ille portat de auro & rubio arma quarteriata & ingradata. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port dor et gowlez quartlee engreylee. Anglice sic ¶ He berith of golde & gowles quarteriy engraylit. And thei ar calde armys engradit for they ar made of .ij. colouris the wiche graditly ar broght to gedir oon coloure in to an other coloure

Off armys quaterit and irrasyt now I will speke.

Certan armys ther be quarterit and irrasit as here apperis. the wich ctan armys ar called quarterit armys irrasit. for the colouris be rasit owt as oon coloure ī rasyng ware take away from an othir. And it shałł be sayd of him y^t beris theis armys in latyn thus. Portat arma quarteriata irrassa de albo & nigro. Gallice sic ¶ Il port dargent et Sable quartlee irrase. Anglice sic. ¶ He beris Siluer and Sable quarterely irrasyd.

Off armys quarterit inueckyt now here it shall be shewyt.

Ther be yet fownde armys quartli inueckyt. or as sum men say they be army quarterit of colowris inueckyt as here apperis. the wich for soth ar calde armis quarterit īueckit or of colowrus inueckyt. for ī them ar .ij. colouris quartli put: y^e toon ī to the othir. & so oon colowre is īuehit ī to an othir. Therefore it is said of hī y^t beris theis armys ī this wise. first ī latyn thus Ille portat quartiatim de asurio et auro īuectis Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port quartli verre dasor et dor. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith quartli inueckyt of asure and golde.

Now of armys quarterit indentyt it sha  here be shewyd.

Qvarterit armys be founde diuerse the wych ar calde indentit as here apperis: and they are calde indentit for .ij. colowris oon in to an othir by the ma  of teth ar indentit: as is opyn   the shelde. And thus ye sha  blase theym first in laty. Portat arma quarteriata  dentata de rubio et auro. Gallice sic. Il port quartertlee endentlee de gowlez et dor. Anglice.   He berith quartli endentit of gowles and golde.

Off armys partit aftir the long way here sha  be shewyt.

I intende now to detmyn of armys partit after the longe way the wich  tan partyng aft the long way or on length is made many ma  of wyse. ¶ The first pticion for soth is of .ij. colouris in armys after the long way in the playne ma 

- ¶ Ther is also a ptyng of armys of .ij. colouris ingradyt.
- ¶ And also ther is a ptyng of .ij. colowris irrasit.
- ¶ Also forsoth ther is a partyng of .ij. colowris inueckyt.
- ¶ And ther is an othir partyng of .ij. colowris endentit.
- ¶ Ther is also a ptyng of .ij. colowris clowdit or nebulatit.
- ¶ And more ouer ther is a ptyng of .ij. colowris watery.

Fyrst I shewyd to yow that ther be certan armys partit after the long way of .ij. colowris in the playn way as here apperis   theys armys. And they ar calde ptit armys for they be made of .ij. colouris equalli ptit. And he that beris theis armys beris th   latyn. Ille portat arma partita plana secundum longum de asorio et albo. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port dasor et dargent playn ptee. Anglice sic. He berith asure and Syluer playn ptit.

¶ Off armys partit the long way ingralyt I wi  shew here

Also ther is pticion of armys engralyt the long way as is said afore bi engraylyng of .ij. colouris to gedir as here apperis. And theys armys ar calde armys engraylyt ptit after the long way of syluer and Sable. And it sha  be sayd of him that berith thes armys   latyn thus. Portat arma ptita secundum longum  gradata de argento et nigro. Gallice sic ¶ Il port dargent ingraylee et Sable ptee du long. Anglice sic He berith Syluer and Sable ingraylyt ptit after the long way.

Here now it shall be shewyt of armys partit and irrasit

The thrid maner of wise ar founde armys partit of .ij. colowris & irrasit as here. of the wich it is to be sayd: as afore of quarterit armys irrasit. And he that beris theys armys: beris in this wyse as folowys first in latyn thus. Portat arma p̄tita secundū longum irrasa de argento et rubio. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port p̄tee du long dargent et de gowlez race Anglice sic. ¶ He berith armys partit on length of Siluer and gowles irrasit.

Off armys ptit the long way and inueckyt now I wil speke

Also the fourith maner of wyse: armys partit ar borne after the longe way of .ij. colouris inueckyt as here apperis And theis armys be calde inueckyt for the colowris be put oon in to an othir on rounde wyse. And theys armys differ moch fro tharmys next beyng afore irrasit. Wherefore it shał be sayd of hym the which beris theys armys thus as it shał folow first in latyn thus. Ipse portat arma partita secundum longum de coloribus albo et rubio inuectis Gallice sic. ¶ Il port partee verre du long dargent et de gowlez. Anglice sic He berith partit inueckyt on lengthe of Siluer and gowles.

Off armys partit on the long way & indentyt hēr it is shewyd

Sotheli an othir maner of partyt armys ther is the wiche is calde the fyfthe maner partyt after the long way of .ii. colouris and theys armys ar called partytt indentytt. for thys cause that .ij. diūse colowris ar put to gethir: that is to say white and blac ar put to geð aft the mañ of mēnis tethe as it is sayd afore in the quarterit armys indentyt. And therefore ye shałł say of hym the wich beris theys armys in thys wyse. first in latyn thus. Portat arma partita secundum longum de argento et nigro indentata. Gallice sic. Il port partee endentee du long dargent & sable Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith armys ptit indentit on length of Syluer and Sable.

Off armys partyt aft the long way cloudy or nebulatyd.

In the sext man of wyse ther be armys borne partyt aft the long way nebulatyt as here it sha  be shewyd in this scochon. And theys armys be calde innebulatyd for .ij colowris ar put to gedre by the manere of clowdys. Therefore the possessor of theys armys beris in thys wyse as it sha  be sayd first   latyn thus. Portat arma partita secundum longum de argento et asorio innebulata. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port ptie du long dargent & dasor innevve. Anglice sic. ¶ He beris armys partytt on length of Siluer and asure innebulatyt.

Off armys ptyt watti of Syluer and gowles this scochon is

More ouer aft theys armys aforesayd yit ther be borne armys partyt after the longe way. and they be watteri as here in this scochon it apperith. and theys armis ar calde watteri: for .ij. colowris ar incariet oon in to an other by the maner of water trobulde w^t wynde. And ye sha^{ll} say of him that beris theis armys in thys wyse as folowys: first in latyn. ¶ Portat arma ptyta vndosa secundum longū de argento et rubio. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port ptiee du long dargent et de gowlez vndee. Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith armys partyt the long way of Syluer and gowles watteri

Now here I begynne to speke of armys partyt ouerwart:

Here now folowys to se of armys ptyt ouerwart. the wich certan particion ouerwart is made as mony wyse as is the ptycion on length. that is to say on the playn way ouerwart. ingraylyt. irrasit. inueckyt. indentit. innebulatit. and watteri Werfore of theys certayn sha  be shewyd by signys. and first I begyne at playn armys ouwart. as here it sha  be shewyd. And it sha  be sayd of hym that berithe theys army in thys wyse first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat arma partita extrans so plana de auro & asorio. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port p tiee trans sie dor & dasor. Anglice sic. He berith golde and asure p tit ouwart ¶ Knew ye that here is no dowte of that first rule: that is to say that a man sha  begyn at the poynt of the shelde to blase for here is as mych coloure of golde as of asure.

¶ Off armys irrasit ouwart now here it sha  be shewyt.

Now of a nothir maner of partycion of colouris in armis ouwarte I wi  speke. And it is calde irrasit as here it sha  appere in this scochion. of the wich it is to be sayd that the genty  man the wich beris theys armys beris in this maner as folowis. first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat arma partita extrans so irrasa de auro et rubio. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port part e transuerse irrase dor et gowlez. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith armys partyt ouerwart irrasyt of golde and gowles.

Now of armys partyt ouwartt ye shall haue an exemple.

Armys ther be also indentyd ouwart and partyt. And they be calde indentyd for theyre colowris as is sayd afore ar put oon in to an othir bi the maner of mennis tethe. And it shall be sayd of him that beris theys armys in thys wyse. first in latyn thus.

Portat arma p̄tita extransūso īdentata de auro et asorio as afore is rehersit. Et gallice sic.

Il port p̄tiee de trauers dor et dasor endentee. Anglice sic ¶ He berith armys p̄tyt ouwarte indentytt of golde and asure

And to rehearse moore of p̄tyt armys ouwarte it nedisnot for it is rehersyt sufficientli in the rules next afore ī armys p̄tyt on lengthe. Therefore it shall not be rehersytt here agayn. quia inutilis est repeticio vnus ad eiusdem. and that is to say It is an vn̄p̄fitabull rehersyng of oon thyng to rehearse the saame a gayn in the next sentans. Therefore to speke moore of armys partit and figure theym: other of ingraylit or irrasit inueckyt indentit nebulatyt and vndatyt: it nedys not. for they be taght sufficiently ī the long way. ¶ And I beleue it shall be hard to fynde mony moo armys p̄tyt aft the long way or ouwart then ar rehersit a fore Neū the lees if any be founde or sene. in theym the same rules shall be obseruit: as is rehersit a fore. and it is enogh for all armys on that mañ to be blasit that any gentyll man berith p̄tyt.

Off armys the wich ar calde cheiff or an hede I will shewe.

Sotheli certan men wolde: y^t theys armys after rehersitt shulde be calde armys ptyt. the wich certanli ir rfor y^t: that ther is no verri pticion of the colouris or any liclenes of dyuision of colouris. Certanly in armys ptit it is requyrit alway that the ptys of the colouris be equall. and that is not trew in this figure. for the moore pte by mych is Siluer. Therfore ye shall say of him that beris theys armys th first in latyn. ¶ Portat de argento et caput scutti de asorio cū duabus maculis pforatis de auro. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port dargent vng cheiff dasor et deux molettis ptees dor. Et anglisce sic. ¶ He berith Siluer a Cheiff or a Cheftan of asure and ij. molettys pforat of golde.

¶ And ye shall know that ī theys armys the rule afore wretyn most be considerit that is to say: that at the Coon it is to begyn to blase if that colowre of the Coon be gretter or more copyous coloure in armys as it is sayd afore And more ouer it is to be merkyt that no armis awe to be calde ptyt armis bot iff they be made of .ij. colouris onys partit and no more for armys palit ar not callit: nor awe not to be calde partyt armys all thogh they be made of ij. colouris for thes colowris not allonli onys bot dyuerse tymys ar partyt as here apperis And theys armys be calde palit armys for they be made bi the mañ of palis. And it shall be sayd of hym that beris theys armys ī latyn thus. Portat arma palata de auro et asorio. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port pale dor et dasor. Anglisce sic. ¶ He berith pale of golde and asure.

Off armys palit vndatit now here it sha  be shewyt.

Palyt armys o tyme ar founde vndatyt that is to say watteri as here apperis. And theys be calde polyt armys vndatyt to the differance of barrit armys vndatyt. the wich armys barrit may also be vndatyt as after sha  be shewyt. And it sha  be sayd of him that beris theys armys thus in latyn Portat arma palata vndata vel vndosa de rubio et arg to. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port polee vndee de gowlez et dargent. Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith paly vndatyt of gowles and Siluer.

¶ Off armys palit crokyt and sharpe now I wi  speke.

Loke and beholde how mony maner of wyse thes palit armys be borne dyuerseli. as it is shewyt in thys boke. and theis armys now shewyt here: be calde palit crokyt and sharpe. for in theys armys .ij. coloris paly ar put to gethir: oon in to an othir crokytly and sharpe. Therefore it sha  be sayd of h  the wich beris thes armis in thys wyse. first   latyn thus. ¶ Portat arma palata tortuosa acuta de nigro et argento. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port pale daunsete de Sable et dargent. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith pale crokyt and sharpe of Sable and Syluer.

Off armys barrit playn now here it sha  be shewyt.

Here   thys chapyture afore is determynyt of palit armis and in thys chapyture now folowyng it sha  be determynyt of barrit armys. for the wich it sha  be know that armys may be many maner of wyse barrit. and the first maner of wyse is playn barrit. as here apperis. And ye sha  know that ther be certain armys barrit playn. and then ye sha  nott nede to say   the blasyng of theys armys: he berith playne armys barrit. Bot   a  othyr disperying armys barrit: ye most nedys declare the blasyng of theym howe thoos barrit armys differ from playn. for s  be barrit w^t a Lyon raumpyng or a grehonde or odir beestis & s  be barrit & powderit with cros croslettys molettys Scresentis smale briddis or other difference bot as for theys playn armis afore ye shal say in latyn in thys wyse. Portat arma barrata de argento & nigro Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port barre dargent et Sable. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith barri of Siluer and Sable ¶ Off barrit armys vndatit now I wy  shew as apperith.

Knaw ye for  tan that armys barrit othir wile be barrit & vndatit that is to say wateri. as here it apperith. And they be called barrit vndatit for they be made of .ij. colouris metyng to gedre by the maner of a floyng watre as it is opyn afore. And ye sha  say of hym that beris theis armys   this wyse. first   latyn thus ¶ Portat arma barrata vndata de nigro et albo Gallice sic. ¶ Il port barri vndee de Sable et dargent. Anglice sic. ¶ He beris barri vndatit of Sable and Siluer.

¶ Off armys barrit and inueckyt ye shale haue exemple

Barrit armys inueckyt ar borne of diuerse gentill men. as here is shewyd. And thay ar called inueckyt for in eueri barre .ij. colouris ar put inueckyt by the maner of a rounde way as is sayd afore. And he y^t beris this armys beris in thys wyse. first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat arma barrata de coloribus rubeo et albo inuectis. Et gallice sic.

¶ Il port barri verree de gowlez et dargent. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith barri inuetkyt of gowles and Siluer. ¶ And I begyn with gowles for that coloure is the first in the right corneff.

Off armys barryt crokyt and sharppe as here aft is shewit.

Gentill men ther be certanli the wich bere armis barrid crokyt and sharpe as here it apperith in theys armys. and thay be called armys barrit for differance of armys the same mañ of wyse palit: and thay be called crokyt and sharpe. for as it is sayd a fore .ij. colowris ar put to gethyr crokytli and sharpe.

Thefore it shałł be sayd that the lorde the wich beris theys armys berith in this wyse. first ī latyn Ille portat arma barrata tortuosa et acuta de nigro et auro. Et gallice sic ¶ Il port barri dauncetee acute de Sable et dor Anglice sic. ¶ He berith barris crokyt and sharpe of Sable and golde.

Now it shall be shewyd of armys that ar bendly barryt.

Ther be forsothe certan armys bendli barrit. and thei be called bendly barrit. and for this cause they be calde bendly barrit. for .ij. colouris ar iunyt to gether in euery barre bendly. as it is opyn here ī theis armis And therfore it shall be sayd of him that beris theis armys: in this wyse as folowis. first in latyn thus. ¶ Ipse portat arma bendaria de rubio et auro. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port barre bendee de gowlez et dor. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith barri bendy of gowles and golde.

¶ Bot neuer the lees ye most dyltgentli attende in the blasyng of sych armys: as palyt barrit and bendyt. for and they ben not suttelly consauyt a man sodanly onsweryng may lightly in thoos armys be dissayuyt. For certainly thoos armys be callete palyt armys in the wich ar fownde so many palys of oon colowre as ar of an other. And iff the palys of bothe the colowris ben not equall thoos armys be not palyt.

¶ In diuerse armys of gentill men be fownde .ij. palis of oon colowre. and .iiij. of an other as here in theis armys folowyng it shall be shewed. that is to say ther be .iiij. palys of gowles and .ij. of golde for of the colowre of reede apperith .iiij. partes in the shelde and bot ij. allone of the colowre of golde Therefore the gētiill man that berith theis armys: beris ī this wise & thus ye shall say of him. first in latyn thus. Portat duos palos aureos in campo rubeo. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowllez et deux pales dor. Et anglice sic. He berith gowlys and .ij. palis of golde.

Here ye shall diligently merke armys barrit and lees barrid.

Ye most also dilygently attende to the nombre of both too colowris in armys palyt barrit or lees barrit of the wich lyttyll barris ye most be ware when thay be fownde in armys. as here it is shewyd in theys armys. for sych lynes be called lyttiill barris to the differance of littiill barris. And it shall be sayde that the gentiill man the wich berith theys armys beris in this thys wyse. first in latyn thus as folowis ¶ Portat vnam barram et duas barulas de albo in campo rubio Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowlez vng barree et deux barrelettee dargent. Et anglisce sic. ¶ He berith gowles oon barre and .ij. litlell barris of Syluer.

Now I wyll speke of armys barrid & litell barris florishyt

Beholde how the forsayd letill barris ar othyrwyle made florishingli & than thei be calde florishyt as here ī thys scochon. And they be calde florishit: for they be made bi y^e maner of a flowre deluce. And ye shaft say of him that is possessor of theys armys ī thys wise as folowys. first in latyn thus. Portat vnam barram et duas barulas floridas albas in scuto siue campo blodio. Gallice sic. Il port dasor vng barree et deux barrelettes florit dargent. Anglice sic. He berith asure oon bar and .ij. litill barris florishyt of Syluer.

Now I intende to speke of bendys in armys as here.

Other wyle ther is borne in armys a bende as is founde ī dyuerse armys of certan noble gentilmen as here now itt shałł beshewyt. And ye moost knawe that it is calde a bende the wich begynnys at the right corner or the horne of the shelde: and discendith to y^e lefte side of the same sheelde: to the differans of fissures or of litełł stauys of the wich it shałł be spokyn after. And of hym that has theys armys ye shałł say thus as folowys. first in latyn. ¶ Portat vnam bendam de rubio in campo aureo. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port dor vng bende de gowlez. Anglice sic. ¶ He berit h golde & a bende of gowles.

Off litle bendys in armys now here is an exempull.

Know ye how afore it is sayd that certan littyll barris ar borne ī armys mony tymys. On the same maner of wise ar borne littill bendys as here it shall be shewyt. And they be calde bendylls to the differans of grete bendys as it is opyn. And of hym that beris theys th it shall be sayd. first in latyn as here folowys. Portat vnam bendam & duas bendulas de auro ī campo blodeo.

Et gallice sic. Il port dasor vng bend et deux benedelettis dor. Anglice sic. He berith asure a bende and .ij. bendils of golde. And thes bendyls ar othirwyle florishyt as is shewyt in the figure a fore in barris. And in diuse armys they be founde that they be chenyt. And sum be powderit with molettis. and sum with odir dyfferans the wich nedys not to be figurit here

¶ Off armys palit and bendyt now here it shall be shewyde

The best maner of wyse certanly of beryng of dyuse armys in oon sheelde is in theys bendys bering for a man that has a patrimony left by his fadyr. And other certan londys by his modyr cumyng to him to the wich londys of his moderis ar appropurt armys of olde tyme for it may hap that theys armys coom to hir by the way and discent of hir progenyturis. then may the hayre and hym list bere the hooft armys of his fadyr in y^e hooft sheelde. And ī syche a bende he may bere his moderis armys as here in the scochon afor apperis. And it shall be sayd of him that beris theys armys in latyn thus. Portat arma palata de argento et rubio cum vna bende de nigro. Gallice sic. Il port palee dargent et de gowles et vng bende de sabufl. Anglice sic. He berith palee of Syluer and gowles with a bende of sabufl.

¶ And othirwyle ī syche a bende ther is founde .iiij. molettys or macules of golde.

Off armys bende fusillyt here now I will exempull.

More ou̇ ther be founde in armys other certan bendys to sū man strange from theys. and here I wyll shew to yow a bende the wich is calde a bende fusillit: as here apperith in this scochon. And it is calde fusullit for it is made all of fusillis of the wich certan fusillis more shall be spokyn aftward. Bot he the wich has theys armys beris in latyn thus. Portat vnam bendam fusillatum de auro in campo asorio Gallice sic. Il port dasor vng bendee fusillee dor. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith asure a bende fusillit of golde.

¶ And thys bende mony tymys is borne with strangeris and specialli in Burgon.

Here now it shall be spokyn of dyuerse borduris ī armys.

Bordures many and dyūse ar founde ī armys and ar borne of many nobuþ men: of the wich sum be playn. sum īgraylit. sum talentit. sum playn powderit. sum chekerit. sum gobonettyt. sum inueckyt. of the wiche it shall be spokyn eūyche oon after ordir. And first of playne borduris I wiþþ speke as here it apperis. And the bordure is calde playne when it is made playn of oon colowre aloon. as here in thys scochon. And it shall be sayde of hym that is possessor of theys armys first in latyn th ¶ Portat tres rosas rubias in campo argenteo cum vna bordura de rubio. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port dargent trois rosis de goulez et vng bordure de gowles. Et anglisce sic ¶ He berith Siluer .iiij. rosis of gowles and a bordure of gowles.

Off armys bordurit and ingraylit now here folowys exemple

Armys with a bordure ingraylit other while ar borne of certan nobuþ men as here now is shewit in thys scochon. And syche a bordure is calde a bordure ingraylit for the colowre of hym is put gre by gre in to the felde of tharmys as it is opyn here. And the possessor of theys armys beris ī latyn tong thus as folowys.

¶ Portat arma de auro fymbriata siue bordurata de nigro ingradata cum tribus maculis perforatis de nigro. Gallice sic. ¶

Il port dor trois mullettis perforatee de Sable vng borduree ingraylee de Sable. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith golde .iij. molettis perforatit of Sabuþ and a bordure ingraylit of Sabuþ.

Now of armys borderit and talentit I wiȝ shew exemple.

Ther is borne in armys a certan bordure talentit as here. and it is not necessari here to expres the colowre of the talentis or besantis: for thay be euer of golde. And it shaȝ be sayd of him that beris thes armis in thys wyse first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat vnum signum capitale de rubio in campo albo borduratum cum rubio talentatim. Gallice sic. Il port dargent vng cheueron de gowlez borduree de gowlez talentee. Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith siluer a Cheueron of gowles bordurit with gowles talentyt.

¶ Off armys bordurit hauyng .ij. Cheuerons of siluer & c.

Understonde ye that certan tymys a bordure is borne in armys powderit dyuerse ways other wyle with molettis with rosis or with littyȝ crossis or with besantis or oder dyuse. And it is calde a bordure powderit when any thyng is ī that bordure: of what sum eū signe it be. as it is sayd a fore. and theys signys as rosis moletis and other ar not countit for cȝtan nombur: for y^e nombur of that powderyng excedis the nombur of ix And then y^t bordure is calde powderit as here. And ye shaȝ say that the possessor of theys armys beris in this wyse as folowys. first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat vnum scutum de rubio cum duobus signis capitalibus de albo et vna bordura puluisota cum talentis. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowlez deux Cheuerons dargent et vng bordure de gowlez powdree telentee. Anglice sic. He berith gowles .ij. Cheuerons of Syluer and a bordure powderit with besantis.

¶ Yit ther is an other maner bordure that is calde Cheekert.

We haue yit an other bordure in armys the wich is calde a bordure chekkerit. And it is calde a chekkerit bordure for hit is made of .ij. colowris by the maner of a Chekker as here it apperis. And it shaȝ be sayd of hym the wich beris theys armys in this wyse as folowys. first in latyn thus. Portat

vnam crucem rubiam planam ī campo argenteo cum vna bordura scaccata de nigro et argento. Et gallice sic. Il port dargent vng croys playn de gowles borduree chekkee de Sable et dargent. Et anglice sic. He berith Siluer oon cros playn of gowles a bordure chekkerit with Sabuſſ & Siluer.

Off borduris gobonatit now here is an exempull.

Know ye more ou that yit by side theys armys the wich I haue spoke of afore w^t borduris: ther is an other bordure that is calde a bordure gobonatit. as here it sha^{ll} be shewyt ī thys scooehon next folowyng. And hit is calde gobonatyt for hit is made of ij. colouris quadratli ioynyt. y^t is to say of blacke & white. & of hym that beris theys armys ye sha^{ll} sey in latyn thus as foloyis ¶ Portat de argento & duas bendas de nigro cū una bordura de nigro et albo gobonata. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port dargent deux bendee et vng bordure de sable et dargent Anglice sic. ¶ He berith siluer ij bendys of Sable with a bordure gobonatit of Sable & siluer

¶ And thys same bordure baare that nobu^{ll} prynce the duke of Gloucestyr brothyr to that nobu^{ll} weriowre Kyng henri the fifth: the wich roya^{ll} duke bare in his armys the hoo^{ll} armys of Fraunce and of Englund quartly with a bordure gobonatit of Siluer and sable as is shewyt in diūse placis. And to blase theys armys it nedis not to be rehersit. for it is suffisciently taght afore in diuerse placis.

¶ Item of borduris had in armys of colowris inueekyt.

Ther be yit borduris ī armys of ij. colowris inueekyt. as here in thys figure apperis. and hit is calde a bordure inueekyt for hit is made of .ij. colowris to gedyr inueekyt. And ye sha^{ll} say of hym the wich berith theys armys in latyn thus. Portat arma quartiata de rubio et auro cum vna bordura de argento et nigro simul inuectis. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port quarteele de gowlez et dor ouesq vng bordure verre dargent et de sable. Anglice sic

¶ He berith quartly gowles and golde with a bordure inueekyt of siluer and sable.

Bott ī thes borduris ther is a grete differans emōg men pretending theym expte and wyse in thys sciens as specially it is opyn ī tharmys in olde tyme of therle of Marche whed they shulde be calde borduris or not. as here ī thys figure. And certan men say y^t men not puttyng a merueles differans of blasyng say: that the forsayd Erle of marche the wiche was calde Roger Mortememer when that he leuyd bare armys in latyn in thys wyse to say ¶ Portauit arma palata barrata et contraconata de asorio & auro cum vno simplici scuto de argento. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port pale barree girone dasor & dor et vng escu simple dargent. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith paly barri contrari conyt of asure & golde with a siple shelde of silū.

¶ And this opynyon afore rehersit in the blasyng plesyt many a man the wich in no mañ of whise may be trw. For if thes armys as it is sayd afore war contrari conatit. then the lawist corner or the coone of tharmys that is to say the lawyst poynt of the shelde may neu be of oon colowre as certainly it is of asure.

Over theys thyngys afore rehersit in theys armis it is ctan that in all armys contrari conyt all the conys of what sum eū colowre tharmys be made they mete to gedyr conally in the middis of the shelde. as in the next figure of the shelde opynly it shaḥ be shewyd. Wher fore as it apperith to my reson trulier they shal be blasit on this wyse: exceppit the gretter autorite that the forsoyd Erle of Marche berith thus in latyn. Portauit arma barrata et caput scuti palatum & angulatum de asorio & auro cum quodam scuto simplici de argento. Et gallice sic. Il port barree et vng Cheeff palee cunecte dasor & dor et vng escu simple dargent. Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith barri and a Cheeff pale angulatit of asure and golde with a symple shelde of Silū.

Off armys contrari conyt here I will informe yow

Ther be yit for sooth diuerse noble men the wich bore armys contrari conyt. as here in thys scochon apperith. And theys armys be calde contrari conyt for this cause. for all the colouris of theys armys meete to gedir at oon coone. that is to say at the myddyst poyntt of the shelde oonly. For euy body triangulit is moore of lengthe then of brede and naamly conyt vt p . Therefore the opynyon of thos men the wyche sayd that the armys afore rehersit: that is to witte of therles armys of Marche war palyt barrit and contrari conyt is to be repreuyt. for so mych that the conys of the forsayd armys accorde not the wich of necessite shulde accorde iff the forsayd opynyon wer trw. And of hym that beris theys armys ye shall say in latyn. Portat arma contraconata de blodio et albo Et gallice sic. Il port girone dasor et dargent. Anglice sic. He berith contrari conyt of asure and siluer.

Off pilit armys now here it sha  be shewyt:

For as mych as it is spokyn afore of armys: in the wich the colowris mete to gedyr in the myddist poynt coonly. Now folowyth of certan armys in the wich iij. pilis mete to gedyr in oon coone. as here in thys figure. And it sha  be sayde of hym the wiche beris theys armys in latyn in thys wyse. ¶ Portat tres pilas nigras in campo aureo. Gallice sic. Il port dor trois piles de sable. Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith golde .iij. pilis of sable.

¶ Of ballis in armys here now it sha  be shewyt.

Neuer the les ye most consydyr a differans ī theys blasynghys of theys armys afore: and theys that cum after when ye blase theym in latyn tong. for other while thys terme pila ī latyn is take for to be a peese of tymbre to be put vnder the pelor of a bryge: or to syche a like werke as ī thexempu  afore And odyr while this terme pila is take for a certan rounde īstrumēt to play w^t: the wich īstrumēt  uys other while to the hande and then it is calde ī latyn pila manualis as here And other while it is an instrument for the foote and then it is calde in latyn pila pedalis a fote bal Therfor it sha  be sayd of hym that beris thes armys in latyn Portat tres pilas argenteas in campo rubio. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowlez trois pelettit dargent. Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith gowles iij. ballis of Siluer.

Certanli ye most merke that ī this figure of ballis a m  may soon er. Werfore shortly it is to be know that sich ballis may haue a  colowris bot the colowre of golde for & thei be of goldyn colouris: they shulde be calde talentis or besantis the wiche be e  of golden colowre.

Off tortellys or litiſ Cakys in armys.

Ther be also tortellis y^t be litiſ Cakys the wich be grettir then ballys & tharmys be truly made as here it is opyn. And he that beris theys armys beris in this wyse first ī latyn. ¶ Portat tres tortellas rubias ī campo aureo. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port dor et trois torteulx de gowlez. Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith golde & .iiij. Cakys of gowles.

More ouer merke: that as wele ballys in armys as kakis and besantis all way ar hooſt rownde figuris & not pforat

Off fontans or wellis here I wiȝt speke.

Neu the les ther be ctan nobuȝt men the wich beer siche rounde figuris: the wich figuris ar calde fontanys or wellis as here apperis. the wich fontans eũmore most be of whyte colowre for the thyng the wich they represent. For they represent eũmore the colowre of the water of a well the wich is white And of hym y^t beris thes armys ye most say in latyn thus. Portat tres fontes ī campo aureo. Gallice sic Il port dor et trois fonteys. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith of golde and .iiij. wellis.

Off ryngys the wich be other rounde instrumentis I wil speke

After theis rownde figuris a fore rehersyt ther be c̄tan figuris the wich be p̄foratit as be ryngys: as here apperis. And it shaʃ be sayd of hym that beris theis armys ī latyn th̄ . Pertat tres anulos aureos ī campo negro. Gallice sic Il port de sable et trois anulettis dor. Anglice sic. He berith Sabuʃ and .iij ryngys of golde ¶ Off tractys in armys.

Afore it is sayd of borduris ī armys. now it folowith to se of tractis or lynys. and first of a symple tract. and they be calde tractis for as mych as the felde remaynyng of tharmys as wele with ī as with owte. & an other lyne is drawyn of an other colowre as here: to the mañ of a shelde. And it shaʃ be sayd of hym that beris thes armys ī latyn. Portat vnū tractū s̄plicem planam aureū ī campo asoreo Gallice sic. ¶ Il port dasor vng trace playn dor. Anglice sic ¶ He berith asure a playn tract of golde.

Off a tract ingraylyt oon booth the sydys here is an exemple.

A tract or a lyne othir while is ingraylyt on booth the partes as here in thys fygure apperith. And then it shaft be sayd of hym that beris theys armys ī thys wyse first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat vnum tractū ex vtraque parte īgradatum de aupo ī campo rubio Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowlez vng trace ingrayle de chestim coste dor. Anglice sic.

He berith gowles wyth a tract ingraylyt on booth the sydys of golde.

¶ Off a tract dowbuł and florishyt it shaft be shewyt.

Thys tract is other wyle dowbuł as in tharmys of the Kyng of Scottelonde. as here in this scochon apperis. & the forsayd Kyng of Scottelond beris ī thys wyse first in latyn thus. Portat duplicem tractum cum floribus gladioli contraposis et vno leone rapaci de rubio in campo aureo. Et gallice sic. Il port dor vng dowble trace florete countree et vng leon rampant de gowlez. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith golde a dowble trace florishyt contrari and a Lyon rampyng of gowles.

Off tractis triplatit and quatriplatit othyrwyle.

Also of theys armys afore rehersit I fynde more dyuersite for ther be certan nobuſt men the wich bere theys tractis triplatit as here in thys fygure. and sum bere hit quatriplatit as is founde ī diūse armis. And ye shaſt say of him that beris theys armys triplatit ī latyn thus. ¶ Portat tractum triplicatū de albo ī campo aureo. Gallice sic. Il port dor vng trace triplee dargent. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith golde a trace triplatit of Siluer.

Off a tract sympuþ of .ij. colowris and inueckyt an exemple

Ther be other nobuþ men the wich bere a simpuþ tract of .ij. colowris inueckyt as here now it shaþ be shewyt in thys scochon. And the possessor of theys armys beris in this wyse as folowis first in latyn. Portat vnum tractum simplicem de coloribus asorio argenteo inuectis in scuto aureo. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port dor vng trace simple verre dasor et dargent Anglice sic. ¶ He berith golde and a tract symple inueckyt of asure and Siluer.

After tractis now it shall be spokyn of fyssuris or stauys.

Afore theys fyssuris it is spokyn of bendys: and their differans. Now it shall be spokyn of fyssuris. the wych ctan fyssuris or stauys begynne in the lefte horne of the shelde: & ar drawne to the right parte of the shelde beneeth to the differance of bendys the wych begynne in the right horne of the shelde & ar drawne to the lefte side of the shelde beneeth. and thys way most the fyssure be drawne as here apperis ī thys fygure. And ye shall vndirstonde that theis fissuris differ as mony ways as the forsayd bendys dyfferyt. bot it nedys not to be rehersyt for it is playn shewyt afore. Ther be fyssuris or stauys playn. ingradyt. inueckyt. and fusyllatit. as I sayd afore in the place of bendys. And theys stauys bastardys ar wont to bere or namli thay shulde bere thaym. And then thys fyssure is calde a staffe: & ī french it is cald a baston Bot commynli it is calde a fissure for as mych that he cleuys his faderis armys in .ij partes for that bastard is clouyn and deuydyt from the patrimony of his fader. And so sych a bastard is forbedyn to bere the hooft armys of his fader for the reuerans of his blode. bot his faderis armys he may bere with sych a staffe as is sayd afore: in signe and finall declaracion of his bastardy and to the differance of propur and naturall hayre of his fader. And when ye haue any sych a playn fissure or a staffe ī armys or ingraylit inueckyt or fusillatit: of that same staffe ye shall say as afore is rehersit in the chapiture of bendys moore playnli. And the bastarde the wich berith theys armys possessis in latyn on thys maner as now here folowys. Portat vnam fissuram siue baculum aureum ī campo asorio. Gallice sic. Il port dasor et vng fees dor. Anglice sic ¶ He berith asure and a fissure or a staffe of golde.

Now here I begynne to speke of armys hedyd as it apperis.

Ther be certan nobuþ men the wich bere armis hedit as here it apperith. And ye most knaw that theis armys be called hedyt: when the hyer parte of the shelde that is to say the hede is made of oon coloure or of moo then of oon. & that parte extendys not to the myddis of the shelde as aboon is shewyt by the shelde. And knwe ye that in the hedit armys is a good mañ of beryng of dyūse armys as by fortune sū noble man has mony londis and grete lordshippys by his modyr for the wych londys of his moderis he intendys to bere the armys of his modyr. and so he may do for it is rightwys. Bot he that discendys of a nobuþ fadyr or of a gentiþ man. by the wych he had any simple patrimony. then sych a nobuþ man: and he wiþ: may bere the hooþ armys of his moodyr in the lawyr parte of his shelde. and in sych an hede as I sayd a fore he may and he wiþ bere the hooþ armys of his fadyr And it shaþ be sayd of hym that beris theys armys ī thys wyse first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat vnum signum capitale de nigro in campo aureo cum vno capite rubio et tribus talentis ī eodem. Et gallice sic. Il port dor vng cheueron de Sabuþ et vng Cheeff de gowlez et trois besantis en la mesmes. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith golde a cheueron of Sabuþ w^t a Cheeff of gowles and .iiij. besantis ther in.

¶ And ther be certan nobuþ psones the wich beer in the shelde afore rehersit of golde as is sayd a fore a Cheueron of Sabuþ or of sum odyr colowre and .iiij. rede roosis or whyte or sum other sygnys as crossis cressantis briddys or flowris and a cheeff sum of Sabuþ sum of other colowre with the signe of molettis or oder tokynyng the wich need not to be rehersit. And then shaþ euerich oon of theym be blasit in his nombur like as the felde and the signes require: as by fortune sum men bere thus to say. He berith Sabuþ a Cheueron of golde .iiij. rede rosys of gowles a Cheeff of asure with .iiij. molettys perforatit of vert and thus of aþ other differansys.

Off armys palit with oon quarter of an other coloure.

Certainly ther be sum nobuſſ men the wych bere in ther armys oon quarter of an other colowre dyfferyng from the coloure or the colowris of the shelde as here. in the wich armis it is to be sayd that the nobuſſ man the wich beris theym berith in this wyse first in latyn. Portat arma palata de aserio & auro cum vna quarteria eremetica. Et gallice sic. Il port palee dasor et dor vng quart dermyn. Et anglisce sic. He berith paly asor and golde with oon quart of Ermyn.

¶ And it is to be notit that ye most haue a respebkyt to the colowre of that pale the wich shulde ascendee to the right horne of the shelde iff that quarter wer not ther. and ī that colowre ye most eū moore begyn to blase thoos armys like as the quart were not ther as afor is rehersit.

Now of armys chekkerit here ye shaft haue an exemple.

More ouer other whyle we se armys chekkerit as here now it apperith in thys figure folowyng and they be calde armys chekkerit when they ar made of .ij. colouris to the maner of a chekker. And theys armys resayue many differens as in hedys or quarteris ī barris and bendis and other wyles ī Cheuerons of y^e wich it shaft be spokyn a noon foloyng. And of hym the wich possessis theys armys ye shaft say in latyn thus. Portat arma scakkata de aserio et auro. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port scakke dasor et dor. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith Chekker of asure and of golde

Off Cheuerons the wich ī english ar calde cowpuls of sparris

We haue sotheli in armys certan signys the wich ar calde Cheuerons in french. And they be calde in latyn Signa capitalia vel tigna. and in english a cowpułł of sparris as here is shewyd ī theys signes: the wich signes by liklenes first war borne of carpentaries and makeris of howses. for an howse is neu made pfite tyłł thoos sparris be put a pon hit: by the maner of an hede. and .ij. syche sparris or cheuerons ionyt to gedyr make a capitall sygne. y^t is to say a cowpułł of sparris. and other while .ij. syche be borne ī armys and othyr while .iij. odyr while .iiij. as it is knawyn. And of him that beris theys armys afore ye shałł say thus as folowys first ī latyn. ¶ Portat de rubio et duo signa capitalia de auro cū tribus talentis. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowz et deux Cheuèrons dor et trois talent. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith gowles and .ij. Cheuerons of golde with iij besantis.

Off a Cheurron or a sygne capitall engraylyt here is shewyt.

Also a Cheuron is othir while engraylyt as here and then it is to be sayd of hym the wich beris theys armys in latyn in thys wyse. ¶ Portat vnum signum capitale ingradatum de albo in campo asoreo. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port dasor vng Cheuron dargent engraylee. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith asure and a Cheuron of Syluer engraylyt.

¶ Off dyuerse and meruelus Cheurons yit I will speke.

More ouer yit ī theys signys of Cheurons other while is fownde a dowte in the blasynge of theym. when thei be made of dyuerse colowris transmutit as here in this scochon apperith. And of hym the wych beris thes armys ye shaʒ say in latyn. ¶ Portat arma quarteriata de nigro & argento cum vno signo capitali de dictis coloribus transmutatis. Gallice sic. Il port quarterlee de sable & dargent & vng Cheuron chaungee lung de laultre. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith quarterly Sable and Siluer with a Cheuron of the sayd colowris transmutit.

Off Cheuerons differyng on the longe way.

Also theys signes or Cheuerons be differit after the long way in armys as here in this figure apperith. And then of hym the wich beris theys armys ye shall say in latī. ¶ Portat arma partita secūdū lōgū de coloribus aureo & rubeo cum vno signo capitali de dictis coloribus transmutatis. Gallice sic. Il port partie du long de dor & gowlez vng cheueron chaunge lung de laultre. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith party aft the longe way of .ij. colouris golde and gowles with a Cheueron of sayd colowris transmutit.

¶ Off dows among herroddis ī blasynge theys armys suyng

Emong othyr dows: a bowte the blasynge of tharmis here folowyng now next I haue herde herroddys pretending theym selfe veri conyng in blasynge of armys meruelusli to dreeme in the blasynge of theys armys. And sum holde oon opynyon and sum an othyr. neuer the les it is no grete neede to dowte in the blasynge of them as to conyng men. Thefore of hym y^t beris thes armys ye shall say ī latyn. Portat duas ptes capitis scuti de rubio & iciam ptem de albo ad modum signi capitalis et tres rosas de coloribus transmutatis. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port lez deux pties du chief de gowlez et le troisune dargent ptiez en manere du cheueroñ et trois roses lung de laultre. Anglice sic. He berith .ij. partis of the heede of the shelde gowles and the thride pte Siluer by the maner of a cheueron and .iiij. roses of the same colowris transmutit.

Off armys fusyllit in english spyndyllis now I will speke.

Ther be certan gentylmen and nobuls the wich beere in theyr armys fusellis: of the nombur of the wich: my lorde of Glaucestur y^t nobuth prince vncle to Kyng henri the sext was. For he had in his armys .iiij. fusillis of gowles by the maⁿ of a bar in a felde of siluer the wich ctan armys this nobuth duke bare by the reson of certan londis belongyng to the mounte.

Bot ye sha^{ll} say of hym that beris theys armys ī this scochon in latyn th ¶ Portat de rubio et tres fusulos de argento. Et gallice sic. Il port de gowlez et trois fusulez dargent. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith gowles and .iiij. fusules of Siluer. And otherwhyle theys .iiij. fusules or .iiij. be borne by the maner of a paale.

It is to be notit that when .iii. fusules or .ij. ar borne or moo to the nombur of .ix. the wich nombur if thei excede: say euermore that thos armys be powderit with fusillis or other thyngys and noon othyr wyse. ¶ And so generalli ye most knaw that iff any thyng be borne in armys ouer the nombur of .ix. then thoos armys what sum euer they be thay ar powderit.

Off oon fusyſ borne in armys here I wiſſ exempuſ.

Other while oon fusyſ is borne allon in armys as here ī thys figure it apperith. in wich mater I haue herd certan herroddis dowte in theyr opynyonyſ. Neū the lees it is ctan that ye ſhaſſ ſay of hym the wich beris theys armys with owte dowte ī latyn thus as folowis. Portat de rubio cum vno fusulo de auro Et gallice ſic. Il port de gowlez vng fuſiſ oor Anglice ſic. ¶ He berith gowles and a fuſiſ of golde.

Off an fusyH of dyuerse colowris now here I wiH speeke.

Also theys fusyllis sum tyme ar borne of dyuerse colowris as here in thys figure it is shewyd. Bot it is a moore dowte how theys armys shulde be blasit then tharmys afore. bot ye shall say ī latyn of hym the wyche has thes armys in this wyse. Portat arma partita ex transuerso de albo et nigro cum vno fusulo ex eisdem coloribus transmutatis. Et gallice sic. Il port partie de trauers dargent et sable et vng fusyH de mesmes colours lung de laultre. Et anglisce sic He berith armys partit ouerwart of Siluer & sable with a fusyH of the saam colowris transmutit.

Off fusyllis by the maner of a bende here I wiȝt sūwat say.

More ouer sych fusyllis ar borne in armys by the maner of a bende. as here now apperith And then ye shaȝt say of hym the wich possessis theys armys in this wyse first in latyn thus. ¶ Portat vnam bendam fusillatam de auro in campo rubeo. Et gallice sic Il port de gowlez vng bende fusyȝt dor. Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith gowles and a bende fusyllit of golde.

¶ Off a bar fusyllit in armys here is an exemple.

Also ther be borne in armys theys fusyllis in a bar fusyllit as here it apperith. And then it is to be sayd of hym the wich hath theys armys in latyn thus. ¶ Portat de rubio cum vna barra fusillata de argento. Gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowlez vng barre fusulee dargent. Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith gowles and a bar fusyllit of Siluer. And sum men say that the forsayd armys began of weueris for as mych as weueris vse sich fusillys made of sponnyn woff

Knawe ye y^e differans bitwix ffusillis Masculis & Losyng

Now here ye sha  know the differans be twix fusillis masculys and losyngys. Wherefore it is to be know that fusyllis ar euer more long also fusyllis ar strattyr ouerwartt in the baly then ar Mascules. And Mascules ar larger ouwartt in the baly: and shorter in the length then be fusylles. as here   this scochon it apperith. And it sha  be sayd of hym that possessis theys armys in this wyse. first   latyn. Portat de rubio & sex masculas de auro. Et gallice sic. Il port de gowles et .vi. masculas dor: Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith gowles and sex masculas of golde.

And theys masculas other while ar pforatit as I sayd ofore in the chapiture of the cros masculatit.

Off an othyr maner of masculas yit here I wi  speke.

Also other while ar borne armys masculatit as here now in this figure folowyng is shewyt. And ye sha   vnderstande that thos armys be calde masculatit in the wich the forsayd mascules begyn most plentuysly in the right angle of the shelde. and ar endid towarde the lefte pte. the wich certan armys in   y deed ar palit. & ar deuydit    to .iij. palys yf thei be subtile consayuyt. And of hym that beris theys armys it sha   be sayd    this wyse first in latyn. Portat arma masculata de argento & asorio. Et gallice sic Il port dargent et dasor masculee. Et anglisce sic.    He berith of Siluer and asure masculatit.

Off losyngys how and what maner of wyse they be made.

Also losyngye no maner of wyse be made bot ī armys bendit. ner they may not be made by ther selfe. and they be made all way as theys be made bendit. And ye shall haue the moost verey differans by twix the forsayd masculatit armys and bendid in the picturis of the forsayd armys. And ye most take thys for a generall enformacion and instruccion thatt certanli losyng eūmore stande vpright: that is to say that the heyst poynt or the heght: eū ascendis to heuen or to a mannys heed. so that the heyst poynt extendys vtterly to the heed of the shelde. and of the ouerwart corneris oon extendis vtterly to the right side. and that other corner extendys to the lefte side of the shelde. and the lawist parte extendys to the lawist parte of the shelde dyametralit as it is opyn in the shelde next a fore. And so with owte dowte we haue the differans of the forsayd signes. that is to wete of Mascules and Losynges. Nota also the forsayd fusyllis neuer be founde foratit ner losyngys afore sayd be neu foratit.

Now of a signe ī armis y^t is calde a Saltori a mañ of a cros

Ther is an other maner of signe in armys: by dyūse nobuñ men borne: the wich is calde a Saltori. and it is made by the mañ of a cros of Sayntandrew as here now it apperith. And thys cros is lickynt after certan men to an instrument made in dyuerse parkys the wich is of a grete magnytude or largenes: to the comparison of thys signe. And it is weñ know of nobuñ gentlemen and huntteris that sych saltatories ar ordant in mony parkys & plaas to take wilde beestys the wich onys their enter yng: by thatt instrumente may neu goo a gayn. Wherefore in olde tyme thes signys were geuyn to rich men. and otherwyse calde auaris Nygonys or keperis the wich men suffir not their tresures ī what maner of wyse they be getyn: to passe from theym. And of hym the wich possessis theys armys ye shañ say in latyn. Portat de asorio et vnum saltatorium de auro. Et gallice sic. Il port dasor vng saultiere dor. Et anglisce sic. ¶ He berith asure and a Saltory or a sawtri of golde.

Off armys sawtrie engradit here I wiſt exempliſt.

Now here ye most know that theys armys Sawtre be other while engradit as here in thys figure now apperith And then they be calde sawtre engradit as it is sayd afore in mony placis. as of the cros ingradit of barris and bendys. And of hym that beris theys armys ye shaſt say in latyn. Portat vnum saltatorium ingradatum de auro in campo asorio. Et gallice sic. Il port dasor vng saultier dor engraylee. Et anglisce sic. ¶ He berith asure and a cros sawtre of golde engradit.

Off many crossis sawtre borne in armys ingradyt an exemple

Other while ther be borne mony crossis sawtre ī armys engradit in oon shelde. other while .ij. other while .iij. as here. And of hym that beris theys armys thus it shałł be sayd in latyn. ¶ Portat vnam barram planam et tria saltatoria ingradata de auro ī campo rubeo. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowlez vng barre playn et trois saultiers engreilez dor Et anglice sic. He berith gowles oon bar playn and iii. sawtre crossis engradyt of golde.

Off Crownys in armys borne by the maner of a pale.

It is diligentli to be markyt that when we say sich a lorde berith in sych sygnys. How theys .iiij. signes ar borne in armys we say not all way. For other while theys .iiij. signys ar put in a shelde by the maner of a pale. And then ther be calde signes palit. as here ī thys figure it apperith. And of hym that has theys armys ye shall say in latyn. Portat iiij. coronas de auro palatas in campo asorio. Et gallice sic. Il port dasor et trois coronas dor paleez. Anglice sic He berith asure and iiij cronys of golde palit.

Off crownys in armys borne barrit here I wiȝ informe yow

How theys .iiij. signes othrr while be borne barrit here now apperith in thys figure. And then of him that beris theys armys ye shaȝ say in latyn. ¶ Portat tres coronas aureas ī campo asorio. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port dasor et trois corones barrez dor. Et anglisce sic. ¶ He berith asure & .iiij. crounys of golde barritt.

Off .iiij. Cronys borne in the Corneris of the shelde.

Certainly theys: iij cronys be borne ī the most comyn way in the corneris of the shelde as here in thys scochon it apperith And then ye most thus say that thes .iiij signes be borne in the corneris of the shelde. for that is the most comune & the moost famust maner of beryng of thes .iiij signes or ani maner signes Therefore ye shaſſ say that sych a lorde berith ī latyn in thys wise as here folowys. ¶ Portat de asorio et tres coronas aureas. non expremendo loca. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port dasor et trois corones dor. Et anglisce sic. ¶ He berith asure and .iiij crownys of golde.

¶ Off fishys borne in armys in dyūse wyse here is a dectrine

A new dowte yit is founde in armys. for as mych as ther was a certan man that heght Petrus de rupibus in tyme passit the bisshop of Wynchester: the wich baar ī his armys iij Rochys after hys awne naam in wich armys it is dowtit. whether it is enogh to say in the blasyng of them: that he bare sych iij fishys allone. as here in thys scochon. And certainly I thynke nay. for the rule goyng a fore. Bot it is thus to be sayd: of the sayd Petur in latyn. ¶ Portauit tres huiusmodi pisces argenteos natantes in campo nigro. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de Sable et trois Rochez nāyantz dargent. Et anglisce sic. ¶ He berith Sable and iij Roches swymmyng of Siluer.

¶ And then to tharmys of Galfride lacy as here now apperis ī this figure And ye most say y^t he bare thus in latyn. ¶ Portauit tres lucios aureos in campo rubeo. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowlez et trois lucez dor. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith gowles and iij luces of golde. the wich certan blasyng with owte declaracion here is enogh. for the sayd fishes ar in thare propur placis as I sayd in the rule afore.

Bot what shall be sayd of thys man then: the wich beris .ij. barbellis turnyng theyr backys to geder as here apperis. Ye most say in latyn th ¶ Portat duos barbillos aureos adinuicem tga vertentes in scuto asorio puluerisato cū crucibus cruciatis figitiuis de auro. Et gallice sic. Il port dasor poudree dez croys crocelez fichez et deux barbulx dors an dors dor. Et anglice sic. ¶ He berith asure powderit with crossis croslettys pycche and .ij. barbellis of golde backe to backe.

Off armys the wich ar calde frectis here now I wyll speke.

A certan nobuþ baron that is to say the lorde awdeley of the Reame of Englonde baar in his armys a frecte. the wich certan frectis ī mony armys of dyūerse gentiþ men ar founde. other while reede other while golde. and other whyle blac oderwhile simple and oderwhile dowble otherwhile tripuþ and other while it is multepliet ou aþ the sheld as here it apperith. and ye most vndirstande on gret differans by twix armys bendit and theis armys the wich be made with the forsayd frettys wherfore it is to be markyt that in bendyt armys the colouris contenyt equally ar dyuydit. Bot ī thes frectis the felde alwai a bydys hooþ as here. and this forsayd lorde audeley beris thus in latyn. ¶ Portat arma frectata de auro in campo rubeo. Et gallice sic. Il por de gowlez vng frette dor. Anglice sic. ¶ He berith gowles and a frecte of golde.

Off armys hauyng beestis salyentyng or rampyng.

Beestis in tharmys of dyuerse nobuþ ar borne rampyng as here ī thys figure folowyng apperith. of the wich ī the boke afore I haue made no mencion. And of hym that is possessor of theys armys ye shaþ say ī latyn. ¶ Portat de rubio & vnum leonem de argento. Et gallice sic. ¶ Il port de gowlez vng Leon saliantz dargent. Et anglisce sic. ¶ He berith gowles & a lion rampyng of siluer. And he is calde a Lion ramppying for thys cause. for as mych as the right foote ascendyth to the right horne of the shelde. and the lefte foote descendyth in to the foote of the shelde as apperith ī the figure. And this same mañ is obseruyt in aþ beestis hauyng .iiij. feete. that is to say in lionys leopardis beeris doggis with other like to them.

¶ Off armys barrit and of labellis borne in armys.

First note weþ tharmys of the fadyr as here. and then the differancis as it shaþ be shewyt. for certan ther be dyūse nobuþ men y^e wich bere labellis in theyr armys as it shaþ be shewyt ī figure after. for the wich it is to be knawe that sych labellis ar not propurli calde signes in armys bot dyfferancis of signes. that when it is so: that any nobuþ man haue mony lefuþ getyn sonnys: then y^e first son the wich is his faderis ayre: shaþ bere the hooþ armys of his fadyr with sum lyttiþ differans as here. to whom specalli is geuyn a moon encresyng. for that first soñ is in hoope of augmentacion and encressyng of his patrimony. & thys differans may be sum littiþ molet or a cros croslet or sych a like differans.

¶ The secunde broder shaþ bere the hooþ armys of his fader with .iiij. labellis to the differans and in to the signe that he is the thride that beris thos armys. ¶ Also the thride broder if ther be any shaþ bere .iiij. labellis ī tokyn that he is the faurith: that berith thos armis of whom the fader is the first. the ayre is the secunde. and the secunde broder is y^e thride: that beris thoos armys. And so folowys that the thride broder shaft beere .iiij. labellis as here it apperith in thys figure. And so forthe iff ther be moo brether ye shaft encree yowre labellys after the forme afore rehersit.

¶ And the sunnys of thoos same brether shaft beere the same labelis. ¶ And ī case that the secunde brother the wich berith iij. labelles haue .ij. sonnys certainly thelder soon of thos .ij. the wich is hayre to his fadyr shaft bere the hooft armys of his fadyr: with also many labelys as his fadyr did. with a littyft differans as here it apperith in thys scochon. ¶ And hys secunde brodyr shaft bere the hooft armys of hys fadyr with the same labellis as his fadyr baare and no moo with a bordure as here in thys figure next folowyng it shaft be shewyt. and as it is rehersit in the chapiture of borduris.

¶ And iff ther be the thride brodyr then he shaft beere hys faderis armys with the same labellis and a bordure of an other colowre to the differans of hys brothyr as it shaft be shewyt ī thys scochon next suyng

¶ And the chyldyr of thoos men shaft beere theyr dyfferans not in theyr faderis armys, bot in borduris and dyuysionys dyüse.

¶ And like as the chylder of the secunde brodyr beryng iij. labellis ar dyuydyt and dyfferit: by theye signys and theyr borduris. So the chylder of the thride broder beryng .iiij. labellis: bere the same armys that theye fader did & also mony labellis. And they ar dyfferit by theyr signys and theyr borduris as afore is rehersit: and dyüse othyr. as oder while a Lyon raumpyng oon parte reed an othdr blakke.

Now certainly of all the signys the wich ar founde ī armys as of flowris leuys and other meruetlys tokenys I can not declare here: ther be so mony. Bot ye shaft knaw generally that for all tharmys the wich lyghtly any man has seen ī his days: ye haue rules sufficient as I be leue. to dyscerne and blase any of theym: and it be so that ye be not in yowre mynde to hasty or to swyfte in the dyscernyng. Ner ye may not ouerryn swyftly the forsayd rules. bot dyligently haue theym in yowre mynde. and be not to full of consaitis. For he that wil hunt ij haris ī oon owre: or oon while oon. an other while an other lightly he losys both. Therefore take heede to the rules. Iff so be that they be not a generall doctrine: yet shall thai profecte for thys sciens gretly.

Merke ye wele theys questionys here now folowyng.

Bot now to a question I wilł procede. and that is thys Whethyr tharmys of the grauntyng of a prynce or of other lordys ar better or of sych dignyte: as armys of a manis propur auctorite take. when that it is leeffull to eueri nobull man to take to hym armys at his plesure For the wich question it is to be know that .iiij. maner of wyse we haue armys

¶ The first maner of wyse we haue owre awne armis the wiche we beer of owre fadyr or of owre moodyr or of owre predycesessoris. the wych maner of beryng is comune and famus in the wych I wilł not stonde long. for that maner is best puyt

¶ The secunde maner we haue armys by owre merittys as verey playnly it apperith by the addicion of tharmys of Fraūce to tharmys of Englonde getyn by that moost nobull man prynce Edward the first getyn sone of Kyng Edward the thride y^t tyme Kyng of Englonde after the takyng of Kyng Iohā of Fraunce ī the batell of Peyters. The wich certan addicion was leffull and rightwysli doon. and on the saame maner of whyse myght a poore archei haue take a prynce or sum nobull lorde. & so tharmys of that prysoner: by hym so take rightwisly he may put to hym and to his hayris.

¶ On the thride maner of wise whe haue armys the wich we beere by the grauntyng of a prynce or of sum other lordys.

¶ And ye most know that thoos armys the wych we haue of the grawntyng of a prynce or of a lorde resayue no question why that he berith thoos same. for whi the prynce wyll not: that sich a question be askyt. whi he gaue to any man sych an armys as it is playn in the lawe of nature and Ciuyll. For that same that pleses ther prynce has the strength of lawe. bot if any mā bare thoos armys afore. for that thyng the wich is myne with a rightwys tityll with owte deseruyng may not be take fro me. ner the prynce may not do hit rightwysly.

¶ The faurith maner of wise we haue thoos armys the wich we take on owre awne p^pur auctorite. as in theys days opynly we se. how many poore

men by thayr grace fauoure laboure or deseruyng : ar made nobuls. Sum by theyr prudens. Sū bi ther māhod. sū bi ther strength. sū bi ther conīg. sū bi oð ùtuys And of theys men mony by theyr awne autorite haue take armys to be borne to theym and to ther hayris of whoom it nedys not here to reherse y^e namys. Neū the lees armys that be so takyn they may lefully and frely beer. Bot yit they be not of so grete dignyte and autorite as thoos armys the wich ar grauntyt day by day by the autorite of a prynce or of a lorde. Yet armys bi a mannys propur auctorite take: if an other man haue not borne theym afore: be of strength enogh.

¶ And it is the opynyon of moni men that an herrod of armis may gyue armys. Bot I say if any sych armys be borne by any herrod gyuyn that thoos armys be of no more auctorite then thoos armys the wich be take by a mannys awne auctorite.

¶ Explicit.

¶ Here in thys boke afore ar contenyt the bokys of haukyng and huntynge with other plesuris dyuerse as in the boke apperis and also of Cootarmuris a nobull werke. And here now endyth the boke of blasynge of armys translatyt and compytyt to gedyr at Seynt albons the yere from thincarnacion of owre lorde Ihū Crist. M. CCCC. lxxx vi.

¶ Hic finis diūso geñosis valde vtiliū vt ĩtuētib pateb^t

¶ Sanctus albanus:

Page	Original	Changed to
38	For sum gobbit wiȝt be yow and sum geene	For sum gobbit wiȝt be yow and sum greene
38	she e:genderith the Ry	she engenderith the Ry
40	How ȝe maȝ cawse ȝowre hawke to flye withe a cnrrage in the morow	How ȝe maȝ cawse ȝowre hawke to flye withe a currage in the morow
42	shaȝt make hit to loue meet the bettir for loue of the oyntement	shaȝt make hir to loue meet the bettir for loue of the oyntement
45	a cownde legge	a rownde legge
50	and co ther vppon	and colde ther vppon
50	like he: abowte the sere & thossame	like heres about the sere & thossame
52	same penne shȝt frete asonder	same penne shaȝt frete asonder
52	and then weete the slesh ther in	and then weete the flesh ther in
53	Whan ye haue ensaymed yowre hawke: and Rerlaymyd hir	Whan ye haue ensaymed yowre hawke: and Reclaymyd hir
54	wan ye haue so coon	wan ye haue so doon
55	and is dewarded as I haue sayde	and is rewarded as I haue sayde
55	she haue Reiosed hir	she haue Reioysed hir
55	Lrene wele oon thyng	Lerne wele oon thyng
63	The Croampe commyth to an hawke with takyng of colode in hir yowthe	The Croampe commyth to an hawke with takyng of coolde in hir yowthe
68	anoyt her meete therin	anoȝt her meete therin
68	fede hennys or ehykynnes therwith	fede hennys or chykynnes therwith
74	secunde yeue hir epatike with the flesh of a chycon	secunde yeue hir epatike with the flesh of a chycon
74	for furfete of federis that be yeuen to hawkis	for surfete of federis that be yeuen to hawkis
75	she is waked she assayeth to put ouer ot	she is waked she assayeth to put ouer at
75	A medeeȝne for the Entreȝllis	A medecȝne for the Entreȝllis
75	the hawke wiȝt be very eegre and gleetous of the seekenes	the hawke wiȝt be very eegre and glettous of the seekenes

76	For blaȳnis ī haukes monthes cald frouches	For blaȳnis ī haukes mouthes cald frouches
76	Wete hir fleshe in sarsoiȝt or ellis seeth Rafue in water	Wete hir fleshe in sarfoiȝt or ellis seeth Rafne in water
77	ellis fille the hooȝt with a powdre of arnemelit Ibrent	ellis fille the hooȝt with a powdre of arnement Ibrent
79	Perchȳth. Ioȳkith. Puttihouer Proȳnȳth	Perchȳth. Ioȳkith. Puttithouer Proȳnȳth
79	She tytith vppon Rumppys	She tyrith vppon Rumppys
81	The wodecok is comboroue to sle	The wodecok is comborous to sle
84	Nowe ȳe shall vnderstonde if a man wlll make	Nowe ȳe shall vnderstonde if a man will make
87	And theis be of an oder maner kynde. for thay flie to Ouerre	And theis be of an oder maner kynde. for thay flie to Querre
89	declared in the boooke folowyng	declared in the booke folowyng
92	Sane that yowre howndes eete	Saue that yowre howndes eete
98	And iff yowre houudes chace weeȝt at yowre wiȝt	And iff yowre houndes chace weeȝt at yowre wiȝt
101	What is the cause quod the man naister I the pray	What is the cause quod the man maister I the pray
102	Now of the Nomblis nierhe wele the termȳs	Now of the Nomblis merke wele the termȳs
108	To vudo the wȳlde Boore.	To vndo the wȳlde Boore.
111	Than bryng it hoom. aud the skynne with aȝt	Than bryng it hoom. and the skynne with aȝt
117	a Festre of Brweris	a Festre of Brewris
123	the oryente thow shat take that other theirde parte of the worlde which shaȝt be calde affrica	the oryente thow shalt take that other theirde parte of the worlde which shaȝt be calde affrica
132	By the Olif tree he vnderstode vietery for to wyȳn	By the Olif tree he vnderstode victery for to wyȳn
133	Oon is a gentylman of Cotarmure of the gynges bagge	Oon is a gentylman of Cotarmure of the kynges bagge
133	a kyng geuyng a lorshipp to a yoman	a kyng geuyng a lordshipp to a yoman
133	same knyght is a gentylan of blode	same knyght is a gentylan of blode

134	modre may bere the right heyris cotarmure	modre may bere the right heyris cotarmure
138	The fifthe quadrate is calde Endently of .iij. diuse weis	The fifthe quadrate is calde Endently of .iij. diuse weis
139	Here shall be shewed what Cootarmtris restrýal	Here shall be shewed what Cootarmuris restrýal
152	crucem planom inuectam de coloribus albis & nigris	crucem planam inuectam de coloribus albis & nigris
160	And then hit shaß be sayd that he the the wiche berith this cros.	And then hit shaß be sayd that he the wiche berith this cros.
165	men say they be army quarterit of cololowris inueckyt	men say they be army quarterit of colowris inueckyt
166	Ther is also a ptyng of .ij. colowris clowdit or nbulatit	Ther is also a ptyng of .ij. colowris clowdit or nebulatit
166	calde ptit armys for they be made of .ij. colouris equalli ptit	calde ptit armys for they be made of .ij. colouris equalli ptit
166	He berith asure and Syluer playn ptit	He berith asure and Syluer playn ptit
166	Also ther is pticion of armys engralyt the long way as is	Also ther is pticion of armys engralyt the long way as is
166	Il port dargent ingraylee et Sable ptee du long	Il port dargent ingraylee et Sable ptee du long
167	ere now it shaß be shewyt of armys partit and irrasit	now it shaß be shewyt of armys partit and irrasit
167	Il port ptee du long dargent et de gwlez race	Il port ptee du long dargent et de gowlez race
169	Off armys ptyt watèi of Syluer and gowles this scochon is	Off armys ptyt watti of Syluer and gowles this scochon is
172	made bi the man of palis	made bi the mañ of palis
174	Il port barre dargent et Sale	Il port barre dargent et Sable
178	Il port dor vng bende de gwlez Anglice	Il port dor vng bende de gowlez Anglice
178	He beth golde & a bende of gowles	He berith golde & a bende of gowles
179	bere the booh armys	bere the hooth armys
180	Protat arma de auro fymbriata siue bordurata	Portat arma de auro fymbriata siue bordurata
182	ther is an other bor- that is calde a bordure gobonatit	ther is an other bordure that is calde a bordure gobonatit

182	it shaſt be shewyt ī thys scooehon neyt folowyng	it shaſt be shewyt ī thys scooehon next folowyng
190	wych begynne in the right borne of the shelde	wych begynne in the right horne of the shelde
195	Off Cheueuerons differyng on the longe way	Off Cheuerons differyng on the longe way
195	Also theys signes or Cheuroens be differit after the long	Also theys signes or Cheuerons be differit after the long
200	to a mannye heed	to a mannys heed
200	And so wich owte dowte	And so with owte dowte
201	wich onys their enter yng: by tbatt instrumente	wich onys their enter yng: by thatt instrumente
201	How here ye most know that theys armys Sawtre be other	Now here ye most know that theys armys Sawtre be other
210	And they they be calde sawtre engradit	And then they be calde sawtre engradit
202	it shaſt be sayd in lotyn	it shaſt be sayd in latyn
202	signys ar put in a shelde by the mauer of a pale	signys ar put in a shelde by the maner of a pale
202	Il port dasor et et trois corones barrez dor	Il port dasor et trois coronas barrez dor
203	pisces argnteos natantes in campo nigro	pisces argenteos natantes in campo nigro
204	the hoke afore I haue made no mencion	the boke afore I haue made no mencion
208	an other while an other lightly be losys both	an other while an other lightly he losys both
208	other rordys ar better or of sych dignyte	other lordys ar better or of sych dignyte
209	sū bi od ūtuys	sū bi oð ūtuys

TRANSCRIBER'S NOTES

1. Except as noted spelling errors were left uncorrected.
2. Re-indexed footnotes using numbers.
3. Added page numbers to the older section for reference in finding transcriber changes.

 END OF THE PROJECT GUTENBERG EBOOK THE BOKE OF SAINT ALBANS ***

Updated editions will replace the previous one—the old editions will be renamed.

Creating the works from print editions not protected by U.S. copyright law means that no one owns a United States copyright in these works, so the Foundation (and you!) can copy and distribute it in the United States without permission and without paying copyright royalties. Special rules, set forth in the General Terms of Use part of this license, apply to copying and distributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works to protect the PROJECT GUTENBERG™ concept and trademark. Project Gutenberg is a registered trademark, and may not be used if you charge for an eBook, except by following the terms of the trademark license, including paying royalties for use of the Project Gutenberg trademark. If you do not charge anything for copies of this eBook, complying with the trademark license is very easy. You may use this eBook for nearly any purpose such as creation of derivative works, reports, performances and research. Project Gutenberg eBooks may be modified and printed and given away—you may do practically ANYTHING in the United States with eBooks not protected by U.S. copyright law. Redistribution is subject to the trademark license, especially commercial redistribution.

START: FULL LICENSE

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG™ LICENSE

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase “Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, “Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation.”
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.

- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES

EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility: www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.