PREFACE.

“Learn a foreign language as you learned your mother-tongue.” It is the way that nature herself follows, it is the same which the mother points out in speaking to her child, repeating to it a hundred times the same words, combining them imperceptibly and succeeding in this way in making it speak the same language she speaks. To learn in this manner is no longer a study, it is an amusement. This is in a few words the Method which Prof. Ahn has so successfully adopted in his continental Grammars.

The Editor of this Grammar has followed the rational System, which has already procured for Prof. Ahn a European reputation, and he has adopted it for the Study of the Portuguese Language. He is greatly indebted to the excellent Grammars by Bösche, Müller, etc., which he has used for the ground work of this Grammar and it is hoped that its simplicity and utility will procure for it that favour, which the German, French, Italian, Spanish, Swedish, Danish, Dutch and Latin Grammars of Prof. Ahn have already found in the Colleges and Schools of England.

FIRST COURSE.

The Pronunciation.

1. The Alphabet.

The Portuguese Alphabet is composed of the 25 following letters:

pronounced		pronounced
a	ah	n	ennay
b	bay	o	o
c	say	p	pay
d	day	q	kay
e	ai	r	erray
f	effay	s	essay
g	jay	t	tay
h	aghah	u	oo
i	ee	v	vay
j	dshod	x	shees
k	kah	y	ypsilon
l	ellay	z	zea
m	emmay

There are six vowels: a, e, i, o, u and y, the rest are consonants.

2. The Accent.

The Portuguese language has several accents:

the ' acute accent,

the ^ circumflex accent,

the ~ hyphen, called til, is set over some letters as a substitute for m, as:

lã for lam
bẽ for bem
huã for huam.

3. The Vowels.

- A 1. is pronounced like the a in the English word path, when it has the acute accent ´:

chá, tea dá, he gives lá, there.

2. is it pronounced short and clear like the a in father:

capitão, the captain (first a), or if found before the double consonants: cc, ll, mm, nn, pp, ss, tt,

as:

acclamar, to call out
annullar, to annul
alludir, to allude
appellar, to appeal.

3. it has a soft and aspirated sound at the end of words if not accentuated: vergonha, the shame. If the hyphen ~ til stands over the a it takes a nasal sound:

irmãa (pr. irmāng), the sister lã (pr. lāng), the world.

E has three sounds:

1. open but short like ai in the English word hail, when with the acute accent ´ as:

pé, foot
fé, belief
sé,

or in:

mel, honey
he, he is quero (pr. kayro), I will,

or in those verbs ending in er:

conhecer, to know
receber, to receive.

2. long, when with the circumflex ^ over it, as:

lê, he reads
vê, he sees rêde, the net.

3. It is almost mute at the end of words without the accent, as:

liberdade, liberty
amizade, friendship.

I is pronounced like e in the English word me, and it is only the accent that determines the pronunciation, as:

tímido,
timoré,
diffícil,
javalí.

O has three sounds:

1. clear and strong in:

mólho,
dó.

2. soft and long in:

bôlo, cake
gôrdo, fat
rapôsa, the fox (fem.).

3. quite short, almost like oo in:

poder, to be able molho, a bundle almost pronounced like molyou.

U is pronounced like the oo in the word wood, but the pronunciation depends much upon the length of the syllables, f. i. in túmulo, the grave, the first u is long, the second is short. If provided with the til ~ and before m and n it takes the nasal sound.

If it follows after g and q, it is either aspirated, or it is quite mute, as:

guerra (gerrah), war quero (kayro), I will quieto (key-eh-to), quite.

In qual, it is slightly sounded to distinguish it from the Noun cal, the chalk.

Y is pronounced like the vowel I.

4. The Consonants.

B is pronounced like the English B.

C before a, o, u, l and r is pronounced like k, as:

cavallo (kahvallo), the horse cravo (krahvo), the pink cuidado (kooeedado), the care.

Before e and i it sounds like s, as:

ceo (sayo), heaven
cigarro (seegarro), cigar.

If the c before a, o, u has a cedille (ç)

it sounds like s, as:

caça (kassah), chase

aço (asso), the steel

açucar (assookar), sugar.

The double c, is distinctly heard only before e and i,
the first sounds like k, the second like s, as:
accidente (akseedente), the accident.

D is pronounced like the English.

F do. do.

G before a, o and a consonant is pronounced like the English g, as:

gordo, fat

gravo, grave.

g before e and i sounds like the j in the English word joy, as:
general.

gua almost sounds like the English wa, as: guarda, pr. gwarda.

H is only softly aspirated in few words, as:

anhelar,

hálito;

otherwise it is mute, as:

homem (omem), man

hora (ora), hour.

Many writers drop the h at the beginning and write um, uma, instead of: hum, huma.

J is pronounced like the English j.

K only occurs in foreign words and is pronounced like the English K.

M at the beginning of words, or between two vowels when it belongs to the second syllable, is pronounced like the English m, as:

menino, child
amar, to love.

It takes a nasal sound at the end of words, or when it follows after a, e, i, o or u which cannot well be described, as:

condição, condition
bem (bang), well
bom (bong), good.

N is pronounced like the English n, but has the same peculiarities as m.

P is pronounced as in English.

Q sounds like k, as: quero (kayro), I will.

R is pronounced as in English.

S is pronounced as in English; between two vowels it sounds like z.

T is pronounced like the English.

V do. do.

X has three sounds.

1. It sounds generally like sh, as:

xarope (sharope), syrup enxaqueca (ansshakeykah), headache.

2. After e it is pronounced like ks, as:

extensão,
extenuado,
expulso,
excelente.

3. Between two vowels it is pronounced like gz, as:

exactamente,

exornar,

except in:

paixão,

puxo,

Alexandre,

baixo,

and some other words, where it sounds like sh.

The x must be pronounced so softly that it is scarcely audible.

Z sounds like the English, as:

zelo,

zona.

At the end of words it sounds like s, as:

rapaz,

luz,

voz.

5. Double Consonants.

The Portuguese language has the following double consonants:

Ch 1. is pronounced like the English ch, as:

acho,

chaga,

marchar.

2. it is pronounced like k in words derived from Latin or Greek, as:

monarchia,

archeo,

archonte,

Achilles.

Lh is pronounced like the ll in the English word “billiards” or in the French words “fille, bouilli”, as:

mulher, woman
mólho, the bundle.

Nh is pronounced like the French gn in “espagne, peigner”, as:

ganho, I win
banho, bath
manha, trick.

Ph is pronounced like f, as: philosophia.

Rh and Th are pronounced like r and t.

6. The Diphthongs.

The Portuguese language has two kinds of diphthongs: the pure, those which are distinctly pronounced, and the nasal diphthongs, pronounced with a nasal sound.

Pure Diphthongs.

ae, as:

taes,
olivaes.

ai (the a and i do not blend), as:

pai (pa-i),
ai (a-i).

ao, as:

páo (pa-o),
máo (ma-o).

au, as:

aula,
auto,
pauta,

causa.

ei, ey, as:

rei,

rey,

lei,

sei.

éi, as:

papéis,

réis.

eo, as:

deo,

mordeo,

viveo.

éo, as:

Céo,

véo,

réo.

eu, as:

eu,

euro,

meu,

seu.

io, as:

pio,

rio,

vio,

ouvio.

oa, as:

loa,

toa.

oe, as:

heroe,

dóe,

róe.

oi, as:

boi.

ôo, oo, as:

vôo,
sôo,
môo.

ou, as:

ou,
ouvir,
douto.

ui, uy, as:

fui, Rui.

In the above the first vowel is preeminent, in the following the second vowel has most emphasis.

ea, as:

lactea,
área.

eo, as:

lacteo,
arboreo.

ia, as:

gloria.

oa (pron. oâ and oá), as:

agoa,
coadura,
coalho.

ui (pron. ui), as:

quirinal,
inquirir.

uo (pron. uó), as:

equoreo.

uu (pron. uú), as:

equuleo.

Nasal Diphthongs.

ãa (bad orthography am or an), as:

maçãa (mas-sang), apple, irmãa (ir-mang), sister.

ãe (bad aem, aen), as:

capitães (kapeeta-engs), captains, cães (ka-engs), dogs.

am, as:

amparo (ang-paro), protection.

an, as:

andar (ang-dar), to go.

ão (bad orthogr. aõ, am, an), as:

capitão, captain.

em, ẽe, ẽem, as:

lem or lẽem (lay-eng), they read, bem, good.

im, as:

fim (fing), the end.

õe (oem, oen), as:

põe (pong-eng),
nações (nahs-so-engs).

om, as:

bom (bong), good.

um, un, as:

mundo (moong-do), the world.

The Portuguese have also syllables of three vowels such, as:

eei,

éio,

eão,

ião,

as:

eia, hallo!

meia, half

ideia, idea

rodeão, they surround

vivião, they lived.

25.

On the Augmentatives and Diminutives.

The Portuguese language has the peculiarity of the Italian and Spanish languages in making Substantives and Adjectives, by the addition of a syllable augmentative or diminutive.

I. Augmentativos.

homem, a man
homemzão, a large, powerful man tolo, a fool
toleirão, a great fool
mulher, the woman
mulherona, a large masculine woman tola, the foolish woman toleirona, a very foolish woman.

II. Diminutivos

are formed by changing the final vowel into “inho”:

casa, the house
casinha, a pretty little house
homem, a man
homemzinho, a little man bicho, a worm
bichinho, a little worm coitado, a poor man coitadinho, a poor little fellow bonito, pretty bonitinho, rather pretty;

others are formed by adding: zinho, zinha or sinho, inha, as:

coração, the heart
coraçõzinho, dear little heart cão, the dog
cãozinho, pretty little dog irmão, the brother irmãozinho, dear little brother

cabeça, the head
cabeçinha, pretty little head mão, the hand
mãozinha, pretty little hand.

26. The Adjective.

The Adjectives in Portuguese agree with the Substantives in gender and number.

1. Adjectives ending in e, l and z, remain unchanged in the feminine, as:

forte, strong;
grande, great;
cruel, cruel;
amavel, amiable.

2. Adjectives ending in o change the feminine into a, as:

o bonito, the pretty, a bonita.

3. Those ending in ú, m and r, add an a in the feminine, as:

crú, raw, crúa
nú, nude, núa
um, a, uma
nenhum, none, nenhuma traidor, traitorous, traidora protector, protectora.

4. Adjectives ending in ão change to ãa in the feminine, as:

lução, brilliant, lução
são, healthy, sãa.

27. The Plurals of Adjectives are formed in the same manner as the plural of Nouns, as:

Singular.			Plural.
Masc.		Fem.	Masc.	Fem.
forte ,	strong,	forte	fortes ,	fortes
gordo ,	fat,	gorda	gordos ,	gordas

10.

The Passive Verbs.

The Passive Verb is conjugated in all its tenses by the Auxiliary Verb “ser” to be, to become, to which is added the Participle of the Passive Verb, as:

sou amado	I am loved
tu es amado	thou art loved
serei amado	I shall be loved
eu seria amado	I should be loved.

11.

eu tenho chegado	—	I have arrived.

They are otherwise conjugated like the Active Verbs: amar, receber, partir.

12.

The Reflective Verbs.

are conjugated with “ter” and the Pronouns

me,	me
te,	thee
se,	it
nos,	we
vos,	you.

Lembrar-se, to remember.

they should remember.

Conditional past.

*eu me teria lembrado,
tu te terias lembrado,
elle se teria lembrado,
nós nos teríamos lembrado,
vós vos terieis lembrado,
elles se terião lembrado,*

I should have remembered thou shouldst have remembered he should have remembered we should have remembered you should have remembered they should have remembered.

Subjunctive Mood.

Present.

*que eu me lembre,
tu te lembres,
elle se lembre,
nós nos lembremos,
vós vos lembreis,
elles se lembrem,*

that I may remember
that thou mayest remember that he may remember that we may remember that you may remember that they may remember.

Imperfect.

*que eu me lembrasse,
tu te lembrasses,*

that I might remember that thou mightst remember

*elle se lembrasse,
nós nos lembrássemos,
vós vos lembrásseis,
elles se lembrassem,*

lembre-se elle,	let him remember
lembremos-nos nós,	let us remember
lembrai-vos vós,	remember ye
lembrem-se elles,	let them remember.

Observ. In all the simple tenses of the Indicative Mood, is it unimportant whether the Pronouns me, te, se, nos, vos stand before or after the Verb, and one may therefore say either: eu me lembro, or eu lembro-me, eu me lembrava and eu lembrava-me, but in the compound tenses as well as in the Subjunctive and Imperative Mood they must stand before the Verb, as: eu me tenho lembrado, que eu me lembre, que eu me lembrasse.

Irregular Verbs.

FIRST CONJUGATION.

1. Dar, to give. [\[544\]](#)

Indicative Mood.

Present.

eu dou,	I give
tu dás,	thou givest
elle dá,	he gives

nós dermos,	when we shall give
vós derdes,	when you shall give
elles derem,	when they shall give.

2. The Verbs ending in “car” have no other irregularity than that they change the c every time into qu, if an e follows in the conjugation, as:

ficar,	to remain,
fiquei (not ficei),	I have remained,
que eu fique (not fice),	that I may remain;

this irregularity is only maintained for the purpose of keeping the same pronunciation for the Verb throughout, which would otherwise not be the case.

3. The Verbs ending in “gar” change the g, if followed by an e, into gu, for the sake of Pronunciation.

4. The Verbs ending in “iar” take an e before i in all persons of the Indicative Mood, as:

premiar, to reward,
premeio, premeias, premeia, premeiamos etc.

Certo^[556] juiz de fóra^[557] tendo queixas do povo^[558] que os arrematantes da vacca^[559] só matavão^[560] um boi^[561] cada dia d’assouge^[562], e que este não chegava^[563] para todos, e ao mesmo tempo^[564] ouvindo dizer aos ditos arrematantes que dous bois erão de sobejo^[565]; mandou^[566] por seu respeitando despacho que cada dia d’assouge se matasse boi e meio.

3.

Dizia o P. Antonio Vieira, que toda a fortuna d’um homem de corte^[567] consistia em saber adular^[568], mentir^[569], furtar^[570], e repartir^[571].

4.

Na desgraçada^[572] morte^[573] do Principe D. Affonso, disse El-Rei Dom João II. seu pai: “No excessivo sentimento em que vivo da morte de meu filho, só me consola parecer-me que Deos se lembrou^[574] d’este reino^[575]; porque o Príncipe não era para Rei dos Portuguezes: os Portuguezes hão de mister Rei de bronze. Era o Príncipe inclinado a delicias^[576].”

Levantando^[577] El-Rei D. João I. o sitio^[578], que tinha posto a Coria, disse: “Grande falta^[579] nos fizeram os cavalheiros da taboa redonda^[580]; porque se elles aqui estiverão, não nos levantáramos desta cidade sem a render^[581].” Respondeo Mem Rodrigues de Vasconcellos: “Não faltarão por certo, senhor, aqui esses cavalheiros; porque aqui está Martim Vasques da Cunha, que he tão bom, como dizem o foi D. Galaz; Gonçalo Vasques Coutinho, que he tão bom como D. Tristão; João Fernandes Pacheco, que não deve nada a Lancarote; e aqui estou eu, que não mereço^[582] menos^[583] que qualquer d’elles: O certo he, senhor, que só faltou aqui o bom Rei Artur, que os sabía estimar, e animar com mercês grandes.”

6.

Quando El-Rei D. Sebastião quiz^[584] fazer^[585] a jornada de Africa, determinou avistar-se em N. Senhora de Guadalupe com El-Rei Philippe seu tio^[586]; para se ajustar^[587] esta função^[588] veio^[589] de Castella o duque^[590] d’Alva, cavalheiro mui soberbo^[591], e pouco affeiçãoado aos Portuguezes, e de cá foi o conde^[592] de Redondo. Entre a pratica^[593] que tiverão, lhe perguntou^[594] o duque que fidalgos vinhão com El-Rei Dom Sebastião; porque com El-Rei vinha elle, e outros como elle. Respondeo-lhe o conde: “Com El-Rei meu senhor vem o duque de Bragança, o de Aveiro, e o marquez^[595] de Villa-Real; e fidalgos razos^[596], como eu e vós, vem muitos.”

Respondêrão todos, que não podia ser^[613]. Pegou^[614] no ovo Christovão Colon, e dando com elle mansamente^[615] na mesa^[616], lhe fez uma pequena^[617] móssa^[618], e o pôz muito direito. Rirão-se^[619] todos, e disse Colon: “Nenhum^[620] de Vossas Mercês^[621] ha que não acha facil navegar o oceano, depois que eu de lá vim; porém he certo, que se eu não fôra o primeiro, nenhum seria o segundo.”

Um Mahometano consultando a Aischeh mulher de Mahometo, lhe pediu uma regra^[622] para bem viver; e ella lhe respondeo: “Reconhece^[623] um só Deos, refrê^[624] a tua lingua, reprime^[625] as tuas paixões^[626], adquire sciencia, vive constante na tua religião, abstem-te de fazer mal^[627], frequenta os bons, encobre^[628] os defeitos do teu proximo^[629], soccorre^[630] os pobres, e espera a eternidade por recompensa.”

10.

Querendo certo homem desquitar-se^[631] de sua mulher, com quem tinha pouca paz^[632], appareceo^[633] para este fim^[634] diante^[635] do Provisor.

Estranhou^[636] elle a proposta^[637], porque conhecia a mulher, e era de boas qualidades: “Porque quereis deixar^[638] vossa mulher?” (lhe perguntou o Provisor): “Não he virtuosa?”—“Sim, senhor”; respondeo o homem. —“Não he rica?”—“Sim, senhor.” Emfim^[639] a todas as cousas, sobre que era perguntado, respondia em abono seu. Com que lhe disse o Provisor: “Pois se vossa mulher tem tantas cousas boas, porque quereis desquitar-vos della?” A isto o homem, descalçando^[640] um sapato^[641], perguntou ao Provisor: “Senhor, este sapato não he novo?”—“Sim”, respondeo o Provisor. Accrescentou^[642]: “não está bem feito^[643]?”—“Sim, ao que parece”, respondeo o Provisor.—“Não he de bom cordavão, e de boa sola?”—Respondeo do mesmo modo que sim. “Pois vê Vossa Mercê com tudo isso^[644]” (disse o descontente marido^[645]), “pois eu quero tirar este sapato, e calçar outro, porque eu sei muito bem aonde^[646] me aperta^[647], e faz mancar^[648], e Vossa Mercê não o sabe.”

11. Botocudos.

Estes Indios dominão^[649] na cordilheira^[650] habitada^[651] por seus maiores^[652] os Aimorés, de cuja^[653] barbaridade ainda guardão sementes. Quando os Portuguezes começárão^[654] a povoar^[655] o Brazil tiverão de guerrear com os ferozes^[656] Aimorés, a quem dizem^[657] que derão^[658] o nome de Botocudos, de boto, e codea^[659], por isso que os Indios desta nação^[660] erão rolhos, e trazião^[661] o corpo^[662] coberto d’uma codea de gomma^[663] copal com que se pintavão^[664] para se preservarem das ferretoadas^[665] dos mosquitos e outros insectos. Os Botocudos são mais brancos^[666] que a maior parte dos demais^[667] Indios do Brazil, porém, como seus ascendentes os Aimorés, costumão^[668] pintar a cara^[669] e mais partes do corpo. Dividem-se em varias tribus ou cabildas^[670], cada^[671] uma com seu cabo^[672], que tem um poder^[673] absoluto sobre os seus^[674] em os negocios de maior importancia como são a caça^[675], a guerra^[676] e a escolha^[677] de uma nova morada^[678]; mas na aldea^[679] limita-se toda a sua autoridade a compôr as desavenças que são entre elles mui frequentes. Este lugar não he hereditario, escolhe-se para elle o mais bravo, e por vezes^[680]

o mais atrevido^[681] se proclama por chefe da tribo, sobre tudo se por ventura o que os commandava vem a morrer. Os Botocudos tem as espadoas^[682] largas, o pescoço^[683] curto, o nariz^[684] chato, as maçãs^[685] do rosto proeminentes, os pés^[686] pequenos, as extremidades inferiores delgadas^[687], mas nervosas. Furão as orelhas^[688], e o beijo inferior^[689], e enfião no buraco^[690] uma rodella de pão^[691]. São vingativos^[692] e traidores^[693], posto que têm um exterior alegre e um ar^[694] de franqueza. Não tem especie alguma de culto; considerão^[695] o sol^[696] como uma divindade a que chamão^[697], e reverencião ainda mais a lua^[698], quando com sua luz os protege em suas excursões nocturnas. Amão e imitão as ceremonias religiosas dos christãos, quanto isto póde compadecer-se com a vida nomada que fazem, assim que são de todos os Indios os que mais custão a civilizar-se.

As grutas^[699] do inferno^[700].

Deo-se^[701] este nome ás cavernas naturaes que se achão^[702] na montanha em que estão assentadas a povoação e fortaleza^[703] da Nova-Coimbra, na provincia de Mato-Grosso e sobre a margem direita^[704] do Paraguai. No vertente^[705] septentrional^[706] da montanha existe uma abertura que dá passo^[707] a duas especies de antecamaras, 1 de braça^[708] e meia de comprido^[709], e 1 de largo^[710], e outra algum tanto maior. Desce-se para ellas por uma ladeira que tem obra de 20 braças de comprimento^[711], guarnecida de estalactitas, que provêm da filtração continua da abobada. No cabo^[712] da ladeira entra-se n'uma salla parecida com uma mesquita^[713], de cuja abobada pendem estalactitas de diferentes fórmãs e tamanhos^[714], e o mesmo se observa no chão. A' esquerda^[715] a parede se acha revestida d'uma incrustação d'espalto, que com o reflexo da luz arremeda uma soberba cascata. Póde esta salla ter 50 braças de comprido e 1S de largo, e no fundo della existe um espaço de 6 braças pelo menos coberto d'agua limpida porém de máo sabor^[716], que dá da parte de fóra^[717] origem a um ribeiro^[718] represado frequentemente pelas aguas do Paraguai, nas cheias^[719] que alagão todos os annos por varias vezes os campos vizinhos.

Os naturaes^[720] do paiz não se atreviã^[721] a entrar n'estas grutas que forão pela primeira vez exploradas pelo engenheiro^[722] Ricardo Franco d'Almeida Serra, em 1791, levando em sua companhia o naturalista Alexandre Rodriguez Ferreira que as debuxou^[723] e descreveo^[724]. Em 1795, varias pessoas^[725] curiosas entrã^[725]o n'ellas e com farchas virão que no ribeiro que as aguas ali formavão havião jacarés^[726], e que um d'elles tinha uma pata de menos.

Updated editions will replace the previous one—the old editions will be renamed.

Creating the works from print editions not protected by U.S. copyright law means that no one owns a United States copyright in these works, so the Foundation (and you!) can copy and distribute it in the United States without permission and without paying copyright royalties. Special rules, set forth in the General Terms of Use part of this license, apply to copying and distributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works to protect the PROJECT GUTENBERG™ concept and trademark. Project Gutenberg is a registered trademark, and may not be used if you charge for an eBook, except by following the terms of the trademark license, including paying royalties for use of the Project Gutenberg trademark. If you do not charge anything for copies of this eBook, complying with the trademark license is very easy. You may use this eBook for nearly any purpose such as creation of derivative works, reports, performances and research. Project Gutenberg eBooks may be modified and printed and given away—you may do practically ANYTHING in the United States with eBooks not protected by U.S. copyright law. Redistribution is subject to the trademark license, especially commercial redistribution.

START: FULL LICENSE

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG™ LICENSE

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase “Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, "Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation."
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
