LITERARY CURIOSITIES

Part 6.

P R E F A C E

TO THE FIFTH EDITION.

FIRST SERIES.

THE past has a charm for Americans, as well as for the inhabitants of countries whose history extends far into the shadowy and unknown; our early and romantic past has the merit of being known and truly related; everything which adds to these truths is sought for with avidity by the curious and intelligent inquirer. We have now many autograph collectors, who may be viewed in the light of preservers of documents which would otherwise perish or be dispersed; to few, comparatively, are their treasures revealed. It was suggested, therefore, that a few of the most rare and curious "Historical and Literary Curiosities" in the possession of individuals, should be grouped for the amusement and instruction of the present and of future generations, who may well know from printed accounts what things were done, but who can also thus learn how they were done.

Nearly all the articles in the present collection have been taken by competent artists from the originals of which they purport to be fac-similes. Considerable labor and trouble have been expended in collecting together the varied materials here presented; but it has been with the Editors a "labor of love," rewarded by the pleasure of the pursuit.

The work having been received with extraordinary favor by the public, and a fifth edition being called for, some additions and alterations have been made, which will create increased interest in the volume.

J. JAY SMITH,
JOHN F. WATSON.

* * Fully to understand the work, it is necessary, in turning over the pages, to have constant reference to the Table of Contents, where will be found many explanations for which space could not be found on the plates.

NOTE TO THE SIXTH EDITION.

Notwithstanding the announcement in the second series of this work that the first would not be reprinted, the public has demanded a sixth edition, which has been entirely redrawn, and many highly interesting additions have been made.

PHILADELPHIA, October, 1860.

T O T H E Delaware Pilots.

WE took the Pleasure, some Days since, of kindly admonishing you to do your Duty; if perchance you should meet with the (Tea,) SHIP POLLY, CAPTAIN AYRES; a THREE DECKER which is hourly expected.

We have now to add, that Matters ripen fast here; and that much is expected from those Lads who meet with the Tea Ship.---There is some Talk of A HANDSOME REWARD FOR THE PILOT WHO GIVES THE FIRST GOOD ACCOUNT OF HER.---How that may be, we cannot for certain determine: But ALL agree, that TAR and FEATHERS will be his Portion, who pilots her into this Harbour. And we will answer for ourselves, that, whoever is committed to us, as an Offender against the Rights of America, will experience the utmost Exertion of our Abilities; as

THE COMMITTEE FOR TARRING AND FEATHERING.

P. S. We expect you will furnish yourselves with Copies of the foregoing and following Letter; which are printed for this Purpose, that the Pilot who meets with Captain Ayres may favor him with a Sight

Committee of Taring and Feathering.

T O Capt. AYRES,

Of the SHIP P O L L Y, on a Voyage from London to Philadelphia,

S I R,

WE are informed that you have, imprudently, taken Charge of a Quantity of Tea; which has been sent out by the India Company, under the Auspices of the Ministry, as a Trial of American Virtue and Resolution.

Now, as your Cargo, on your Arrival here, will most assuredly bring you into hot water; and as you are perhaps a Stranger to these Parts, we have concluded to advise you of the present Situation of Affairs in Philadelphia---that, taking Time by the Forelock, you may stop short in your dangerous Errand---secure your Ship against the Rafts of combustible Matter which may be set on Fire, and turned loose against her; and more than all this, that you may preserve your own Person, from the Pitch and Feathers that are prepared for you.

In the first Place, we must tell you, that the Pennsylvanians are, to a Man, passionately fond of Freedom; the Birthright of Americans; and at all Events are determined to enjoy it.

That they sincerely believe, no Power on the Face of the Earth has a Right to tax them without their Consent,

That in their Opinion, the Tea in your Custody is designed by the Ministry to enforce such a Tax, which they will undoubtedly oppose; and in so doing, give you every possible Obstruction.

We are nominated to a very disagreeable, but necessary Service.--- To our Care are committed all Offenders against the Rights of America; and hapless is he, whose evil Destiny has doomed him to suffer at our Hands.

You are sent out on a diabolical Service; and if you are so foolish and obstinate as to compleat your Voyage; by bringing your Ship to Anchor in this Port; you may run such a Gauntlet, as will induce you, in your last Moments, most heartily to curse those who have made you the Dupe of their Avarice and Ambition.

What think you Captain, of a Halter around your Neck---ten Gallons of liquid Tar decanted on your Pate---with the Feathers of a dozen wild Geese laid over that to enliven your Appearance?

Only think seriously of this---and fly to the Place from whence you came--- fly without Hesitation--- without the Formality of a Protest---and above all, Captain Ayres let us advise you to fly without the wild Geese Feathers.

Your Friends to serve

Philadelphia, Nov. 27, 1773

THE COMMITTEE as before subscribed.

This song was written in the Summer of 1798 when a war with France was thought to be inevitable Congress being then in session in Philadelphia deliberating upon that important subject - ^{and acts of hostility having actually commenced} - The contest between England & France was raging, and the people of the United States were divided into parties for the one side or the other, some thinking that policy and duty required us to take part with republican France, as she was called others were for connecting ourselves with England, under the belief that she was the great preservation power of good principles and safe government. The violation of our rights by both belligerents was forcing us from the ^{first} ~~past~~ ^{past} ~~war~~ ^{policy} of President Washington, which was to do equal justice to both, to take part with neither, but to keep a strict honest neutrality between them. The prospect of a rupture with France was exceedingly offensive to the portion of the people which espoused her cause and the violence of the spirit of party has never risen higher. I think not so high as it did at that time on that question - The Theatre was then open in our city a young man belonging to it whose talent was as a singer was about to take his benefit - I had known him when he was at school. On this acquaintance he called on me on Saturday afternoon, his benefit being announced for the following Monday - he said he had no taxes taken yet his prospect was that he should suffer a loss instead of receiving a benefit from the performance, but that if he could get a patriotic song adapted to the tune of the "President's March" - then he popular air he did not doubt of a full house, that the poets of the theatrical corps had been trying to accomplish it, but were satisfied that no words could be composed to suit the music of that March - I told him I would try for him. He came the next afternoon and the song, such as it is, was ready for him. It was announced on Monday morning and the Theatre was crowded to its cells and so continued night after night for the rest of the season, the song being ^{repeated} ~~repeated~~ ^{repeated} ~~repeated~~ many times each night the audience forming in the Chorus - It was also sung at night through the streets by large assemblies of boys, including members of Congress - The enthusiasm was general, and the song was heard, I may say, in every part of the United States -

The object of the Author was to get up an American spirit, which should be independent of and above the interests, passions and policy of both belligerents, and look and feel exclusively for our own honour and rights. Not an allusion is made either to France or England or the quarrel between them or to which was the most in fault in their treatment of us. Of course the song found favour with both parties, at least neither could disavow the sentiments it inculcated. It was truly American and nothing else, and the patriotic feelings of every American heart responded to it -

Such is the history of this song, which has endured universally beyond any expectation of the Author and beyond any merit boast of except that of being truly and exclusively patriotic in its sentiments and spirit.

The song was written (Aug 24. 1840) ^{for the} at the request of "Wynning Band" at Wellesbarre, who had requested the Author to give them an account of the occasion for which "Hail Columbia" was composed.

Profile of Thomas Moore
the Poet.Cut at the
Philadelphia MuseumNew York Monday July 2^d 1842

My dear Denny. I have scarcely found a moments leisure since I left my friends in Philadelphia to tell how warmly I remember them and how much I regret the very hopeless farewell I have taken - but I trust they will do me the justice to believe that they live in my recollection and that over the wide waters of the Atlantic shall be no letter to the landings of my gratitude ~~etc~~ The Falls of the Niagara delighted me extremely & I feel quite indebted to Mr Meredith for having urged me to visit them - Niagara (what Shakespeare my resolution to see) must be almost too tremendous to produce sensations of pleasure - I know not whether it is, that I feel the magnificence of Nature to an excess almost painful or that I have some kind of kindred affection for her miniature productions but certainly I rather dread such grandeur as those of Niagara, and turn with more pleasure to the "minora sidera" of Creation - You remember Athenside - But Walter Long's all on the Niagara &c &c -

I have mentioned you comme se faut in a letter to Mrs Perry, which (as you will have a formal presentation from Thoroton) is, I think the most certain way of making you "en gages" at once -

Tomorrow I think of setting out for Albany and shall be obliged I suppose to give up all expectation of hearing from you till I reach Halifax when you must direct for me "to the care of S^r Andrew Mitchell &c &c &c" -

I shall have but time now to transmit you a little poem which I wrote on my way from Philadelphia and which I beg you will give to Mrs Hopkinson with my best regards at the same time to her and her very amiable husband - I am looking anxiously for living -

Yours my dear Denny
very sincerely
Thomas Moore.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.

TO THE Delaware Pilots.

WE took the Pleasure, some Days since, of kindly admonishing you to do your Duty; if perchance you should meet with the (Tea,) SHIP POLLY, CAPTAIN AYRES; a THREE DECKER which is hourly expected.

We have now to add, that Matters ripen fast here; and that much is expected from those Lads who meet with the Tea Ship.---There is some Talk of A HANDSOME REWARD FOR THE PILOT WHO GIVES THE FIRST GOOD ACCOUNT OF HER.---How that may be, we cannot for certain determine: But ALL agree, that TAR and FEATHERS will be his Portion, who pilots her into this Harbour. And we will answer for ourselves, that, whoever is committed to us, as an Offender against the Rights of America, will experience the utmost Exertion of our Abilities; as

THE COMMITTEE FOR TARRING AND FEATHERING.

P. S. We expect you will furnish yourselves with Copies of the foregoing and following Letter; which are printed for this Purpose, that the Pilot who meets with Captain Ayres may favor him with a Sight

Committee of Taring and Feathering.

T O Capt. AYRES,

Of the SHIP P O L L Y, on a Voyage from London to Philadelphia,

S I R,

WE are informed that you have, imprudently, taken Charge of a Quantity of Tea; which has been sent out by the India Company, under the Auspices of the Ministry, as a Trial of American Virtue and Resolution.

Now, as your Cargo, on your Arrival here, will most assuredly bring you into hot water; and as you are perhaps a Stranger to these Parts, we have concluded to advise you of the present Situation of Affairs in Philadelphia---that, taking Time by the Forelock, you may stop short in your dangerous Errand---secure your Ship against the Rafts of combustible Matter which may be set on Fire, and turned loose against her; and more than all this, that you may preserve your own Person, from the Pitch and Feathers that are prepared for you.

In the first Place, we must tell you, that the Pennsylvanians are, to a Man, passionately fond of Freedom; the Birthright of Americans; and at all Events are determined to enjoy it.

That they sincerely believe, no Power on the Face of the Earth has a Right to tax them without their Consent,

That in their Opinion, the Tea in your Custody is designed by the Ministry to enforce such a Tax, which they will undoubtedly oppose; and in so doing, give you every possible Obstruction.

We are nominated to a very disagreeable, but necessary Service.--- To our Care are committed all Offenders against the Rights of America; and hapless is he, whose evil Destiny has doomed him to suffer at our Hands.

You are sent out on a diabolical Service; and if you are so foolish and obstinate as to compleat your Voyage; by bringing your Ship to Anchor in this Port; you may run such a Gauntlet, as will induce you, in your last Moments, most heartily to curse those who have made you the Dupe of their Avarice and Ambition.

What think you Captain, of a Halter around your Neck---ten Gallons of liquid Tar decanted on your Pate---with the Feathers of a dozen wild Geese laid over that to enliven your Appearance?

Only think seriously of this---and fly to the Place from whence you came--- fly without Hesitation--- without the Formality of a Protest---and above all, Captain Ayres let us advise you to fly without the wild Geese Feathers.

Philadelphia, Nov. 27, 1773

This song was written in the summer of 1798 when a war with France was thought to be inevitable, Congress being then in session in Philadelphia deliberating upon that important subject ^{and acts of hostility having actually commenced} - The contest between England & France was raging, and the people of the United States were divided into parties for the one side or the other, some thinking that policy and duty required us to take part with republican France, as she was called others were for connecting ourselves with England, under the belief that she was the great preservation power of good principles and safe government. The violation of our rights by both belligerents was forcing us from the ^{just} ~~poor~~ ^{policy} of President Washington, which was to do equal justice to both, to take part with neither, but to keep a strict honest neutrality between them. The prospect of a rupture with France was exceedingly offensive to the portion of the people which espoused her cause and the violence of the spirit of party has never risen higher. I think not so high as it did at that time on that question - The Theatre was then open in our city. A young man belonging to it whose talent was as a singer was about to take his benefit - I had known him when he was at school. On this acquaintance he called on me on Saturday afternoon, his benefit being announced for the following Monday - he said he had no taxes taken yet his prospect was that he should suffer a loss instead of receiving a benefit from the performance, but that if he could get a patriotic song adapted to the tune of the "President's March" - then he popular air he did not doubt of a full house, that the poets of the theatrical Corps had been trying to accomplish it, but were satisfied that no words could be composed to suit the music of that March - I told him I would try for him. He came the next afternoon and the song, such as it is, was ready for him. It was announced on Monday morning and the Theatre was crowded to its cells and so continued night after night for the rest of the season, the song being encored & repeated many times each night, the audience forming in the Chorus - It was also sung at night through the streets by large assemblies of boys, including members of Congress - The enthusiasm was general, and the song was heard, I may say, in every part of the United States -

The object of the Author was to get up an American Spirit, which should be independent of and above the interests, passions and policy of both belligerents, and look and feel exclusively for our own honour and rights. Not an allusion is made either to France or England or the quarrel between them or to which was the most in fault in their treatment of us. Of course the song found favour with both parties, at least neither could disavow the sentiment it inculcated. It was truly American and nothing else, and the patriotic feeling of every American heart responded to it -

Such is the history of this song, which has endured unimpaired beyond any expectation of the Author, and beyond any merit boast of except that of being truly and exclusively patriotic in its sentiments and spirit.

The foregoing was written (Aug 24. 1840) ^{for the} at the request of "Wynning Bond" at Wilkesbarre, who had requested the Author to give them an account of the occasion for which "Hail Columbia" was composed.

Profile of Thomas Moore
the Poet.Cut at the
Philadelphia MuseumNew York Monday July 2^d 1842

My dear Denny. I have scarcely found a moments leisure since I left my friends in Philadelphia to tell how warmly I remember them and how much I regret the very hopeful farewell I have taken - but I trust they will do me the justice to believe that they live in my recollection and that over the wide waters of the Atlantic shall be no letter to the landings of my gratitude. The Falls of the Niagara delighted me extremely & I feel quite indebted to Mr Meredith for having urged me to visit them - Niagara (what Shore resound my resolution to see) must be almost too tremendous to produce sensations of pleasure - I know not whether it is, that I feel the magnificence of Nature to an excess almost painful or that I have some kind of kindred affection for her miniature productions but certainly I rather dread such grandeur as those of Niagara, and turn with more pleasure to the "minora sidera" of Creation - You remember Athenside - But Walter Long's all on the Niagara &c &c -

I have mentioned you comme se faut in a letter to Mrs Perry, which (as you will have a formal presentation from Thoroton) is, I think the most certain way of making you "un grege" at once -

Tomorrow I think of setting out for Albany and shall be obliged I suppose to give up all expectation of hearing from you till I reach Halifax when you must direct for me "to the care of S^r Andrew Mitchell &c &c &c" -

I shall have but time now to transmit you a little poem which I wrote on my way from Philadelphia and which I beg you will give to Mrs Hopkenson with my best regards at the same time to her and her very amiable husband - I am looking anxiously for living -

Yours my dear Denny
very sincerely
Thomas Moore.
