This e-text includes characters that will only display in UTF-8 (Unicode) file encoding:

ā ē ī ō ū (long vowels, printed with macron/overline) ẹ (e with dot under, used in reading passages) ȝ (z with hook)

A few additional characters are used only in the historical introduction, and may be disregarded if they present problems, as may the two or three Greek words:

ḃ, ȝ, χ, η (b with line through stem; ezh; chi; eng)

If any of these characters do not display properly—in particular, if the diacritic does not appear directly above the letter—or if the apostrophes and quotation marks in this paragraph appear as garbage, you may have an incompatible browser or unavailable fonts. First, make sure that the browser's "character set" or "file encoding" is set to Unicode (UTF-8). You may also need to change your browser's default font.

Punctuation in the Glossary has been silently regularized. Typographical errors are shown with mouse-hover popups.

EXTRACTS FROM THE PREFACES TO THE FIRST AND SECOND EDITIONS

THE present book has been written in the hope that it will serve as an elementary introduction to the larger German works on the subject from which I have appropriated whatever seemed necessary for the purpose. In the grammar much aid has been derived from Paul's Mittelhochdeutsche Grammatik, second edition, Halle, 1884, and Weinhold's Mittelhochdeutsche Grammatik, second edition, Paderborn, 1883. The former work, besides containing by far the most complete syntax, is also the only Middle High German Grammar which is based on the present state of German Philology.... I believe that the day is not far distant when English students will take a much more lively interest in the study of their own and the other Germanic languages (especially German and Old Norse) than has hitherto been the case. And if this little book should contribute anything towards furthering the cause, it will have amply fulfilled its purpose.

WHEN I wrote the preface to the first edition of this primer in 1888, I ventured to predict that the interest of English students in the subject would grow and develop as time went on, but I hardly expected that it would grow so much that a second edition of the book would be required within so short a period. It has been revised throughout, and several changes have been made in the phonology, but I have not thought it advisable to alter the general plan and scope of the former edition. After many years of personal experience as a teacher and examiner in the older periods of the German language, I have become firmly convinced that the larger books on the subject contain too many details for beginners. I feel sure that the easiest and best way to acquire a thorough knowledge of Middle High German is to start with an elementary book like the present, and then to learn the details of the grammar, especially the phonology of the various dialects, from a more advanced work.

PREFACE TO THE THIRD EDITION

IN the preparation of the new edition, I have steadily kept in view the class of students for whom the book was originally written. When the first edition appeared twenty-eight years ago, there were very few students in this country who took up the serious study of the older periods of the various Germanic languages at the Universities. In late years, however, the interest in the study of these languages has grown so much that Honour Courses and Examinations in them have been established at all our Universities. The result is that a book even intended for beginners can now reasonably be expected to be of a higher standard than the previous editions of this Primer. The grammatical introduction has accordingly been entirely rewritten and expanded to more than twice its original size. The texts have also been nearly doubled by the addition of eighteen poems from Walther von der Vogelweide, and selections from Reinmar, Ulrich von Lichtenstein, and Wolfram von Eschenbach.

The greater part of Middle High German literature is so excellent and interesting that most students, who have mastered the grammatical introduction and read the texts in the Primer, will doubtless desire to continue the subject. Such students should procure a copy of either the Mittelhochdeutsche Grammatik by Hermann Paul, eighth edition, Halle, 1911, or the Mittelhochdeutsches Elementarbuch by Victor Michels, second edition, Heidelberg, 1912, where the Grammar, especially the phonology and syntax, can be studied in greater detail. They should also procure a copy of the Mittelhochdeutsches Taschenwörterbuch by Matthias Lexer, tenth edition, Leipzig, 1910, and also have access to the two standard Middle High German dictionaries—Mittelhochdeutsches Wörterbuch mit Benutzung des Nachlasses von Georg Friedrich Benecke, ausgearbeitet von Wilhelm Müller und Friedrich Zarncke, drei Bände, Leipzig, 1854-61, and Mittelhochdeutsches Wörterbuch, von Matthias Lexer, zugleich als Supplement und alphabetischer Index zum Mittelhochdeutschen Wörterbuch von Benecke-Müller-Zarncke, drei Bände, Leipzig, 1872-78. An excellent bibliography of the best editions of the Middle High German texts— classified according to the dialects in which they were written— will be found on pp. 20-35 of Michels' Elementarbuch.

May the new edition of the Primer continue to further the study of the subject in the future to the same extent as it has done in the past!

JOSEPH WRIGHT.

GRAMMAR

INTRODUCTION

MIDDLE HIGH GERMAN

§ 1.

MIDDLE HIGH GERMAN (MHG.) embraces the High German language from about the year 1100 to 1500. It is divided into three great dialect-groups: Upper German, Franconian, and East Middle German.

1. Upper German is divided into: (a) Alemanic, embracing High Alemanic (Switzerland), and Low Alemanic (South Baden, Swabia, and Alsace). (b) Bavarian, extending over Bavaria and those parts of Austria where German is spoken.

2. Franconian (West Middle German), which is subdivided into Upper Franconian and Middle Franconian. Upper Franconian consists of East Franconian (the old duchy of Francia Orientalis) and Rhenish Franconian (the old province of Francia Rhinensis), Middle Franconian extending over the district along the banks of the Moselle and of the Rhine from Coblenz to Düsseldorf.

3. East Middle German, extending over: Thuringia, Upper Saxony, and Silesia.

Since it is impossible to deal with all these dialects in an elementary book like the present, we shall confine ourselves almost exclusively to Upper German, and shall only deal with that period of Middle High German which extends from about 1200 to 1300.

PHONOLOGY

CHAPTER I

THE VOWELS

§ 2. MHG. had the following simple vowels and diphthongs:—

Short vowels a, ä, ë, e, i, o, u, ö, ü.

Long vowels ā, æ, ē, ī, ō, ū, œ, iu.

Diphthongs ei, ie, ou, uo, öu (eu), üe.

NOTE.— ē represents primitive Germanic e (= Gr. ε, Lat. e, as in Gr. δέκα, Lat. decem, MHG. zēhen, ten) and is generally written ē in Old and Middle High German grammars, in order to distinguish it from the OHG. umlaut-e (§ 10). The former was an open sound like the e in English bed, whereas the latter was a close sound like the é in French été. ā was a very open sound nearly like the a in English hat, and arose in MHG. from the i-umlaut of a (§ 10). Good MHG. poets do not rhyme Germanic ē with the umlaut-e, and the distinction between the two sounds is still preserved in many NHG. dialects. In like manner the modern Bavarian and Austrian dialects still distinguish between ā and ē. In the MHG. period ā, ē, and e were kept apart in Bavarian, but in Alemanic and Middle German ā and ē seem to have fallen together in ē or possibly ā, as the two sounds frequently rhyme with each other in good poets. MHG. texts do not always preserve in writing the distinction between the old umlaut-e and the MHG. umlaut-ā, both being often written e in the same text.

PRONUNCIATION OF THE VOWELS.

§ 3. The approximate pronunciation of the above vowels and diphthongs was as follows:—

|           |                       |                |                                     |

| ū  | „ „                   | „ fool         | hūs , house .         |
| ö  | „ „                   | NHG. löcher    | löcher , holes .      |
| œ  | „ „                   | „ schön        | schoene , beautiful . |
| ü  | „ „                   | „ füllen       | vüllen , to fill .    |
| iu | „ „                   | „ müde         | hiuser , houses .     |
| ei | = e + i |                | stein , stone .       |
| ie | = i + e |                | knie , knee .         |

|                |                     |                                       |
|----------------|---------------------|---------------------------------------|
| ou      | = o + u      | ouge , eye .            |
| öu (eu) | = ö or e + ü | dröuwen , to threaten . |
| üe      | = ü + e      | grüezen , to greet .    |
| uo      | = u + o      | bruoder , brother .     |

To the above list should be added the MHG. e in unaccented syllables, which mostly arose from the weakening of the OHG. full vowels, as OHG. zunga, tongue, hirti, shepherd, namo, name, fridu, peace = MHG. zunge, hirte, name, fride; OHG. habēn, to have, scōnī, beauty, salbōn, to anoint, zungūn, tongues = MHG. haben, schœne, salben, zungen. The e in this position was pronounced like the -e in NHG. zunge, name, friede, &c.

THE OHG. EQUIVALENTS OF THE MHG. VOWELS.

§ 5. The following are the OHG. equivalents of the MHG. short vowels, long vowels and diphthongs of accented syllables:—

1. The short vowels a, ë, e, i, o, u = the corresponding OHG. short vowels, as tac, day, gast, guest, bant, he bound, gap, he gave = OHG. tag, gast, bant, gab.

sun, son, wurm, worm, gebunden, bound = OHG. sunu, wurm, gibuntan.

ä is the umlaut of a before certain consonant combinations which prevented umlaut from taking place in OHG., as mähte, powers, hältet, he holds, wärmen, to warm = OHG. mahti, haltit, warmen from *warmjan (§ 10). It also occurs in derivatives ending in -lich and -līn, as mänlich, manly, tägelich, daily, väterlīn, dim. of vater, father; and in words which originally had an i in the third syllable, the vowel of the second syllable having become i by assimilation, as mägede, maids, zäher(e), tears = OHG. magadi, zahari.

ü is the umlaut of OHG. u, as dünne, thin, süne, sons, züge, I might draw = OHG. dunni, sunī, zugī.

2. The long vowels ā, ē, ī, ō, ū = the corresponding OHG. long vowels, as sāt, seed, slāfen, to sleep, nāmen, we took, dāhte, he thought = OHG. sāt, slāfan, nāmum, dāhta.

sēle, soul, mēre, more, lēren, to teach = OHG. sēla, mēro, lēren.

wīp, wife, sīn, his, bīzen, to bite = OHG. wīb, sīn, bīzan.

æ is the umlaut of OHG. ā, as lære, empty, næme, thou tookest = OHG. lāri, nāmi.

œ is the umlaut of OHG. ō, as schœne, beautiful, hœher, higher, hœren, to hear = OHG. scōni, hōhiro, hōren from *hōrjan older *hausjan.

= (2) the umlaut of OHG. ū, as hiuser, houses, briute, brides = OHG. hūsir, brūti.

3. The diphthongs ei, ou, uo = the corresponding OHG. diphthongs, as bein, bone, leiten, to lead, schreip, I wrote = OHG. bein, leiten, screib.

bruoder, brother, stuont, I stood, vuor, I went = OHG. bruoder, stuont, fuor.

ie = (1) OHG. ie (diphthong) older ia, ea, ē (Germanic ē), as hier, here, miete, pay, reward, gienc, I went = OHG. hier, mieta, gieng.

= (2) OHG. io (Germanic eu), as bieten, to offer, liep, dear = OHG. biotan, liob.

= (3) the OHG. io which occurs in the preterite of the old reduplicated verbs whose presents have ou, ō, uo (§ 87), as inf. loufen, to run, stōzen, to push, ruofen, to call, preterite lief, stiez, rief = OHG. liof, stioz, riof.

= (4) Upper German iu (OHG. io) before labials and gutturals, as liup, dear, tiuf, deep, siuch, sick, liugen, to tell a lie = liep, tief, siech, liegen.

öu (eu) is the umlaut of OHG. ou, as löuber, leaves, löufel, runner = OHG. loubir, loufil.

UNACCENTED VOWELS AND UMLAUT.

§ 6. The two most characteristic differences between OHG. and MHG. are: (1) the spread of umlaut (§ 10); (2) the weakening and partial loss of vowels in unaccented syllables.

1. THE WEAKENING OF UNACCENTED VOWELS.

§ 7. The short vowels a, i, o, u, and the long vowels ē, ī, ō, ū were weakened to e. This e was pronounced like the final -e in NHG. leute, see § 3. Examples are:—

fridu, peace, dat. sing. gēbu, to a gift, nimu, I take = MHG. fride, gēbe, nime; dat. pl. tagum, to days, nāmum, we took = MHG. tagen, nāmen.

Nom. sing. masc. blintēr, blind, unsēr, our, habēn, to have, nēmēm, we may take = MHG. blinder, unser, haben, nēmen.

scōnī, beauty = MHG. schoene; sālīg, blessed, nāmīm, we might take = MHG. sælec, næmen.

Gen. dat. acc. sing., nom. acc. pl. zungūn = MHG. zungen.

§ 8. The vowel in suffixal and derivative syllables was generally weakened to e just as in the inflexional syllables, but in some suffixal and derivative syllables which had a secondary accent the vowel was not weakened to e. This was especially the case with derivatives in -ære (denoting nomina agentis), -inne, -inc (-ing), linc (-ling), diminutives in -īn and -līn, abstract nouns in -nisse (-nusse, -nüsse), -unge. In others the vowel fluctuated between the full vowel and e, as in -isch beside -esch; -ic (= OHG. -ag, and -īg) beside -ec; superlative of adjectives -ist (= OHG. -ist) beside -est (= OHG. -ōst); -sal beside -sel. Beside the full forms -līch, -rīch occurred the shortened forms -lich, -rich.

The OHG. endings of the present participle -anti, -enti, -ōnti, ēnti regularly became -ende, but -ant occurs in a few old participles which had become nouns, as heilant, Saviour, wīgant, warrior, vīant beside vīent (vīnt), fiend, enemy. Examples are: gartenære, gardener, schepfære, creator, schrībære, scribe.

bezzerrunge, improvement, handelunge, action, mëldunge, announcement.

Dietrīch, Heinrīch, beside -rich.

The OHG. pronominal ending of the nom. sing. fem. and the nom. acc. pl. neuter remained unweakened, as OHG. blintiu = MHG. blindiu (§ 55).

2. THE LOSS OF UNACCENTED VOWELS.

§ 9. The weakened e regularly disappeared:—

1. After l and r in dissyllables with short stems, as ar, older are (OHG. aro), eagle, acc. gen. dat. arn, beside name, name, namen; wol, older wole (OHG. wola), well; gar (OHG. garo), ready, milch (OHG. milih), milk, zal (OHG. zala), number; kil, quill, gen. kil(e)s, dat. kil, pl. nom. acc. kil, dat. kil(e)n, beside tac, day, gen. tages, dat. tage, pl. nom. acc. tage, dat. tagen; bërn, to bear, stëln, to steal, nern, to rescue, pres. sing. stil, stils(t), stilt; ner, ners(t), nert, beside hœren, to hear, pres. sing. hœre, hœres(t), hœret.

hērisōn), to rule, zierde (OHG. ziarida), adornment, wandelte (OHG. wantalōta), I wandered, zwīfeln (OHG. zwīfalōn), to doubt, wundern (OHG. wuntarōn), to wonder, schœenste (OHG. scōnisto), most beautiful, diente, diende (OHG. dionōta), I served; dienest, service, gen. dienstes; engel, angel, gen. engel(e)s, dat. engel(e), pl. nom. acc. gen. engel(e), dat. engel(e)n, and similarly with words like acker, acre, lūter, clear, buosem, bosom, heiden, heathen; grœzer (OHG. grōzīro), greater, fem. dat. sing. grœzer (OHG. grōzīru); dat. sing. blindem(e), blind, guotem(e), good = OHG. blintemu, guotemu; gen. pl. blinder(e) = OHG. blintero. After the analogy of forms with long stems it was also dropped in forms with short stems, as pl. nagel, nails, vogel, birds, beside nagele, vogele; wider beside widere (OHG. widaro), wether, dat. sing. disem(e), this, vadem(e), thread, gen. vadem(e)s.

There was however a strong tendency in MHG. for the medial vowel to disappear in trisyllabic forms with long stems irrespectively as to whether they contained a liquid or a nasal, as market, market, gen. marktes; rīchsen (OHG. rīchisōn), to rule, ahte (OHG. ahtōta), he observed, wartte, warte (OHG. wartēta), he waited, vrāgte beside vrāgete (OHG. frāgēta), he asked, dancte beside dankete (OHG. dankōta), he thanked. See § 92.

3. In the medial syllable of trisyllabic forms with long stems having liquids or nasals in successive syllables, as dīme beside dīneme (OHG. dīnemu), dat. of dīn, thy; eime beside ein(e)me (OHG. einemu), dat. of ein, one; hērre, hērre (OHG. hēriro), master; minre beside minner(e) (OHG. minniro), less; tiurre (OHG. tiuriro), dearer.

4. Finally after a nasal, and medially after a nasal before a following t, in forms with short stems, as han(e), cock, nam(e), name, sun (OHG. sun, sunu), son, won(e), I dwell; man(e)t, he admonishes, won(e)t, he dwells, scham(e)t, he shames, nim(e)t, he takes, nēm(e)t, ye take; pret. won(e)te, scham(e)te. In these and similar forms the e was often restored through the influence of forms which regularly preserved the e.

NOTE.— The e, when not preceded by a nasal, was sometimes dropped in verbal forms ending in t. This was especially the case in wirst, wirt older wirdes(t), wirdet; siht, he sees, sēht, ye see, older sihet, sēhet; and often in forms like gilt, vint, spricht, sticht beside giltet, vindet, sprichtet, stichet.

5. The superlative of adjectives often has double forms, the one with the loss of the medial e, and the other with the loss of the final e, as beste, best, ērste, first, græste, greatest, leste, last, min(ne)ste, least, wir(se)ste, worst, beside bezzest(e), ērest(e), græzest(e), lezzest(e), minnest(e), wirsest(e), OHG. bezzisto, ēristo, grōzisto, lezzisto, minnisto, wirsisto.

6. In the unstressed forms of dissyllables, as adv. ane, abe, mite, obe beside the prepositions an, on, ab, of, mit, with, ob, over; dat. sing. dēme, wēme, ime, beside dēm, wēm, im; unde, and, wande, for, because, beside und (unt), wan(d); hërre, vrouwe, beside hër, vrou before proper names and titles.

7. The e in the unaccented verbal prefixes be-, ge- often disappeared before l, n, r, as blīben, to remain, glīch, like, glit, member, glouben, to believe, gnāde, favour, gnanne, namesake, gnuoge, many, grade, quick, grēch, straight, beside belīben, gelīch, gelit, gelouben, genāde, genanne, genuoge, gerade, gerēch; it disappeared before vowels during the OHG. period, as bange, anxious: ange, anxiously, gëzzan p.p. of ëzzan, to eat, gunnan, MHG. gunnen, günnen, to grant.

3. UMLAUT.

§ 10. By umlaut is meant the modification (palatalization) of an accented vowel through the influence of an ī or j which originally stood in the following syllable. The only vowel which underwent this change in OHG. was a, which became close e (§ 2, note).

The change is first met with in OHG. monuments about the middle of the eighth century. In the ninth century the process was practically complete except when the a was followed by certain consonant combinations which prevented umlaut from taking place. These consonant combinations were:

1. ht, hs, or consonant + w, as maht, power, pl. mahti; wahsit, he grows, inf. wahsan; bi-scatwen from *-scatwjan, to shade.

2. In Upper German before l + consonant, before hh, ch (= Germanic k), and often before r + consonant, and before h (= Germanic h), as Upper German haltit beside Upper Franconian heltit, he holds, inf. haltan; UG.

altiro beside UF. eltiro, older; UG. sachit beside UF. sehhit, he quarrels, inf. sachan, Goth. sakan; UG. warmen beside wermen, Goth. warmjan, to warm; UG. slahit beside slehit, he strikes, inf. OHG. slahan, Goth. slahan.

3. In words ending in -nissi, -nissa, or -līh, as firstantnissi, understanding; infancnissa, assumption; kraftlīh, strong; tagalīh, daily.

Umlaut must have taken place earlier in the spoken language than it is expressed in late OHG. and early MHG. manuscripts, because the ī which caused the umlaut was weakened to e in MHG. (§ 7) and j had disappeared except between vowels. The vowels and diphthongs which underwent umlaut in MHG. are a, o, u, ā, ō, ū, ou, uo. The umlaut of all these sounds was completed by about the year 1200.

a > e: gast, guest, pl. geste (OHG. gesti); lamp, lamb, pl. lember (OHG. lembir); inf. graben, to dig, pres. second and third pers. sing. grebes(t), grebet (OHG. grebis, grebit); lanc, long, beside lenge (OHG. lengī), length; brennen, Goth. brannjan, to burn; bette (OHG. beti), bed.

a > ä: From the twelfth century onwards the umlaut of a also occurs—often beside forms without umlaut—in words containing the consonant combinations which prevented umlaut from taking place in OHG., as pl. mähte (OHG. mahti), powers; geslähte (OHG. gislahti), race, generation; wähset (OHG. wahsit), he grows; wärmen (OHG. warmen, older *warmjan), to warm; Upper German älter (OHG. altiro), older; kälte (OHG. kaltī), coldness; hältet (OHG. haltit), he holds; äher (OHG. ahir), ear of corn; slähet (OHG. slahit), he strikes. It also occurs in derivatives ending in -lich, -līn, as mänlich, manly, schämelich, shameful, tägelich, daily, väterlich, fatherly, väterlīn, dim. of vater, father. It is likewise met with in MHG. words which originally had an i in the third syllable, the vowel of the second syllable having become i by assimilation, as frävele (OHG. frafali), bold, pl. mägede (OHG. magadi), maids, pl. zäher(e) (OHG. zahari), tears. See § 2, Note.

o > ö: Although ö, the umlaut of o, is common in MHG. and still commoner in NHG., yet all words containing this umlaut are really new formations due to levelling or analogy, because primitive Germanic u (§ 15) did not become o in OHG. when followed by an ī or j in the next syllable.

Examples are: boc, he-goat, beside dim. böcklīn (OHG. pochilī); dorf, village, beside pl. dörfer; got, God, beside götinne, goddess; hof, court, beside hövesch, courtly; loch (OHG. loh), hole, beside pl. löcher (OHG. lohhir); tohter, daughter, beside dim. töhterlīn; pret. subj. möhte (OHG. mohti), I might; törste (OHG. torsti), I might dare.

u > ü: dünne (OHG. dunni), thin; künne (OHG. kunni), race, generation; pl. süne (OHG. sunī), sons; tür (OHG. turi), door; pret. subj. züge (OHG. zugī), inf. ziehen, to draw.

NOTE.— In Upper German certain consonant combinations often prevented umlaut from taking place where it might be expected. Of these the principal are:—

1. Before a liquid + consonant, as hulde (OHG. huldī), favour; schuldec (OHG. sculdīg), guilty; gedultec (OHG. gidultīg), indulgent; burge (OHG. burgī), dat. of burc, city; sturbe (OHG. sturbi), pret. subj. of stēren, to die; wurfe (OHG. wurfi), pret. subj. of wēren, to throw, cp. 2 above.

2. u fluctuates with ü when followed by a nasal + consonant, as dunken, to seem, umbe, about, wunne, joy, beside dünken, ümbe (OHG. umbi), wünne. This fluctuation is especially common in the pret. subjunctive, as bunde, sunge, beside bünde, sünge, inf. binden, to bind, singen, to sing.

3. u fluctuates with ü when followed by gg, ck, pf, tz, zz, st, ch, and g, as brugge, brügge, brucke, brücke, bridge; mugge, mügge, mucke, mücke, midge; drucken, drücken, to press; hupfen, hüpfen, to hop; schupfen, schüpfen, to push; nutzen, nützen, to use; pret. subj. fluzze, flüzze; schuzze, schüzze, inf. fliezen, to flow, schiezen, to shoot; pl. bruste, brüste, breasts; kuchen, küchen, kitchen; pret. subj. fluge, flüge, inf. fliegen, to fly.

ā > æ: lære (OHG. lāri), empty; mære (OHG. māri), renowned; sæjen (OHG. sājan), to sow; pret. subj. næme (OHG. nāmi), pl. næmen (OHG. nāmīm), inf. nēmen, to take.

ū > iu: pl. briute (OHG. brūti), brides; hiuser (OHG. hūsir), houses.

Traces of the umlaut of ū, written iu (= ü), occur in late OHG. monuments of the tenth century. It is common in the writings of Notker († 1022), as hiute older hūti, skins; chriuter older chrūtir, herbs. In other writings of the tenth to the twelfth century the umlaut of ū is seldom found. Umlaut did

Umlaut of ou did not take place in the combination ouw = OHG. ouw, auw, West Germanic aww, primitive Germanic awj, as frouwe (OHG. frouwa, prim. Germanic *frawjō-), woman; ouwe (OHG. ouwa, auwia, prim. Germanic *a(3)wjō-), meadow; frouwen (OHG. frouwen, prim. Germanic *frawjan), to rejoice, and similarly douwen, to digest, drouwen, to threaten, strouwen, to strew. Forms like fröuwen, döuwen, dröuwen, ströuwen were analogical formations due to the influence of the pres. second and third pers. singular and the preterite which regularly had umlaut; see the Author's Historical German Grammar, § 232.

Umlaut of ou did not take place in Upper German before labials and g, as erlouben, to allow, gelouben, to believe, houbet, head, koufen, to buy, troumen, to dream, toufen, to baptize, bougen, to bend, ougen, to show, beside Middle German erlöuben, gelöuben, höubet, köufen, tröumen, töufen, böugen, öugen.

THE MHG. EQUIVALENTS OF THE OHG. VOWELS.

§ 11. OHG. had the following short vowels, long vowels, and diphthongs:—

|              |                 |                     |                 |            |
|--------------|-----------------|---------------------|-----------------|------------|
| Short Vowels | a, e, ě, | i,           | o,       | u.  |
| Long Vowels  | ā, ē,    | ī,           | ō,       | ū.  |
| Diphthongs   | ei,      | ie (ia, ea), | ou (au), | uo. |
|              |                 | io (eo),     |                 |            |
|              |                 | iu.          |                 |            |

The following are the MHG. equivalents of the above simple vowels and diphthongs in accented syllables:—

1. The short vowels: Apart from the changes caused by umlaut, viz. a to ä, o to ö, u to ü (§ 10), and of ë to e before certain consonants, the OHG. short vowels remained in MHG., as a = (1) MHG. a, as OHG. fater, father, tag, day, faran, to go = MHG. vater, tac, varn.

= (2) MHG. ä, in words containing the consonant combinations which prevented umlaut from taking place in OHG., as OHG. mahti, powers, kaltī, coldness, ahir, ear of corn, warmen, to warm = MHG. mähte, kälte, äher, wärmen, see § 10.

ë = (1) MHG. ë, as OHG. wëg, way, hëlfan, to help, stëlan, to steal = MHG. wëc, hëlfen, stëln.

= (2) MHG. e, before st, sch, and palatal g, as OHG. nëst, nest, swëster, sister = MHG. nest, swester; and similarly, gestern, yesterday, deste, all the more, weste, I knew, dreschen, to thrash, leschen, to go out, degen, warrior; and also in a few words before a following l, as helm, helmet, vels, rock, welch, which, &c.

i = MHG. i, as OHG. fisk, fish, nimu, I take, wizzan, to know = MHG. visch, nime, wizzen.

= (2) MHG. ö, as OHG. lohhir, holes, mohti, I might = MHG. löcher, möhte.

u = (1) MHG. u, as OHG. sunu, sun, son, butum, we offered, buntum, we bound = MHG. sun, buten, bunden.

= (2) MHG. ü, as OHG. dunni, thin, sunī, sons = MHG. dünne, süne.

2. The long vowels: Apart from the changes caused by umlaut, viz. ā to æ, ō to œ, and ū to iu (§ 10), the OHG. long vowels remained in MHG., as ā = (1) MHG. ā, as OHG. sāt, seed, slāfan, to sleep, dāhta, I thought = MHG. sāt, slāfen, dāhte.

= (2) MHG. æ, as OHG. lāri, empty, nāmi, I might take = MHG. lære, næme.

ē = MHG. ē, as OHG. ēra, honour, lēren, to teach, sēla, soul = MHG. ēre, lēren, sēle.

ō = (1) MHG. ō, as OHG. ōra, ear, tōd, death, kōs, I chose = MHG. ōre, tōt, kōs.

= (2) MHG. œ, as OHG. hōhiro, higher, hōren, to hear, scōni, beautiful = MHG. hœher, hœren, schœne.

ū = (1) MHG. ū, as OHG. hūs, house, rūm, room, dūhta, it seemed = MHG. hūs, rūm, dūhte.

= (2) MHG. iu, as OHG. hūsir, houses, brūti, brides = MHG. hiuser, briute.

3. The diphthongs:

ei = MHG. ei, as OHG. bein, bone, leiten, to lead, sneid, I cut = MHG. bein, leiten, sneit.

ie (older ia, ea = Germanic ē) = MHG. ie, as OHG. hier, here, mieta, reward, hielt, I held, hiez, I called, slief, I slept = MHG. hier, miete, hielt, hiez, slief.

io (eo) = Germanic eu (§ 16), and the io (eo) in the preterites of the old reduplicated verbs whose presents have ou, ō, uo (§ 87).

= MHG. ie, as OHG. liob, dear, biotān, to offer = MHG. liep, bieten; OHG. liof, I ran, stioz, I pushed, riof, I called = MHG. lief, stiez, rief.

iu = MHG. ū written iu, as OHG. liuti, people, kiusit, he chooses = MHG. liute, kiuset.

ou (older au) = (1) MHG. ou, as OHG. ouga, eye, boug, I bent, loufan, to run = MHG. ouge, bouc, loufen.

= (2) MHG. öu (eu), as OHG. loubir, leaves, loufil, runner = MHG. löuber, löufel.

uo = (1) MHG. uo, as OHG. bruoder, brother, muoter, mother, stuont, I stood = MHG. bruoder, muoter, stuont.

ABLAUT (VOWEL GRADATION).

§ 12. By ablaut is meant the gradation of vowels both in stem and suffix, which was chiefly caused by the primitive Indo-Germanic system of accentuation. See the Author's Historical German Grammar, § 23.

The vowels vary within certain series of related vowels, called ablaut-series. In MHG. there are six such series, which appear most clearly in the stem-forms of strong verbs. Four stem-forms are to be distinguished in a MHG. strong verb which has vowel gradation as the characteristic mark of its different stems:—(1) the present stem, to which belong all the forms of the present, (2) the stem of the first or third person of the preterite singular, (3) the stem of the preterite plural, to which belong the second person of the preterite singular and the whole of the preterite subjunctive, (4) the stem of the past participle.

By arranging the vowels according to these four stems we arrive at the following system:—

|      | i.          | ii.          | iii.      | iv.         |
|------|-------------|--------------|-----------|-------------|
| I.   | ī    | ei, ē | i  | i    |
| II.  | ie   | ou, ō | u  | o    |
| III. | i, ě | a     | u  | u, o |
| IV.  | ě    | a     | ā  | o    |
| V.   | ě    | a     | ā  | ě    |
| VI.  | a    | uo    | uo | a    |

NOTE.—1. On the difference between ei and ē, see § 17; ou and ō, § 18; and in Series III i and ë, § 14; u and o, § 15.

2. Strong verbs belonging to Series II have iu in the indicative pres. singular; and strong verbs belonging to Series III-V with ë in the infinitive have i in the indicative pres. singular (§§ 14, 16).

EXAMPLES.

|-------------------------------------|--------------|--------------|----------------|-------------------|
| I. snīden , to cut    | snīde | sneit | sniten  | gesniten ; |
| līhen , to lend       | līhe  | lēch  | lihen   | gelihen .  |

| VI. graben , to dig   | grabe | gruop | gruoben | gegraben . |

For further examples see the various classes of strong verbs §§ 76-86. Class VII of strong verbs embracing the old reduplicated verbs (§ 87) has been omitted from the ablaut-series, because the exact relation in which the vowel of the present stands to that of the preterite has not yet been satisfactorily explained.

OTHER VOWEL CHANGES.

§ 13. Most of the following vowel changes took place in prehistoric times; but as they play an important part in the verbs and word-formation, &c., we shall give them here.

§ 14. ë (= Indo-Germanic e) became i in the prehistoric period of all the Germanic languages:—

1. Before a nasal + consonant, as OE. wind, OHG. MHG. wint, Lat. ventus, wind; OHG. fimf, finf, Gr. πέντε, five. This explains why verbs like MHG. binden, to bind, rinnen, to run, singen, to sing, belong to the same ablaut-series as helfen, to help, wērdēn, to become.

2. Before other consonants when followed by an ĩ or j in the next syllable, and further in OHG. when followed by an u in the next syllable, as OHG. MHG. ist, Gr. ἴστί, is; OHG. fih, Lat. pecu, cattle; ērde (OHG. ērda), earth, but irdīn, earthen; ligen (OHG. liggen from *ligjan), to lie down, sitzen (OHG. sitzen from *sitjan), to sit, but p.p. gelēgen (OHG. gilēgan), gesēzzēn (OHG. gisēzzan). This explains why strong verbs belonging to the fourth (§§ 12, 82) and fifth (§§ 12, 83) ablaut-series have i throughout the present singular, and similarly in verbs belonging to the third (§§ 12, 81) series with ē in the infinitive, as

|---------------------------------------|---------------------|---------------------------------------------------|
| OHG. nēman , to take ,  | three persons sing. | nimu , nimis(t) , nimit .    |
| MHG. nēmen ,                   | „ „ „               | nime , nimes(t) , nimet .    |
| OHG. gēban , to give ,  | „ „ „               | gibu , gibis(t) , gibit .    |
| MHG. gēben ,                   | „ „ „               | gibe , gibes(t) , gibet .    |
| OHG. hēlfan , to help , | „ „ „               | hilfu , hilfis(t) , hilfit . |
| MHG. helfen ,                  | „ „ „               | hilfe , hilfes(t) , hilfet . |

§ 15. u, followed originally by an ā, ō, or ē in the next syllable, became o when not protected by a nasal + consonant or an intervening ĩ or j; hence the interchange between u and o in the preterite plural and past participle of verbs belonging to the second ablaut-series (§§ 12, 78), as bugen (OHG. bugum), we bent, p.p. gebogen (OHG. gibogan); in the p.p. of verbs belonging to the third ablaut-series (§§ 12, 81), as gebunden (OHG. gibuntan), but geholfen (OHG. giholfan); in weak verbs as fürhten (OHG. furhten from *furhtjan), to fear, beside pret. vorhte (OHG. forhta); hügen (OHG. huggen from *hugjan) beside hogen (OHG. hogēn), to think; in preterite presents like durfen (OHG. durfum), we dare, beside pret. dorfte (OHG. dorfta); in many nouns and adjectives, as wolle (OHG. wolla), wool, beside wüllin, wullin, woollen; wolf (stem *wulfo-), wolf, beside wülpinne, she-wolf; vol, full, beside vülle (OHG. fulli), fulness; golt, gold, beside guldin, golden.

§ 16. From primitive Germanic eu were developed two different diphthongs in OHG., viz. eu became eo (cp. § 15), later io, when originally followed by an ā, ō, or ē in the next syllable, and this io was regularly developed to ie in MHG.; whereas eu became iu in OHG. when originally followed by an ĩ, j or u in the next syllable, and this iu became ū (written iu) in MHG., even after the ī, j or u had been weakened to e. This law explains the difference between the diphthong ie in the infinitive and the simple vowel iu (= ū) in the three persons singular of the present indicative of verbs belonging to the second ablaut-series (§§ 12, 78), as

OHG. biogan, to bend, pres. sing. biugu, biugis(t), biugit;

MHG. biegen, „ „ „ biuge, biuges(t), biuget.

Cp. further tief (OHG. tiof), deep, beside OHG. tiufī, depth; lieht (OHG. lioht), a light, beside liuhten (OHG. liuhten from *liuhtjan), to light.

NOTE.— The iu in the above and similar examples must not be confounded with the iu in the OHG. and MHG. combination iuw which arose from prim. Germanic eww (= euw), and ewj, as triuwe (OHG. triuwi, Goth. triggws), true; triuwen, trūwen, to trust, pret. triuete, triute, trūte; riuwe (OHG. riuwa), regret, bliuwen (OHG. bliuwan, Goth. bliggwan), to strike, and similarly, briuwen, to brew, kiuwen, to chew, riuwen, to regret; niuwe (OHG. niuwi, Goth. niujis, prim. Germanic stem-form *newja-), new. This iu before w never interchanged with MHG. ie from prim. Germanic eu, and explains why the strong verbs bliuwen, &c. have iu in all forms of the present.

§ 17. Accented primitive Germanic ai (= Goth. ái) became ē in OHG. before r, w, Germanic h (cp. § 23, 1), and finally; in MHG. it appears also as ē before the same consonants and finally, as mēre, mēr (OHG. mēro, Goth. máiza), more, lēren (OHG. lēren, Goth. láisjan), to teach; sēle (OHG. sēla, older sēula, Goth. sáiwala), soul; snē (OHG. snēo, Goth. snáiws), snow, gen. OHG. and MHG. snēwes; spīwen, to spit, pret. spē (OHG. spēo, Goth. spáiw); dīhen, to thrive, pret. dēch (OHG. dēh, Goth. dáih); wē (OHG. wē, Goth. wái), woe!; in all other cases ai became ei in both OHG. and MHG., as stein (Goth. stáins), stone, heizen (OHG. heizan, Goth. háitan), to call; snīden, to cut, pret. sneit (OHG. sneid, Goth. snáip). This accounts for the difference between the ei and ē in the preterite singular of strong verbs belonging to the first ablaut-series (§§ 12, 76).

|------------|------------------------------------|-------------|-----------------------------------|
| Infinitive | bieten , to offer ,  | pret. sing. | bōt                        |
| „          | sieden , to seethe , | „ „         | sōt                        |
| „          | kiesen , to choose , | „ „         | kōs                        |
| „          | diezen , to roar ,   | „ „         | dōz                        |
| „          | vliehen , to flee ,  | „ „         | vlōch (OHG. flōh ); |
| but „      | biegen , to bend ,   | „ „         | bouc                       |
| „          | klieben , to cleave  | „ „         | kloup .                    |

CHAPTER II

THE CONSONANTS

1. PRONUNCIATION OF THE CONSONANTS.

§ 19. The MHG. consonant-system was represented by the following letters: b, c, ch, d, f, g, h, j, k, l, m, n, p, q, r, s, sch, t, v, w, (x), z, z.

The letters k, l, m, n, p, t, w, (x) had nearly the same sound-values as in English. The remaining letters require special attention.

When the pronunciation of consonants merely differs in the intensity or force with which they are produced, they are called fortes or lenes according as they are produced with more or less intensity or force. In MHG. the consonants b, d, g were not voiced explosives like English b, d, g, but were voiceless lenes, and only differed from the fortes p, t, k in being produced with less intensity or force, see § 33. A similar difference in pronunciation existed between antevocalic and intervocalic v, s and final f, s, see § 33.

c and k represented the same sound. The latter was generally used at the beginning, and the former at the end of a syllable, as kunst, art; trinken, to drink, senken, to sink (trans.), pret. tranc, sancte.

ch had the same sound as in NHG. nacht, noch, as sprechen, to speak, pret. sprach; hōch, high.

f had a twofold pronunciation in the oldest HG. It was a labiodental when it arose from Germanic f (cp. OHG. fater, English father), and bilabial when it arose from Germanic p (cp. inf. OHG. slāfan, English sleep), but during the OHG. period the bilabial f became labiodental. The two kinds of f did not however completely fall together in pronunciation. f = Germanic f became a lenis initially before and medially between vowels, and was often written v in the former and generally v in the latter position, but remained a fortis—written f—when final. In MHG. it was also often written f initially before l, r, u, as fliehen, to flee, fride, peace, fünf, five, beside vliehen, vride, vünf. On the other hand f = Germanic p (§ 23, 1), which only occurred medially and finally, was a fortis and was always written f (ff), as slāfen, to sleep, pret. slief; tief, deep, schif (gen. schiffes), ship, offen, open. The two f sounds thus fell together when final, but the distinction between the two sounds was still preserved in MHG. in the intervocalic position, as hof, court, schif, ship, but gen. hoves, schiffes.

h before and after consonants was pronounced like ch, as fuhs, fox, naht, night, bevëlhen, to confide. In other cases it had the same sound as the h in English hat.

j had nearly the same sound as the y in English yet, as jār, year, junc, young; blüejēn, to blossom.

q occurred only in combination with u as in English, as quēc, quick, alive, quēden, to say.

r was a trilled sound in all positions like Scotch r, as rōt, red, hart, hard, bērn, to bear, vater, father.

s was a lenis medially between vowels and probably also initially before vowels, but a fortis in other positions, as sun, son, wēsen, to be, pret. was, bresten, to burst. It may be pronounced like the s in English sit.

sch was like the sh in English ship, as schif, ship, geschēhen, to happen, visch, fish.

v was a voiceless lenis, and may be pronounced like the v in NHG. voll. See f.

w was pronounced like the w in English wet, as wīn, wine, bliuwen, to strike.

z and z were not distinguished in MHG. manuscripts, both being written z. Both z and z (but zz medially between vowels when the first vowel was short) arose from Germanic t (see § 23). z had the sound-value of ts (= NHG. z): (a) always initially, as zīt, time; (b) medially and finally after consonants (l, m, n, r), as holz (gen. holzes), wood, hërze, heart, smërze, pain, ganz, whole; (c) finally after vowels (= Germanic tt) in those words which change final z to tz when it becomes medial, as schaz (gen. schatzes), OE. sceatt, money, treasure. MHG. intervocalic tz always arose from older tt, as setzen = OE. settan, to set. z was a kind of lisped s and only occurred medially between and finally after vowels, as bīzen, to bite, ëzzen, to eat, haz, hatred. It should be noted that good MHG. poets never rhymed pairs of words like was, was, and waz, what; missen, to miss, and wizzen, to know.

§ 20. MHG. has the following double consonants medially between vowels: bb, gg; pp, tt, ck; ff, ss, zz; mm, nn; ll, rr. They were always pronounced long as in Italian and Swedish, as bit-ter, bitter, ëz-zen, to eat, küs-sen, to kiss, müg-ge, midge, rin-nen, to run. In NHG. double consonants are never long, they merely indicate that the preceding vowel is short.

§ 21. Phonetic Survey of the MHG. Consonants.

To the above must be added the aspirate h and the affricatae (i.e. an explosive + a homorganic spirant) z (i.e. ts) and pf (ph).

2. CONSONANT CHANGES.

§ 22. The most characteristic difference between High German and the other West Germanic languages is the shifting which the consonants p, t, k, þ; pp, tt, kk, þþ; b (þ), d, g (z); bb, dd, gg underwent partly in the prehistoric and partly in the historic period of Old High German. In the following treatment of what is generally called the High German sound-shifting only such points are considered as are of importance for the purposes of this book. See Old High German Primer, §§ 82-6.

§ 23. The voiceless explosives p, t, k underwent a two-fold treatment according to their position in the word: (1) Medially or finally after vowels; (2) Initially, medially and finally after consonants (l, m, n, r), and when doubled.

NOTE.— p, t, k remained unshifted in the combinations sp, st, sk as also t in the combinations tr, ht, ft.

1. Single p, t, k were shifted to the voiceless double spirants ff, zz, hh (also written ch) = MHG. ff (f), zz (z), ch.

p > ff. OE. open, OHG. offan, MHG. offen, open; OE. slæpan, OHG. slāffan, MHG. slāfen, to sleep; OE. ūp, OHG. MHG. ūf, up.

t > zz. OE. etan, OHG. ëzzan, MHG. ëzzen, to eat; OE. hātan, OHG. heizzan, MHG. heizen, to call; OE. hwæt, OHG. hwaz, MHG. waz, what. In a few cases the z, zz became s in MHG. before t or st, as pret. saste from sazte: setzen, to set; beste, best, leste, last = OHG. bezzisto, lezzisto.

k > hh. OE. ic, OHG. ih, MHG. ich, I; OE. sprecan (specan), OHG. sprēhhan, MHG. sprēchen, to speak; OE. tācen, OHG. zeihhan, MHG. zeichen, token. This ch must not be confused with the MHG. h, ch which corresponded to Indo-Germanic k (= Germanic h), as ziehen, to draw, lead, pret. zōch, cp. Lat. dūcō, I lead, see § 34.

The double consonants were simplified in OHG. and MHG. according to § 32.

2. p, t initially, medially and finally after consonants (l, m, n, r), and when doubled, were shifted to the affricatae pf (also written ph), tz (generally written zz and z) = MHG. pf (ph), tz (z).

p > pf. OE. pund, OHG. MHG. pfunt, pound; OE. gelimpan, OHG. gilimpfan, MHG. gelimpfen, to be meet; OE. scieppan, OHG. skepffen, MHG. schepffen, to create. The pf became f after l and r already in OHG., as helfan, MHG. helfen, OE. helpan, to help; wërfan, MHG. wërfen, OE. weorpan, to throw.

t > z. OE. tunge, OHG. zunga, MHG. zunge, tongue; OE. heorte, OHG. hërza, MHG. hërze, heart; OE. sealt, OHG. MHG. salz, salt; OE. sittan, OHG. sizzen, sitzen, MHG. sitzen, to sit; OE. sceatt, OHG. scaz (gen. scazzes, scatzes), MHG. schaz (gen. schatzes), money, treasure.

k, kk (written ck) remained unshifted (except in High Alemanic), as OE. corn, OHG. MHG. korn, corn; OE. cnēo, OHG. kneo, MHG. knie, knee; OE. sincan, OHG. sinkan, MHG. sinken, to sink, pret. sanc; OE. þeccan, OHG. MHG. decken, to cover.

§ 24. þ became d, and þþ became tt, as OE. þorn, OHG. MHG. dorn, thorn; OE. brōþor, OHG. MHG. bruoder, brother. OE. smiþþe, OHG. smitta, MHG. smitte, smithy; OE. mopþe, late MHG. motte, moth.

§ 25. The voiced explosives b, d, g, and the voiced spirants ḃ, ȝ did not undergo the same universal shifting as the voiceless explosives. ḃ, ȝ became b, g. b, g remained, and d became t, as OE. brōþor, OHG. MHG. bruoder, brother; OE. bēodan, OHG. biotan, MHG. bieten, to offer; Goth. giban (= giban), OHG. gēban, MHG. gēben, to give. OE. dohtor, OHG. MHG. tohter, daughter; OE. bēodan, OHG. biotan, MHG. bieten, to offer; OE. dēad, OHG. MHG. tōt, dead. OE. gōd, OHG. MHG. guot, good; OE. flēogan, OHG. fliogan, MHG. fliegen, to fly.

§ 26. The double consonants bb, dd, gg = OHG. pp (bb), tt, cc (gg), and MHG. pp (bb), tt, ck (gg), as OE. sibb, OHG. sippa (sibba), MHG. sippe (sibbe), relationship; OE. cribb, OHG. krippa (kribba), MHG. krippe (kribbe), crib. OE. biddan, OHG. bitten, MHG. bitten, later biten, to request; OE. þrida, OHG. dritto, MHG. dritte, later drite, third. OE.

brycg, OHG. brucca (brugga), MHG. brücke (brügge), bridge. The fluctuation in the writing of pp and bb, ck and gg is merely orthographical, and does not represent a difference in pronunciation. Both pairs were used to express the lenes medially between vowels. For other examples see § 31.

§ 27. The summary of the consonantal changes in §§ 23-6 may be expressed as follows:—

| WEST GERMANIC.         | MHG.                                   |
|------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| p; t; k; þ      | = ff (f), pf; zz (z), z; ch; d. |
| pp; tt; kk; þþ  | = pf; tz (z); ck; tt.           |
| b (þ); d; g (ȝ) | = b; t; g.                      |
| bb; dd; gg      | = pp (bb); tt; ck (gg).         |

§ 28. The following sound-changes took place in primitive Germanic:— Every labial + t became ft; every guttural + t became ht; every dental + t became ss, which was simplified to s after long vowels. This explains the frequent interchange in MHG. between pf, b and f; between k, g and h; and between zz, z and ss, s in forms which are etymologically related.

pf, b—f. schepfen, to create: geschafft, creature; geben, to give: gift, gift; wēben, to weave: English weft.

k, g—h. würken, to work: pret. worhte; denken, to think: pret. dāhte; mugen (mügen), to be able: pret. mohte; bringen, to bring: pret. brāhte.

§ 29. The guttural nasal ŋ (written n) only occurred in the combinations nk (nc) and ng. It disappeared before h (= prim. Germanic χ) in primitive Germanic with lengthening of a preceding short vowel, as vāhen from prim. Germanic *fanχanan, to seize, catch, beside p.p. gevangen; and similarly hāhen, to hang, p.p. gehangen; pret. brāhte, dāhte, dūhte, beside bringen, to bring, denken, to think, dunken, to seem.

The guttural nasal disappeared in an unstressed syllable when preceded by an n in a stressed syllable in the course of the OHG. and MHG. period, as OHG. honag, MHG. honec, beside OHG. honang, honey; OHG. kunig, MHG. künec, beside OHG. kuning, king; OHG. pfennig, MHG. pfennic, beside OHG. pfenning, MHG. pfenninc, penny. And similarly with dental n, as senede beside senende, longing, yearning.

§ 30. Strong verbs, which have a medial v (f), d, h, s in the present, have respectively b, t, g (ng), r in the second person sing. pret. indicative, the preterite plural indicative, the pret. subjunctive and the past participle. This interchange of consonants is called Verner's Law, see OHG. Primer, §§ 72, 87:—

|                     | INF.                             | PRET. PL.      | P.P.             |
|---------------------|----------------------------------|----------------|------------------|
| v(f)—b.      | heven , to raise   | huoben  | gehaben.  |
| d—t.         | mīden , to avoid   | miten   | gemiten.  |
|                     | snīden , to cut    | sniten  | gesniten. |
| h—g.         | dīhen , to thrive  | digen   | gedigen.  |
|                     | ziehen , to draw   | zugen   | gezogen.  |
|                     | slahen , to strike | sluogen | geslagen. |
| h—ng (§ 29). | hāhen , to hang    | hiengen | gehangen. |
|                     | vāhen , to catch   | viengen | gevangen. |
| s—r.         | rīsen , to fall    | rirn    | gerirn.   |
|                     | kiesen , to choose | kurn    | gekorn.   |

This law has, however, many exceptions in MHG. owing to levelling having taken place with the infinitive, present indicative and preterite singular, as risen, gerisen beside rirn, gerirn.

The same interchange of consonants exists between strong verbs and their corresponding causative weak verbs, as līden, to go: leiten, to lead; hāhen, to hang: hengen, to hang (trans.); ge-nēsen, to be saved: nern, to save; and in nouns, &c., as hof (gen. hoves), court: hübesch, courtly; tōt (gen. tōdes), death: tōt (gen. tōtes), dead; swēher, father-in-law: swiger, mother-in-law; hase: English hare.

§ 31. The doubling of consonants took place under certain well-defined rules partly in prim. Germanic and partly in prim. West Germanic, see the Author's Hist. Germ. Grammar, §§ 202, 213-14. Examples of words which had double consonants in prim. Germanic are: kopf, head; napf (OE. hnæp, gen. hnæppes), basin; boc (OE. bucca), buck, gen. bockes; rinnen, to run; swimmen, to swim; vol (gen. volles), full; vërre, far; gewisser, certain.

The chief cases in which double consonants arose in prim. West Germanic were:—

1. The assimilation of bn, zn, pn to bb, gg, pp = MHG. pp, ck (gg), pf, as knappe: knabe, boy; rappe: rabe, raven; rocke: rogge, rye; tropfe, drop; triefen, to drip.

2. p, t, k were doubled before a following r or l. The doubling regularly took place in the inflected forms, and was then extended to the uninflected forms by levelling, as apfel (OE. æppel), apple; kupfer (Lat. cuprum), copper; bitter (Goth. báitrs), bitter, see § 23 note; lützel (OS. lutil), little; acker (Goth. akrs), field; wacker (OE. wæccer), watchful. See § 23, 2.

3. All single consonants, except r, were doubled after a short vowel when there was originally a j in the next syllable. The bb, dd, gg; pp, tt, kk, which thus arose, became pp (bb), tt, ck (gg); pf, tz, ck in MHG. (§§ 23, 2, 26), as sippe (sibbe), Goth. sibja, relationship; bitten, later biten, Goth. bidjan, to request; tretten (wv.): trëten (sv.), to tread; brücke (brügge), bridge; ecke (egge), edge; mücke (mügge), midge; rücke (rügge), ridge, back. schepfen, Goth. skapjan, to create; hitze, heat: heiz, hot; netzen, to wet: naz, wet; setzen, Goth. satjan, to set; sitzen, to sit: pret. saz, p.p. gesëzzen; decken, to cover: dach, cover; lücke, gap: loch, hole. zellen, later zeln, to count: zal, number. vremmen, later vremen (OE. fremman), to perform. henne, hen: hane, cock.

In MHG. the double consonants in verbs were often simplified through the levelling out of forms which regularly had a single consonant, e.g. regular forms were: vremmen, to perform, sing. vremme, vremes(t), vremet, pl. vremmen, vremmet, vremment, pret. vremete, p.p. gevremet, then the stem-form with single m was levelled out into all the forms, and similarly with many other verbs, as denen, to stretch; seln, to hand over; weln, to choose; wenen, to accustom; legen beside lecken (leggen), to lay; and the strong verbs biten, to beg; ligen beside licken (liggen), to lie down.

§ 32. Double consonants were simplified:—

1. When they became final, as boc, buck, kus, kiss, man, man, schif, ship, stum, dumb, vël, hide, beside gen. bockes, kusses, mannes, schiffes, stummes, vëlles; pret. maz, ran, traf, beside mëzzen, to measure, rinnen, to run, trëffen, to hit.

2. Before other consonants, as pret. dacte (dahte), nante (nande), kuste, beside decken, to cover, nennen, to name, küssen, to kiss.

3. After consonants, as pret. sante (sande) from *santte, wante (wande) from *wantte, beside senden, to send, wenden, to turn.

4. After long vowels and diphthongs, as pret. sing. leite from *leitte, pret. pl. māzen, trāfen, vielen, beside leiten, to lead, mëzzen, to measure, trëffen, to hit, vallen, to fall. This simplification of double consonants took place during the OHG. period, as slāfan, to sleep, heizan, to call, loufan, to run, zeichan, token, beside older OHG. slāffan, heizzan, louffan, zeihhan.

§ 33. In MHG. the lenes b, d, g became the fortes p, t, c (k) when they ended a syllable, that is when they came to stand finally, or medially before a voiceless consonant. Traces of this law existed already in OHG. The interchange between the lenes and fortes includes two independent processes, viz. the change of the medial lenes b, d, g to the final fortes p, t, k, and the change of the final f, s to the medial intervocalic lenes v and to what is written s (cp. also NHG. lesen, las). It must be noted that in MHG. the interchanging pairs of consonants were all voiceless and that the difference merely consisted in the intensity or force with which the sounds were produced. This is quite different from NHG. where the interchange is between voiced and voiceless sounds except in the case of f which is voiceless in all positions in native words. Examples are: gēben, to give, gelouben, to believe, wërben, to turn, beside pret. gap, geloupte, warp; gen. libes, lambes, beside nom. līp, life, lamp, lamb. binden, to bind, wërden, to become, beside pret. bant, wart; gen. kindes, tōdes, beside nom. kint, child, tōt, death. biegen, to bend, singen, to sing, zeigen, to show, beside pret. bouc, sanc, zeicte; gen. tages, bērges, beside nom. tac, day, bērc, mountain. nēve, nephew, beside niftel, niece; gen. hoves, brieves, beside nom. hof, court, brief, letter. kiesen, to choose, lēsen, to gather, lōsen, to loose, beside pret. kōs, las, lōste; pl. hiuser, beside sing. hūs, house.

§ 34. Final ch after vowels interchanged with medial h, as schuoch, shoe, gen. schuohes; hōch, high, gen. hōhes; nāch, near, adv. nāhe; pret. geschach, sach, beside geschēhen, to happen, sēhen, to see.

The medial combinations lh, rh were written lch, rch when they came to stand finally, as bevēlhen, to confide, pret. bevalch; gen. schēlhes, twērhes, beside nom. schēlch, twērch, askew, see § 19. h (= ch) and ch often disappeared in unstressed syllables and particles, as ēt, only, hīnte, hīnt, to-night, niet, not, dur, through, beside ēht, hīnaht, niht, nieht, durch.

§ 35. Initial j became or was written g before a following i, as gihet, he assures, beside inf. jēhen, pret. jach, and similarly jēsen, to ferment, jēten, to weed. In the verba pura forms with and without the intervocalic glide j existed side by side in OHG. and MHG., as blūejen (OHG. bluojen) beside blūen (OHG. bluoen), to bloom; and similarly dræjen, to twist, müejen, to trouble, sæjen, to sow, beside dræn, müen, sæn. In a few words forms with and without intervocalic j (g) existed side by side, as gen. blīges beside nom. blī, lead; eijer, eiger beside eier, eggs; frījen, frīgen beside frīen, to free; meige, meie, May; nerigen, nerjen beside nern, to save, rescue; swerigen, swerjen beside swern, to swear; gen. zwīges, zwīes, nom. zwī, twig; gen. zweiger, zweier, of two.

§ 36. In OHG. w became vocalized to o when it came to stand at the end of a word or syllable, and then generally disappeared after long vowels, but the medial w regularly remained in OHG. and MHG. when it was at the beginning of a syllable, as blā (OHG. blāo, blā), blue, gen. blāwes; snē (OHG. snēo, snē), snow, gen. snēwes; strō (OHG. strao, strō by contraction), straw, gen. strōwes; knīe (OHG. kneo), knee, gen. knīewes, OHG. knēwes; schate (OHG. scato), shadow, gen. schat(e)wes; pret. blou, hiu, kou, beside bliuwen, to strike, houwen, to hew, kiuwen, to chew; fal (OHG. falo), fallow, gen. falwes; gar (OHG. garo), ready, gen. garwes; mël (OHG. mëlo), meal, gen. mëlwes; smër (OHG. smëro), fat; pret. smirte, ströute, beside smirwen, to smear, ströuwen, to strew. See § 9, r.

The w element sometimes disappeared in the initial combinations qua-, quā-, quē-, qui-, quī- partly with and partly without influencing the quality of the following vowel, as pret. sing. kam, kom beside quam, he came, pret. pl. kōmen, kāmen beside quāmen; kāle beside quāle, torture; kēc beside quec, alive; korder, körder beside quërder, bait; komen, kōmen, kumen beside quēmen, to come; pres. sing. kume, küm(e)s(t), kum(e)s(t), küm(e)t, kum(e)t = OHG. quimu, quimis, quimit; kücken beside quicken, to enliven; kīt beside quīt = quidet, he says.

§ 37. Medial -ibe-, -ide-, -ige- were sometimes contracted to ī; and medial -age-, -ege- to ei, as gīst, thou givest, gīt, he gives, beside gibes(t), gibet; quīst, thou sayest, quīt, he says, beside quides(t), quidet; līst, thou liest down, līt, he lies down, beside liges(t), liget. meit beside maget, maid; seist, thou sayest, seit, he says, beside sages(t), saget; leist, thou layest, leit, he lays, beside leges(t), leget; eislīch beside egeslīch, terrible; gein beside gegen, against.

§ 38. Intervocalic h often disappeared when the first vowel was long, and then the two vowels underwent contraction, as hān, to hang, vān, to catch, vlēn, to implore, hō (adv.), high, beside hāhen, vāhen, vlēhen, hōhe. Other contracted forms will be found in the Glossary.

§ 40. Medial t (§ 25) became d after nasals in late OHG. and early MHG., as senden, to send, gen. blindes (nom. blint, blind), pret. nande, he named, rūmde, he left, beside early MHG. senten, blintes, nante, rūmte. It also occasionally became d after l, as halden beside halten, to hold, solde beside solte, pret. of suln, shall.

ACCIDENCE

CHAPTER III

DECLENSION OF NOUNS

§ 41. MHG. nouns have two numbers: singular and plural; three genders: masculine, feminine, and neuter, as in OHG. and NHG., from which the gender of nouns in MHG. does not materially differ; four cases: nominative, accusative, genitive, and dative. Traces of an old locative occur in what is called the uninflected dative singular of hūs, house, beside hūse, and in proper names like Engellant beside Engellande. The vocative is like the nominative.

In MHG., as in the older periods of the other Germanic languages, nouns are divided into two great classes, according as the stem originally ended in a vowel or a consonant, cp. the similar division of nouns in Latin and Greek. Nouns whose stems originally ended in a vowel belong to the vocalic or so-called strong declension. Those whose stems originally ended in -n belong to the so-called weak or n-declension. All other consonantal stems are generally put together under the general heading, ‘Minor Declensions’. In OHG. nouns whose stems originally ended in a vowel are subdivided into the a-declension including pure a-stems, ja-stems, and wa-stems; the ō-declension including pure ō-stems, jō-stems, and wō-stems; the ī-declension, and the u-declension. All the nouns belonging to the u-declension went over into other declensions in MHG. (cp. §§ 43, 44, 49). But as all final vowels either disappeared (some of them already in OHG.) or were weakened to e in MHG. (see §§ 7, 8), it is no longer practicable to retain the OHG. subdivision fully without entering into the oldest and in many cases into the prehistoric period of the language, which would be quite out of place in a MHG. grammar. The old ‘Minor Declensions’ had begun to pass over into the vocalic, especially into the i- and a-, declensions in the oldest OHG. The remnants of the old inflexions preserved in MHG. will be noted in the following paragraphs. The neuter nouns whose stems originally ended in -os, -es (cp. § 47) are in this Primer included in the strong declension.

A. THE VOCALIC OR STRONG DECLENSION.

1. Masculine Nouns.

§ 42. First declension.—To this declension belong all masculine nouns which form their plural in -e only. It includes: (a) the old masculine a-stems; (b) the old masculine wa-stems which lost their final -w after long vowels in OHG., as sē, sea, gen. sēwes, pl. sēwe, and similarly bū, dwelling, rē (also neuter), corpse, snē, snow, see § 36; and (c) the old masculine i-stems which could not have umlaut in the plural (§ 44).

PLUR.

| Dat.           | tagen | kil(e)n | engel(e)n |

On the interchange between fortis and lenis, as in tac, day, lop, praise, sant, sand, hof, court, gen. tages, lobes, sandes, hoves, see § 33.

Like tac are also declined the old consonantal stems vīent, enemy, and vriunt, friend, but pl. vriunde beside the old plural vriunt.

Like kil are declined all monosyllabic masculine nouns having a short stem-vowel and ending in -l or -r (§ 9, 1).

Like engel are declined masculine polysyllabic nouns ending in -el, -em, -en, -er, when their stem-syllable is long, as mantel, mantle, ātem, breath, morgen, morning, acker, field. Those in -em, -en generally retain the e in the dative plural. Polysyllabic nouns with short stem-syllables fluctuate between the retention or loss of the e, as gen. sing. vogeles or vogels, dat. sing. and nom. acc. pl. vogele or vogel, and similarly vadem, thread, rëgen, rain, sumer, summer, see § 9, 2.

§ 43. Second declension.—To this declension belong all masculine nouns whose nom. and acc. singular end in -e, which is the only difference between this and the first declension. It includes: (a) the old masculine ja-stems; (b) many old u-stems with short stem-syllable, as fride (OHG. fridu), peace, sīte (OHG. situ), custom, and similarly huge, thought, mēte, mead, sigē beside sic, victory, wite, wood (see § 36); (c) the old short i-stem wīne, friend; and (d) the old masculine wa-stem schate (gen. schat(e)wes beside schates), shadow.

|-----------|--------------------------------|---------------|
| Nom. Acc. | hirte , shepherd | hirte  |
| Gen.      | hirtes                  | hirte  |
| Dat.      | hirte                   | hirten |

|           | SING.         |                            | PLUR.         |                            |
|-----------|---------------|----------------------------|---------------|----------------------------|
|           | MHG.          | OHG.                       | MHG.          | OHG.                       |
| Nom. Acc. | gast   | gast , guest | geste  | gesti               |
| Gen.      | gastes | gastes              | geste  | gesteo , -io |
| Dat.      | gaste  | gaste               | gesten | gestim              |

The singular of nouns of this declension was inflected like the a-stems (§ 42) already in OHG. And owing to the weakening of the case-endings of the plural in passing from OHG. to MHG. (§ 7), the only difference in the two declensions is the presence or absence of umlaut in the plural. The old masculine i-stems which could not have umlaut in the plural accordingly came to be inflected entirely like the old masculine a-stems, as schrit, step, snit, cut, biz, bite, pl. schrite, snite, bizze. A further consequence of the singular being inflected alike in both declensions is that the old a-stems began to have umlaut in the plural after the analogy of the i-stems, as gedenke, thoughts, nägele, nails, wägene, wagons, beside gedanke, nagele, wagene.

Nouns ending in the fortis p, t, c, or f (= Germanic f) regularly change the fortis to lenis in the inflected forms, as korp, basket, walt, wood, slac, blow, brief, letter, gen. korbes, waldes, stages, brieves.

§ 45. The old consonant stems vater, father, bruoder, brother, often remain uninflected in the singular, as gen. vater, bruoder beside vaters, bruoders (cp. § 9, 2). In the plural they take umlaut, as veter, brüeder. The old consonant stem man, man, is either declined like tac (§ 42) or remains uninflected throughout, as

2. Neuter Nouns.

§ 46. First Declension.—To this declension belong all neuter nouns which have their nominative case singular and plural alike. It includes three different types of nouns: (a) The old neuter a-stems like wort, word, venster, window. (b) The old neuter ja-stems like künne, race, generation, bette, bed, netze, net. The characteristic of this type of noun is that it has umlaut in all forms of the singular and plural when the stem-vowel is capable of it (cp. § 31, 3). And (c) the old neuter wa-stems (cp. § 36) like knie, knee, gen. kniewes.

(a) On the interchange between the fortes p, t, c and the lenes b, d, g, as in grap, grave, gält, money, dinc, thing, gen. grabes, gēldes, dinges, see § 33.

Like venster are declined the neuter polysyllabic nouns ending in -el, -em, -en, -er, as luoder, bait, wāfen, wāpen, weapon; schapel, garland, gadem, house, wēter, weather. On the endings, see §§ 9, 42.

(b) Like künne is also declined the old neuter u-stem vihe (OHG. fihu), cattle.

(c) Like knie are declined mēl, meal, rē (also masc.), corpse, smēr, fat, strō, straw, tou, dew, wē, woe, gen. mēlwes, rēwes, smērwes, strōwes, touwes, wēwes, see § 36.

§ 47. Second declension.—To this declension belong all neuter nouns which form their plural in -er and by umlaut of the stem-vowel when it is capable of it. This class of nouns corresponds to the Latin neuters in -us, as genus, gen. generis, pl. genera. The -er (OHG. -ir) was originally a stem-forming suffix which came to be regarded as a plural ending. In the oldest period of the language only about half-a-dozen nouns belonged to this class, but during the MHG. period nearly twenty neuter a-stems passed into this declension, and in NHG. the number has increased to about a hundred.

On the loss of the e in the gen. and dat. plural, see § 9, 2.

3. Feminine Nouns.

§ 48. First declension.—To this declension belong all feminine nouns having their nominative case singular and plural alike. It includes: (a) the old feminine ō-stems, as gēbe, gift, sēle, soul, zal, number; (b) the old feminine jō-stems, as kūneginne, kūnegin, kūnegīn, queen, and similarly vriundinne, friend, gūtinne, goddess; (c) the old feminine wō-stems with and without w, as brāwe, brā, brow, pl. brā beside weak pl. brāwen; diuwe, diu, servant; (d) the old feminine abstract nouns in -ī, as vinster (OHG. finstrī), darkness, schœne (OHG. scōnī), beauty; and (e) the old consonant stem, swester, swēster, sister.

On the endings in nouns declined like zal, number, dol, pain, wal, choice, nar, food, schar, flock, and vinster, see § 9, 1, 2.

The gen. plural had the ending of the weak declension already in the oldest period of the language. Through the nom. singular and the gen. and dat. plural having the same endings as the feminine weak declension (§ 53), ō-stems began in OHG. to be inflected after the analogy of the weak declension, especially in the plural. This process spread considerably in MHG. with concrete nouns, but not often with abstract nouns.

§ 49. Second declension.—To this declension belong all feminine nouns which form their plural in -e and have umlaut in the stem-vowel. It includes: (a) the old feminine i-stems; (b) the old u-stem hant, hand; and (c) several old consonantal stems, see below.

In jugent (OHG. jugund, pl. jugundi), youth, gen. dat. jugende beside jugent, pl. jugende, the original -i being in the third syllable did not cause umlaut in the stem-syllable; and similarly tugent, valour.

hant, hand, originally belonged to the u-declension, which explains forms like gen. sing. and plural hande beside hende, dat. pl. handen beside henden. The old gen. plural has been preserved in NHG. allerhand, and the dat. plural in abhanden, beihanden, vorhanden, zuhanden.

Several old consonant stems went over partly or entirely into this declension, viz. maget, meit (§ 37), maid, pl. mägede or meide; kuo, cow, pl. küeje or küewe (OHG. kuoi), sū, sow, pl. siuwe (OHG. sūi); both these nouns generally remained uninflected in the gen. and dat. singular. naht, night, has gen. and dat. singular naht beside nähte; pl. nom. acc. gen. naht beside nähte, dat. nahten beside nähten, cp. also NHG. weihnachten, MHG. zēn wīhen nahten. The MHG. adverbial gen. nahts, dēs nahtes was formed after the analogy of dēs tages. Like naht were also inflected brust, breast, and burc, citadel.

muoter, mother, and tohter, daughter, remain uninflected in the singular. In the plural they have umlaut: müeter, töhter.

B. THE WEAK DECLENSION (N-STEMS).

§ 50. The weak declension contains a large number of masculine and feminine nouns, but only four neuter nouns, viz. hërze, heart, ōre, ear, ouge, eye, and wange, cheek; these nouns, especially hërze, sometimes form their nom. acc. plural after the analogy of nouns like künne (§ 46).

The original case endings of the weak declension had disappeared in the oldest period of the language except in the nom. singular (masc. -o, fem., and neut. -a), the gen. pl. (ōno) and dat. pl. (-ōm). Owing to the weakening of the -o, -a to -e in MHG. the nom. singular became alike in all genders. And similarly the endings -ōno, -ōm and the endings of the other oblique forms were all weakened to -en in MHG. (§ 7), so that the element which originally formed part of the stem came to be regarded as a case ending.

On the loss of the final and medial e in nouns like ar, eagle, bir (fem.), pear, gevangen(e), prisoner, beside the inflected forms arn, birn, gevangen from *gevangen-en through the intermediate stage *gevangenn, see § 9, 1, 2.

C. DECLENSION OF PROPER NAMES.

§ 54. Names of persons ending in e in the nominative follow the weak declension. Masculine names of persons take -es in the genitive, -e in the dative, and -en in the accusative after the analogy of the strong adjectives. The accusative ending -en was sometimes extended to the dative, and the dative ending -e to the accusative. And sometimes both these cases were without endings. Names of countries ending in -lant often have no ending in the dative, as Engellant beside Engellande, see § 41. Feminine names of persons ending in a consonant take -e in the genitive, dative and accusative, but occasionally remain uninflected throughout.

ADJECTIVES

A. THE DECLENSION OF ADJECTIVES.

1. The Strong Declension.

§ 55. The MHG. adjectives are declined as strong or weak. They have three genders, and the same cases as nouns. The endings of the strong declension are partly nominal and partly pronominal. The nominal endings are: the accusative feminine singular, as blinde like gēbe (§ 48); and the genitive singular masculine and neuter, as blindes like tages, wortes (§§ 43, 46). All the other endings are pronominal. The so-called uninflected form of adjectives in the nom. singular masculine and feminine and the nom. acc. neuter is a remnant of the time when adjectives and nouns were declined alike, see the Author's Hist. Germ. Grammar, §§ 399-400. The strong declension includes three different types of adjectives, all of which are declined alike: (a) The old a-stems, as blint, infl. form blinter, blind; bar, bare, guot, good, heilec, holy, hol, hollow, micel, great, vinster, dark, and similarly with a very large number of adjectives, including the past participles of strong and weak verbs. (b) The old ja-stems, as lære (OHG. lāri), infl. lærer, empty; dünne, thin, enge, narrow, grüene, green, niuwe, new, reine, pure, schöne, beautiful, senfte, soft, wilde, wild, and many others, including the present participles of strong and weak verbs. The ja-stems only differ from the a-stems in having -e in the uninflected form and umlaut in the stem-syllable when it is capable of it. (c) The old wa-stems, as blā (OHG. blāo, blā), infl. form blāwer, blue; gar (OHG. garo), infl. form garwer (see §§ 9, 1, 36), ready; grā, grey, val, fallow, gël, yellow, kal, bald, &c., all of which have w in the inflected forms.

The adjectival i- and u-stems had come to be declined like the ja-stems in the prehistoric period of the language, but a few remnants of such adjectives have survived in MHG. in forms without the final -e beside those with it, as bereit, bereite, ready, dic, dicke, thick, gāch, gæhe, quick, grīs, grīse, old, grey, hēr, hēre, high, noble, rasch, resche, quick, rīch, rīche, noble, swā, swære, heavy, was, wasse, sharp.

On the loss of the -e in blindem(e), blinder(e), see § 9, 2. Umlaut caused by the -iu occurs in the nom. sing. feminine and nom. acc. pl. neuter of al, all, and ander, other, second, as älliu, ändriu. This rarely happens in other words.

Like Michel are inflected monosyllabic adjectives ending in -l, -r with a short stem-vowel, and polysyllabic adjectives ending in -el, -en, -er, as bar, bare, hol, hollow; zwīvel, doubtful, eigen, own, tougen, secret, ander, other, second, bitter, bitter, vinster, dark; ēben, even, übel, evil, bad, &c. See § 9, 1, 2.

2. The Weak Declension.

§ 56. The weak declension of adjectives agrees exactly with that of the nouns.

| Dat. | blinden               | blinden | blinden |

B. THE COMPARISON OF ADJECTIVES.

§ 57. The comparative was formed by means of the suffix -er(e) = OHG. -iro, -ōro, and the superlative by means of the suffix -est(e) = OHG. -isto, -ōsto. On the loss of the medial or final e in such forms as tiurre, dearer, tiurste; minner, minre, less, minnest, min(ne)ste, see § 9, 3. Most monosyllables have umlaut in the comparative and superlative either exclusively or have mutated beside unmutated forms. The cause of these double forms is in a great measure due to the two OHG. double suffixes: comp. -iro, -ōro and superl. -isto, -ōsto having fallen together in -er(e) and -est(e) in MHG., as elter, older, ermer, poorer, jünger, younger, gröezer, greater, höher, higher, beside alter, armer, junger, größer, höher; superl. eltest, ermest, jüngest, grœzest, hœhest, beside altest, armest, jungest, grōzest, hōhest. Adjectives which have umlaut in the positive regularly preserve it in the comparative and superlative.

The comparative is declined weak, but the superlative is declined strong and weak.

§ 58. The following adjectives form their comparative and superlative from a different root than the positive:—

|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| guot , good ,     | bezzet , bezzest , beste (§ 23).                       |
| übel , bad ,      | wirser , wirset , wir(se)ste .                         |
| lützel , little , | minner , minre (§ 9, 3), minnest , min(ne)ste . |
| micel , great ,   | mērer , mēr(r)e , meiste .                             |

§ 59. The following adjectives are defective:—

|                                                           |                                                      |

| hinder , hinder ,                           | hinderste , hindmost .                 |
| ober , upper ,                              | oberste , uppermost .                  |
|                                                           | lezzeste , leste (§ 23), last . |
| vorder , former ,                           | vorderste , foremost .                 |

C. FORMATION OF ADVERBS FROM ADJECTIVES.

§ 60. 1. By adding -e (= OHG. -o) to the adjective when this does not already end in -e, as ēben, even, hōch, high, lanc, long: adv. ēbene, hōhe, lange; edele (OHG. edili), noble, übel (OHG. ubil), evil: adv. edele (OHG. edilo), übele (OHG. ubilo).

2. Dissyllabic adjectives ending in -e and containing a mutated stem-vowel change it to the corresponding unmutated vowel, when used as adverbs, as schoene (OHG. scōni), beautiful, herte, hard, senfte, soft, süeze, sweet, swære, heavy: adv. schōne, harte, sanfte, suoze, swāre.

3. By adding -līche or -līchen to the adjective, as ganz, whole, vlīzec, diligent: adv. ganzlīche(n), vlīzeclīche(n).

4. The comparative and superlative degrees of adverbs are the same as the corresponding uninflected forms of the adjectives without umlaut:—

|           |                           |                                        |                                           |
|-----------|---------------------------|----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| Adjective | lanc , long | lenger                          | lengest .                          |
| Adverb    | lange              | langer(OHG. langōr ) | langest(OHG. langōst ). |

§ 61. The following are irregular:—

|                          |                                                         |                                                 |

Gen. ir(e)

Dat. in

NOTE.—1. The gen. ir is often used as a possessive pronoun. For ëz the form iz sometimes appears.

2. For the acc. pl. unsich the dat. uns is mostly used. iu is often used for iuch, and vice versa. im, ir are more usual than ime, ire.

3. The unstressed forms of personal pronouns are often attached to other words, as ichz, iz = ich ëz; ichne, ine, ichn = ich ne (not); tuostu = tuost du; dune, dun = du ne (not); tuoz = tuo ëz; eist, ēst = ëz ist; deiz = daz ëz; mohter = mohte ër; baten = bat in; wirz = wir ëz, &c.

Like dër is also declined jener, that, except that the Nom., Acc. sg. neut. ends in -ez. dër, &c., is used both as definite article and relative pronoun.

NOTE.—1. For the fem. nom. sing. and the neut. nom. acc. pl. diu, the form die was sometimes used; and conversely diu for die in the fem. acc. singular. diu and die were sometimes weakened to de, and to d' before words beginning with a vowel. daz was sometimes weakened to dez, and still further to z which was then attached to a preceding word, as lätz kind = lāt daz kint; anz, inz = an, in daz. dēst, deis, dēs = daz ist.

2. The various cases were often fused into one word with prepositions, as anme, ame, am = an dēme; zēme, zēm = ze dēme; ūfme = ūf dēme; zër = ze dër (fem.); übern = über dën; ūfën = ūf dën; zën = ze dën.

5. RELATIVE.

§ 69. A relative pronoun proper did not exist in the oldest periods of the Germanic languages, and accordingly the separate languages expressed it in various ways. In MHG. the following pronouns and adverbial particles were used to express it:—

1. dër, daz (also used as a conjunction), diu, also in combination with the particles dar der dā. 2. sō, alsō (alse, als), as; sam (alsam), as. 3. dā(r), where, dar, thither, whither, darinne, therein, dannen, wherefrom, darumbe, therefore, dō, when, as. 4. Indefinite relatives, as swēr (from sō wēr), whoever, swelch, each who, swēder, who of two; swā, swar, wherever, swannen, swanne (swenne), whenever, swie, however, howsoever. 5. The conjunction unde, and.

6. INTERROGATIVE.

§ 70. The MHG. simple interrogative pronoun has no independent form for the feminine, and is declined in the singular only.

|        | Masc. Fem.       | Neut.  |
|--------|-------------------------|---------------|
| Nom.   | wēr , who | waz    |
| Acc.   | wēn              | waz    |
| Gen.   | wēs              | wēs    |
| Dat.   | wēm(e)           | wēm(e) |
| Instr. |                         | wiu    |

In the same manner are declined the compounds:

swēr (from sō wēr), whoever, etewēr, eteswēr, anyone, neizwēr (= ne weiz wēr, I do not know who), anyone.

wēder, who of two, is declined like a strong adjective; welīch (welch), which, is also declined like a strong adjective, but the nom. singular remains uninflected.

7. INDEFINITE.

§ 71. ander, other; dechein, dehein, dekein, no, none; dewēder, neither; ein, one, some one: when ein is used with the meaning alone it follows the weak declension; etelīch, etlīch, eteslīch, etslīch, anyone, many a, pl. = some; etewēr, eteswēr, anyone; etewaz, anything; iegelīch, ieslīch, iegeslīch, each; ieman, iemen, someone, somebody; iewēder, ietwēder, each; iewelīch, iewelich, each; iewiht, iht, anything; kein, no; man, one; manec, many a, declined maneger, manegez, manegiu, &c.; nehein, no, none; niht, nothing; solch, such, declined like manec; sum, any one at all,

pl. some; sumelīch, sumlīch, many a; swelch, each who; swēr, whoever; wēder, which of two; welīch (welch), which, declined like manec.

CHAPTER VI

VERBS

§ 72. The MHG. verb has the following independent forms:—one voice (active), two numbers, three persons, two tenses (present and preterite), two complete moods (indicative and subjunctive, the latter originally the optative), besides an imperative which is only used in the present tense; two verbal nouns (the present infinitive, and the gerund, generally called the inflected infinitive), a present participle with active meaning, and one verbal adjective (the past participle).

The MHG. verbs are divided into two great classes:—Strong and Weak. The strong verbs form their preterite (originally the perfect) and past participle by means of ablaut (§ 12). The weak verbs form their preterite by the addition of the syllable -te, and their past participle by means of a t-suffix. The strong verbs were originally further sub-divided into reduplicated and non-reduplicated verbs. The reduplication had, however, entirely disappeared in the oldest period of the language. The non-reduplicated verbs are divided into six classes according to the six ablaut-series (§ 12). The originally reduplicated verbs are put together here and called Class VII. Besides these two great classes of strong and weak verbs, there are a few others which will be treated under the general heading Minor Groups.

A. STRONG VERBS.

§ 73. We are able to conjugate a MHG. strong verb when we know the four stems, as seen in (1) the infinitive or first pers. sing. of the present indicative, (2) the first or third pers. sing. of the preterite indicative, (3) the first pers. plural of the preterite indicative, (4) the past participle. The pret.

subjunctive and the second pers. pret. indicative have the same stem-vowel as the pret. plural indicative.

§ 74. The conjugation of nēmen, OHG. nēman, to take, will serve as a model for all strong verbs.

PAST PARTICIPLE.

MHG.

genomen

OHG.

ginoman

NOTE.— The e in the endings is regularly lost according to the rule given in § 9, 1, as sing. stil, stilst, stilt, inf. stēln, to steal; sing. var, verst, vert, inf. varn, to go. It was also frequently lost in the third pers. sing. pres. indicative of other verbs, as vint = vindet, siht = sihet, see § 9, 4 note. The n in the first pers. plural was sometimes dropped when the pronoun came after the verb, as nēme wir = nēmen wir.

The imperative singular sometimes has -e after the analogy of weak verbs (§ 90).

The OHG. forms given above show in what forms umlaut regularly took place, viz. in the second and third pers. singular of the pres. indicative, when possible, in the second pers. singular of the pret. indicative, and in the pret. subjunctive. The second pers. singular of the pret. indicative always has the same stem-vowel as the pret. subjunctive. On the absence of umlaut in the pret. subjunctive of certain types of verbs, see § 10, note. Forms without and with umlaut are found in the second and third pers. singular of the present in verbs belonging to Class VII, as slāfes(t), slāfet beside slæfes(t), slæfet.

Concerning the changes between i, ē; u, o; iu, ie; ei, ē; ou, ō in the various classes of strong verbs, see §§ 14-17.

THE CLASSIFICATION OF THE STRONG VERBS.

§ 75. We shall only give in each class a few verbs to illustrate the gradation of vowels and consonant changes. All other verbs occurring in the texts will be found in the Glossary referred to their proper class.

CLASS I.

§ 76. The verbs of this class belong to the first ablaut-series (§ 12) and therefore have ī in all forms of the present; ei in the first and third pers. sing. of the preterite, but ē before ch (= Germanic h, § 23), and finally (§ 17); and i in the preterite plural and past participle, thus:—

|-------------------------------------|--------------|---------------|-----------------|
| bīten , to wait       | beit  | biten  | gebiten  |
| swīgen , to be silent | sweic | swigen | geswigen |

trīben, to drive      treip    triben    getriben

And similarly belīben, to remain, bīzen, to bite, rīben, to rub, rīten, to ride, schīnen, to shine, schrīben, to write, sīgen, to sink, strīten, to quarrel.

snīden, to cut      sneit    sniten      gesniten dīhen, to thrive    dēch    digen      gedigen rīsen, to fall      reis    rirn (risen)    gerirn (gerisen)

And similarly līden, to suffer, mīden, to avoid, nīden, to envy, līhen, to lend, zīhen, to accuse. See § 30.

§ 77. The following two verbs which are also used as weak verbs have mixed forms in the preterite and past participle:—

|                            |               |                  |                    |
|----------------------------|---------------|------------------|--------------------|
| schrīen , to scream | schrē  | schriuwen | geschriuwen |
|                            | schrei | schrūwen  | geschrūwen  |
|                            |               | schrirn   | geschrirn   |
| spīwen , to vomit   | spē    | spiwen    | gespiwen    |
|                            | spei   | spiuwen   | gespiuwen   |
|                            |               | spūwen    | gespūwen    |
|                            |               | spirn     | gespirn     |

CLASS II.

§ 78. The verbs of this class belong to the second ablaut-series (§ 12) and therefore have ie in the present, but iu in the present singular (§ 16); ou in the first and third pers. sing. of the preterite, but ō before t, z, s and ch (= Germanic h), § 18; u in the pret. plural; and o in the past participle, thus:

|----------------------------|----------------|--------------|-----------------|-------------------|
| biegen , to bend    | biuge   | bouc  | bugen    | gebogen    |
| triefen , to drop   | triufe  | trouf | truffen  | getroffen  |
| bieten , to offer   | biute   | bōt   | buten    | geboden    |
| schiezen , to shoot | schiuze | schōz | schuzzen | geschozzen |

And similarly klieben, to cleave, kriechen, to creep, liegen, to lie, riechen, to smell, schieben, to shove, vliegen, to fly; diezen, to roar, giezen, to pour, vliezen, to flow.

|                           |              |             |              |                |
|---------------------------|--------------|-------------|--------------|----------------|
| sieden , to seethe | siude | sōt  | suten | gesoten |
| ziehen , to draw   | ziuhe | zōch | zugen | gezogen |
| kiesen , to choose | kius  | kōs  | kurn  | gekorn  |

And similarly vliehen, to flee, niesen, to sneeze, verliesen, to lose, vriesen, to freeze. See § 30.

§ 79. On the stem-vowels in the following verbs, see § 16, note and § 36:—

|                            |               |                |                  |
|----------------------------|---------------|----------------|------------------|
| bliuwen , to strike | bliuwe | blou    | blūwen    |
|                            |               | bliuwen | gebliuwen |
|                            |               | blouwen | geblouwen |

And similarly briuwen, to brew, kiuwen, to chew, riuwen, to pain.

§ 80. To this class also belong the three aorist presents:—

|                             |                       |              |               |                 |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------|--------------|---------------|-----------------|
| lūchen , to shut     | liuche (lūche) | louch | luchen | gelochen |
| sūfen , to gulp down | sūfe           | souf  | suffen | gesoffen |
| sūgen , to suck      | sūge           | souc  | sugen  | gesogen  |

CLASS III.

§ 81. The verbs of this class belong to the third ablaut-series (§ 12), and include the strong verbs having a medial nasal or a liquid + consonant. Those with nasal + consonant have i throughout the present tense and u in the past participle; the others have i in the present singular, ë in the plural, and o in the past participle (see §§ 14, 15), thus:—

|-------------------------|--------------|-------------|---------------|-----------------|
| binden , to bind | binde | bant | bunden | gebunden |
| rinnen , to run  | rinne | ran  | runnen | gerunnen |
| singen , to sing | singe | sanc | sungen | gesungen |

And similarly brinnen, to burn, dringen, to press, entrinnen, to escape, gelingen, to succeed, gewinnen, to gain, schrinden, to split, sinken, to sink, sinnen, to reflect, spinnen, to spin, swimmen, to swim, trinken, to drink, vinden (p.p. vunden), to find, winden, to wind. beginnen, to begin, pret. sing. began beside begunde, begonde, pl. begunden, p.p. begunnen.

|                         |               |              |                |                  |
|-------------------------|---------------|--------------|----------------|------------------|
| bërgen , to hide | birge  | bare  | burgen  | geborgen  |
| hëlfen , to help | hilfe  | half  | hulfen  | geholfen  |
| stërben , to die | stirbe | starp | sturben | gestorben |

And similarly bevëlhen, to order, emphëlhen, enphëlhen, to recommend, gëlten, to pay, mëlken, to milk, schëlten, to revile, swëllen, to swell, verdërben, to destroy, wërffen, to throw, wërren, to confuse, wërden, to become, pret. pl. wurten, wurden, p.p. worten, (ge)worden, see § 30.

CLASS IV.

§ 82. The verbs of this class belong to the fourth ablaut-series (§ 12). They include those strong verbs which have a liquid or a nasal before or after the stem-vowel, and a few others, thus:—

| ë                         | i                    | a            | ā              | o                |
|---------------------------|----------------------|--------------|----------------|------------------|
| nëmen , to take    | nime          | nam   | nāmen   | genomen   |
| bërn , to bear     | bir (§ 9, 1)  | bar   | bāren   | geborn    |
| stëln , to steal   | stil (§ 9, 1) | stal  | stālen  | gestoln   |
| brëchen , to break | briche        | brach | brāchen | gebrochen |
| vëhten , to fight  | vihte         | vaht  | vāhten  | gevohten  |

And similarly schërn, to shear, schrëcken, to frighten, sprëchen, to speak, vlëhten, to plait, zëmen (p.p. also gezëmen), to be befitting, stëchen, to prick, trëffen (p.p. troffen), to hit; dreschen, to thrash, leschen, to be extinguished, see § 11, 1. komen (OHG. quëman), to come, kume, quam, quāmen, komen; on other forms of this verb, see § 36.

CLASS V.

§ 83. The verbs of this class belong to the fifth ablaut-series (§ 12). They include the strong verbs containing a medial consonant other than a nasal or liquid, thus:—

| ë                             | i                  | a           | ā            | ē              |
|-------------------------------|--------------------|-------------|--------------|----------------|
| gēben , to give | gibe        | gap  | gāben | gegēben |
| jēhen , to say  | gihe (§ 35) | jach | jāhen | gejēhen |
| sēhen , to see  | sihe        | sach | sāhen | gesēhen |
| wēgen , to move | wige        | wac  | wāgen | gewēgen |

And similarly geschēhen, to happen, knēten, to knead, mēzzen, to measure, pflēgen, to be accustomed, trēten, to tread, vergēzzen, to forget, wēben, to weave.

wēsen, to be   wise   was   wāren   gewēsen

And similarly genēsen (pret. pl. also genāsen), to recover, jēsen, to ferment, lēsen (pret. pl. also lāsen), to gather, read. See § 30.

|-----------------------------------|---------------|---------------|---------------|------------------------|
| ēzzen , to eat      | izze   | āz(az) | āzen   | gēzzen (§ 9, 7) |
| vrēzzen , to devour | vrizze | vrāz   | vrāzen | vrēzzen         |

These verbs had a long vowel in the pret. singular in the oldest period of all the Germanic languages, cp. also Lat. ēdī.

§ 84. To this class also belong the three verbs:—

|-----------------------------------|--------------|------------|--------------|-----------------|
| bit(t)en , to beg   | bite  | bat | bāten | gebēten  |
| ligen , to lie down | lige  | lac | lāgen | gelēgen  |
| sitzen , to sit     | sitze | saz | sāzen | gesēzzen |

CLASS VI.

§ 85. The verbs of this class belong to the sixth ablaut-series (§ 12), and accordingly have a in the present; uo in the pret. singular and plural; and a in the past participle. They have umlaut in the second and third pers. singular, as grebes(t), grebet; verst, vert. See § 10.

|---------------------------------|--------------|----------------|-----------------|
| tragen , to carry | truoc | truogen | getragen |
| maln , to grind   | muol  | muolen  | gemaln   |
| varn , to go      | vuor  | vuoren  | gevarn   |

And similarly laden, to load, nagen, to gnaw, schaffen, to create, spanen, to entice, waschen, to wash, wahsen, to grow, waten, to wade.

|----------------------------------|--------------|----------------|-----------------|
| slahen , to strike | sluoc | sluogen | geslagen |
| twahen , to wash   | twuoc | twuogen | getwagen |

See § 30. The pret. sing. sluoc, twuoc for *sluoch, *twuoch were formed after the analogy of the pret. plural.

§ 86. To this class also belong:—

|                                                              |                |                  |                                    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|------------------|------------------------------------|
| stān , stēn (§ 96), to stand            | stuont  | stuonden  | gestanden                   |
| entseben (older entseven ), to perceive | entsuop | entsuoben | entsaben                    |
| gewāhenen , to mention                         | gewuoc  | gewuogen  | gewagen                     |
| heben (older heven ), to raise          | huop    | huoben    | gehaben                     |
| swern (see § 35), to swear                     | swuor   | swuoren   | geswarngesworn } |

The pret. singular stuont, entsuop, gewuoc, huop for *stuot (cp. Engl. stood), *entsuof, *gewuoch, *huof were formed after the analogy of the pret. plural. On the b, g in the pret. plural, see § 30. The last four verbs in the list originally had a j in the present, which accounts for the umlaut, cp. OHG. heffen, Goth. hafjan, to raise. heben had its b from forms where it was regular.

CLASS VII.

§ 87. To this class belong the verbs which originally had reduplicated preterites. The present and past participle have the same stem-vowel; and the preterite singular and plural have ie. In OHG. the verbs which had a, ā or ei in the present had ia (older ea, ē) in the preterite; and those which had ou (ō), uo in the present had io (older eo) in the preterite. But in MHG. the ia and io regularly fell together in ie (§ 11, 3), so that all the preterites had ie.

|----------------------------------|--------------|----------------|-----------------|
| bannen , to banish | bien  | bienen  | gebannen |
| halten , to hold   | hielt | hielten | gehalten |
| slāfen , to sleep  | slief | sliefen | geslāfen |
| heizen , to call   | hiez  | hiezen  | geheizn  |
| loufen , to run    | lief  | liefen  | geloufen |
| ruofen , to call   | rief  | riefen  | geruofen |

And similarly halsen, to embrace, salzen, to salt, spalten, to split, spannen, to span, vallen, to fall, valten, to fold, wallen, to bubble; bāgen, to quarrel, blāsen, to blow, brāten, to roast, lāzen (see also § 99), to let, leave, rāten, to advise; meizen, to cut, scheiden, to separate, sweifen, to rove; bōzen, to strike, stōzen, to push, houwen (pret. hiu and hie, pl. hiuwen, hiewen), to hew, wuofen, to bewail.

|------------------------------|--------------|--------------------|----------------|-------------------|
| gān, gēn, to go       |              | gienc (gie) | giengen | (ge)gangen |
| hāhen (§ 29)          | } , to hang  | hienc (hie) | hiengen | gehangen   |
| hān (§ 38)            |              |                    |                |                   |
| vāhen (§ 29)          | } , to catch | vienc (vie) | viengen | gevangen   |
| vān (§ 38)            |              |                    |                |                   |
| erren, ern, to plough |              | ier         | ieren   | gearn      |

On the interchange between h and ng, see § 30; erren, ern from older *arjan.

B. WEAK VERBS.

§ 88. The OHG. weak verbs were divided into three great classes according as the infinitive ended in -en from older *-jan, -on, or -ēn.

Inflectional tables in this section have been reformatted for greater readability. A representative screen shot of the original format is shown at the end of the text.

The characteristic endings of the three OHG. classes were:—

Present.

In OHG. the verbs of Class I were divided into two sub-divisions:
 (a) polysyllabic verbs and those containing an old long stem-syllable;
 (b) those which originally had a short stem-syllable (cp. § 31, 3). The former formed their preterite in -ta, and the latter in -ita; and similarly in the inflected form of the past participle. In MHG. all the unaccented vowels i, e, a, o, u, ī, ē, ō regularly fell together in e (§ 7), so that the old distinction between the endings of the three classes of verbs was to a great extent obliterated. The OHG. verbs with a short stem-syllable belonging to Classes II and III came in MHG. to be inflected entirely like sub-division (b) of Class I; and those with a long stem-syllable mostly came to be inflected like sub-division (a) of Class I, see §§ 9, 2, 92.

Owing to all the OHG. unaccented vowels being weakened to e the MHG. endings are:—

Final -n in the first pers. sing. of the pres. indicative of the old Classes II and III remained in early MHG., but during the MHG. period the first person was remodelled after the analogy of Class I.

NOTE.— Old forms with ō (u) for later e occasionally occur in verbs originally belonging to the OHG. Class II; and in like manner ī for e in the pret. subjunctive.

§ 89. The MHG. weak verbs are divided into two classes, according as the preterite is formed in -te or -ete (see however § 40). The inflexion of the present is the same in both classes.

CLASS I.

§ 90. To this class belong (1) verbs which have old long stem-syllables. Those having a mutated vowel in the present have the corresponding unmutated vowel in the preterite. The i which would have caused umlaut in the preterite disappeared in the prehistoric period of the language. The past participle generally has two forms: one with a mutated vowel, and the other without it, properly from the old inflected form which did not have umlaut. (2) Verbs having a short stem-vowel followed by a single consonant (l, r), and trisyllabic verbs containing an l, n, or r in the second syllable, as zeln, older zellen (§ 31, 3), to count, pret. zelte beside zalte, p.p. gezelt beside gezalt; nern, to rescue, pret. nerte (OHG. nerita), p.p. genert; and similarly doln (OHG. dolōn), to tolerate, seln, to hand over, spiln, to play, weln, to choose; wern, to defend; wandeln (OHG. wantalōn), to change, pret. wandelte; vordern (OHG. fordarōn), to further, pret. vorderte; sēgenen (OHG. sēganōn), to bless, pret. sēgente. See §§ 9, 1, 2, 92.

And similarly with a large number of verbs, as blüemen, to bloom, brennen, to burn, füllen, to fill, grüezen, to greet, hören, to hear, küssen, to kiss, lösen, to loose, nennen, to name, rennen, to run, senden (pret. sante), to send, senken, to sink, setzen (pret. satte, sazte, p.p. gesat, gesazt, gesetzt), to set, stellen, to place, süezen, to sweeten, vellen, to fell, wānen, to fancy, wünschen, to wish; gelouben, to believe, kēren, to turn, koufen, to buy, leiten (pret. leite), to lead, ougen, to show, suochen, to seek. The verba pura have double forms in the present and preterite, as drājen, dræn (§ 35), to turn, pret. drāte beside the new formation drājete, drāte, and similarly blüejen, to bloom, müejen, to trouble, rüejen, to row, sājen, to sow, wājen, to blow. Verbs with medial ck have double preterites, as decken, to cover, pret. dacte beside dahte, and similarly drücken, drucken, to press, smecken, to taste, wecken, to awake. See also § 92.

| bringen , to bring       | brāhte | gebrāht (§§ 28, 29) |

NOTE.— The second pers. sing. of brāhte is bræhte or brāhtes(t), pret. subj. bræhte; and similarly with dāhte; the subj. of dūhte is dūhte or diuhte.

CLASS II.

§ 92. The verbs belonging to this class form their preterite in -ete and their past participle in -et. In other respects Class II has the same endings as Class I.

It includes: (a) The dissyllabic verbs, having a short stem-vowel followed by a single consonant other than l, r, which in OHG. belonged to Classes II and III, as loben (OHG. lobōn), to praise, pret. lobete, p.p. gelobet; leben (OHG. lēbēn), to live, pret. lēbete, p.p. gelēbet (see § 88). (b) The dissyllabic verbs of OHG. Class I with a short stem-vowel followed by double consonants other than ll (see § 31, 3), as legen, older leggen (OHG. leggen), to lay, pret. legete or leite (§ 37), p.p. geleget or geleit; denen, older dennen (OHG. dennen), to stretch, pret. denete, p.p. gedenet.

Other examples belonging to Class II are: bēten, to pray, dagen, to be silent, klagen, to complain, klēben, to stick, laden, to invite, namen, to name, sagen, to say, pret. sagete and seite (§ 37).

The verbs with a long stem-syllable, which belonged to OHG. Classes II and III, went over in MHG. either into Class I (1), see § 90, or had preterites in -te beside -ete, as danken, to thank, pret. dancte beside dankete, p.p. gedanct beside gedanket; vrāgen, to ask, pret. vrāgte beside vrāgete, p.p. gevrāgt beside gevrāget, and similarly ahten, to observe, minnen, to love, trahten, to strive, &c., see §§ 9, 2, 90; dienen, to serve, pret. diende (§ 40), &c.

C. MINOR GROUPS.

1. Preterite-Presents.

§ 93. These have strong preterites with a present meaning, from which new weak preterites have been formed. The 2nd pers. sg. ends in -t, and has the same stem-vowel as the 1st and 3rd pers. sg. The following verbs belong to this class:—

weiz, I know, 2nd pers. sg. weist; pl. wizzen; inf. wizzen; pres. p. wizzende; pret. wisse, wesse, wiste or weste; p.p. gewist or gewest.

The contracted form hān, &c., is mostly used as an auxiliary.

SYNTAX

CASES.

§ 100. Accusative. The accusative has much the same function as in NHG. It is sometimes used, however, where the dat. or a preposition would be required in NHG.:—ēr vuor wazzer unde wēge, he went by water and land. The acc. is used after wol, well, when used as an interjection, as wol mich. A double accusative is required not only after lēren, to teach, but also after hēln, verhēln, to conceal, verdagen, verswīgen, to keep secret.

§ 101. Dative. ruofen, to call, and schirmen, to protect, take the dative. The dative is often used adverbially: allenthalben, on all sides, wīlen(t), formerly, &c.

§ 102. Genitive. The genitives hande, slahte, leie = manner are used adverbially: maneger hande, slahte, or leie, in many ways, manifoldly.

The gen. is used in combination with the comparative of adjectives, as dicker eines dūmes, thicker by the breadth of a thumb. Indefinite and interrogative pronouns, used substantively, take the genitive: iemen armer liute, any poor people; niht schœneres, nothing more beautiful; dēs enmac niht sīn, that cannot be; waz mannes ēr wære, what kind of man he was. In the same manner the rel. swaz may take the genitive: swaz man vant dēr armen, whatever poor people one found.

The genitive may be used predicatively:—sīt sī dēs goteshūses sint, since they belong to the house of God; diu sorge ist mīn eines niht, I am not the only one who has sorrow.

Impersonal verbs often take the genitive: mich genüeget dēs, that is enough for me; mich gezimt dēs, that pleases me.

The genitives dēs and wēs may be used adverbially in the sense of therefore, wherefore; and likewise many nouns: tages, by day; dēs sēlben tages, the same day; nahtes, by night.

Interjections usually take the genitive: owē mir mīnes leides! alas! for my grief. vil, much, many; mē(re), more; wēnic, lützel, little; minner, minre, less; and genuoc, enough, used as indeclinable substantives, are followed by the genitive. Cardinal numerals, used substantively, are also followed by the genitive: zweinzec starker man, twenty strong men.

ADJECTIVES.

§ 103. The weak and strong forms are used in the same manner as in Mod. HG. dirre, this, is followed by the weak or strong form; aller, all, usually by the strong. The strong or weak form can be used after pronouns, as ich armer or ich arme, I poor ... In the vocative the weak form without the article is used, as guoten liute, (ye) good people. When the same adjective refers to nouns of different gender, it is put in the neuter plural.

ein and the possessive pronouns are followed by the strong form in the Nom. and Acc. singular; by the strong or weak form in the pl. and Gen. and Dative singular.

The possessive pronouns are declined strong.

The uninflected form of the adjective is used side by side with the inflected in the Nom. singular, all genders, and Acc. singular neuter, when the adjective comes before the noun: ein guot man, a good man. When the adjective stands after the noun the uninflected form may be used without reference to number, gender, or case, ein, dehein, and the possessive pronouns have the uninflected form in the Nom. for all genders, and Acc.

neuter. The uninflected form of al, all, can be used before all forms of the definite article: in al dēr wërhte, in all the world. See § 55.

PRONOUNS.

§ 104. im, ir, pl. in, are used to express the dative of the reflexive pronoun. dēr is sometimes used pleonastically, as dēr brunne, dēr was küele, the spring was cool. man used as an indefinite pronoun can take the definite article along with it.

VERBS.

§ 105. Number. The verb can be used in the singular after a compound subject, as Volkēr und Hagene sō sēre wüeten began, ... began to rage so furiously.

§ 106. Tenses. The fut. simple is expressed by sol, muoz, wil and the infin., or simply by the pres., as in OE.: ich sol gān, I shall go; bin ich gnislīch, sō genise ich, if I am curable, I shall recover. For the fut. pf. the pf. is used: daz ist schiere getān, that will soon have been done. The pf. is expressed either by the simple pret. or the p.p. and the verbs hān, sīn; in subordinate sentences the pret. often has the meaning of the pluperfect: dō du von ir schiede, zehant sie starp, she died immediately after thou hadst taken leave of her.

The preterite acquires a pluperfect, and the present a future perfect meaning when the prefix ge is added to them: swenne iuwer sun gewahset, when your son (shall have) has grown up; dō ich in gesach, when I had seen him. The present participle with sīn is sometimes used as in English, see ‘Arme Heinrich,’ l. 24.

§ 107. Voice. The present and preterite passive are expressed by wërden and the p.p., and the corresponding perfect tenses by sīn and the p.p.

Pres. ich wirde gelobet.

Pret. ich wart „

Perf. ich bin „

Plupf. ich was „

Inf. gelobet sīn.

§ 108. Negation. Negation in sentences is expressed by ne (en, n) before the verb, and niht after it: ēr enist guot, he is not good. niht is frequently omitted, especially after the preterite presents, the verbs wellen, lān, sentences containing negative pronouns or adverbs, and in subordinate sentences.

en without niht is used with the subjunctive in subordinate sentences in the sense of unless, if not, except that, when that, that not, &c.: dēn līp wil ich verliesen, si enwērde mīn wīp, I will die if she will not become my wife; ich wæne nieman in dēr wërlte lēbe, ērn habe ein leit, I believe no one lives in the world who has not his trouble.

en is further also used in the sense of Latin ‘quin’: ich mac daz niht bevarn, mirn wërde mīn ritterschaft benomen, I cannot prevent my knighthood being taken away from me.

TEXTS

Line numbers have been removed from the prose passages. In the verse passages, some unstressed e's, and a few i's, were printed with an under-dot: ẹ ĭ. This usage is not explained. Some under-dots may be flyspecks, and a few umlauts were uncertain.

BERTHOLD VON REGENSBURG.

His name was properly Berthold Lech. He was the most celebrated preacher of the thirteenth century. He died in Regensburg in 1272. The following extract is from a sermon on Matt. v. 8.

‘Sælic sint die armen: wan daz himelrīch ist ir,’ etc. Mit disen aht tugenden sint alle die ze himelrīche komen, die dā sint, und mit den selben aht tugenden müezent noch alle die dar komen, die iemer mēr dar komen sūln. Nū wil ich die siben under wegen lān und wil niuwen von ir einer sagen, wan also vil guoter dinge an ir ieglicher ist; und von ir ieglicher wære gar vil und gar lanc sunderlichen ze sagenne; und wie manigiu untugent uns an disen ahte tugenden irret, daz würde eht von ieglicher gar lanc ze sagenne. Wan man ez allez in einer predigen niht verenden mac, noch in vieren, noch in zehenen, sō wil ich iu hiute niuwen sagen von den, die ein reine herze habent, und von den man hiute dā liset in dem heiligen ewangelio ‘sælic sint, die reines herzen sint: die werdent got sehende.’ A Die sint wol von rehte sælic, die dā got sehent. Ein übergülde ist ez aller der sælikeit, diu ie wart oder iemer mēr eht werden mac, swer got ansehende eht wirt, alsō süeze und alsō wünneclich ist diu gesiht, die man an got siht. Sō wart nie deheiner muoter ir kint nie sō liep, ān unser frouwen, und solte si ez drīe tage ane sehen ān underlāz, daz si anders niht enpflæge, wan eht si ir liebez kint solte an sehen: si æze an dem vierden tage vil gerner ein stücke brōtes. Und wolte ich vil gerner, daz ich alsō ein guot mensche wære, als daz wār ist, daz ich iezuo reden wil. Ob daz alsō wære, daz man zuo einem menschen spræche, der iezuo bī gote ist, ‘du hāst zehen kint ūf ertrīche, und du solt in koufen allen samt, daz sie ēre und guot haben unz an ir tōt, dā mit, daz du einigen ougenblic von gotes angesiht tuost, niuwen als lange als einz sīn hant möht umbe kēren, und sich danne wider zuo gote, und du solt dīn ougen niemer mēr von im kēren’: der mensche entæte sīn niht. Alse wār, herre, dīn wārheit ist, alse wār ist disiu rede, daz er disiu zehen kint unze an ir tōt ē nāch dem almuosen lieze gēn, ē danne er sich die kleine wīle von gote wolte wenden. In habent die engel wol sehzcic hundert jār an gesehen, und sehent in hiute als gerne als des ērsten tages. Und sie sint ouch alle samt sam des ērsten tages, dō sie got an sehende wurden. Dō wart ir deheiner sīt nie eltlīcher danne des ērsten tages, und sint doch sider wol sehzcic hundert jār alt. Swelher hundert jār alt würde under uns, der wære den liuten alse smæhe an ze sehenne von ungestaltheit und von dem gebresten, den daz alter an im hæte gemaht: sō mālet man die engele—dā sehet ir wol, swā man sie mält, daz man sie eht anders niht enmält wan als ein kint von fünf jāren, als junclich, oder von sehsen. Wan alle, die got sehent, die werdent niemer eltlīcher, die in in himelrīche sehent in sīnen freuden und in sīnen ēren. Ūf ertrīche sehen wir in alle tage in sīnem gewalte. Dehein irdenischer muot noch irdenisch līp möhte daz niht erlīden, daz in dehein irdenisch ouge iemer an gesehen möhte in sīnen freuden und in sīnen ēren, als er ze himelrīche ist. Wir sagen iu ettewenne ein glīchnisse, wie schœne got sī. Seht, allez daz wir iemer gesagen können oder mügen, daz ist rehte dem glīche, als obe ein kint uns solte sagen, ob ez müglich wære, von aller der wirde und von aller der gezierde, die diu werlt hāt, von der liechten sunnen, von den liechten sternen, von edelre gesteine craft und von ir maniger slahte varwe, von der edelen wūrze craft und von dem edelen gesmacke, und von der rīchen gezierde, die man ūzer sīden und ūzer golde machet in dirre werlte, und von maniger hande süezen stimme, die diu werlt hāt, von vōgelīn sange und von seitenspil, und von maniger hande bluomen varwe, und von aller der gezierde, die disiu werlt hāt. Alse unmüglich unde alse unkuntlīchen eime kinde dā von ze redenne ist, als unkunt ist ouch uns dā von ze redenne, von der unsegelīchen wünne, diu dā ze himel ist, und von dem wünneclīchen antlütze des lebendigen gotes. Wan alliu diu freude, diu dā ze himele ist, der ist niht wan von dem schīne, der von unsers herren antlütze gēt. Und rehte als alle sternen ir lieht von der sunnen nement, alsō habent alle heiligen ir gezierde und ir schönheit von gote, und engele und allez himelische her. Reht als alle die sternen des himeles, der māne und die planēten, grōz und kleine, die habent alle samt ir lieht von der sunnen, diu uns dā liuhtet: und alsō hāt allez himelischez her, engel und heiligen, die hōehsten und die minnesten, die habent alle samt ir freude und ir wünne und ir gezierde und die ēre und die wirde und ouch die schœnde, daz habent sie alle samt von der angesichte gotes, daz sie got an sehent. Die engele, die dā unser hūetent, die sehent in ze aller zīt an, als ob sie bī im wāren. Wan alliu diu freude, diu in himelrīche ist, diu diuhte sie ze nihte, solten sie got niht an sehen. Und dā von ‘sælic sint, die reines herzen sint; wan sie werdent got sehende.’ Nu sehent, wie sælic die sint, die dā reinez herze tragent. Ir, junge werlt, die noch unbewollen sint mit sünden, behaltent iuwer herze vor allen tœtlichen sünden, sō werdent ir got sehende in solīchen freuden und in sō grōzen ēren, die ouge nie gesach oder ōre nie gehōrte, alse sant Paulus dā sprichet; und alse sant Johannes sprichet: ‘wær ez mūgelich, daz man ez allez samt geschrīben mōhte, sō mōhte diu werlt diu buoch in ir niht behalten, dā ez an gestūende, daz ich gesach. Und allez, daz ich gesach, daz was niht wan got alleine.’ Und dar umbe mōhten wir doch gerne ze dem himelrīche komen und drumbe arbeiten. Ob uns niht diu minne und diu liebe dar twūnge, der wir gote schuldic sīn, seht, sō mōhten wir dar umbe dar komen, durch daz wunder, daz dā ist. Ez ist maniger vor mir: der im von sō getāner freude seite, daz si jenhalf meres wære, er füere gar gerinclīchen dar von hinnen über mer, niuwen daz erz gesæhe. Sō mōhtent ir hundertstunt gerner dar umb arbeiten, daz irz iemer mēre ēwiclīchen niezen soltet. Die vil wūnneclīchen angesiht des almehtigen gotes und der himelischen küniginne ze der zeswen sīner sīten in guldīner wæte, die mōhtet ir gerne an sehen. Wan würde iu einiger anblic, sō wære in alliu diu freude und diu ēre und aller der wollust, den diu werlt ie gewan, daz wær iu hinne für als widerzæme und ouch alse unmære, reht als sant Paulus dā sprach. Nu hœret wie er sprach; er sprach: ‘alliu diu ēre und diu freude und daz gemach, diu disiu werlt ie gewan von keisern und von künigen, wider der freude, diu in himelrīch ist; als widerzæme einem wære ein diep an einem galgen, als kurz einem diu wīle dā mite wære, daz er einen erhangen man triuten solte, wider aller der freude, die diu werlt hāt: alse widerzæme ist mir diu freude aller der werlte wider der ewigen freude.’ Ei wol iuch wart, daz iuch iuwer muoter ie getruoc, die sō getāne freude sūln besitzen. Der ist, ob got wil, vil maniger vor mīnen ougen. Ouch ist maniger, der vil kleine freude dar für nimt hie ūf ertrīche, und daz dem guoten sante Paulen gar versmāhte, des wirt im der tūsentste teil niht. Und die habent ūbel kouft, die sō ūbergrōze freude gebent umb ein sō kurzez freudelīn in dirre werlte. Die habent ūbel gevarn; wan sie habent weder hie noch dort niht. Als ich iezuo sprach, rehte in glīcher wīse, rehte also alle sternen des himeles ir lieht von der sunnen habent, alsō hāt allez himelisch her ir lieht von dem wāren sunnen, sīt danne unser herre der wāre sunne und daz wāre lieht ist, also der guote sant Johannes dā sprichet. Der hei et in daz wāre lieht; als ouch daz vil wār ist: wan er ist daz wāre lieht, daz niemer mēr verlischet. Und alle, die von sīme gotvarwen liehte enzündet werdent, die erleschent ouch niemer mēre von der schönheit, die sie von dem wāren sunnen hānt. Und als vil diu sunne liehter und gelpfer ist, danne wir dā sehen, rehte als vil diu liehtes und glastes ūber alle sterne hāt, die an dem himel stēnt: als vil hāt der wāre sunne in himelrīche schīnes und glastes mēr ūber alle engele und ist geschœnet und gewirdet an allen ēren, also billich ist. Und dā von sint sie sælic, die ein reinez herze habent; wan si werdent got sehende.....

II THE SWABIAN LANTREHTBUOCH.

This work was compiled by David von Augsburg, about 1280 A.D.

HIE HEBET SICH AN DAZ LANTREHTBUOCH.

Herre got, himelischer vater, durch dīne milte güete geschüefe du den menschen in drīvaltiger werdikeit. Diu ērste, daz er nāch dir gebildet ist. Daz ist ouch ein alsō hōhiu werdikeit, der dir allez menschlich künne sunderlīchen immer danken sol. Wan des haben wir gar michel reht, vil lieber herre, himelischer vater, sīt du uns zuo dīner hōhen gotheit alsō werdiclīchen geedelt hāst. Diu ander werdikeit, dā du, herre got, almāhtic schepfer, den menschen zuo geschaffen hāst, daz ist diu, daz du alle dise werelt, die sunnen unde den mānen, die sterne unde diu vier element, viur, wazzer, luft unde die erden, die vogel in den lūften, die vische in dem wāge, diu tier in dem walde, die wūrme in der erden, golt unde edel gesteine, der edeln wūrze süezen smac, der bluomen liehte varwe, der boume frucht unde ēt alle crēatūre: daz hāst du, herre, allez dem menschen ze nutze unde ze dienste geschaffen durch die triuwe unde durch die minne, die du ze dem menschen hetest. Diu dritte werdikeit, dā du, herre, den menschen mit gewirdet unde geedelt hāst, daz ist diu, daz der mensche die wurde unde die ēre, die vreude unde die wünne immer mit dir ēwiclīchen niezen sol. Der werelde dienst unde nuz hāst du, herre, dem menschen umbe sust gegeben ze einer manunge unde ze einem vorbilde. Sīt des sō vil ist, des du, herre, dem menschen umbe sust gegeben hāst, dā bī sol der mensche nu trachten, sō mege des wol gar übermæziclīchen vil sīn, des du dem menschen umbe sīnen dienst geben wilt. Unde dar umbe sol ein iegelīch mensche got dienen mit ganzen triuwen; wan der lōn ist alsō übermæziclīchen grōz, daz in herzen sin nie betrachten möhte noch menschen zunge nie gesprochen möhte, noch ougen sehen künde in nie beliuhten, noch ōre nie gehōren.

Daz wir nu got der hōhen werdikeit gedanken unde den grōzen lōn verdienen, des helfe uns der almāchtige got. āmen.

Sīt uns got in sō hōher werdikeit geschaffen hāt, sō wil er ouch, daz wir werdez leben haben, unde daz wir einander wurde unde ēre erbieten, triuwe unde wārheit, niht haz unde nīt einander tragen. Wir sullen mit fride unde mit suone under einander leben. Fridlich leben hāt unser herre got lieb. Wan er kom von himelrīche ūf erderīche durch anders niht wan durch den rechten fride, daz er uns einen rechten fride schüefe vor der ēwigen marter, ob wir selben wellen. Unde dā von sunen die engel ob der krippen: ‘Gloria in excelsis deo et in terra pax hominibus bonae voluntatis’—‘Gots ēre in dem himel unde guot fride ūf der erden allen den, die guoten willen habent ūf erderīche!’ Dō unser herre got hie ūf erderīche gie, sō was daz ie sīn ellich wort: ‘Pax vobis!’ daz sprichet: ‘der fride sī mit iu!’ unde alsō sprach er alle zīt zuo sīnen jungern unde zuo andern liuten. Unde dā bī suln wir merken, wie rehte lieb der almechtige got den rechten vride hāt. Wan dō er von erderīche wider ūf zuo himel fuor, dō sprach er aber zuo sīnen jungern: ‘der vride sī mit iu!’ unde enphalh dem guoten Sant Pēter, daz er phleger wære über den rechten fride, unde gap im den gewalt, daz er den himel ūf slüzze allen den, die den fride hielten, unde swer den fride bræche, daz er dem den himel vor beslüzze. Daz ist alsō gesprochen: ēt alle, die diu gebot unsers herren zebrechent, die habent ouch den rechten fride gebrochen. Daz ist ouch von gote reht, swer diu gebot unsers herren zebrichet, daz man dem den himel vor besliuȝet, sīt uns got nu geholfen hāt, daz wir mit rehtem leben unde mit fridlīchem leben daz himelrīch verdienen mügen. Wan daz was niht vor gotes geburt, swie wol der mensche tæt in aller der werelde, sō mohte er doch ze dem himelrīch niht komen. Got geschuof des ēersten himel unde erden, dar nāch den menschen unde sazte in in daz paradys. Der zebrach die gehōrsam uns allen ze schaden; dar umbe gienge wir irre sam diu hirtelōsen schāf, daz wir in daz himelrīch niht mohten, unz an die zīt, daz uns got den wec dar wīste mit sīner marter, unde dar umbe solde wir got immer loben unde ēren von allem unserm herzen unde von aller unserer sēle unde von aller unserer maht, daz wir nu sō wol ze den ēwigen freuden kæmen, ob wir wolden; daz hie vor manigen heiligen patriarken unde prophēten tiure was. Diu genāde unde diu sælikeit ist uns kristen liuten nu widervaren, daz wir nu wol daz himelrīch mugen verdienen. Unde swer des niht entuot unde diu gebot unsers herren zebrichet, daz richet er billichen an im.

VON VRĪEN LIUTEN.

Wir zelen drīer hande vrīen. Der heizent eine sempervrīen: daz sint die vrīen herren, als fürsten unde die ander frīen ze man hānt. Sō heizent die andern miter vrīen: daz sint die, die der hōhen vrīen man sint. Die driten vrīen daz sint die vrīen lantsæzen, die gebūren, die dā vrī sint. Der hāt ieglicher sīn sunder reht, als wir her nāch wol bescheiden.

VON TIUTSCHER LIUTE ĒREN.

Die tiutschen kiesent den künic: daz erwarb in der künic Karl. Swenne er gewīhet wirt unt ūf den stuol ze Ache gesetzet wirt mit der willen, die in erwelt hānt, sō hāt er küniclichen gewalt unde namen.—Den künic kiuset man ze rihter umbe eigen unde umbe lēhen unde über iegliches menschen līp unde umbe alleȝ, daz vūr in ze klagen kumet. Der keiser mac in allen landen niht gesīn, unde mac alleȝ ungerihte niht verrihten. Dā von līhet er den fürsten unde andern herren wereltlich gerihte. An die vierten hant mac dehein gerihte nimmer komen mit rehte, dā man umbe menschenbluot rihten sol ode umbe alle vrevel.

| ichn gesūme iuch niemer tac.           | 920 |

herre, ir hānt uns doch gesaget, ob ir hetent eine maget diu gerne den tōt durch iuch lite, dā soltent ir genesen mite.
diu wil ich weizgot selbe sīn: 925 iuwer leben ist nützer dan daz mīn.'

Dō gnādete ir der herre des willen harte verre.
und ervolleten im diu ougen von jāmer alsō tougen. 930 er sprach 'gemahelē, ja ist der tōt iedoch niht ein senftiu nōt, als dū dir līhte hāst gedāht.

du hāst mich des wol innen brāht, möhtestū, dū hülfest mir. 935 des genüegeſt mich wol von dir.

ich erkenne dīnen süezen muot:
dīn wille ist reine unde guot.
ichn sol ouch niht mē von dir gern. dū maht mich des niht wol gewern 940 daz dū dā gesprochen hāst.

die triuwe die du an mir begāst, die sol dir vergelten got.
ditz wære der lantliute spot, swaz ich mich für dise stunde arzenīen underwunde, 945 und mich doch niht vervienge wan als ez doch ergienge.

gemahele, dū tuost als diu kint diu dā gæhes muotes sint: 950

swaz den kumet in den muot, ez sī übel oder guot,
dar zuo ist in allen gāch, und geriuwēſt sī sēre dar nāch.
gemahele, alsō tuost ouch dū. 955 der rede ist dir ze muote nū:

der d e von dir nemen wolte, sō manz danne enden solte, so geriuwez dich vil līhte doch.’
und daz sī sich ein teil noch 960 baz bedæhte des bat er.
er sprach ‘dīn muoter und dīn vater die enmugen dīn niht wol enbern.
ich sol ouch niht ir leides gern die mir ie gnāde tāten. 965 swaz sī dir beide rāten, liebē gemahēle, daz tuo.’
hie mite lachete er dar zuo, wan er lützel sich versach daz doch sider dō geschach. 970 Sus sprach er zuo der guoter.
der vater und diu muoter sprāchen ‘lieber herre, ir hānt uns vil verre geliebet und geēret: 975 daz enwære niht wol bekēret, wir engültenz iu mit guote.
unser tohter ist ze muote daz sī den tōt durch iuch dol:
des gunne wir ir harte wol. 980 ez ist hiute der dritte tac daz sī uns allez ane lac daz wir ir sīn gunden:
nū hāt sīz an uns funden.
nū lāze iuch got mit ir genesen: 985 wir wellen ir durch iuch entwesen.’
Do im sīn gemahēle dō bōt für sīnen siechtuom ir tōt und man ir ernest ersach, dō wart dō michel ungemach 990

IV WALTHER VON DER VOGELWEIDE.

The exact dates of his birth and death are unknown. His chief poems were written between the years 1187 and 1230.

The best edition of his works is: Walther von der Vogelweide, herausgegeben und erklärt von W. Wilmanns, Halle, 1883 (2nd edit.).

1.

Ir sult sprechen: ‘willekomen!’
 der iu mære bringet, daz bin ich.
 Allez daz ir habt vernomen, daz ist gar ein wint: nū frāget mich.
 Ich wil aber miete:

wirt mīn lōn iht guot,
sō sage ich iu vil līhte, daz in sanfte tuot.
seht, waz man mir ēren biete.

Ich wil tiuschen frouwen sagen solhiu mære, daz si destе baz 10

Al der werlte suln behagen:
āne grōze miete tuon ich daz.

Waz wold' ich ze lōne?
si sint mir ze hēr;
sō bin ich gefüege und bite si nihtes mēr 15 wan daz si mich grüezen schōne.

Ich hān lande vil gesehen unde nam der besten gerne war: Übel müeze mir geschehen, künde ich ie mīn herze bringen dar, 20

Daz im wol gefallen
wolde fremeder site.
nū waz hülfe mich, ob ich unrehte strite?
tiuschiu zuht gāt vor in allen. 25

Von der Elbe unz an den Rīn und her wider unz an Ungerlant Mügen wol die besten sīn, die ich in der werlte hān erkant.

Kan ich rehte schouwen
guot gelāz und līp, 30
sam mir got, sō swüere ich wol, daz hie diu wīp bezzet sint danne ander frouwen.

Tiusche man sint wol gezogen, rehte als engel sint diu wīp getān. 35

Swer si schiltet, derst betrogen:
ich enkan sīn anders niht verstān.

Tugent und reine minne, swer die suochen wil, der sol komen in unser lant: da ist wünne vil:

lange müeze ich leben dar inne!

2.

Owē war sint verschwunden alliu mīniu jār!
ist mir mīn leben getroumet oder ist ez wār?
daz ich ie wānde, daz iht wære, was daz iht?
dar nāch hān ich geslāfen und enweiz es niht.

Nū bin ich erwachet, und ist mir unbekant, daz mir hie vor was kündic als mīn ander hant.
liut unde lant, dā ich von kinde bin erzogen, die sint mir fremde worden, reht' als ez sī gelogen:

Die mīne gespielen wāren, die sint träge und alt;
bereitet ist daz velt, verhouwen ist der walt:
wan daz daz wazzer fliuzeit, als ez wīlent flōz, für wār ich wānde mīn ungelücke würde grōz.
mich grüezet maneger träge, der mich bekande ē wol.
diu werlt ist allenthalben ungenāden vol.

als ich gedenke an manegen wūnneclīchen tac, die sint mir enpfallen gar als in daz mer ein slac, iemer mēre owē!

55

Owē wie jamerlīche junge liute tuont!
den vil unriuweclīche ir gemüete stuont, die kunnen niuwan sorgen: owē wie tuont si sō?
swar ich zer werlte kēre, dā ist nieman frō:

Tanzen unde singen zergāt mit sorgen gar.
nie kristenman gesach sō jamerlīchiu jār.
nū merket, wie den frouwen ir gebende stāt;
die stolzen ritter tragent dörperlīche wāt.

Uns sint unsenfte brieve her von Rōme komen, uns ist erloubet trüren und frōude gar benomen. daz müet mich inneclīchen (wir lebten ē vil wol), daz ich nū für mīn lachen weinen kiesen sol.
diu wilden vogellīn betrüebet unser klage:

waz wonders ist, ob ich    dā von vil gar verzage?
waz spriche ich tumber man    durch mīnen böesen zorn?
swer dirre wünne volget, der    hāt jene dort verlorn
iemer mēre, owē!

Owē wie uns mit süezen    dingen ist vergeben! 75 ich sihe die gallen mitten    in dem honege sweben.
diu werlt ist ūzen schœne,    wīz, grūen' unde rōt und innen swarzer varwe,    vinster sam der tōt.

Swen si nū habe verleitet,    der schouwe sīnen trōst: 80 er wirt mit swacher buoze    grōzer sūnde erlōst.
dar an gedenket, ritter!    ez ist iuwer dinc;
ir traget die liechten helme    und manegen herten rinc,

Dar zuo die vesten schilte    und diu gewīhten swert.
wolte got, wær ich    der sigenūnfte wert, 85 sō wolte ich nōtic man    verdienen rīchen solt.

joch meine ich niht die huoben    noch der hēren golt:
ich wolte selbe krōne    ēweclīchen tragen;
die möhte ein soldenære    mit sīme sper bejagen.
möht ich die lieben reise    gevaren über sē, sō wolte ich denne singen 'wol'    und niemer mēre 'owē,' 90 niemer mēre 'owē!'

3.

Dō der sumer komen was und die bluomen durch daz gras wünneclīche entsprungen, 95 aldā die vogelesungen, dār kom ich gegangen an einen anger langen, dā ein lüter brunne entspranc;
vor dem walde was sīn ganc, dā diu nahtegale sanc. 100

Bī dem brunnen stuont ein boum, dā gesach ich einen troum.

ich was zuo dem brunnen gegangen von der sunnen, daz diu linde mære 105
den küelen schaten bære.
bī dem brunnen ich gesaz:
mīner swære ich gar vergaz, schiere entslief ich umbe daz.
110

Dō bedūhte mich zehant, wie mir dienten elliū lant, wie mīn sēle wære
ze himel āne swære
und der līp hie solte gebāren swie er wolte. 115
dā enwas mir niht ze wē.
got der waldes, swie'z ergē:
schœner troum enwart nie mē.

Gerne sliefe ich iemer dā, wan ein unsæligiu krā, 120
diu begonde schrīen.
daz alle krā gedīen
alse ich in des gūnne!
si nam mir michel wunne.
von ir schrīenne ich erschrac: 125 wan daz dā niht steines lac, sō wær' ez ir suontac.

Wan ein wunderaltez wīp diu getrōste mir den līp.
die begonde ich eiden. 130 nū hāt si mir bescheiden waz der troum bediute.
daz merken wīse liute;
zwēne und einer daz sint drī;
dannoch seitē si mir dā bī, 135

daz mīn dūme ein vinger sī.

4.

Ich saz ūf eime steine
und dahte bein mit beine;
dar ūf satzt ich den ellenbogen;
ich hete in mīne hant gesmogen 140 daz kinne und ein mīn wange:
dō dāhte ich mir vil ange, wie man zer werlte solte leben.
deheinen rāt kond ich gegeben, wie man driu dinc erwürbe, 145
der keinez niht verdürbe.
diu zwei sint ēre und varnde guot, daz dicke einander schaden tuot;
daz dritte ist gotes hulde, der zweier übergulde. 150 die wolte ich gerne in einen schrīn;
jā leider des enmac niht sīn, daz guot und werltlīch ēre und gotes hulde mēre zesamene in ein herze komen. 155 stīg' unde wege sint in benomen:
untriuwe is in der sāze, gewalt vert ūf der strāze, fride unde reht sint sēre wunt.
diu driu enhabent geleites niht, 160 diu zwei enwerden ē gesunt.

5.

Ich hōrte ein wazzer diezen und sach die vische fliezen; ich sach swaz in der werlte was, velt unde walt, loup rōr und gras; 165

swaz kriuchet unde fliuget und bein zer erden biuget, daz sach ich unde sage iu daz:
 der keinez lebet āne haz.
 daz wilt und daz gewürme 170 die strītent starke stürme, sam tuont die vogel under in;
 wan daz sie habent einen sin:
sie diuhten sich ze nihte, sie enschüefen starc gerihte: 175 sie kiesent künege unde reht, sie setzent hēren unde kneht.
 sō wē dir, tiuschiu zunge, wie stēt dīn ordenunge, daz nū diu mucke ir künic hāt 180 und daz dīn ēre alsō zergāt!
bekērā dich, bekēre!
 die zirken sint ze hēre,
 die armen künege dringent dich:
Philippe setze en weisen ūf und heiz sie treten hinder sich!

6.

Ich sach mit mīnen ougen man unde wībe tougen, dā ich gehōrte und gesach swaz iemen tet, swaz iemen sprach. ze Rōme hōrte ich liegen 190 und zwēne künege triegen.
 dā von huop sich der meiste strīt, der ē was oder iemer sīt, daz sich begonden zweien die pfaffen unde leien. 195 daz was ein nōt vor aller nōt:
 līp unde sēle lac dā tōt, die pfaffen striten sēre:

doch wart der leien mēre.
diu swert sie legeten dernider 200 und griffen zuo der stōle wider:
sie bienen die sie wolten und niuwet den sie solten.
dō stōrte man diu goteshūs.
ich hōrte verre in einer klūs 205 vil michel ungebære:
dā weinde ein klōsenære,
er klagete gote sīniu leit:
‘ōwē, der bābest ist ze junc: hilf, hēre, dīner Kristenheit!’

7.

Diu krōne ist elter dan der künec Philippes sī: 210
dā muget ir alle schouwen wol ein wunder bī, wie s’ ime der smit sō ebene habe gemacht.
sīn keiserlichez houbet zimt ir alsō wol, daz sie ze rehte nieman guoter scheiden sol.
ir dwederez daz ander niht enswachet. 215 sie liuhtent beide ein ander an,
daz edele gesteine wider den jungen man:
die ougenweide sehent die fürsten gerne.
swer nū des rīches irre gē, der schouwe, wem der wise ob sīme nacke stē: 220 der stein ist aller fürsten leitesterne.

8.

Mir ist verspart der sælden tor:
dā stēn ich als ein wise vor, mich hilfet niht swaz ich dar an geklopfe.
wie möhte ein wunder græzer sīn? 225 ez regent beidenthalben mīn, daʒ mir des alles niht enwirt ein tropfe.

des fürsten milte ūʒ Ōsterrīche freut dem süezen regen gelīche beidiu liute und ouch daʒ lant. 230 er ist ein schœne wol gezieret heide, dar abe man bluomen brichet wunder:
und bræche mir ein blat dar under diu sīn vil milte rīchiu hant, sō möhte ich loben die süezen ougenweide. 235 hie bī sī er an mich gemant.

9.

Ich hān mīn lēhen, al die werlt! ich hān mīn lēhen!
nū enfürhte ich niht den hornunc an die zēhen und wil alle bœse hēren destē minre vlēhen. 240 der edel künec, der milte künec hāt mich berāten, daʒ ich den sumer luft und in dem winter hitze hān.
mīn' nāhgebūren dunke ich verre baz getān:
sie sehent mich niht mēr an in butzen wīs, alsō sie tāten.
ich bin ze lange arm gewesen ān' mīnen danc. 245 ich was sō volle scheltens, daʒ mīn ātem stanc.
daʒ hāt der künec gemachet reine und dar zuo mīnen sanc.

10.

Ōwē hovelīchez singen,
daʒ dich ungefüege dœne solten ie ze hove verdringen!
daʒ sie schiere got gehœne! 250 ōwē, daʒ dīn werde alsō geliget, des sint alle dīne friunde unfrō.
daʒ muoʒ eht sō sīn, nū sī alsō:
frō Unfuoge, ir habt gesiget. 255

Der uns freude wider bræhte, diu reht und gefüege wære, hei wie wol man des gedæhte, swā man von im seite mære!

ez wær' ein vil hovelīcher muot, des ich iemer gerne wünschen sol. 260 frouwen unde hēren zæme ez wol:
ōwē daz ez nieman tuot!

Die daz rehte singen stœrent, der ist ungelīche mēre danne die ez gerne hœrent. 265 des volg' ich der alten lēre:
ich enwil niht werben ze der mül;
dā der stein sō riuschend' umbe gāt und daz rat sō manege unwīse hāt, merket wer dā harpfen sül! 270

Die sō frevellīchen schallent, der muoz ich vor zorne lachen, daz s' in selben wol gevallent mit als ungefüegen sachen.
die tuont sam die frösche in eime sē, 275 den ir schrīen alsō wol behaget, daz diu nahtegal dā von verzaget, sō si gerne sunge mē.

Der unfuoge swīgen hieze, waz man noch von freuden sunge, 280 und sie abe den bürgen stieze, daz si dā die frōn iht twunge!
wurden ir die grōzen hōve benomen, daz wær' allez nāch dem willen mīn:
bien gebūren lieze ich sie wol sīn, 285 dannen ist s' ouch here komen.

Der rīfe tet den kleinen vogelen wē, daz sie niht ensungen.
nū hōrte ich s'aber wūnneclīche als ē:
nū ist diu heide entsprungen. 290 dā sach ich bluomen strīten wider den klē, weder ir lenger wære.
mīner frouwen seite ich disiū mære.

Uns hāt der winter kalt und ander nōt vil getān ze leide. 295 ich wānde, daz ich iemer bluomen rōt sæhe an grüener heide.
joch schāte ez guoten liuten, wære ich tōt, die nāch freuden rungen und ie gerne tanzten unde sprungen. 300

Versūmde ich disen wūnneclīchen tac, sō wær' ich verwāzen
und wære an freude ein angestlīcher slac:
dennoch müese ich lāzen al mīne freude, der ich wīlent pflac. 305 got gesegen' iuch alle:
wünschet noch, daz mir ein heil gevalle.

12.

Wīp muoz ēt iemer sīn der wībe hōhste name und tiuret baz dan frouwe, als ich'z erkenne.
swā nū deheiniu sī, diu sich ir wīpheit schame, 310 diu merke disen sanc und kiese denne.
under frouwen sint unwīp, under wīben sint sie tiure:
wībes name und wībes līp die sint beide vil gehiure. 315 swie'z umb' alle frouwen var, wīp sint alle frouwen gar.

zwīvellop daz hœnet,
als under wīlen frouwe: wīp dēst ein name der s' alle krœnet.

Sō die bluomen ūz dem grase dringent, 320 same sie lachen gegen der spileden sunnen, in einem meien an dem morgen fruo, und diu kleinen vogellīn wol singent in ir besten wīse die sie kunnen, waz wünne mac sich dā genōzen zuo? 325 ez ist wol halb ein himelrīche.
suln wir sprechen, waz sich deme gelīche, sō sage ich, waz mir dicke baz
in mīnen ougen hāt getān, und tæte ouch noch, gesæhe ich daz. 330

Swā ein edeliu schœne frouwe reine wol gekleidet unde wol gebunden durch kurzewīle zuo vil liuten gāt, hovelīchen hōchgemuot, niht eine, umbe sehende ein wēnic under stunden: 335 alsam der sunne gegen den sternen stāt:
der meie bringe uns al sīn wunder, waz ist dā sō wünneclīches under als ir vil minneclīcher līp?
wir lāzen alle bluomen stān, 340 und kapfen an daz werde wīp.

Nū wol dan, welt ir die wārheit schouwen, gēn wir zuo des meien hōchgezīte!
der ist mit aller sīner krefte komen.
seht an in und seht an werde frouwen, 345 wederez daz ander überstrīte, daz bezzer spil ob ich daz habe genomen.
ōwē der mich dā welen hieze, deich daz eine durch daz ander lieze, wie rehte schiere ich danne küre! 350 hēr Meie, ir müeset merze sīn, ē ich mīne frouwen dā verlüre.

14.

Swie wol der heide ir manicvaltiu varwe stāt, sō wil ich doch dem walde jehen, daz er vil mēre wūneclīcher dinge hāt. 355 noch ist dem velde baz geschehen.
sō wol dir, sumer, sus getāner emzekeit!
sumer, daz ich iemer lobe dīne tage, mīn trōst, sō trēste ouch mīne klage:
ich sage dir, waz mir wirret: 360 diu mir ist liep, der bin ich leit.

Ich mac der guoten niht vergezzen noch ensol, diu mir sō vil gedanke nimet.
die wīle ich singe, wil ich vinden iemer wol ein niuwe lop, daz ir gezimet. 365 nū habe ir diz für guot (sō lobe ich danne mē):
ez tuot in den ougen wol, daz man sie siht, und daz man ir vil tugende giht, daz tuot wol in den ōren.
sō wol ir des! sō wē mir, wē! 370

15.

In einen zwīvellīchen wān was ich gesezzen und gedāhte, ich wolte von ir dienste gān, wan daz ein trōst mich wider brāhte.
trōst mag ez rehte niht geheizen, ouwē des! 375 ez ist vil kūme ein kleinez trēstelīn, sō kleine, swenne ich'z iu gesage, ir spottet mīn;

doch fröwet sich lützel ieman, er enwizze wes.

Mich hāt ein halm gemachet frō:
er giht, ich sūle genāde vinden. 380 ich maz daz selbe kleine strō, als ich hie vore sach von kinden.
nū hœret unde merket, ob si'z denne tuo:
'si tuot, si entuot, si tuot, si entuot, si tuot.'
swie dicke ich'z tete, sō was ie daz ende guot. 385 daz trœstet mich: dā hœret ouch geloube zuo.

sō leiste ich dir geselleschaft: mīn singen ist niht lanc.
dīn sēle müeze wol gevarn und habe dīn zunge danc.

V REINMAR.

Reinmar, often called Reinmar der Alte, was by birth an Alsatian. He spent many years of his active life as Court poet at Vienna, where he was extremely popular. Next to his rival Walther von der Vogelweide he was the most prolific and important lyrical poet of his period, cp. ll. 487-512, pp. 132-3. He died some time during the first decade of the thirteenth century. See Burdach, Reinmar der Alte und Walther von der Vogelweide, Leipzig, 1880, and Bartsch, Deutsche Liederdichter des zwölften his vierzehnten Jahrhunderts, Stuttgart, 1879.

VI ULRICH VON LICHTENSTEIN.

Ulrich von Lichtenstein came of a better-class Styrian family, and was born about the year 1200 and died in 1275 or 1276. He was one of the best representatives of the later Court lyrical poets. For editions of his works, see Lachmann, Ausgabe der Dichtungen Ulrichs von Lichtenstein, Berlin, 1841; Bechstein, Ulrichs von Lichtenstein Frauendienst, Leipzig, 1887. The following extracts are taken from Bartsch, Deutsche Liederdichter des zwölften bis vierzehnten Jahrhunderts, Stuttgart, 1889.

1

Ein tanzwīse, und ist diu vierde wīse.

In dem walde süeze dōene singent kleiniu vogellīn.
an der heide bluomen schōene blüejent gegen des meien schīn.
alsō blüet mīn hōher muot mit gedanken gegen ir güete, diu mir rīchet mīn gemüete sam der troum den armen tuot.

Ez ist ein vil hōch gedinge den ich gegen ir tugenden trage, daz mir noch an ir gelinge, daz ich sælde an ir bejage.
des gedingen bin ich vrō.
god geb' daz ich'z wol verende, daz sie mir den wān iht wende der mich freut sō rehte hō.

10

15

Sie vil süeze, valsches āne, vrī vor allem wandel gar, lāze mich in liebem wāne die wīl ez niht baz envar; 20 daz diu vreude lange wer, daz ich weinens iht erwache, daz ich gegen dem trōste lache des ich von ir hulden ger.

Wünschen unde wol gedenken 25
dēst diu meiste vreude mīn.
des sol mir ir trōst niht wenken, sie enlāze mich ir sīn
mit den beiden nāhen bī, sō daz sie mit willen gunne 30 mir von ir sō werder wunne daz sie sælic immer sī.

Sælic meie, du aleine træstest al die welde gar.
du und al diu werlt gemeine 35 vreut mich min dann umb ein hār.
wie möht' ir mir vreude geben āne die vil lieben guoten?
von der sol ich trōstes muoten;
wan ir trōstes muoz ich leben. 40

2

Ein sincwīse, und ist diu sibende wīse.

Wē war umbe sul wir sorgen?
vreude ist guot.
von den wīben sol man borgen hōhen muot.
wol im der in kan gewinnen 45 von in! der'st ein sælic man.

freude sol man durch sie minnen, wan dā līt vil ēren an.

Wir suln tanzen singen lachen durch diu wīp. 50
dā mit mac ein man gemachen daz sīn līp
wirdet wert, ob er mit triuwen dienet guoter wībe gruoȝ.
swen sīn dienest wil geriuwen, 55 dem wirt selten kumbers buoȝ.

Mit dem wazzer man daz, fiuwer laschet gar:
vinster ist der sunnen tiuwer.
beidiu wār 60
sint diu mære: ir hœret mære.
habet für wār ūf minen līp:
rehten man von herzen sēre scheidet nieman wan diu wīp.
65

Owē owē, frowe Minne,
mir ist wē.
nu grīf her wie sēre ich brinne.
kalder snē
müeste von der hitze brinnen diu mir an dem herzen līt. 70 kanstu, Minne, triuwe minnen, sō hilfestu mir enzīt.

3

Daz ist ein ūzreise.

Wil iemen nāch ēren die zīt wol vertrīben, ze sælden sich kēren, bī freuden belīben, der diene ze flīze mit triuwen vil schōne nāch der minne lōne: der ist sūeze, reine, vil guot und aleine den guoten gemeine.

Swer volget dem schilde, der sol ez enblanden dem lībe, dem guote, dem herzen, den handen.
des lōnet vil hōhe mit guotem gewinne diu vil werde Minne: diu gīt freud' und ēre.
wol ir sūezen lēre! sie kan trāesten sēre.

80

Der schilt wil mit zūhten vil baltlīchez ellen:
er hazzet, er schiuhet Schand' und ir gesellen.
got des niht enwelle daz man bī im vinde sō swachlīch gesinde, er wil daz die sīnen ūf ēre sich pīnen, in tugenden erschīnen.

85

Erg' unde unfuoge und unfuore diu wilde gezimt niht dem helme und touc niht dem schilde, der schilt ist ein dach daz niht schande kan decken.
sīn blic tāt' enblecken an ēren die weichen, von vorhten erbleichen: diu varwe ist ir zeichen.

Hōchgemuote frouwen, ir sūlt wol gedenken:
getriuwen gesellen vil stāte āne wenken den minnet, den meinet, mit herzen, mit muote, daz in iwer huote behalte, behüete mit liebe, mit güete, vrī vor ungemüete.

Sie ist āne schulde mir hazlīch erbolgen der ich ze dienste dem schilde wil volgen.
nu hān ich für zürnen noch für herzen sēre niht ander schilt mēre wan den trōst aleine, daz ich sie baz meine dann ie wīp deheine.

Gein ir langen kriege setz' ich mīn gedulde:
sō stē gein ir hazze ze wer mīn unschulde.
mīn wer gein den valschen daz sol sīn mīn triuwe vil sūeze āne riuwe: mīn kampflīch gewāte für ir nīdetāte daz sol sīn mīn stāte.

105

Got füege mir'z ze guote:
 ich bin noch in dem muote daz ich wil guoten wīben 110 mit dienst āne valschen muot immer bī belīben.
 dā von rāt' ich einen rāt der allen wol gemuoten mannen tugentlīchen stāt.
 Ich rāt' iu, ēre gerende man, mit triuwen, als ich beste kan: 115 ob ir welt werende freude hān, sō sīt den wīben undertān mit triwen āne valschen muot.
 ir güete ist alsō rehte guot, swer in mit triwen dienst tuot, 120 den kunnen sie wol machen frō.
 der werlde heil gar an in līt:
 ir güete ist freuden hōchgezīt, ir schōene sō vil freuden gīt, dā von diu herze stīgēt hō. 125 Werdekeit
 sunder leit
 kunnen sie wol friunden geben.
 swem sō sī
 witze bī, 130
 der sol nāch ir hulden streben unde zinsen in sīn leben:
 daz rāte ich ūf die triwe mīn.
 swer ēren sælic welle sīn und rīche an hōhem muote, 135 der sol mit triwen guotiu wīp reht minnen als sīn selbes līp.
 vil guot vor allem guote ist der wībe güete, unde ir schōene schōene ob aller schōene.
 ir schōene ir güete ir werdikeit ich immer gerne krøene. 140 an ir schōene und an ir güete stāt mīn heil und ouch mīn wunne.
 wær' guoter wībe schōene niht, wie selten ich gewunne deheinen ēren gernden muot.

wol mich daz sie sint alsō guot, daz man hāt von ir güete 145
sō hōhen trōst für senediū leit.
ir schœne, ir güete, ir werdikeit gīt mir vil hōch gemüete.

Mīn muot von wīben hōhe stāt.
waz danne ob mir ir einiu hāt 150 erzeiget hōhe missetāt?
dēs wār des mac wol werden rāt.

Waz sie gegen mir hāt getān, daz wil ich gerne wizzen lān mit zūhten, als ich beste kan, 155 ūf genāde guotiu wīp.

ich hān ir driu und zehen jār gedienet sunder wenken gar, bī mīnen triwen, daz ist wār, daz in der zīt mīn seneder līp 160 nie gewan

sölhen wān,
des mīn stæte wurde kranc.
al mīn gir
was gein ir 165

sleht mit triwen āne wanc.
nu vert entwer ir habedanc reht als ein rat daz umbe gāt und als ein marder den man hāt in eine lin gebunden. 170

kund' ich als sie unstæte sīn, sō hæt' ich nāch dem willen mīn ān sie ein frowen funden.

Ē daz ich mīn ritterlīche stæte bræch' an guoten wīben ich wold' ē immer valscher wībe hulde vrī belīben. 175 ich muoz in der stæten wībe dienst sunder lōn verderben oder ich muoz ir stæten herzen liebe alsus erwerben daz ich gewenke nimmer wanc von in. ir hōhen habedanc, und mag ich den erringen, 180

sō hān ich allez daz ich wil, süez' ougen wunne, herzen spil, vil wunne an allen dingen.

Nu waz bedarf mīn seneder līp genāden mēr, ob ich ein wīp 185 ze frowen vinde alsō gemuot, diu sich vor wandel hāt behuot und niht wan daz beste tuot?
der sol mīn dienest sīn bereit immer mē, 190
swie'z ergē,
sunder valsch mit stætikeit.
dā von gewinne ich werdikeit und alsō freuderīchen sin, des ich getiuret immer bin 195
an aller hande dingen.

Vind' ich sie, ich sol sō ritterlīchen nāch ir hulden ringen.
daz mir von ir stætikeit muoz hō an ir gelingen.
sie muoz abr ūf die triwe mīn gar vrī vor allem wandel sīn, 200 diech mēr mich lāze twingen und ouch in kumber bringen.
jā gehøeret man mich nimmer mē deheines valschen wībes lop gesprechen noch gesingen.

VII DAS NIBELUNGEN-LIED.

B. Text.                      ÄVENTIURE XVII.

WIE KRIEMHILT IR MAN KLAGTE UND WIE ER BEGRABEN WART.

The following extract is from Bartsch's edition, Leipzig, 1879.

Dō erbiten si der nahte    und fuoren über Rīn.
von heleden kunde nimmer    wirs gejaget sīn.
ein tier daz si dā sluogen,    daz weinden edeliu kint.
jā muosen sīn engelten    vil guote wīgande sint.                      4

Von grōzer übermüete    muget ir hoeren sagen, und von eislīcher rāche.    dō hiez Hagene tragen Sīfriden alsō tōten    von Nibelunge lant für eine kemenāten    dā man Kriemhilde vant.                      8

Er hiez in tougenlīchen    legen an die tūre, daz sin dā solde vinden    so si gienge derfūre him zer mettīne    ē daz ez wurde tac, der diu vrouwe Kriemhilt    vil selten keine verlac.                      12

Man lūte dā zem münster    nāch gewoneheit.
vrou Kriemhilt diu schœne    wahte manige meit:
ein licht bat si ir bringen    und ouch ir gewant.
dō kom ein kamerære    dā er Sīfriden vant.                      16

Er sah in bluotes rōten:    sīn wāt was elliū naz.
daz ez sīn herre wære,    nine wesse er daz.
hin zer kemenāten    daz licht truog an der hant von dem vil leider mære    diu vrouwe Kriemhilt ervant.                      20

Dō si mit ir vrouwen    zem münster wolde gān, dō sprach der kamerære    ‘jā sult ir stille stān:
ez līt vor dem gademe    ein ritter tōt erslagen.’

dō begonde Kriemhilt vil harte unmæzliche klagen. 24

Ē daz si rehte erfunde daz iz wære ir man, an die Hagenen vrāge denken si began, wie er in solde vristen: dō wart ir erste leit.
von ir was allen vreuden mit sīme tōde widerseit. 28

Dō seic si zuo der erden, daz si niht ensprach:
die schœnen vreudelōsen ligen man dō sach.
Kriemhilde jāmer wart unmāzen grōz:
do erschrē si nāch unkrefte daz al diu kemenāte erdōz. 32

Dō sprach daz gesinde: ‘waz ob ez ist ein gast?’
daz bluot ir ūz dem munde von herzen jāmer brast.
dō sprach si ‘ez ist Sīfrit, der mīn vil lieber man:
ez hāt gerāten Prūnhilt, daz ez hat Hagene getān.’ 36

Diu vrouwe bat sich wīsen dā si den helt vant.
si huop sīn schœne houbet mit ir vil wīzen hant.
swie rōt ez was von bluote, si het in schiere erkant.
dō lac vil jāmerliche der helt von Nibelunge lant. 40

Dō rief vil trūreclīche diu küneginne milt:
‘owē mir mīnes leides! nu ist dir dīn schilt mit swerten niht verhouwen: du līst ermorderōt.
unt wesse ich wer iz het getān, ich riete im immer sīnen tōt.’ 44

Allez ir gesinde klagete und scrē mit ir lieben vrouwen, wand’ in was harte wē umb’ ir vil edelen herren, den si dā heten verlorn.
dō het gerochen Hagene harte Prūnhilde zorn. 48

Dō sprach diu jāmerhafte: ‘ir sult hine gān und wecket harte balde die Sīfrides man.
ir sult ouch Sigemunde mīnen jāmer sagen, ob er mir helfen welle den kūenen Sīfriden klagen.’ 52

Dō lief ein bote balde    da ę si ligen vant, die Sīfrides heledē    von Nibelunge lant.
mit den vil leiden mæren    ir vreude er in benam.
si wolden'z niht gelouben    unz man daz weinen vernam. 56
Der bote kom ouch schiere    dā der künic lac.
Sigemunt der herre    des slāfes niht enpflac:
ich wæn' sīn herze im sagete    daz im was geschehen, ern möhte sīnen lieben sun    lebenden nimmer gesehen. 60

'Wachet, herre Sigemunt.    mich bat nāch iu gān Kriemhilt mīn vrouwe.    der ist ein leit getān daz ir vor allen leiden    an ir herze gāt:
daz sult ir klagen helfen,    wand' ez iuch sēre bestāt.' 64

Ūf rihte sich dō Sigemunt;    er sprach: 'waz sint diu leit der schœnen Kriemhilde,    diu du mir hāst geseit?' der bote sprach mit weinen:    'ine kan iu niht verdagen:
jā ist von Niderlanden    der küene Sīfrit erslagen.' 68

Dō sprach der herre Sigemunt:    'lāt daz schimpfen sīn und alsō bœsiu mære    durch den willen mīn, daz ir daz saget iemen    daz er sī erslagen:
wand' ine kunde in nimmer    unz an mīn ende verklagen.' 72

'Welt ir mir niht gelouben    daz ir mich hœret sagen, sō muget ir selbe hœren    Kriemhilde klagen unt allez ir gesinde    den Sīfrides tōt.'
vil sēre erscrac dō Sigemunt:    des gie im wærlīchen nōt. 76

Mit hundert sīnen mannen    er von den betten spranc.
si zuhten zuo den handen    diu scharpfen wāfen lanc,
si liefen zuo dem wuofe    vil jāmerliche dan.
dō kōmen tūsent recken    des küenen Sīfrides man. 80

Dō si sō jāmerlīche    die vrouwen hōrten klagen, dō wānden sumelīche,    si solden kleider tragen.
janę mohten si der sinne    vor leide niht haben:

in wart vil michel swære    in ir herzen begraben. 84

Dō kom der künec Sigemunt    da ę Kriemhilde vant.
er sprach: ‘owē der reise    here in ditze lant.
wer hāt mich mīnes kindes    und iuch des iuvern man bī alsō guoten friunden    sus mortlīch āne getān?’ 88

‘Hey solde ich den bekennen,’    sprach daz vil edele wīp, ‘holt enwurde im nimmer    mīn herze unt ouch mīn līp:
ich geriete im alsō leide    daz die friunde sīn von den mīnen schulden    müesen weinende sīn.’ 92

Sigemunt der herre    den fürsten umbeslōz.
dō wart von sīnen vriunden    der jāmer alsō grōz daz von dem starken wuofe    palas unde sal und ouch diu stat ze Wormez    von ir weinen erschal. 96

Donę kunde niemen træsten    daz Sīfrides wīp.
man zōch ūz den kleidern    den sīnen schœnen līp.
dō was sīnen liuten    von grōzem jāmere wē. 100

Dō sprāchen* sīne recken    von Nibelunge lant:
‘in sol immer rechen    mit willen unser hant.
er ist in dirre bürge,    der iz hāt getān.’
dō īlten nāch wāfen    alle Sīfrides man. 104

Die ūz erwelten degene    mit schilden kōmen dar, einlef hundert recken:    die hete an sīner schar Sigemunt der herre.    sīnes sunes tōt den wolde er gerne rechen:    des gie im wærlīchen nōt. 108

Sinę wessen wen si solden    mit strīte dō bestān, sīne tæten’z Gunther    unde sīne man, mit den der herre Sīfrit    an daz gejegede reit.
Kriemhilt sach si gewāfent:    daz was ir grœzliche leit. 112

Swie michel wær' ir jāmer und swie starc ir nōt, dō vorhte si harte der Nibelunge tōt von ir bruoder mannen, daz si ez understuont.
si warnt' si gūetlīche sō vriunde liebe vriunde tuont. 116

Dō sprach diu jāmers rīche: 'mīn her Sigemunt, wes welt ir beginnen? iu ist niht rehte kunt.
jā hāt der künic Gunther sō manigen kūenen man:
ir welt iuch alle vliessen, welt ir die recken bestān.' 120

Mit ūf erbürten schilden in was ze strīte nōt.
diu edel küneginne bat und ouch gebōt daz siz mīden solden, die recken vil gemeit.
dō siz niht lāzen wolden, daz was ir wærlīchen leit. 124

Si sprach: 'herre Sigemunt, ir sult iz lāzen stān unz ez sich baz gefüege: sō wil ich mīnen man immer mit iu rechen. der mir in hāt benomen, wurde ich des bewīset, ich sol im schedelīche komen. 128

Ez ist der übermüeten hie bī Rīne vil:
dā von ich iu des strītes rāten niht enwil.
si habent wider einen ie wol drīzec man.
nu lāz' in got gelingen als si umb uns gedienet hān. 132

Ir sult hie belīben, unt dolt mit mir diu leit;
als iz tagen beginne, ir helde vil gemeit, sō helfet mir besarken den mīnen lieben man.'
dō sprāchen die degene: 'daz sol werden getān.' 136

Iu enkunde niemen daz wunder volsagen von rittern unt von vrouwen, wie man die hōrte klagen, sō daz man des wuofes wart in der stat geware.
die edelen burgære die kōmen gāhende dare. 140

Si klageten mit den gesten, want in was harte leit.
die Sīfrides schulde in niemen het geseit, durch waz der edele recke    verlüre den sīnen līp.

dō weinden mit den vrouwen    der guoten burgære wīp. 144

Smide hiez man gāhen,    wurken einen sarc, von silber und von golde,    vil michel unde starc.
man hiez in vaste spengen    mit stahel, der was guot.
dō was al den liuten    harte trūrec der muot. 148

Diu naht was zergangen:    man sagte ez wolde tagen.
dō hiez diu edele vrouwe    zuo den münster tragen Sīfrit den herren,    ir vil lieben man.
swaz er dā vriunde hēte,    die sach man weinende gān. 152

Dō sī in zem munster brāhten, // vil der gloken klanc.
dō hōrt' man allenthalben    vil maniges pfaffen sanc.
dō kom der künic Gunther    mit den sīnen man und ouch der grimme Hagene    zuo dem wuofe gegān. 156

Er sprach: 'vil liebiu swester,    owē der leide dīn, daz wir niht mohten āne    des grōzen schaden sīn.
wir müezen klagen immer    den Sīfrides līp.'
'daz tuot ir āne schulde',    sprach daz jāmerhafte wīp. 160

'Wær' iu dar umbe leide,    son wær' es niht geschehen.
ir hetet mīn vergezzen,    des mag ich wol jehen, da ıch dā wart gescheiden    von mīme lieben man.
daz wolde got', sprach Kriemhilt,    'wær' iz mir selber getān.' 164

Si buten vaste ir lougen.    Kriemhilt begonde jehen 'swelher sich unschuldige,    der lāze daz gesehen;
der sol zuo der bāre    vor den liuten gēn.
dā bī mac man die wārheit    harte schiere verstēn.' 168

Daz ist ein michel wunder:    vil dicke ez noch geschiht, swā man den mortmeilen    bī dem tōten siht, sō bluotent im die wunden:    als ouch dā gescach.
dā von man die schulde    dā ze Hagenen gesach. 172

Die wunden vluzzen sēre alsam si tāten ē.
die ē dā sēre klageten, des wart nu michel mē.
dō sprach der künic Gunther ‘ich wil’z iuch wizzen lān.
in sluogen schāchære: Hagene hāt es niht getān.’ 176

‘Mir sint die schāchære’, sprach si, ‘vil wol bekant.
nu lāze ez got errechen noch sīner vriunde hant.
Gunther unde Hagene, jā habet ir iz getān.’
die Sīfrides degene heten dō ze strīte wān. 180

Dō sprach aber Kriemhilt: ‘nu habt mit mir die nōt.’
dō kōmen dise beide dā si in funden tōt, Gērñōt ir bruoder und Gīselher daz kint.
in triuwen si in klageten mit den anderen sint. 184

Si weinden inneclīche den Kriemhilde man.
man solde messe singen: zuo dem münster dan giengen allenthalben man wīp unde kint.
die sīn doch līhte enbāren, die weinden Sīfriden sint. 188

Gērñōt und Gīselher sprāchen: ‘swester mīn, nu tröeste dich nāch tōde, als iz doch muoz sīn.
wir wellen dich’s ergetzen die wīle unt wir geleben.’
donē kunde ir tröst deheinen zer werlde niemen gegeben. 192

Sīn sarc der was bereitet wol umbe’n mitten tac.
man huop in von der bāre dā er ūfe lac.
in wolde noch diu frouwe lāzen niht begraben.
des muosen al die liute michel arebeite haben. 196

In einen rīchen pfellel man den tōten want.
ich wāne man dā iemen āne weinen vant.
dō klagete herzenlīche Uote, ein edel wīp, und allez ir gesinde den sīnen wætlīchen līp. 200

Dō man daz gehōrte, daz man zem münster sanc, unt in gesarket hēte, dō huop sich grōz gedranc:

durch willen sīner sēle waz opfers man dō truoc!
er hete bī den vīnden doch guoter vriunde genuoc. 204

Kriemhilt diu arme zir kameræren sprach:
‘si suln durch mīne liebe līden ungemach, die im iht guotes gūnnen und mir wesen holt;
durch Sīfrides sēle sol man teilen sīn golt.’ 208

Dehein kint was sō kleine daz witze mohte haben, daz muose gēn zem opfer. ē ęr wurde begraben, baz danne hundert messe man dā des tages sanc.
von Sīfrides vriunden wart dō grōzer gedranc. 212

Dō man dā hete gesungen, daz volc huop sich von dan.
dō sprach diu vrouwe Kriemhilt ‘irn sult niht eine lān hīnte mich bewachen den ūz erwelten degen.
ez ist an sīme lībe al mīn vreude gelegen. 216

Drī tage und drī nahte wil ich in lāzen stān, unz ich mich geniete mīns vil lieben man.
waz ob daz got gebiutet daz mich ouch nimet der tōt?
sō wære wol verendet mīn armer Kriemhilde nōt.’ 220

Zen herbergen giengen die liute von der stat.
pfaffen unde mūnliche si belīben bat und allez sīn gesinde, daz des heldes pflac.
si heten naht vil arge unt vil muelīchen tac. 224

Ān ezzen und ān trinken beleip dā manic man.
die ez nemen wolden, den wart daz kunt getān, daz man’s in den vollen gæbe: daz schuof Sigemunt.
dō was den Nibelungen vil michel arebeite kunt. 228

Die drīe tagezīte, sō wir hōeren sagen, die dā kunden singen, daz si muosen tragen vil der arebeite. waz man in opfers truoc!
die vil arme wāren, die wurden rīche genuoc. 232

Swaz man vant der armen die es niht mohten hān, die hiez man doch zem opfer mit dem golde gān ūz sīn selbes kamere. do ęr niht solde leben, umbe sīne sēle wart manic tūsent marc gegeben. 236

Urbor ūf der erden teilte s'in diu lant, swā sō man diu klōster und guote liute vant.
silber unde wāte gap man den armen gnuoc.
si tet dem wol gelīche daz si holden willen truoc. 240

An dem dritten morgen ze rehter messezīt sō was bī dem münster der kirchof alsō wīt von den lantliuten weinens alsō vol:
si dienden im nāch tōde als man lieben vriunden sol. 244

In den tagen vieren, man hāt gesaget daz, ze drīzec tūsent marken, oder dannoch baz, wart durch sīne sēle den armen dā gegeben.
dō was gelegen ringe sīn grōziu schōene und ouch sīn leben. 248 Dō gote dā wart gedienet und daz man vol gesanc, mit ungefüegem leide vil des volkes ranc.
die sīn ungeren enbāren, die sah man weinen unde klagen. 252

Vil lūte scrīende daz liut gie mit im dan:
vrō enwas dā niemen, weder wīp noch man.
ē daz man in begrüebe, man sanc unde las:
hey waz guoter pfaffen ze sīner pīfilde was! 256

Ē daz zem grabe kōeme daz Sīfrides wīp, dō ranc mit solhem jāmer der ir getriuwer līp, daz man si mit dem brunnen vil dicke dā vergōz.
ez was ir ungemüete vil harte unmæzlichen grōz. 260

Ez was ein michel wunder daz si ie genas.
mit klage ir helfende manic vrouwe was.
dō sprach diu küneginne: 'ir Sīfrides man, ir sult durch iuwer triuwe    an mir genāde begān. 264

Lāt mir nāch mīme leide    daz kleine liep geschehen, daz ich sīn schōene houbet    noch eines müeze sehen.'
dō bat si's alsō lange    mit jāmers sinnen starc, daz man zebrechen muose    den vil hērlīchen sarc. 268

Dō brāhte man die vrouwen    dā si in ligen vant.
si huop sīn schōene houbet    mit ir vil wīzen hant;
dō kuste s' alsō tōten    den edelen ritter guot.
ir vil liechten ougen    vor leide weineten bluot. 272

Ein jæmerlīchez scheiden    wart dō dā getān.
dō truoc man si von dannen:    sine mohte niht gegān.
dō vant man sinnelōse    daz hērlīche wīp.
vor leide möht' ersterben    der ir vil wünneclīcher līp. 276

Dō man den edelen herren    hete nu begraben, leit āne māze    sah man die alle haben die mit im komen wāren    von Nibelunge lant.
vil selten vrœlīchen    man dō Sigemunden vant. 280 Dō was der etelīcher    der drīer tage lanc vor dem grōzem leide    niht az noch entranc.
doch mohten si dem lībe    sō gar gewīchen niht:
si nerten sich nāch sorgen,    sō noch genuogen geschiht. 284

VIII WOLFRAM VON ESCHENBACH.

Wolfram von Eschenbach was a native of Bavaria. Of his life little is known, not even the exact dates of his birth and death. He flourished in the latter part of the twelfth and early part of the thirteenth century, and was by far the best and most extensive representative of the Court epic poetry. He is best known by his Parzival, which contains 24,812 lines divided up into sixteen books. The following extract is taken from Book III. For editions of his works, see Lachmann, Wolfram von Eschenbach, Berlin, 1833, fifth edition, Berlin, 1891; Bartsch, Wolfram's von Eschenbach Parzival und Titurel, Leipzig, 1875.

Sich zōch diu frouwe jāmers balt

zer waste in Soltāne;
niht durch bluomen ūf die plāne, ir herzen jāmer was sō ganz, 5 sinę kērtē sich an keinen kranz, er wære rōt oder val.
sie brāhte dar durch flūhtesal des werden Gahmuretes kint.

 den bestüende ich sicherlīche.
 mīn muoter freisen von im saget: 105 ich wæne ir ellen sī verzaget.’

alsus stuont er in strītes ger.
nu seht, dort kom geschūftet her drī rīter nāch wunsche var, von fuoꝛe ūf gewāpent gar. 110 der knappe wānde sunder spot, daz ieslīcher wære ein got.
dō stuont ouch er niht langer hie, in'z phat viel er ūf sīniu knie.
lūte rief der knappe sān 115 ‘hilf, got: du maht wol helfe hān.’
der vorder zornes sich bewac, dō der knappe im phade lac: ‘dirre tørsche Wāleise unsich wendet gāher reise.’ 120 ein prīs den wir Beier tragen, muoꝛ ich von Wāleisen sagen:
die sint tørscher denne beiersch her,
und doch bī manlīcher wer.
swer in den zwein landen wirt, 125 gefuoge ein wunder an im birt.

Dō kom geleischieret
und wol gezimieret
ein rīter, dem was harte gāch.
er reit in strīteclīchen nāch, 130 die verre wāren von im komen:
zwēn' rīter heten im genomen ein' frouwen in sīm' lande, den helt ez dūhte schande:
in müetę der juncfrouwen leit, 135 diu jāmerlīche vor in reit.
dise drī wāren sīne man.
er reit ein schœne kastelān:
sīns schildes was vil wēnic ganz.
er hiez Karnahkarnanz 140
leh cons Ulterlec.

er sprach ‘wer irret uns den wec?’
 sus fuor er zuome knappen s̄an.
 den dūhte er als ein got getān:
 er’n het’ ē sō liehtes niht erkant. 145 ūfem towe der wāpenroc erwant.
 mit guldīn schellen kleine

 unt ze rehter māze erlenget. 150 s̄īn zeswer arm von schellen klanc, swar er’n bōt oder swanc.
 der was durch swertslege sō hel:
 der helt was gein prīse snel.
 sus fuor der fūrste rīche, 155 gezimiert wūnneclīche.

Aller manne schœne ein bluomen kranz, den vrāgte Karnahkarnanz ‘junchēre, sāht ir fūr iuch varen zwēn’ rīter die sich niht bewaren 160 kunnen an rīterlīcher zunft?
 sie ringent mit der nōtnunft und sint an werdekeit verzaget:
 sie fūerent roubes eine maget.’
 der knappe wānde, swaz er sprach, 165 ez wære got, als ime verjach frou Herzeloyd’ diu künegīn, do s’im underschiet den liehten schīn.
 dō rief er lūte sunder spot ‘nu hilf mir, helfe rīcher got.’ 170 vil dicke viel an s̄īn gebet fil li roy Gahmuret.
 der fūrste sprach ‘ich pin niht got,
 ich leiste ab gerne s̄īn gebot.
 du maht his vier rīter sehen, 175 ob du ze rehte kundest spehen.’

der knappe frāgte fürbaz ‘du nennest rīter: waz ist daz?
 hāstu niht gotelīcher kraft, sō sage mir, wer gīt rīterschaft.’ 180 ‘daz tuot der künec Artūs.
 junchēre, komet ir in des hūs, der bringet iuch an rīters namen, daz ir’s iuch niemer durfet schamen.
 ir muget wol sīn von rīters art.’ 185 von den helden er geschouwet wart:
 dō lac diu gotes kunst an ime.
 von der āventiurē ich daz nime, diu mich mit wārheit des beschiet:
 nie mannes varwe baz geriet 190
 vor ime sīt Adāmes zīt.
 des wart sīn lop von wīben wīt.

Aber sprach der knappe sān dā von ein lachen wart getān.
 ‘ay rīter got, waz mahtu sīn? 195 du hāst sus manec vingerlīn an dīnen līp gebunden, dort oben unt hie unden.’
 aldā begreif des knappen hant swaz er īsers ame fürsten vant: 200 des harnasch begunder schouwen.
 ‘mīner muoter juncfrouwen ir vingerīn an snüeren tragent, diu niht sus an ein ander ragent.’
 der knappe sprach durch sīnen muot 205 ‘war zuo ist ditze guot, daz dich sō wol kan schicken?
 i’ne mages niht abe gezwicken.’
 der fürste im zeigete sā sīn swert: ‘nu sich, swer an mich strītes gert, 210 des selben wer ich mich mit slegen:

für die sīne muoz ich an mich legen, und für den schuz und für den stich muoz ich alsus wāpen mich.’
aber sprach der knappe snel 215 ‘ob die hirze trüegen sus ir vel, son’ verwunt’ ir niht mīn gabylōt.
der vellet manger vor mir tōt.’

Die rīter zurnden daz er hielt bi dem knappen der vil tumpheit wielt. 220 der fürste sprach ‘got hüete dīn.
ōwī wan wær’ dīn schœne mīn!
dir hete got den wunsch gegeben, ob du mit witzen soldest leben.
diu gotes kraft dir virre leit.’ 225 die sīne und och er selbe reit, unde gāheten balde
z’einem velde in dem walde.
dā vant der gefüege
frōn Herzeloyden phlüege. 230 ir volke leider nie geschach;
die er balde eren sach:
si begunden sæn, dar nāch egen, ir gart ob starken ohsen wegen.
der fürste in guoten morgen bōt, 235 und frāgte sē, op sie sæhen nōt eine juncfrouwen līden, sine kunden niht vermiden, swes er vrāgt’, daz wart gesaget.
‘zwēne rīter und ein maget 240 dā riten hiute morgen.
diu frouwe fuor mit sorgen:
mit sporen sie vaste ruorten, die die juncfrouwen fuorten.’
ez was Meljahkanz. 245
den ergāhte Karnachkarnanz, mit strīte er ime die frouwen nam:

diu was dā vor frōuden lam.
sie hiez Īmāne
von der Bēāfontāne. 250

Die būliute verzageten, dō die helde für sie jageten.
sie sprāchen ‘wie’st uns sus geschehen?
hāt unser junchēre ersehen ūf disen rītern helme schart, 255 sonē hān wir uns niht wol bewart.

wir sulen der küneginne haz von schulden hōeren umbe daz, wand’ er mit uns dā her lief hiute morgen dō sie dannoch slief.’ 260 der knappe enruochte ouch wer dō schōz die hirze kleine unde grōz:

er huop sich gein der muoter wider,
und sagete ir mār’. dō viel sie nider:
sīner worte sie sō sēre erschrac, 265 daz sī unversunnen vor im lac.

dō diu küneginne
wider kom z’ir sinne, swie sie dā vor wār’ verzaget, dō sprach sie ‘sun, wer hāt gesaget 270 dir von rīters orden?

wā bist du’s innen worden?’ ‘muoter, ich sach vier man noch liehter danne got getān:
die sageten mir von rīterschaft. 275

Artūses küneclīchiu kraft sol mich nāch rīters ēren an schildes ambet kēren.’
sich huop ein niuwer jāmer hie.
diu frouwe enwesse rehte, wie 280 daz sie ir den list erdæhte unde in von dem willen bræhte.

Der knappe tump unde wert iesch von der muoter dicke ein pfert.
daz begunde sē in ir herzen klagen. 285 sie dāhte ‘i’n wil im niht versagen:
ez muoz aber vil bæse sīn.’
dō gedāhte mēr diu künegīn ‘der liute vil bī spotte sint.
tōren kleider sol mīn kint 290 ob sīme liechten lībe tragen.
wirt er geroufet unt geslagen, sō kumet er mir her wider wol.’
ōwē der jæmerlīchen dol!
diu frouwe nam ein sactuoch: 295 sie sneit im hemedē unde bruoch, daz doch an eime stücke erschein, unz enmitten an sīn blankez bein.
daz wart für tōren kleit erkant.
ein gugel man obene drūfe vant. 300 al frisch rūch kelberīn von einer hūt zwei ribbalīn nāch sīnen beinen wart gesniten.
dā wart grōz jāmer niht vermiten.
diu künegīn was alsō bedāht, 305 sie bat belīben in die naht.
‘dunē solt niht hinnen kēren, ich wil dich list ē lēren.
an ungebanten strāzen

 daz nim: ez tuot dir kumbers buoꝝ.
 du solt z'ir kusse gāhen und ir līp vast' umbevāhen:
 daz gīt gelücke und hōhen muot, 325 op sie kiusche ist unde guot.
 du solt och wizzen, sun mīn, der stolze küene Lāhelīn dīnen fürsten abe ervaht zwei lant, diu sollen dienen dīner hant, 330 Wāleis und Norgāls.
 ein dīn fürste Turkentals den tōt von sīner hende enphienc:
 dīn volc er sluoc unde vienc.'
 'diz riche ich, muoter, ruocht es got: 335 in verwundet noch mīn gabylōt.'

Des morgens dō der tag erschein, der knappe balde wart enein, im was gein Artūse gāch.
 frou Herzeloyde in kuste und lief im nāch. 340 der werelde riuwe aldā geschach.
 dō sie ir sun niht langer sach (der reit enwec: wem'st destē baz?), dō viel diu frouwe valsches laz ūf die erde, aldā sie jāmer sneit 345 dō daz se ein sterben niht vermeit.
 ir vil getriulīcher tōt der frouwen wert' die hellenōt.
 ōwol sie daz se ie muoter wart!
 sus fuor die lōnes bernden vart 350 ein wurzel der güete

und ein stam der diemüete.
ōwē daz wir nu niht enhān ir sippe unz an den eilften spān!
des wirt gevelschet manec līp.
doch solten nu getriuwiu wīp heiles wünschen disem knaben, der sich hie von ir hāt erhaben.

*** END OF THE PROJECT GUTENBERG EBOOK A MIDDLE HIGH GERMAN PRIMER ***

Updated editions will replace the previous one—the old editions will be renamed.

Creating the works from print editions not protected by U.S. copyright law means that no one owns a United States copyright in these works, so the Foundation (and you!) can copy and distribute it in the United States without permission and without paying copyright royalties. Special rules, set forth in the General Terms of Use part of this license, apply to copying and distributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works to protect the PROJECT GUTENBERG™ concept and trademark. Project Gutenberg is a registered trademark, and may not be used if you charge for an eBook, except by following the terms of the trademark license, including paying royalties for use of the Project Gutenberg trademark. If you do not charge anything for copies of this eBook, complying with the trademark license is very easy. You may use this eBook for nearly any purpose such as creation of derivative works, reports, performances and research. Project Gutenberg eBooks may be modified and printed and given away—you may do practically ANYTHING in the United States with eBooks not protected by U.S. copyright law. Redistribution is subject to the trademark license, especially commercial redistribution.

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG™ LICENSE

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase “Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, "Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation."
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
