NEW YORK EVENING JOURNAL

f O R E W O R D —

Thirty-three years ago the New York Evening Journal was introduced to New York under its present ownership.

Improvements have been constant. The aim has been to give the public a better and still better newspaper, to make the New York Evening Journal more attractive and interesting to every member of the family.

Today, this newspaper is read by the greatest number of men and women in all income groups. It goes into the homes of the highest earning and largest spending classes, reaching the worthwhile families of New York City and its suburbs.

The New York Evening Journal, through its National and International News and Feature Services, has access to more of the very best and highest paid experts, writers, artists and contributors in every department of newspaper publishing than any evening newspaper in America outside the Hearst organization.

For the past quarter of a century the New York Evening Journal has attracted the largest readership of any evening newspaper in the United States on the sound principle of greatest service to the greatest number of men and women in every substantial walk of life.

Talent, the most expert and brilliant that money can attract, as exemplified throughout the pages of this booklet, gives you the secret of READER INTEREST and READER CONFIDENCE in the New York Evening Journal—an overwhelming PUBLIC PREFERENCE over one hundred per cent greater than the next largest standard size evening newspaper in New York City.

NEW YORK EVENING JOURNAL.

ARTHUR BRISBANE, EDITORIAL WRITER
New York Evening Journal

MR. BRISBANE writes editorials for the New York Evening Journal and has done so for many years. His daily editorials are one of the outstanding reasons why nearly half of all the people in Metropolitan New York, who buy any New York evening paper, buy the New York Evening Journal every day.

More than DOUBLE the circulation of next New York evening newspaper.

ACCURACY

THE FIRST LAW OF THE NEWS

“Get it FIRST, but first get it RIGHT”

THE SLOGAN OF

New York Evening Journal News Gathering Staff

⎵ All through its local news staff as well as through the International News Service Staff the gospel of GET IT RIGHT is stressed and reiterated twenty-four hours in the day. The man who can't get the habit of ACCURACY can't stay in this organization though he be the most brilliant writer living. "Get it FIRST but first get it RIGHT" is at once a fearless challenge and a solemn pledge of faith.

More buy it—more read it—more like it than any other evening newspaper.

WILLIAM A. CURLEY, EDITOR
New York Evening Journal

ONE of the outstanding editors of America. Born on Manhattan Island and for many years active in newspaper work in New York City. His experience also includes editorial direction of newspapers in Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Atlanta and Boston. He knows the pulse of humanity and what pleases and interests the greatest number of intelligent people throughout New York City and suburbs.

NEWS PICTURES

WHAT THE CAMERA'S EYE SEES

ONE good picture is worth ten thousand words, says an old proverb. The Evening Journal is invariably FIRST in serving its readers with accurate, informative, illuminating and exclusive news pictures. Each picture must pass the scrutiny of the most critical staff of experts to be good enough for reproduction in the Evening Journal. New Yorkers know they get better and more interesting pictures in the Evening Journal than in any other New York newspaper.

*∫*PEED

MEANS LIFE TO THE NEWS

*You may have the news beat of a century on your desk.
Hold it a half hour too long—long enough for another paper to print it FIRST—and for you it is YESTERDAY'S NEWS with all the LIFE ebbd out of it.*

The News Policy of the NEW YORK EVENING JOURNAL can be summarized in five sentences:

Give all the vital news of the moment.

Give it cleanly.

Give it accurately.

Give it interestingly.

Give it succinctly.

Back of this clean-cut, vigorous policy of news presentation is the finest reportorial and editorial talent that money can buy.

Local news printed in the New York Evening Journal is furnished by the most adequate staff of reporters and special writers retained by any evening newspaper in the city.

Telegraphic news is furnished by the International News Service—with well equipped offices not only in New York but in Washington, London, Paris, Rome, Moscow, Peking—with expert representatives all over the world. In New York City's evening newspaper field International News Service serves the New York Evening Journal exclusively.

LARGEST AND HIGHEST PAID LOCAL NEWS STAFF IN NEW YORK CITY

“Get it FIRST, but first get it RIGHT”—that is the slogan of the New York Evening Journal’s news-gathering staff. This newspaper employs the largest staff of men and women reporters, photographers, and news writers of any evening newspaper in America. It pays the highest salaries and this policy attracts the most capable and brilliant talent.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE REPORTS NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR EVENING JOURNAL READERS

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE has firmly established itself as the dominant press service in the afternoon newspaper field. Its news dispatches, gathered from every corner of the universe, likewise are published in newspapers throughout the civilized world. International News Service is truly international in scope, linking the foremost nations in a comprehensive news-gathering and news-distributing chain.

Approximately 60,000 miles of leased wire, used and controlled by International News Service, distributes its news reports to the Evening Journal alone in New York and to more than 500 other daily newspapers in the United States. By cable and radio International News Service dispatches are sent to sixteen foreign nations in both hemispheres. Editors of the leading newspapers in Germany, Great Britain, Italy, Spain, Japan, Norway, Switzerland, Sweden, Brazil, Chile, Argentina and numerous other countries place the same reliance upon the International News Service reports as do the editors of leading American afternoon dailies.

International News Service is operated under the able General Managership of Frank Mason, former chief of the Paris Bureau.

Collection and preparation of its news reports is in the hands of a highly trained staff of editors and correspondents. This staff is directed by Barry

Faris, General News Manager, who has had more than a dozen years' experience in press association work and knows thoroughly every detail of the service.

George R. Holmes heads a large staff at Washington. Holmes, himself, is an outstanding authority on news from the National capital, a keen observer, a vivid writer. William K. Hutchinson, Kenneth Clark, George Durno, Lawrence Sullivan and William S. Neal are members of the Washington corps whose achievements have made them widely known to newspaper editors and readers throughout the United States.

Copeland C. Burg, in Chicago, Ellis H. Martin in San Francisco and other staff men in all the leading cities in the United States get the news for International News Service and write it in individualistic style for New York Evening Journal readers.

The International News Service Foreign Staff is a large one. Harry K. Reynolds, Director of Foreign Service, with headquarters in New York, was formerly Manager of the London bureau, and he knows intimately every phase of the foreign service. Harry R. Flory, Manager in London; Frederic K. Abbott, Manager in Paris, and Otto D. Tolischus, Manager in Berlin, not only have done noteworthy work in covering the big news stories themselves, but direct a network of correspondents in their respective territories that literally covers the world for International News Service. Edward L. Deuss in Moscow, Guglielmo Emanuel in Rome and Harold Ballou in Madrid are capable members of the foreign staff who know their fields thoroughly. Correspondents are maintained as well in China, Japan, the Philippines, various South American countries and elsewhere at strategic points for news coverage.

International News Service correspondents at home and abroad have only one rule to guide them. That is to get the news and get it right. Generally, as well, they get it FIRST for New York Evening Journal readers.

BIG N EWS

TWO DAYS IN ADVANCE!

The story of three men in the Arctic.

Above them the cold, gray sky, washed by an impenetrable fog.

Around them only crashing icebergs, each second grinding out a new variety of the age-old Arctic death threat.

One man injured, unable to continue.

Then the story of the dying man who consigned himself to an icy grave that his mates might save themselves. And the story of the two men who, faced with this dilemma, left their pal to die, alone with his thoughts. Leering icebergs grinding out the death march.

This is the story of Dr. Finn Malmgren and Captains Marianno and Zappi.

It first became known to the world when the New York Evening Journal printed International News Service dispatches via Moscow on Friday, July 13, 1928. The Evening Journal's headlines then read:

“MALMGREN DESERTED BY MATES; NOT DEAD WHEN ABANDONED”

It wasn't until Sunday, July 15, that other New York papers printed the gripping story the Evening Journal had given New York on Friday, July 13.

The Evening Journal is always ACCURATE —and FIRST

MARY T. DOUGHERTY
Editor of Women's News

FEW women have attained pre-eminence in Journalism. Mary T. Dougherty is outstanding among the few. Her life's work is dedicated to promoting greater happiness, greater opportunity and greater influence for women. She knows America's great women, leaders in social, educational, civic and political spheres. She devotes all her knowledge, experience and ability to keeping the Evening Journal overwhelmingly FIRST as a home newspaper.

JAMES O'CONNOR, EDITOR
Harlem and Bronx Section

THOROUGH newspaper man who has grown up with the Bronx and uptown New York. Writes editorials on local topics. Conducts "ROUND UPTOWN" column. Edits a real neighborhood section.

Every day over 122,000 copies of the Evening Journal sold above 110th Street in Harlem, Bronx, Washington Heights and Westchester County include this section.

RICHARDSON WEBSTER, EDITOR
Brooklyn and Long Island Section

A “DYED-IN-THE-WOOL” Brooklynite from cradle to editorial chair. Associated with Brooklyn newspapers for many years. Prominent in Brooklyn’s civic, social and commercial life. Edits a section of real local news for Kings, Queens and Nassau Counties.

Every day over 234,000 copies of the Evening Journal include this section, which is thoroughly read in Long Island homes.

DR. FRANK CRANE, PHILOSOPHER

H_E knows the problems of the human race. Simplicity of thought and staunch adherence to an uncompromising philosophy of optimism distinguish the work of Dr. Frank Crane. His writings are helpful, encouraging, inspirational. His followers are legion. Thousands of Evening Journal readers in New York City and suburbs look forward to his daily articles. His wisdom marks the paths for a happy life.

“BILLY BENEDICK,” SOCIETY EDITOR

“BILLY BENEDICK” ... who is he? He is a member of the most exclusive and highly placed society set of New York. His newsy quips and chatter about the doings of socially prominent men and women have established one of the most extensively read Society News Pages in New York. “Billy Benedick’s” identity is kept secret as his work would obviously be handicapped were it to be made public.

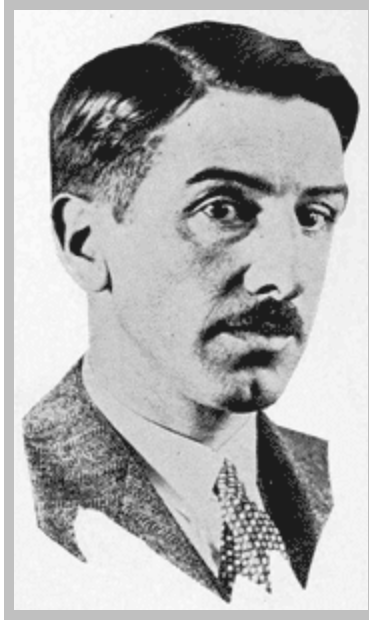

ELSIE ROBINSON, AUTHOR
“Listen World!”

ELSIE ROBINSON is, like Dr. Crane, a philosopher ... but one would hardly call her gentle. She is brisk, though never brusque in setting forth her views. She likes to jog people out of mental ruts and, judging by her tremendous popularity among the countless thousands of Evening Journal readers throughout New York City and its suburbs, they like to have her do it. Her advice is sound and well taken.

HELEN ROWLAND, AUTHOR
“Meditations of a Wife”

OFTEN referred to as America’s “Bernard Shaw,” and as America’s wittiest woman. Satire sparkles through her writings. Her observations on the foibles of men and women, the joys and sorrows of love and marriage, and the relief or the lack of it in divorce are always brilliant and entertaining, yet always “said with a smile.” Helen, like George Cohan, says: “I always leave ’em laughing when I say good-bye.”

WILLIAM WRIGHT, FINANCIAL COUNSELOR
Investors' Service Bureau

THOROUGH familiarity with the investment securities market has established him as an authority. Accuracy and informed judgment characterize his reports. In close contact with the financial world, he delves into the resources and development of corporate business. A keen student of finance, he is qualified to give sound and unbiased advice to countless thousands of Evening Journal readers annually.

DURING 1927

12,000

NEW YORK EVENING JOURNAL

readers addressed letters to

“*W*ILLIAM WRIGHT”

Seeking advice on investment problems

An analysis of these 12,000 inquiries disclosed that 63% had a total of about $25,000,000 actually on hand for investment or already invested in securities.

21% specified definite sums of money available for immediate investment—totaling approximately $10,000,000.

42% gave lists of securities already held, the market value conservatively estimated at $15,000,000.

More than 1,000 New York Evening Journal readers continue to write in every month for help in solving their problems. “William Wright” is giving these readers his helpful and expert advice every day, from his vast store of financial knowledge.

“RUTH MASON”, COOKING EXPERT
(MRS. ERNEST HOFTYZER)
*Domestic Science

GOOD things to eat, recipes for cakes, pies and a variety of tempting dishes, appetizing menus, economical marketing, preserving—all these are a part of Ruth Mason’s articles in the Evening Journal. Tens of thousands of housewives read Ruth Mason’s helpful articles regularly and write to her for advice. Additional thousands listen-in to her cooking lectures broadcast over WHN and WPAP.

IRVING WEIL, COMMENTATOR ON MUSIC

RANKED by the great masters of music as one of the most brilliant metropolitan reviewers. A music critic in the fullest sense. His opinions are distinguished alike for their soundness and the wit with which they are expressed. Irving Weil has reviewed for Evening Journal readers all the great and near great musical events for over fifteen years. He has the confidence of a legion of music lovers among the largest audience of evening newspaper readers in America.

JOHN ANDERSON, DRAMATIC CRITIC

JOHN ANDERSON writes entertainingly and authoritatively on the drama. He tells what a play is about and then gives his own reactions. He does not belong to the “let-us-pat-each-other-on-the-back” school of critics, but devotes his column daily to interesting discussions of what is actually happening in the world of the theatre. Mr. Anderson was formerly on the Evening Post and is recognized as the highest type of drama writer in New York.

ROSE PELSWICK, MOTION PICTURE EDITOR

ACKNOWLEDGED by producers, directors, film stars and the public alike as an authority on the silver screen art. Her clever articles on motion pictures and personalities in the movie world are the best of their kind published in New York. Tens of thousands of fans read what Rose Pelswick says in the Evening Journal every day and “listen-in” on her Radio Movie Club programmes over WHN and WPAP.

ERNEST HOFTYZER, EDITOR OF FOOD PAGES

A TWENTIETH century exemplar of the famous Greek philosopher, Epicurus, acknowledged authority on the art of good eating. Mr. Hoftyzer is a modern day food expert who stresses the importance of pure foods and explains the principles of nourishment which promote life and health. His timely articles on marketing, what to buy and when to buy, are followed regularly by housewives in the Evening Journal homes.

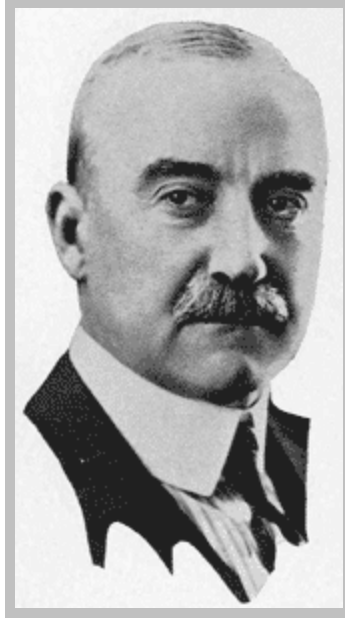

NELL BRINKLEY, GENIUS AMONG ARTISTS

To see and set down as no other artist of her generation does is Nell Brinkley's unique and amazing gift. Every picture has a charm and distinction all its own. Evening Journal readers love Nell Brinkley—she has made their lives happy with beautiful thoughts which radiate from her fascinating portrayals of romance and life. Nell Brinkley's drawings and romantic descriptions appear regularly in the Evening Journal's daily Magazine Page.

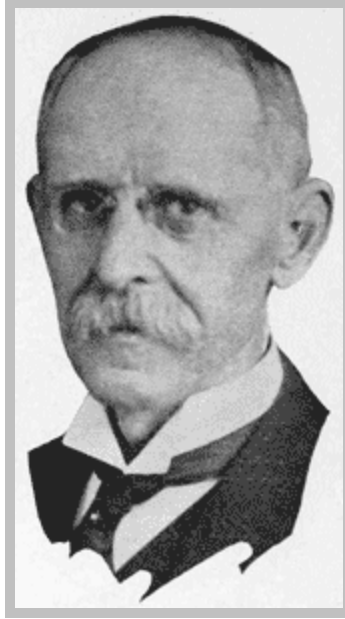

W.S. COUSINS, FINANCIAL EXPERT

FORMERLY associated with the American Banking Institute and now Financial Editor of International News Service, he is one of America's recognized experts on finance and business. He writes interestingly, informatively and authoritatively on the big financial subjects of the moment. His daily articles in the New York Evening Journal have attracted a vast audience of readers throughout New York City and its suburbs interested in business and finance.

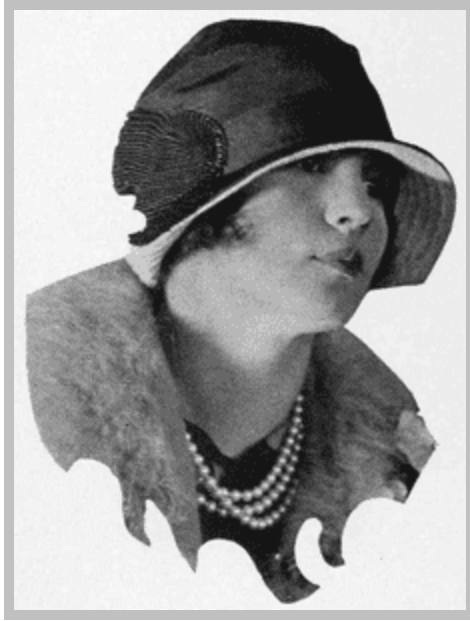

T.E. POWERS, ACE OF CARICATURISTS

UNQUESTIONABLY the greatest cartoonist of the age. His pen combines the master strokes of the artist and a broad knowledge of politics and public affairs. He gives Evening Journal readers the “high lights” of the news of the day and portrays unerringly the virtue or villainy of public characters. Powers’ outstanding talent has helped to make the Journal the most interesting evening newspaper in America.

GARRETT P. SERVISS, ASTRONOMER

H_E writes the story of the stars and tells it fascinatingly every day in the Evening Journal. His mail exceeds that of any other contributor. He treats authoritatively on the science of astronomy, yet captures and holds the attention of the reader who has no technical knowledge of the subject. Thousands of students of the heavens above follow his daily writings in the New York Evening Journal.

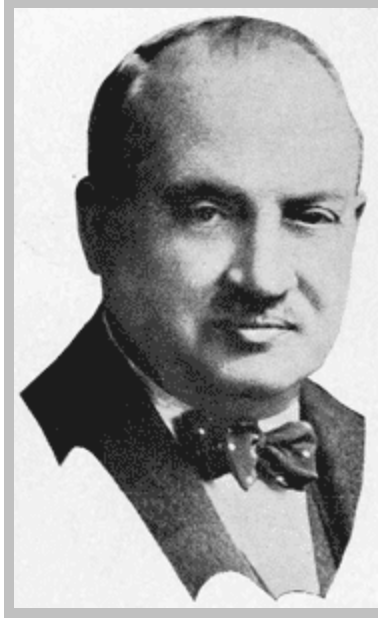

BEATRICE BURTON, FAMOUS NOVELIST

SHE is outstanding among the highest paid women writers of newspaper serials in America. Being the wife of a famous newspaper man she has a keen understanding of what the newspaper reader seeks in fiction. Her novels such as: "Hollywood Girl," "Money Love" and "Gilded Kisses" have attracted intense interest among the largest audience of evening newspaper readers in America.

ELENORE MEHERIN, AUTHOR

ONE of the most successful writers of serial stories for newspapers in the country. Author of “Chickie,” “Sandy,” “Shackled Souls,” “Her Fling,” “Hearts Aflame” and “Jerry,” stories that depict life and fire the imagination. All of these have appeared in the New York Evening Journal—more are expected. Elenore Meherin’s fiction grips and holds reader interest from first to last installment.

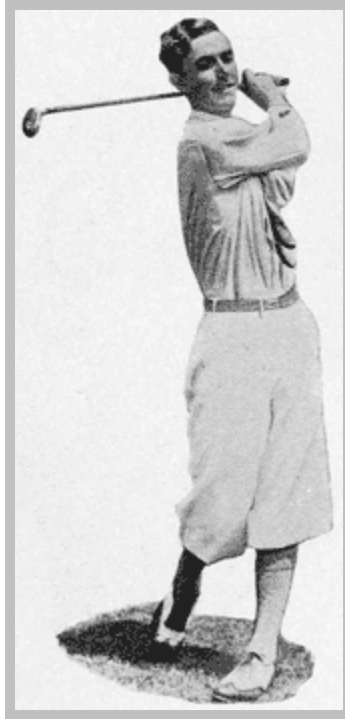

WILBUR C. WHITEHEAD
AUCTION BRIDGE EXPERT

ONE of the foremost authorities on the game of bridge. He “plays” a game every day in the columns of the Evening Journal and writes with such clarity that experts and novices alike understand. Tens of thousands of bridge fans read his column daily. Thousands of Bridge Games throughout New York and suburbs are played nightly according to Wilbur C. Whitehead’s “Sound Auction Bridge” which appears in the New York Evening Journal.

MARGARET SANTRY
DIRECTOR RADIO PROGRAMMES

COUNTLESS thousands of homes in Metropolitan New York “tune-in” daily to New York Evening Journal Radio Programmes. Tens of thousands “listen-in” to broadcasts by Ruth Mason, cooking expert; Rose Pelswick, Motion Picture Editor; and an incomparable array of professional entertainers and educators. Radio fans follow the radio news and programmes arranged by Margaret Santry every day in the New York Evening Journal.

JOHNNY FARRELL, GOLF EXPERT
National Open Golf Champion

VICTOR of 1928 Olympia Fields tournament, notable for the spectacular 36-hole play-off, in which Johnny defeated the great Bobby Jones. Farrell, former caddie on the Westchester links, famous professional and a master tutor of the “ancient and honorable” game tells Evening Journal readers how to improve their golf. New York golfers follow the champion’s expert advice exclusively in the Evening Journal.

MAUREEN ORCUTT, GOLF EXPERT
Women's Metropolitan Golf Champion

WOMEN'S interest in sports is fast approaching that held by men. Miss Orcutt knows her golf and writes authoritatively about the game, about women in golf, and other women's sports. Women in New York and throughout the suburbs follow Maureen Orcutt's articles on golf regularly in the Evening Journal. Miss Orcutt has the unique distinction of being able to write as well as she plays championship golf.

MME. MARIA JERITZA, STAR OF OPERA
Writer on the Secrets of Beauty

PRIMA Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and herself one of the most beautiful women in America, Mme. Jeritza tells Evening Journal readers her secrets of beauty. She has studied the art of creating and preserving beauty and writes authoritatively. Being a highly cultured and professionally successful woman her great aim is to render a service of helpfulness to the greatest possible number of women.

MRS. CORNELIUS BEECKMAN
Arbiter of Correct Social Manners

MRS. Beeckman is one of America's greatest authorities on the customs and usages of good society. Thousands of substantial, serious-minded men and women write to her about the proper thing to do or say in a given situation. She renders an invaluable service to Evening Journal readers. Her frank advice and suggestions are widely read in the columns of this newspaper each and every day.

DOROTHY FLACK, ARTIST EXTRAORDINARY
A Genius in the Portrayal of Women

ONE of America's few artists with the rare gift of imagining the situation she draws as well as the sentiments of those who look at it. Dorothy Flack's charming girls have an irresistible fascination for Evening Journal readers. She stands second only to the famous Nell Brinkley and the drawings of both these distinguished artists appear on the Magazine Page in the New York Evening Journal.

CHARLES A.L. REED, A.M., M.D.
Former President, American Medical Ass'n

D_{R.} Reed is one of America's most distinguished medical men—he writes authoritatively about the ills to which human kind is heir, also of the psychology of health and sickness. His writings have a big following among women readers of the Evening Journal—their welfare and that of their children comprise a great part of his suggestions on health. He is the Health Counselor in Evening Journal homes.

W.S. FARNSWORTH, SPORTS EDITOR
Famous Sports Writer of Outstanding Events

SPORTING news with a punch! Experts to write about and report each branch of sports. Those are the cardinal principles which guide New York's greatest Sports Editor. Farnsworth, noted reporter himself, has covered all the outstanding sporting events in recent years. His word story of the "Battle of the Century," the World's Series or the Army and Navy Gridiron Classic is as thrilling as the event itself.

“TAD” (T.A. DORGAN)
King of Sporting Writers and Cartoonists

EXPERTS throughout the Sporting World say “TAD” is the greatest sporting cartoonist of all time. “INDOOR” and “OUTDOOR SPORTS” put “T.A.D.” in a class by himself. He has originated more slang phrases which have attained national popularity than any other American. These pungent contributions to the colloquial native language have made “T.A.D.” beloved by over two million Journal readers.

W.M. (“BILL”) CORUM, SPORTS EXPERT
Famous Writer and Columnist

THE “Sports” column by “Bill” Corum is the best of its kind on any Sports Page in America. “Bill” knows his sports. He gives Evening Journal readers the facts plus inimitable observations. His puns, wisecracks and reverse English season the day’s sporting dish. Nearly half of all the men and women who buy any New York evening paper buy the Evening Journal daily—and “Bill” Corum alone is a good reason.

SID MERCER, SPORTS EXPERT
Greatest Writer of Boxing News

SUPERIOR all-around writers are as rare as the same kind of athletes. Sid Mercer, President of the New York Sports Writers' Association, combines the unique faculty of being an authoritative critic in all lines of sports. His account of a major boxing contest is the next best thing to having a ringside seat. Evening Journal readers know this and get their ringside views from Sid for every important boxing event.

HAL COFFMAN, ARTIST EXTRAORDINARY
Portrays News and Sports Events

H_E takes the motive back of the day's news for his text and makes his pictures preach a powerful sermon. With unerring skill he packs the "cause and effect" of a lifetime story into a single drawing. He is equally gifted in portraying the serious or humorous side of any big news or sports event. The New York Evening Journal is Coffman's pulpit. He addresses the largest congregation of evening newspaper readers in America through the Evening Journal.

TOM THORP, SPORTS EXPERT
Football and Horse Racing

FORMER collegiate athletic star. Captained Columbia Varsity Elevens 1901-04. Selected for "All-American" honors. Coached at Virginia, Fordham, Stevens, Manhattan, Columbia and New York University. Umpire in Yale-Harvard, Harvard-Princeton, Army-Navy, Penn-Cornell and Army-Yale games. Only Racing Expert with knowledge of training methods. His selections most widely read of any writer on turf affairs in New York newspapers.

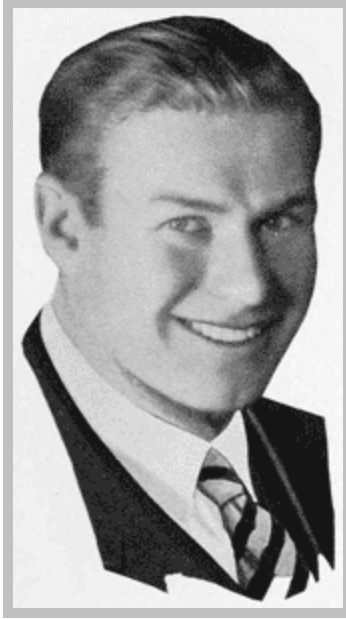

GENE TUNNEY, BOXING CHAMPION
Writes Signed Articles

“GENE TUNNEY is a worthy model for manly youth,” says Rev. Francis P. Duffy, famous fighting chaplain of the old 69th Regiment. The strength of his talks, writings and example is the fact that he lives up to the rules of clean living and good sportsmanship. New York’s boys and young men read Gene Tunney’s articles regularly in the Evening Journal. He tells them how to strengthen their bodies and keep in robust health.

FORD C. FRICK, SPORTS EXPERT
Famous Reporter on Big League Baseball

TRAVELS with the YANKEES—writes about them for Evening Journal readers throughout the season. His pen pictures of big sporting events are said to be “better than a photograph, as impressive and stirring as big news.” “When it’s slugged by Ford C. Frick, it’s a knockout.” That accounts for the host of men and women readers who look for his writings daily in the Sports Pages of the New York Evening Journal.

CHARLEY PADDOCK, CHAMPION SPRINTER
To Report Olympic Games

A SPORTING event of international interest—the Olympic Games—covered for Evening Journal readers by the famous athlete and crack sprinter, Charley Paddock. His wide acquaintance among notable athletes and knowledge of athletics in general give him an insight into every branch of sports. Experts to report each and every branch of sports—that is the reason Evening Journal Sports Pages are so well read.

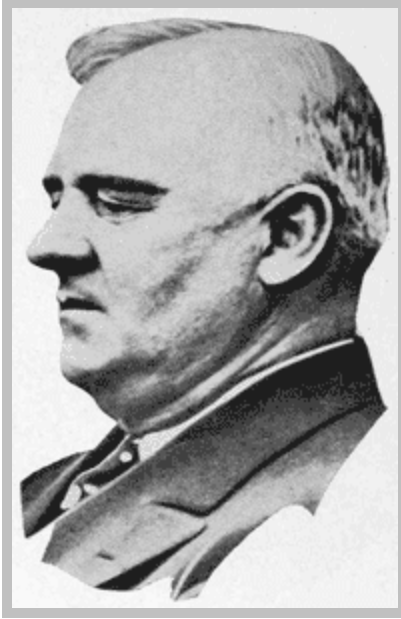

FRANK (BUCK) O'NEILL, SPORTS EXPERT
Baseball and Boxing Contests

PRACTICALLY lives with the GIANTS throughout the baseball season. His play by play reports of each game give Evening Journal readers everything but the applause. Acknowledged expert on boxing, covers the big fights and officiates as radio announcer in giving the blow by blow description. "Buck" O'Neill is a sporting writer with the PUNCH on the diamond, at the "mike" and in the "ring."

GARRY SCHUMACHER, SPORTS EXPERT
Baseball and Other Major Sports

H_E follows the “ROBINS” and reports every game and every play for Evening Journal readers. Schumacher’s vivid descriptions of baseball plays bring the real thrills of the game right into New York Evening Journal homes. Countless thousands of Brooklynites who root for the “ROBINS,” and follow every play and every game, depend on Garry Schumacher’s reports in the Evening Journal.

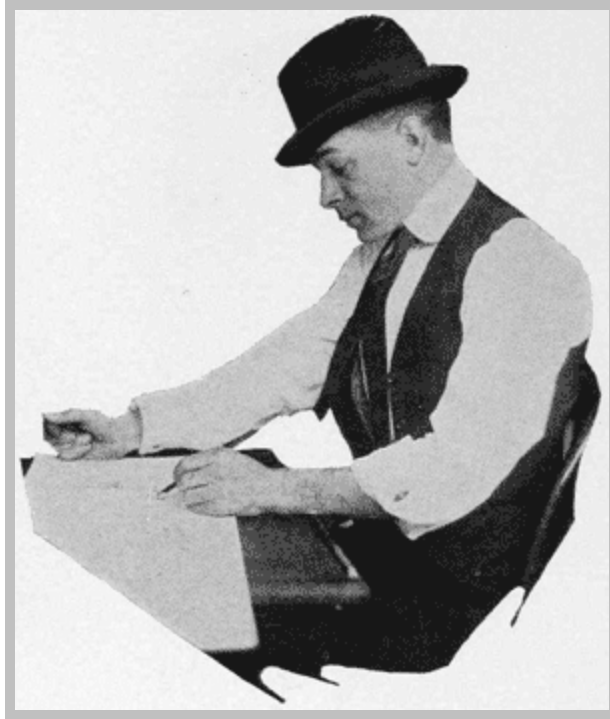

JOHN MCGRAW, BASEBALL EXPERT
Manager, New York Giants

THE man who has won more pennants than any man in baseball, writes signed articles on the game for Evening Journal readers. He is unquestionably the leading authority on the subject. McGraw packs in 50,000 fans at the Polo Grounds but writes for nearly half of all the men and women who buy any New York evening newspaper—that's the half who read the Evening Journal in preference to other evening papers.

JOHN P. MEDBURY, HUMORIST
America's Greatest Mirth Producer

His writings in the Evening Journal are the most sensational, humorous additions to the present era of American literature. Recognized among humorous writers of the country as the “greatest giggle generator,” “the liveliest laugh laureate” and “the champion chuckle cannonader.” Medbury’s humor, under the title of “Maybe I’m Wrong,” appears in the New York Evening Journal daily.

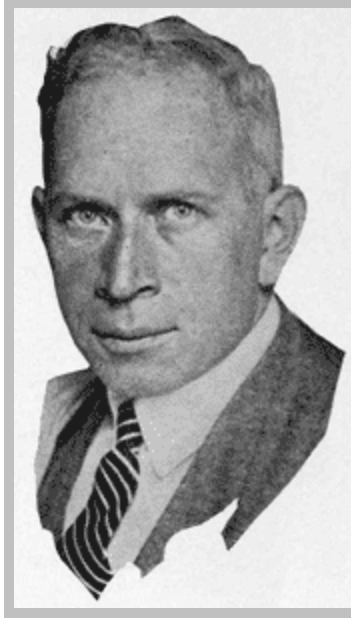

GEORGE HERRIMAN, ARTIST
Creator of the Immortal “Krazy Kat”

CARTOONISTS, artists, humorists, authors, producers ... all are unanimous in voting “Krazy Kat” and “Ignatz the Mouse” headliners among comics. A cat ... a mouse ... a brick ... a dog “cop” ... these are the whimsical characters that have made Herriman a billionaire in laughs. Evening Journal readers are not afraid to laugh ... they have made “Krazy Kat” a member of the family.

JOE MCGURK, CARTOONIST
Creator of “Kayo Tortoni”

“KAYO TORTONI” is acknowledged the most famous woman character in sports cartoons. She enters every branch of athletics and leads the vogue in sports togs. Joe McGurk’s fascinating portrayals of Kayo’s sporting proclivities put the “Oh!” into Evening Journal’s sports pages. McGurk’s cartoons of boxing contests are looked forward to by a host of boxing fans.

HARRY HERSHFIELD, ARTIST
Cartoonist, Humorist, Wise-Cracker

KKNOWN to millions as the creator of “Abie the Agent.” His latest contribution is “Broadway Unlimited.” Will Rogers, Tad, Roxy, Ziegfeld, and a multitude of Broadway’s “Leading Lights” say it is “THE BEST COLUMN” in New York. Hershfield knows New York and New York knows Hershfield through the columns of the New York Evening Journal.

AD CARTER, ARTIST
Creator of “Just Kids”

IT IS because Ad Carter’s uproarious little characters are so genuinely “Just Kids”—real kids—the kind you grew up with—that “Just Kids” captivates the hearts of young and old alike. Ad Carter’s “Just Kids” recently accomplished a great work in teaching kiddies to play safe, to look before you cross—think how that pleases mothers and fathers! 413,743 boys and girls joined the “Just Kids” Safety Club.

413,743

BOYS and GIRLS
JOINED
“JUST KIDS”
SAFETY CLUB

he “Just Kids” Safety Club idea was originated by Ad Carter, the Evening Journal’s famous cartoonist and creator of the daily comic strip entitled “Just Kids.”

Each boy and girl cut the application blank from the Evening Journal, filled it in, giving name, address, age, proposed by parent or adult and endorsed by boy or girl friend.

The sole purpose of this constructive work was to prevent accidents, save lives, make “Kids” more careful.

Every club member was cautioned to: “Remember to look up and down before crossing the street.”

A total of 413,743 applications to the “Just Kids” Safety Club were received and every member obtained a “Just Kids” Safety Club button.

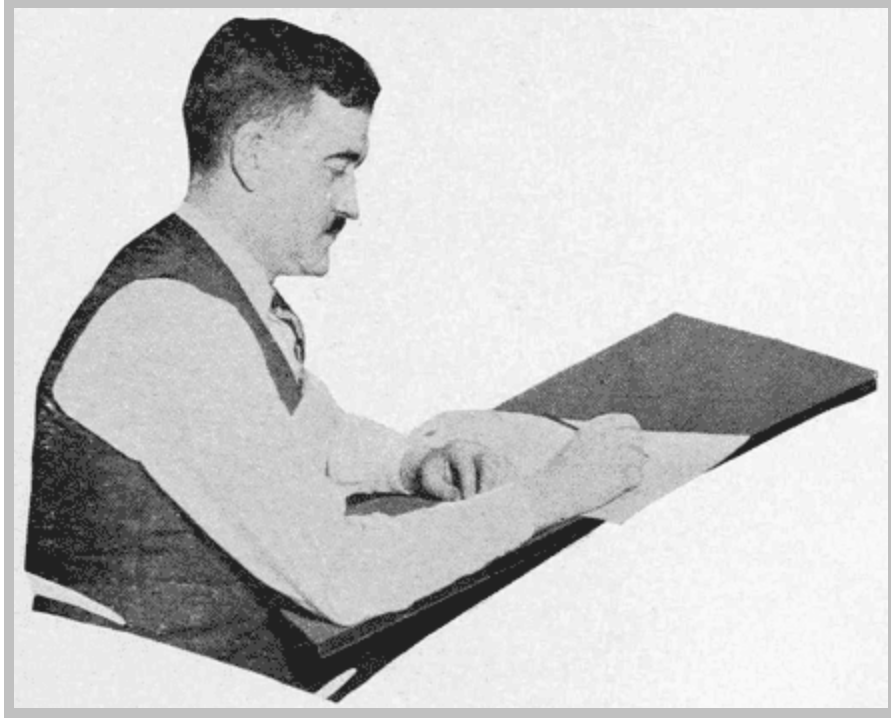

RUBE GOLDBERG, ARTIST
Creator of "Bobo Baxter"

ONE of America's best known and most popular cartoonists. Famous for the ludicrous "Boob McNutt," the most foolish "Foolish Questions" and his involved mechanisms for doing simple things. Rube Goldberg's host of admirers throughout New York City and suburbs look forward to his latest comic creation, "Bobo Baxter," appearing in the Evening Journal daily. Goldberg is a comic star of the first magnitude.

CLIFF STERRETT, ARTIST
Creator of “Polly and Her Pals”

WHO hasn't heard about “Pa” and “Ma” and “Polly” and “Neewah”? This comic has an appeal for every member of the family. Evening Journal readers get hearty chuckles out of the predicaments of the “Hon. Pa” and his comeback to “Ma” ... they enjoy the prancings of the modern Polly and watch Neewah's futile attempts to save Pa from the wrath of the women. It's a classic among “family” comics.

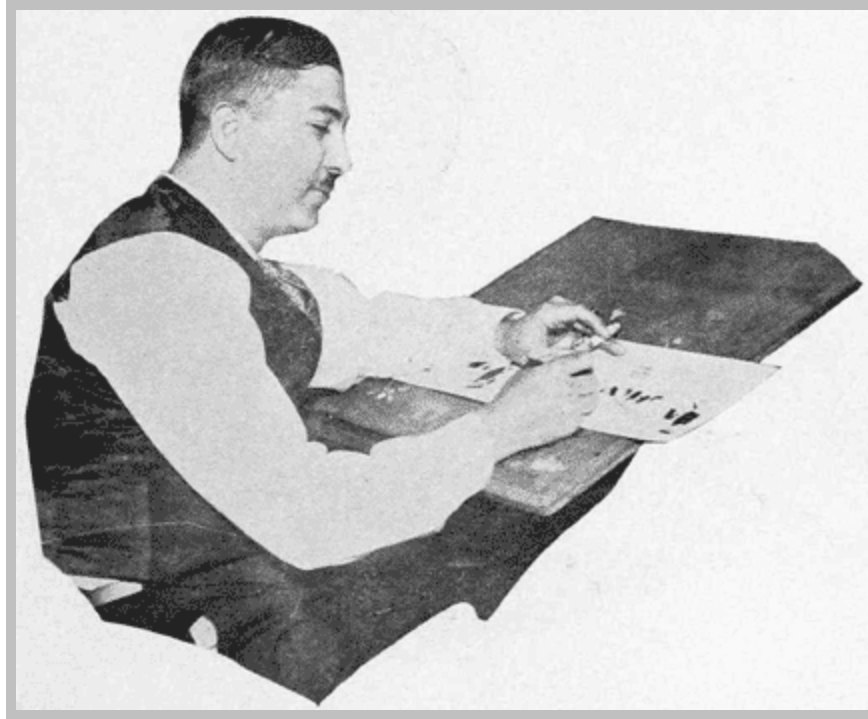

WALTER HOBAN, ARTIST
Creator of “Jerry on the Job”

“JERRY” is the brightest, wittiest, snappiest and most clever of all OFFICE BOYS. Hoban keeps “Jerry” on the job and his job is to make folks laugh. In this respect “Jerry” is the most efficient office boy in America—and Evening Journal readers know it. Hoban’s “Jerry on the Job” has attracted a multitude of admirers and they find their favorite comic in their favorite evening paper six days a week.

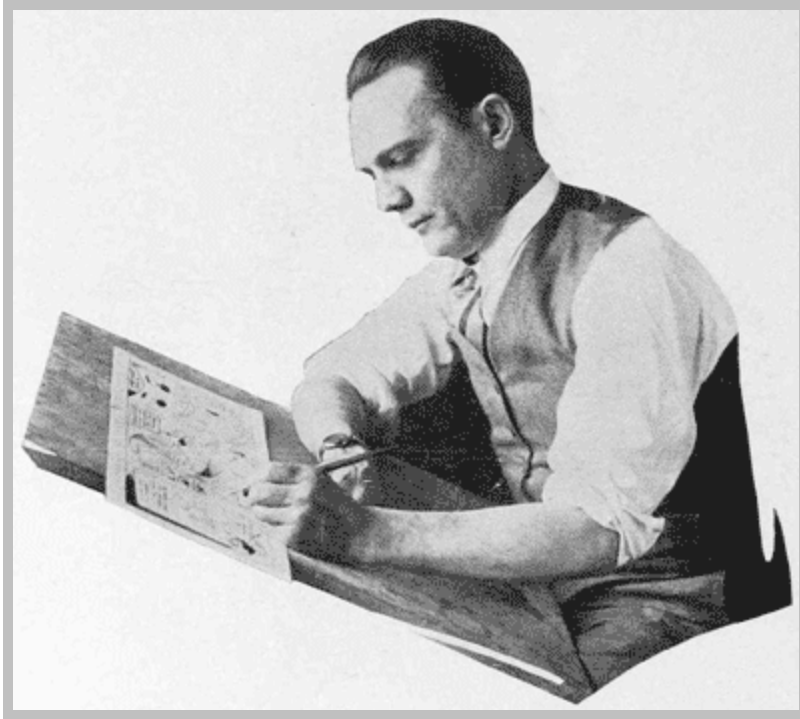

CHIC YOUNG, ARTIST
Creator of “Dumb Dora”

T RIM little, pert little, chic Dumb Dora attracts a world of interest among Evening Journal readers. She is “not so dumb” and that’s where the fun comes in. Men like “Dora” because she is clever. Women like “Dora” because she has charm and sense and is always good for a delicious laugh. Dora reflects the dash and independence of modern day flappers for Evening Journal readers in New York City and suburbs.

EDWARD WELLINGTON VERDIER, ARTIST
Creator of “Little Annie Rooney”

VERDIER’S cartoons tell a story chock-full of exciting interest for the kiddies. Boys, girls and wee tots gather ’round the Evening Journal comic page every evening intensely absorbed in the continued story of the adventures of “Little Annie Rooney.” Verdier’s comic strip grips and holds juvenile interest week in and week out the year around in the Evening Journal.

RAY MCGILL, ARTIST
Creator of “Journalisms”

A COMIC artist with a keen sense of news! He draws a daily strip for Evening Journal readers giving them a humorous view of current happenings. McGill has created something NEW in cartoons—no comic strip in American newspapers is comparable to it. Evening Journal readers get a “big kick” out of McGill’s “Journalisms” because each drawing is up to the last minute in news interest.

SEGAR, ARTIST
Creator of “Thimble Theatre”

PAST master in creating the comic strip with a side-splitting wallop. Segar’s inspirations are light, frivolous humor based on some ridiculous suggestion. The “Thimble Theatre” in the Evening Journal plays to the largest audience of evening newspaper readers in America. That means nearly half of all the people in New York who buy any New York evening newspaper.

SIR HARRY LAUDER, COMEDIAN
Famous for Wit and Humor

H_E tells a Scotch story every day in the Evening Journal. This world-famous wit and comedian has a multitude of friends and admirers in New York. They look forward to “Hae ye heard this one?” every day in their favorite news paper. Sir Harry has a big following in the theatre. His Evening Journal audience in single file would reach from New York to Indianapolis.

HOME JOURNAL

the complete magazine section, printed in colors, published every Saturday and sold with the regular issue of the New York Evening Journal at 5c a copy.

The Home Journal, with its all-star cast of writers and contributors is looked forward to and thoroughly read in the greatest number of worth while homes throughout New York City and suburbs.

The New York Evening Journal is a FAMILY INSTITUTION. Men, women and children read the Evening Journal day in and day out. Saturday is no exception. The circulation of the New York Evening Journal on Saturdays at 5c a copy averages greater than on other days of the week when it sells at 3c a copy.

JACK LAIT, EDITOR HOME JOURNAL
Saturday Magazine Section

CALLED the de Maupassant of modern short story writers ... movie scenarist ... witty contributor to books of American Comedies ... expert and thoroughly experienced newspaper man, Jack Lait makes the Home Journal (Saturday Magazine) the most interesting and best read magazine section published by any evening newspaper in America.

PENRYHN STANLAWS, FAMOUS ARTIST
Creator of “Frivolous Flossie”

THE “Stanlaws Girl” is acknowledged the most beautiful type of feminine America. Stanlaws vies with Ziegfeld in glorifying beauty. His latest creation is a series entitled “Frivolous Flossie” who reflects Stanlaws’ studies of society, stage and film beauties. “Frivolous Flossie” delights Evening Journal readers every week on the cover of the Saturday Home Journal. She outrivals Paris in a daring display of fashion.

JOSEPHINE HUDDLESTON
Famous Model and Beauty Expert

GREAT artists and sculptors declare Miss Huddleston one of America's most beautiful women. She was one of the original exponents of eurythmic exercises. Her articles tell and show Evening Journal readers how physical culture, beauty and charm of personality and bearing may be developed. Miss Huddleston's host of admirers follow her articles regularly in the Saturday Home Journal.

ELEANOR TOWN, SOCIOLOGIST
Marital Problems and Cause of Divorce

THE constantly increasing number of divorce cases among the elite is a subject of intense interest to men and women in all substantial walks of life. Eleanor Town, a keen student of social science, analyzes the cause of prominent marital dissolutions, points to the solution and tells the facts interestingly for Evening Journal readers every Saturday in the Home Journal.

THE HOUSEHOLD PAGE

BY “GOOD HOUSEKEEPING” INSTITUTE

In their fully equipped modern laboratories the latest inventions in household devices are tested by scientifically trained men and women

EVERY issue of the Saturday Home Journal contains a page contributed by experts associated with the internationally recognized Good Housekeeping Institute. This feature gives Evening Journal readers authoritative articles on home economics, domestic science and other subjects of direct interest to housewives. New household devices that have been scientifically tested, new cooking methods evolved to save time and labor, recipes that are thoroughly tested and standardized—such vital information is carried into Evening Journal homes through the Saturday Home Journal.

The HOUSEHOLD PAGE contains luncheon and dinner menus for each day of the week, recipes tested in the Institute’s Kitchens and valuable helps on marketing.

 END OF THE PROJECT GUTENBERG EBOOK WHAT'S IN THE
NEW YORK EVENING JOURNAL ***

Updated editions will replace the previous one—the old editions will be renamed.

Creating the works from print editions not protected by U.S. copyright law means that no one owns a United States copyright in these works, so the Foundation (and you!) can copy and distribute it in the United States without permission and without paying copyright royalties. Special rules, set forth in the General Terms of Use part of this license, apply to copying and distributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works to protect the PROJECT GUTENBERG™ concept and trademark. Project Gutenberg is a registered trademark, and may not be used if you charge for an eBook, except by following the terms of the trademark license, including paying royalties for use of the Project Gutenberg trademark. If you do not charge anything for copies of this eBook, complying with the trademark license is very easy. You may use this eBook for nearly any purpose such as creation of derivative works, reports, performances and research. Project Gutenberg eBooks may be modified and printed and given away—you may do practically ANYTHING in the United States with eBooks not protected by U.S. copyright law. Redistribution is subject to the trademark license, especially commercial redistribution.

START: FULL LICENSE

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG™ LICENSE

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase “Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, "Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation."
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project

Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

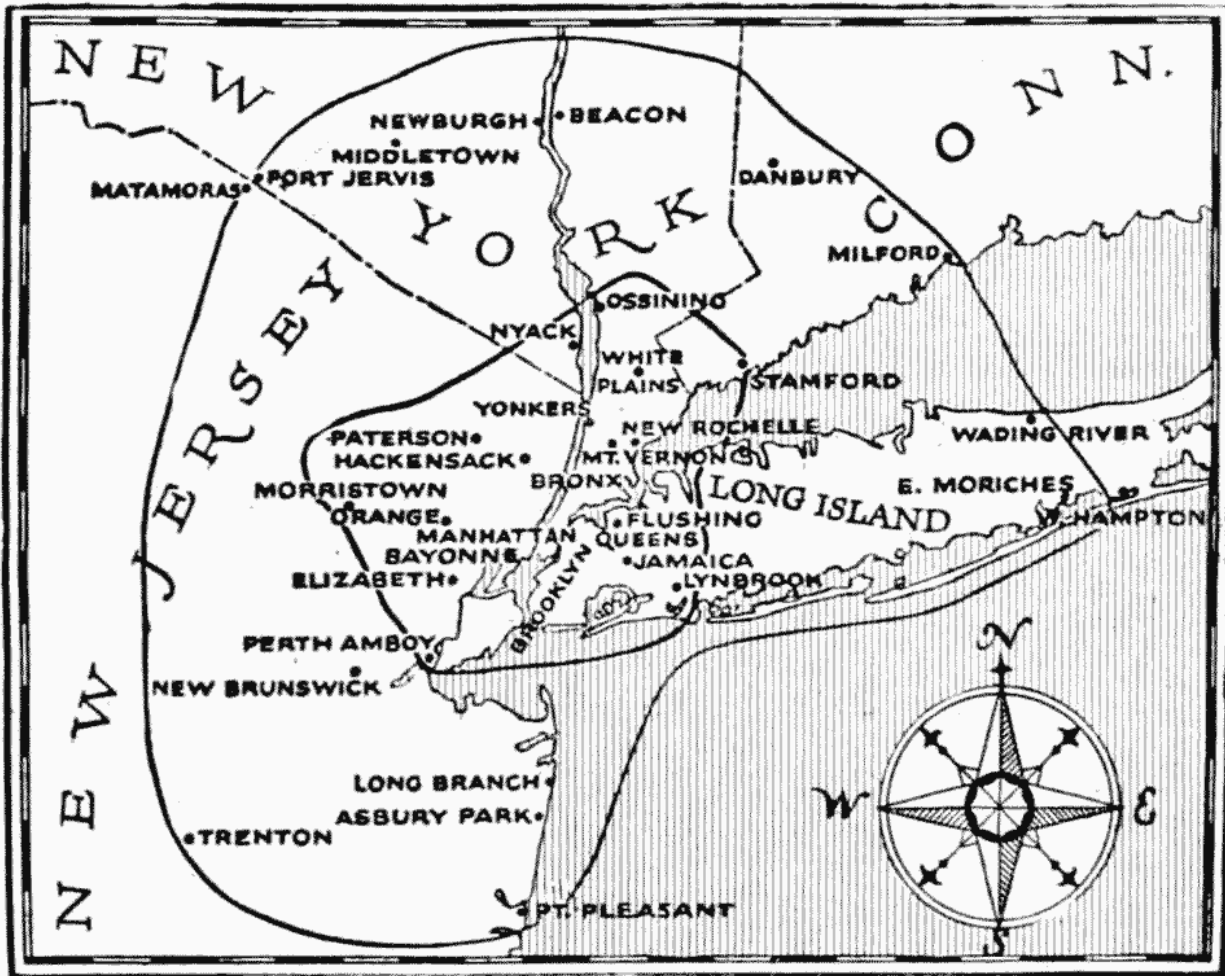

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
