NOTES ON THE BIRTH OF THE LARK

Boston Herald.—"The pictures and rhymes in The Lark rank with the most remarkable things done for children since the days of Mother Goose."

Boston Budget.—"The Lark is a reaction against the decadent spirit. It is blithe, happy, full of the joy of life and the Greek within us—a herald of the dawn of the new century."

Boston Commonwealth.—"Everything in The Lark is clever—some, we may be permitted to add, cleverer than the rest."

New York Critic.—"The faddists have produced some extraordinary things in the way of literature, but nothing more freakish has made its appearance in the last half-century than The Lark."

New York Tribune.—"It is perhaps one-fourth a monthly periodical and three-fourths an escapade. The Lark ought really to be called 'The Goose.'"

New York Herald.—"The current number of The Lark is, if possible, more curious, more quaint, more preposterously humorous, and more original than its predecessors. It is entirely unlike any other publication."

Richmond Times.—"We do not understand upon what the editor of The Lark bases anticipation of interest and consequent demand."

Philadelphia Times.—"The young men who publish The Lark have ideas of their own. The Lark is smart and funny in a way quite its own, and it is also capable of serious flights and of musical notes clear enough to be heard across the continent."

Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.—"The worst thing about it being that it is all too brief."

Jersey City Chronicle.—"Every line in it is well worth perusal."

St. Paul Globe.—"The Lark partakes of the prevalent temper of life on the Pacific Coast, where the don't-care mood of the West takes an especially sunny and cheerful turn, and life looks a bigger joke than elsewhere in the Union."

St. Louis Mirror.—"The Lark continues to be odd and ridiculous. Its humor is quite unlike any other humor ever seen in this country. There are good men with good pens working on The Lark."

Kansas City Star.—"The Lark seems to have attained a distinction hitherto considered impossible in the unconventional. It seems really original. It succeeds in holding in captivity the unexpected."

Los Angeles: The Land of Sunshine.—"It is unlike anything nearer to hand than 'Alice in Wonderland.'"

Lark Posters.—The full set of Eight Posters for THE LARK will be sent post-paid for $2.00. The Lark Posters are printed from wooden blocks, all but the first two having been cut by the artist.

CONTENTS

DEDICATION.

1. A LEGEND, Rare and Superfine,
Cribbed, some will say, from FRANKENSTEIN,
(It is a little in that line).
2. MY FEET; a Memoir, with a Phase
Resembling some Equestrian Ways.
3. TH' INVISIBLE BRIDGE; a sort of Fable,— Please understand, if you're able.
4. THE RUNAWAY TRAIN; a weird Creation
Of Fancy and Imagination,
Meant for the Rising Generation.
5. On CITY FLORA, semi-culled
By one whose Fame was somewhat dulled.
6. ASTONISHMENT; depicting how Peculiar is the Verdant Bough.
7. The PURPLE COW'S projected Feast;
Reflections on a Mythic Beast
That's quite Remarkable, at least.
8. MY HOUSE, and how I make MY BED;
A Nocturne for a Sleepy-Head.
9. On DIGITAL EXTREMITIES;
A Poem (and a gem it is!)
10. THE GOOP; constructed on a Plan
Beyond the Intellect of Man.
11. PARISIAN NECTAR for the Gods;
A little thick—but what's the odds?

- 12. THE FLYING HOUSE; a Narrative
Of Sanity comparative,
And nothing much declarative.
(Permission of S. F. Examiner.)
- 13. The Story of the GIANT HORSE;
'T is quite improbable, of course.
- 14. WHAT SMITH TRIED TO BELIEVE; a Study
That will appeal to anybuddy.
- 15. The TOWEL AND THE DOOR,—ah well!
I'll not attempt the Tale to tell.
- 16. The TOWEL AND THE DOOR again!
The Story's told—is it in vain?
- 17. The FOOTLESS FEAT of Mrs. Box
Posteaque, fiat Nox!
- 18. And now, allow the PURPLE COW
To make her Bow.

THE PECULIAR HISTORY OF THE CHEWING-GUM MAN.

WILLIE, an' Wallie, an' Huldy Ann,
They went an' built a big CHEWIN'-GUM
MAN:

It was none o' your teenty little dots,
With pinhole eyes an' pencil-spots;
But this was a terribul big one—well,
'T was a'most as high as the Palace Hotel!
It took 'em a year to chew the gum!!
And Willie he done it all, 'cept some
That Huldy got her ma to chew,
By the time the head was ready to do.

Well, Willie he chewed it for days 'n' days;
They brung it to him in gret big drays;
An' fast as he got it good an' soft,
Then Wallie he come and carried it oft.
Then he'd roll it into a gret big ball,
An' he made a-more'n a MILLION in all!
Then Huldy Ann she spanked 'em flat
An' pinched an' poked, an' the like o' that,
Till she got it inter a gret big hunk—
My! didn't Huldy have the spunk!
And then she sliced one end half-way
To make the laigs ('cause they never stay
When you stick 'em on in a seprit piece—
Seems like the ends was made o' grease);
And she slit an arm right up each side,—
I couldn't a done it if I'd a tried!
O' course, her brothers they helped her, though,
An' rolled the arms an' laigs out, so

They all was smooth with roundin' bends
An' chopped the fingers inter the ends!
An' when their mother had chewn the head,
She went an' stuck it on, instead!

An' then, when the man was almost done,
They had an awful lots o' fun.
A-walkin' down his stummick was best
To make the buttons enter his vest!
They struck big cartwheels in him for eyes;
His eyes was both tremendous size;
His nose was a barrel—an' then beneath
They used a ladder, to make his teeth!
An' when he was layin' acrost the street
Along come their daddy, as white 's a sheet,—
He was skeert half outer his wits, I guess,
An' he didn't know whatter make o' the mess,—
But Huldry she up an' begun to coax
To have him down town, to skeer the folks!
So her dad he grabbed him offen the street,
An' Willie an' Wallie they took his feet,
An' they dragged him clean down to the
Cogswell fountain,
An' stood him up as big as a mountain!
You'd orter seen him a-standin' there,
A-straddlin' Market street in the air!

Well, he stood up straight for a week 'n' a half
An' the folks, Gee! didn't they yell 'n' laff:
The boys clum up his laigs quite bold—
The gum was so soft they got good hold;
The cars run under him day an' night,
An' the people come miles to see the sight!
Well, after he'd stayed as stiff 's a post,
With his head on top o' the roofts almost,
The sun come outer the fog one day
An'—well, I guess you can see the way
That gret big feller begun to melt;—
Imagine how Willie and Wallie felt!

For first he cocked his head out some,
An' when the heat got inter the gum
He slowly waved his arms ahead
An' slanted forred, just like he was dead!

An' all day long he leaned an' bent
Till all expected he would have went
An' pitched right over. They roped the street
To keep the crowd away from his feet.
I tell yer he was a sight; my soul!
Twicet as high as a telegraft pole,
Wavin' his arms an' slumpin' his feet
An' a-starin' away down Market street.

Then, what did I tell yer—that blame old head
Their mother had made a-seprit, instead,—

It fell right off an' squashed a horse!
('T was so soft, it didn't kill him, o' course.)
When his hands got so they touched the ground
A hundred policemen they come around;
They stuck a cable-car to his feet,
An' one to his head, a goin' up street,
An' then they pulled him opposite ways,
An' they pulled him for days 'n' days 'n' days,
An' they drored him out so slim an' small
That he reached a mile 'n' a half, in all.

An' that was the end o' the CHEWIN'-GUM
MAN

For Willie, an' Wallie, an' Huldry Ann.
They come along with an ax next day,
An' chopped him up, and guv him away.

My Feet they haul me 'round the House;

They hoist me up the Stairs;

*I only have to steer them and
They ride me everywhere.*

*I'd never dare to walk across
A Bridge I could not see,*

*For quite afraid of falling off
I fear that I should be!*

ADULT'S DEPARTMENT:

H, WILLIE and Wallie and Pinkie Jane!
They run away with a Railroad Train!
'T was Wallie got up the ridiculous plan,

'T was most as good as the Chewin'-Gum

Man!

Wallie is terribul funny—My!

He can make up a face that would make you die,

An' when Pinkie Jane come down to the city

He tried to show off, for she's awful pretty.

So they all went over across the Bay,

To have a picnic, and spend the day.

At Sixteenth Street they got off the cars

A-grinnin' an' giggling so,—My Stars!

A Enormus Crowd begun to collect,

But nobuddy knew just what to expect.

Then up the track come a little spot,

An' nearer and nearer and NEARER it got,

And Willie and Wallie and Pinkie Jane

Stood right in the road of the Overland Train!!!

The folks on the platform begun to yell,

"Look out!—get off!!" an' the engine bell

THE RUNAWAY TRAIN:

Was ringin' like mad,—but them children stood
As calm as if they was made of wood!
And a great big fat man yelled,—“Oh Golly!
For Heaven's sakes, just look at Wallie!”
As the train came thunderin' down the rail,
The wimmin all turned terribul pale.
But Wallie he stood there, stiff 's a soldier,
An' then (you remember what I told yer)
He made up a horribul face,—and whack!
He SCARED THE ENGINE RIGHT OFF'N THE TRACK!
An' the train jumped forreds an' squirmed around,
A-wrigglin' an' jigglin' over the ground;
And all the people they had to git,
For the blame old engine it had a fit!
But when the train got onto the track,
Them children they clum right onto its back,
And they tickled it so that all to once
It gave 'em a lot of shivers an' grunts,
And it humped itself way up in the air,
And p'raps it didn't give them a scare!

AN IMPOSSIBLE EPIC:

Then it puffed an' puffed, a-faster
an' faster,
While Wallie sat there like an old school-master,
A-drivin' that train till, I tell you what!
You no idea what a nerve he's got!
Willie he held on to Wallie, an'
Jane
Held onto Willie with might and main.
Then they hitched along, like an old inch-worm,
With now a spazzum, and then a
squirm;
But Willie and Wallie and Pinkie
Jane,
They soon got sick o' that
Railroad train!
But when they crawled to the last end car
To jump on the ground, where it wasn't far,
They got a heap worse off, instead,
For that nasty train, it stood on its head!
An' they all yelled, "Telegraft Huldy Ann,
And make her come as quick as she can.
We can't get off. Oh, hurry up, please!
What would we do if the thing should sneeze?"

SEQUEL TO THE CHEWING-GUM MAN

I tell yer them children was in a fix
While that mad engine was doin' his tricks.
But the messenger-boy found Huldy Ann,
An' she said, "I'm glad that I ain't a man!
I'll show 'em how!" an' she crossed the Bay,
An' she see in a wink where the trouble lay.
An' she said, "You go, an' you telegraft back
For a load o' candy to block the track!"
An' when they sent it, she piled it high
With chocolate caramels, good ones,—My!
Peppermint drops and cocoanut cream,
Till it looked too good for a Christmas dream!
And the sun it melted and finished the job
Into one great elegant sticky gob!
So the train run into it lickety-split,
An' the cow-catcher stuck, when the engine hit,—
An' the tail o' the train flew up and threw
Them children into that caramel goo!
They fell clear in,—way over their head,
But Ann eat 'em out, an' sent 'em to bed!

THE FLYING HOUSE

Written and Illustrated by GELETT BURGESS

O Willie an' Wallie, you better believe,
They had a circus on Christmas Eve
With Huldy Ann an' Pinkie Jane—
The folks imagined they'd went insane!
Them twins had an awfully narrow shave—
They nearly was killt, for they wouldn't behave!
Huldy's a winner! She hatched the scheme
On the day before Christmas; an' that there team

That Willie an' Wallie—they worked like mad—
You've no idea what a time they had!
'Twas the day before Christmas, at half-past three,

When Huldy she up an' she says, says she:
"You Willie an' Wallie, you go in the yard
An' get that windmill—it won't be hard—
An' bring it an' put it on top of the house,
An' don't make no more noise than a mouse!
'For I know something I won't tell,
Nine little niggers in a peanut shell!'"

Well, the twins they knew when she said that,
Huldy wa' n't talkin' much through her hat.
So they worked an' they tugged for more 'n an hour,
'Till they got that windmill off'n the tower;
An' they hauled it up to the roof with ropes,
Way on the ridgepole, 'tween the slopes.

They was almost dead, it tired 'em so,
An' Will druv a splinter into his toe!
An' all this time both Pinkie Jane
An' Huldy was workin' with might an' main,
A-shuttin' the doors, an' the windows too,
An' stoppin' up cracks where the leaks come through.

An' when it was tight, she slipped inside
An' turned the gas on good an' wide!
An' she screamed, "Look out that you don't get smothered:
Climb up on the roof where I won't be bothered!"

When the house filled up with the gas inside,
It trembled an' jiggled from side to side;
An' when the gas filled it good an' full

The ole foundations began to pull;
Then Huldy she pushed it a little mite,
An' the house riz up in the air all right!
An' it riz an' riz like a ole balloon.
An' Ann got aboard of it none too soon;
For it flew away off up into the sky
With her holdin' on by her hands—Oh my!
But she clum on top, an' you'd oughter have seen
Them workin' that wheel like a flyin' machine!
Well, after they'd flew an hour or so
They came to a mountain all covered with snow,
An' there on the top they happened to see
A enermous great big Christmas tree!
Then Huldy steered 'em over the top,
An' they let down an anchor to make 'em stop;
An' Willie an' Wallie they yelled with glee,
An' jumped right into that Christmas tree!
They let down a ladder for them two girls
That didn't darst jump for spoilin' their curls!
They was toys an' games an' wagons an' dolls,
All trimmed with tinsel an' fol-de-rols!
For Santa Claus had just drove away,
An' Wallie he said that he seen the sleigh!
Well, when they'd eat all the candy they could,
They loaded their house with things up good.
(But they hurried for fear that the old man'd come back
An' catch 'em an' give 'em a larrupin' whack!)
Then they got on the roof, an' they cut the string
An' away they flew like everything!

The twins worked the wheel an' Huldy steered,
An' Pinkie clung tight—she was awfully skeered:
They got back home at half-past six,
But, oh! they got into a nawful fix!
For just as they sunk the house gave a lurch
An' they landed right on top of a church!
An' they punched a hole through the roof with the steeple,

To the great amazement of all of the people!
An' the toys fell out of that house in the air,
An' all the children in the town was there.
So every one got a present again
'Cept Willie an' Wallie an' Huldy an' Jane—
An' it served 'em right, don't you think? because They'd stolen the presents from Santa Clause.

*Once there was a GIANT HORSE,
That walked through all the Town,*

*A-stepping into all the Roofs,
And Smashing Houses down!*

Well, I come home late that night, near one o'clock, I reckon, and I undressed in the dark as per usual. When I gut into bed I thot it felt as tho sumbuddy hed bin there, and when I kicked out my leg sure enough there was sumbuddy there. Well, I thot Rats, what's the difference; I'll go to sleep, it's only a man. But I kinder could 'nt sleep, so I got up and lit a cigaroot, and I saw the feller that was in bed with me wos dead. Well, I thot Rats, what's the difference, he wont git over to my side of the bed anyway; so I turned over and went to sleep. Well, I fired my cigaroot in ther paper-basket and went to sleep. Well, after a while I thot I smealed smoke, and it was n't cigaroot smoke, but the basket was all afire, and burning like a editor's soul after death. Well, I thot Rats, what's the difference. Well, it looked so bright and comfortable I thot I'd get up and read. By this time one corner of the room was goin' like 4 o'clock, and it was nice and warm. After I'd read about ten minits, it got so hot I cudden't stand it, and I got up and went into ther next room. Well, I thot Rats, what's the difference. Well, in about a hour there was a big crowd outside of the house, and they was all yellin' Fire to beat the band. I looked out er winder. Jump, says the fireman, and I jumped. Then I walked off, and a feller says, says he, "You blame fool, you've bruk yer leg. Well, I thot Rats, what's the difference?

THE SOLES OF THE UNFORTUNATES.

IKKERY had but one leg[A] when I married him.[B] I did not realize what this meant {it meant 41 right-foot shoes [for he was extravagant (and I was economical[C] to a degree] in his dressing closet} until he died.

I could not get rid of them

I could not bear to throw them away.

The clerks asserted that all their one-legged right-footed customers wore large sizes.[D]

There were not weddings enough to throw them all after the carriages.

Chapter II.

Mr. Silk WAS a two-legged gentleman.

My second marriage WOULD have been happy, but my husband met with a distressing accident, which necessitated an amputation ^{of his right leg} of his wrong leg. So the collection increased.

In spite of all my precautions, Mr. Silk's shoes would often be left pointing toward the bed.^[E] How I suffered! At last Mr. Silk died. The day after the funeral, I made a procession of all the shoes—

ORDER:

- | | | |
|---------------------|----------------------|-----------------|
| 1. Patent leathers | 4. Bluchers (large) | 7. Congresses |
| 2. Brogans | 5. Tan shoes | 8. Riding boots |
| 3. Bluchers (small) | 6. Slippers (carpet) | 9. Pumps |

Sixty-two right-foot shoes, ^{toe to heel}, they reached from my bedroom[F] to the stairs.

I was in despair when a small-footed man named Box proposed to me. I looked at his feet and accepted him. (I was sure the shoes would fit.)

As soon as he was asleep I approached his prostrate form (my axe was sharp {I ground it myself} and my mind was set).

Sixty-two soles inspired me.[G] I struck the blow!—Then the HORROR of my deed seized me. The rest is too awful!

NOTE: I had cut off the wrong foot!

[A] Left leg.

[B] Fool that I was.

[C] For he could get a pair at the same price as a single shoe.

[D] Likkery wore No. 3's.

[E] It is a common superstition among children that this encourages bad dreams.

[F] Bay-window.

[G] I was determined they should at last be worn out.

NOTES ON THE PASSING OF THE LARK

Literary Review.—"Its ways were ways of pleasantness, and all its paths were peace. It had no enemies and all its friends were true ones. We see it go with a real regret and a feeling that we could have better spared a better paper."—CAROLYN WELLS.

New York Times.—"Regret moderately deep and thoroughly sincere will be felt all over the country, at the announcement that The Lark has ceased publication. A considerable number of people could see no humor and less meaning in its songs, but thousands of others had keener eyes and ears, and looked and listened with delight."

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.—"The Lark is dead, and the Epilark has come and gone, leaving behind them only a haunting echo of joyous song and a love of living delicious to contemplate."

St. Paul Daily Globe.—"But the mood in which we turn the Japanese pages of the last Lark is anything but flippant. It is something to have known youth and gayety, enthusiasm and a bravery which flies in the face of day, and now—something to have lost them. The Lark has lived and now dies well, and, to some at least, the time of its irregular appearance will no longer be a red-letter day."

The Philosopher.—"And now The Lark announces its end. It was the freshest, purest breath of air that ever blew across the atmosphere of letters."

London Times.—"So unique in literature and illustration, we are sorry to note that its publication is to be suspended. The bound volumes for the two years it has been running deserve a place in the libraries of all lovers of the odd and advanced in literature.”

Paragraphs.—“No more shall its cool notes delight the tree-tops, and no longer may we follow in the footsteps of Vivette. It is a pity, of course; but what can you expect? Larks must be fed, and—no one thinks of feeding them.”

Trenton Tribune.—“Its clever foolery shows how big a void was created when The Lark decided to sing no more. The Lark was the one new thing in junior magazinedom that did not outlive its welcome.”

St. Louis Mirror.—“It smacked of Robert Louis Stevenson. It was ‘Alice in Wonderland’ in picture. It was art through a crazy looking-glass. It was the realism of nonsense. The whole country laughed at the strange pictures with the brilliantly unintelligible verses. But much of it was not understood of the people who need diagrams. The Lark was always too high in the blue for the many; but for those who might mount with him or to him—for those the magazinelet was published. Those enjoyed it; and now they regret it—for The Lark is no more. It was so original that its death is its only unoriginality.”

There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, "Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation."
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project

Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
