Book Love, my friends, is your pass to the greatest, the purest, and the most perfect pleasure that God has prepared for His creatures. It lasts when all other pleasures fade. It will support you when all other recreations are gone. It will last you until your death. It will make your hours pleasant to you as long as you live.

Anthony Trollope.

All books are sold as new unless otherwise described in the Catalogue. Any book found to be imperfect or not agreeing with description may be returned and money will be refunded.

As we have but one copy of most of the books listed, an early order would be advisable to avoid disappointment.

- 5 Amatory. Kisses: A Poetical Translation of the Basia of Joannes Secundus Nicolaius. With the original Latin, and an Essay on his Life and Writings. Finely engraved frontispiece. The Second Edition, with additions. Post 8vo., old polished calf. London, 1778.

This translation throughout is confronted with the original Latin, the preservation of which, as every Edition of SECUNDUS is now become extremely scarce. Very fine copy.

- 6 Amatory (Aphrodite). Done into English from the French of Pierre Louys. Printed from bold type on a high grade antique-laid paper, and beautifully bound, with parchment back stamped in gold, and Fabriano sides. Gilt top, raw edge and tail. Notes and index are in the back of the book. Absolutely unexpurgated version. Beautiful frontispiece on Japanese vellum, and five head pieces. Decorative initial in the opening of each chapter. Privately printed for subscribers only. $15.00

Edition limited to 550 numbered copies only.

The feminine personage who occupies the principal place in this romance whose pages you are about to turn, is an antique courtesan, but be reassured, she will not convert herself.

She will be loved neither by a monk, a prophet or a God. In actual literature, this is an originality.

Rather she will be frankly a courtesan, the ardor and also the pride of every human being who has vocation and who holds in society a freely chosen place; she will have ambition to raise herself to the highest point; she will not even imagine a need for excuse or mystery in her life.

- 7 Amatory. Beaux Art Classics. The most noted love stories in French and English literature. Edited by Anatole France, Jules and Leo Claretie, Luxembourg Edition de Luxe. Comprising Longu's Daphnois and Chloe, Bourget's Pastels', Gautier's Jean and Jeanette and King Candoule, Musset's Last Abbe and The Mouche, Flaubert's, A Simple Heart and Herodias, Shakespeare's Anthony and Cleopatra and Romeo and Juliet. Each exquisitely illustrated with etchings by Lalauze and other famous French artists. 8 volumes, 8vo. Red buckram, gilt tops and backs. Printed in Paris (English text) by Societe des Beaux Arts. $27.50

An unusually fine printed set.

- 8 Amatory. Dialogues of the Hetaerai. By Lucian of Samosata. In English. Translated by M. S. Buck. A series of fifteen incidents, familiar to the life of Greek courtesans, told in the dialogue form of which Lucian was so thoroughly the master. Printed from type on a high-grade antique-laid paper, and bound in half parchment, stamped in gold, Fabriano sides. Gilt top, uncut. Privately printed for subscribers only.

Only 600 numbered copies.

These dialogues are usually omitted from the published translations of Lucian's works. They are here printed in a literal translation absolutely without cuts.

- 9 Amatory. Lost Valentines Found, with Other Trifles in Rhyme. 16mo., contemporary sprinkled calf, gilt back. London, 1821. Scarce.

$5.00

Oh: joy of my bosom, delight of my heart, Gay blooming Marchioness! thou shalt be mine—All buxom—all witching—all round as thou art—Thou were formed, my love! for thy own Valentine.

- 10 Amatory. Aucassin & Nicolette. Done into English by Andrew Lang. Post 8vo., new half calf, gilt top and back, uncut. London, 1896.

$5.00

Limited number of copies only printed. What the nameless author does care for, is his telling of the love story, the passion of Aucassin and Nicolette. His originality lies in his charming medley of sentiment and humor, of a smiling compassion and sympathy with a touch of mocking mirth. The Love of Aucassin and Nicolette.

- 11 Amatory. The Greek Anthology. (Palatine MS.) The Amatory Epigrams. Completely rendered into English for the first time. UNEXPURGATED. Small 4to. original boards, leather back, uncut. Privately printed, 1916.

Of this edition, intended for private circulation only, is limited to 750 numbered copies.

An 8-page Appendix has been added, separately printed and laid in, and not in previous copies, having been suppressed.

- 12 Amatory. The Works of Peter Pindar. Engraved titles. 5 vols., 8vo., half tree calf, marbled board sides, leather labels. London, 1794-1801. $22.50

Originally issued in 3 volumes, but the scarce 4th and 5th volumes have been added to this set, uniformly bound.

Volume 5 contains: Nil Admirari; or, A Smile of a Bishop, occasioned by an Hyperbolical Eulogy on Miss Hannah More; Expostulation; or an address to Miss Hannah More; Duplicity, or The Bishop, and Simplicity, or the Curate; Julia, or The Victim of Love, Etc., Etc. A fine work on early English Amatory writings.

- 13 Amatory. Illustrious Dames of the Court of the Valois Kings. By Pierre de Bourdeille, and C. A. Saint-Beuve. Literally translated by Katharine P. Wormeley. With 8 full-page photogravure plates. 8vo. cloth, gilt top, uncut. N. Y. (London printed), 1912. $3.00

The present issue, complete in every respect, with all the illustrations of the costly original edition, is now published to meet the demand for a less expensive form of this realistic and intimate chronicle of the illustrious women of the most luxurious European court at the most brilliant epoch of its existence.

- 14 Amatory. Ephemera. Greek Prose Poems. By Mitchell S. Buck. 8vo. boards, vellum backs, uncut. Philadelphia, 1916.

Edition limited to 750 copies printed entirely on Japan paper. The two series of antique sketches contained in this volume show the art of rhythmic prose, so successfully used in French by such writers as Baudelaire and Pierre Louys, presented directly in the English language. $2.25

A keen perception of beauty has not distorted a necessary faithfulness to subject-matter; and those who still admire the flowers of past ages will find them here, still fragrant.

- 15 Amatory. Longinus on the Sublime. Translated into English by H. L. Havell. With a 12-page introduction by Andrew Lang. Post 8vo. original cloth, uncut. London, 1890 Scarce.

First Edition, in regard to Andrew Lang's
Introduction. Scarce. Lang item.

$5.00

- 16 Amatory. The Thousand and One Days. Persian Tales. Edited by Justin Huntley McCarthy. Frontispiece. 2 vols. Post 8vo. original boards, vellum backs, uncut. London, 1892.

If the Thousand and One Days are not such splendid stories as The Thousand and One Nights, what stories in the world are so splendid? We may love the (The Thousand and One Nights) with all our hearts, and yet be willing to welcome The Thousand and One Days for the sake of that enchanted and enchanting Orient of which they tell.

$5.00

- 17 Amatory. For a Night. By Emile Zola. Translated by Alison M. Lederer. 8vo. cloth. Phila., 1911.

$1.00

The imaginative realism, the poetic psychology, of this story of the abnormal Therese who kills her lover; of the simple-minded Julien who becomes an accessory after the act for love of her, and finally "let himself fall" into the river, having first dropped the body of Colombel over, are gripping and intense.

This volume contains two other typical Zola stories: The Maid of the Dawber and Complements—two delightful, crisp bits of literature.

- 18 Amatory. The Diary and Letters of Madame D'Arblay (Frances Burney.) With Notes by W. C. Ward. Engraved frontispieces.

3 vols., post 8vo. ½ red levant morocco, raised bands, gilt tops. London, 1890. $15.00

The cream of the diarists and memoir writers.

Privately printed Vizetelly edition. Scarce. Regarded as a series of pictures of the society of the time, the Diary is unsurpassed for vivid coloring and truthful delineation.

- 19 Amatory. (Hugo, Victor). SELECTED POEMS. Illustrated. 3 vols., 8vo. ¾ crushed blue levant morocco, extra, gilt paneled backs with raised bands, gilt tops, uncut. Phila., 1897. $22.50

A limited edition printed entirely on Japanese vellum, with the illustrations in two states—one on Japan vellum, and the other on China paper. A magnificent set in a handsome binding.

The beautiful illustrations include the following: Boaz Slumbering, The Sylph, Soul-Stress, The Feast of Freedom, The Ballad of the Nun, The Fay and the Peri, Oh, When I Sleep, To His Muse, Marriage and Feasts, Last Night, Etc., Etc.

- 20 Amatory. Sonnets from the Patagonian. 8vo. boards, uncut. Phila., 1918. $2.00

Limited to 750 copies printed on Italian hand-made paper. This volume when it first appeared was not liked by divers nice people—it was thought nasty—but none put it down till he had finished it, a terror was on him lest he miss a word. And the terror was the sword of Beauty which slayeth all.

- 21 Amatory. The Grove; or, a Collection of Original Poems. Translation by W. Walsh, Dr. J. Donne, Mr. Dryden, Mr. Hall, The Cady E—— M——; Mr. Butler, Sir John Suckling, and other eminent hands. 8vo. contemporary blind tooled paneled calf, (neatly rebacked.) London, 1721.

Curious old work. $7.50

The list of subscribers includes the names of several ladies, and some clergymen, but some of the pieces are decidedly unfit for either women or the clergy.

- 22 Amatory. Two Deaths in the Bronx. By Donald Evans. 8vo. boards, antique wove paper. Philadelphia, 1918.

The modernism, mistakenly called Futurism, that in the Sonnets from the Patagonian sometimes merely amazed, in the present instance, stimulates and satisfies. The volume is a series of pitiless photographs of profligate men and women who fritter away life, seeking new pleasures, new sensations. It is a gallery of incurable poseurs. A curious little volume. $1.50

- 22A Amatory. The Bohemians of the Latin Quarter. (Scenes de la Vie de Boheme.) By Henri Murger. A literal translation into English. UNEXPURGATED EDITION. With portrait and several very fine etchings printed on Japan vellum. 8vo. original buckram, uncut. Societe des Beaux-Arts. Paris, London and New York, 1915. $2.25

Most delightful reading of Paris' most famous art centre (The Latin Quarter).

- 23 Amatory. Plays and Sonnets. By Ernest Lacy. 2 vols. Printed on hand-made paper and illustrated with 7 etchings. 12mo. cloth, uncut. Phila., 1916. $3.50

Volume I, The Bard of Mary Redcliffe, a play in 5 acts. Vol. II, Rinaldo, the Doctor of Florence, a play in 5 acts. Chatterton, a 1-act play. Sonnets.

These three plays and sixty-odd sonnets are written with lucidity and emotion. A human heart throbs through them. The sonnets have evoked a fine critical eulogy from the greatest student of the Elizabethan sonnets (including Shakespeare's).

- 23A Amatory. The Lady with the Camellias. By Alexander Dumas, fils. UNEXPURGATED EDITION. With portrait and several fine etchings by Albert Lynch, printed on Japan vellum. 8vo. buckram, gilt tops, uncut. Societe des Beaux-Arts. Paris, London and New York, 1915. $2.25

A literal translation of Dumas' charming story of a most handsome woman, courted by royalty itself, but at last met the fate of so many others of her class.

- 24 Amatory. Original Poems. Serious and Humourous. By Henry Baker. Post 8vo. half calf, board sides. London. Printed for the Author, 1725. $5.00

First Edition Scarce.

Contents: Kitty's Dream, The Beauties of Enfield, A Proof of Love, The Execration, The Rapture, Amanda's Character, Etc.

- 24A Amatory. Madame Bovary. By Gustave Flaubert. UNEXPURGATED EDITION. With portrait and several fine etchings by Faurie, printed on Japan vellum. 8vo. buckram, gilt top, uncut. Societe des Beaux-Arts, Paris, London and New York, 1915. $2.25

Madame Bovary is a most fascinating story of a woman of culture and refinement, but ultimately followed the course of so many others.

- 25 Amatory. Secret Memoirs of Louise, Crown Princess, The Court of Royal Saxony, 1891-1902. From the pages of her diary, lost at the time of her elopement from Dresden with W. Andre ("Richard") Giron. By Henry W. Fisher. Illustrated from photogravures, ½ vellum, board sides, gilt top and back, as issued. N. Y., 1912. $5.00

This edition printed on Japanese vellum paper, is limited to 250 copies only. UNEXPURGATED.

If Louise had lived at the time of Phryne, the philosophers would have characterized her as "an animal with long hair," if he had known her, the great Mirabeau might have coined his pet phrase, "a human that dresses, undressed and talks" (or writes) for Louise; as a matter of fact, she is one of those "Jansenists" of love who believe in the utter helplessness of natural woman to turn down a good-looking man.

- 26 Another Copy of the same edition, printed upon a beautiful laid deckle-edge paper. UNEXPURGATED. Cloth, 8vo. gilt tops, New York, 1912. $3.00

- 27 Amatory. The Works of Tibullus, containing his Four Books of Love—Elegies. Translated by Mr. Dart. To which is prefix'd the Life of the Author. Also, Some Observations on the Original Design of Elegiac Verse; with Characters of the most Celebrated Greek, Latin and English Elegiac Poets. Finely engraved frontispiece, and several head-and-tail pieces. Post 8vo. new ½ polished brown calf extra, gilt tooled backs, with green levant labels, gilt top. London, 1720. $12.50

The works of Ovid having been some time translated, and met with so favorable a reception, the translator thought it would not be disagreeable to introduce a polite contemporary of his, in our language, one whom Ovid himself imitated, and for whom he had so great a value that he recommends his pupils in Art of Love, to read his works, and gather from them all the tender sentiments expressed of the tenderest of passions.

ANTHROPOLOGICAL WORKS SOLD ONLY TO DOCTORS, LAWYERS, AND EDUCATORS.

- 28 Anthropology. (Davenport, John). Curiositates Eroticæ Physiologiæ, or, Tabooed subjects freely treated. Six Essays, vis.: Generation; Chastity and Modesty; Marriage; Circumcision; Eunuchism; Hermaphrodism, and followed by a closing essay on Death. Small 4to. ½ morocco, gilt top, uncut. London: Privately printed, 1875. $15.00

Let it not be supposed that the author's intention has been that of writing an obscene book, or even to employ obscene words. He holds that the grand subject—the Reproduction of the Human Race—which runs more or less through all the essays in this volume, is, in itself, most pure, and that the words which are necessary, adequately, and correctly to describe it in its various phases and ramifications, have acquired the stigma of obscene only in modern times, and, though an ultra-fastidiousness, which would hesitate to apply the word breech to a man's small clothes, but would rather designate them as unmentionables, indescribables, or femoral habiliments.

- 29 Anthropology. Aphrodisiacs and Anti-aphrodisiacs: Three Essays on the Powers of Reproduction; with some account of the Judicial "Congress" as practised in France during the Seventeenth Century. By John Davenport. Illustrated. Small 4to. ½ levant morocco extra, gilt tooled back, gilt top, uncut. London. Privately printed, 1869. $15.00

The reproduction powers of nature were regarded by the nations of remote antiquity with an awe and reverence so great as to form an object of worship, under a symbol, of all others the most significant—the Phallus; and this was founded a religion, of which the traces exist to this day, not in Asia alone, but even in Europe itself.

- 30 Anthropology. Psychopathia Sexualis. With especial reference to the Antipathic Sexual Instinct. A Medico-Forensic Study. By Dr. R. V. Krafft-Ebing. Translated from the German by F. J. Rebman. 8vo. buckram. New York, 1910. $3.50

Few people are conscious of the deep influence exerted in sexual life upon the sentiment, thought and action of man in his social relations to others. Shiller, in his essay, Die Weltweisen, touches upon this subject in these memorable words: "So long as philosophy keeps together the structure of the Universe so long does it maintain the world's machinery of hunger and love."

- 31 Anthropology. A Problem in Modern Ethics. Being an Inquiry into the Phenomenon of Sexual Inversion. Addressed especially to Medical Psychologists and Jurists. By John Addington Symonds. 8vo. cloth. London, privately printed, 1896. $3.50

Limited to 100 numbered copies only.

Inverted sexuality, the sexual instinct diverted from its normal channel, directed (in the case males) to males, forms the topic of this volume. The study will be confined to modern times, and to those nations which regard the phenomenon with religious detestation.

- 32 Anthropology. A Problem in Greek Ethics. Being an Inquiry into the Phenomenon of Sexual Inversion. Addressed especially to Medical Psychologists and Jurists. By John Addington Symonds. 8vo. cloth. London, privately printed, 1901. $3.50

Limited to 100 numbered copies only.

For the student of sexual inversion, ancient Greece offers a wide field for observation and reflection. Its importance has hitherto been underrated by medical and legal writers on the subject, who do not seem to be aware that here alone in history have we the example of a great and highly-developed race not only tolerating homosexual passions, but deeming them of spiritual value, and attempting to utilize them for the benefit of society.

- 33 Anthropology. The Sexual Life of Woman, in its Physiological and Hygienic Aspect. By E. H. Kisch. Post 8vo. cloth. New York, 1916. $3.00

From the earliest days of the medical art this sexual life of woman has aroused in the leaders of medical thought the highest interest, and for this reason great attention has been directed, not only to the anatomy of the genital organs and to the diseases of the reproductive system, but also to the individual manifestations of sexual activity and to the influence exercised by these on the female organism as a whole.

- 34 Anthropology. The Sexual Question. A Scientific, Psychological, Hygienic and Sociological Study. By August Forel. English adaptation, revised and enlarged, by C. F. Marshall. Illustrated. 8vo. cloth. New York, n. d.

In the domain with which we are concerned the French public are too much afraid of crudities and of calling things by their proper name. By veiled words and by indirect locution one may say anything, but the author decided not to employ such subterfuges in treating of such a vital social question with the seriousness it requires. $3.50

- 35 Anthropology. Histoire de la Prostitution, chez tous les peuples du monde. Depuis l'antiquité la plus reculée jusqu'a nos jours. Par Pierre Dufour. 6 vols. 8vo. ½ green morocco, gilt tops, uncut. Paris, 1851. $50.00

This edition contains many engraved plates finely printed on India paper, which were omitted from subsequent issues on account of their free interpretation.

This is about the most extensive work on prostitution, no phase of the subject having been omitted.

- 36 Anthropology. The History of Prostitution. Its Extent, Causes and Effects Throughout the World. By William W. Sanger. With numerous Editorial Notes and an Appendix. 8vo. cloth. New York, 1913. $3.50

A vice which has been co-existent with the human race, which has preyed upon the morals as well as the health of all peoples in all ages, which in the past has defied the edicts of despotism no less than at present it defies the mandates of repressive legislation—such a vice should not in any spirit of prudery be put aside as unfit for public consideration.

- 37 Sex Worship. The Masculine Cross and Ancient Sex Worship, by Sha Rocco. Traces of Ancient Myths in Religions of To-day. A Compendium of Sex Worship based on standard, rare and expensive works. Long out of print. With 26 curious illustrations. 12mo. cloth. New York. $1.00

- 38 Flagellation. History of Flagellation among different nations. A narrative of the strange customs and cruelties of the Romans, Greeks, Egyptians, etc., with an account of its practice among the Early Christians, as a religious stimulant and corrector of morals. Many illustrations. 8vo. cloth. New York, 1903. $1.50

Contains anecdotes of Remarkable Cases of Flogging, and of Celebrated Flagellants. A most curious work on the subject.

39 Flagellation. The Rodiad. By George Coleman. 18mo. original red boards, leather backs (new.) London, 1810 (reprinted.) Scarce. $3.00

40 Antique Gems from the Greek and Latin, with original Text and Translations. Embracing ANACREON, APULEIUS, APOLLONIUS of RHODES, CATULLUS, HORACE, LONGUS, LUCIAN, LUCIUS, MUSAEUS, OVID, PROPERTIUS, SAPPHO, TATIUS, THEOCRITUS, and VIRGIL. Translated into English by eminent scholar-poets, beginning with Sir Philip Sydney and including Marlow, Dryden, and Milton, among earlier writers, and Andrew Lang of the present day. Text is specially printed on Imperial Japanese vellum. With over two hundred beautiful illustrations. Limited edition de luxe, 12 volumes, top edges gilt. Printed for subscribers only. Philadelphia: George Barrie & Sons.

Published at $180.00. $60.00

41 Arabian Nights. Burton (Sir R. F.). Unexpurgated Edition. A Plain and Literal Translation of the Arabian Nights' Entertainments, now entitled, The Book of the Thousand Nights and a Night, with introductions, explanatory notes on the Manners and Customs of Moslem Men, and a Terminal Essay upon the History of the Nights, by Richard F. Burton, 10 vols.; together with the Supplemental Nights to the Book of the Thousand Nights and a Night, with notes, Anthropological and Explanatory, by Richard F. - 132 Facetiae. Italian Novelists. The Facetious Nights of Giovanni Francesco Straparola, in four volumes; The Pecorone of Ser Giovanni, in three volumes. Illustrated with 44 fine plates on special paper from originals by Jules Garnier, of Paris, and E. R. Hughes, A.R.W.S., London. 7 volumes, 8vo., very handsomely bound in ¾ morocco, gilt tooled back, top edges gilt. Edition strictly limited to 1,000 numbered and registered copies. Privately printed for Societe des Bibliophiles, a very fine, curious and facetious work. $27.50

- 133 Another copy of the same edition. Limited Edition de Luxe. Unexpurgated. Illustrated. 7 volumes, 8vo., in original green buckram, gilt tops, uncut edges. Privately printed for Societe des Bibliophiles. A very fine, curious and facetious work. $19.50

"The Nights" of Straparola consist of an exquisite and delightful collection of humorous, witty and mirthful conversations, tales and enigmas, including singing, music and dancing during the thirteen nights of the Carnival at Venice, as related by ten charming and accomplished damsels and several nobles, men of learning, illustrious and honorable gentlemen of note at the entertainments of merriment and pleasure given by the Princess Lucretia at her beautiful Palace at Murano.

The masterpiece of Italian prose, The Pecorone of Ser Giovanni, ranks in celebrity with Boccaccio's Decameron. The great popularity of the Pecorone arose from the fact that the amorous stories of love, intrigue and adventure therein contained cover comparatively fresh ground. Shakespeare borrowed Falstaff from Ser Giovanni, and The Merchant of Venice is founded on the first novel of the Fourth Day.

- 134 Facetiae. The Amours and Adventures of the Chevalier de Faublas, by John Baptiste—Louvvet de Couvary. Founded on historical facts, interspersed with most remarkable narratives. A faithful reprint of the very rare, literal, unexpurgated translation of 1822, from the Paris edition of 1821, choicely printed on antique deckle-edged paper, and delightfully illustrated with numerous charming plates, etched by Louis Monzies from drawings by Paul Avril, printed on special paper. Complete in 4 vols. Newly bound in $\frac{3}{4}$ morocco extra, gilt tops and backs, uncut. Edition strictly limited to 100 sets only. Privately printed for Societe des Bibliophiles, 1898. \$40.00

A very fine set of this very curious and facetious work.

A most extraordinary work depicting the free and easy manners and customs of the Eighteenth Century.

- 135 Facetiae. The Life of Marianne; or, the Adventures of the Countess of * * * By M. de Marivaux. Translated from the Original French. 12mo. New $\frac{1}{2}$ polished brown calf extra, gilt tooled back, with red levant inlays, gilt top, uncut. London, 1736. \$20.00

Was this history a mere fiction, very likely the form of it would have been different. Marianne's reflections would be neither so long nor so frequent. It would contain more facts and less morality; in short, the author would have indulged the universal inclination of the present age, which, in books of this kind, does not relish abundance of arguments and reflections.

- 136 Facetiae. The Secret History of Betty Ireland. Copper-plate frontispiece. 8vo. New $\frac{3}{4}$ polished brown calf extra, gilt tooled back, linen sides. London, n. d. Very scarce.

The above Collection of Plays needs no other recommendation than that they were writ by the incomparable Mrs. A. Behn; a person whose character is so universally known, and whose performances have met with such a general applause, that 'tis needless to bespeak the readers' favor on her behalf.

Contents: The Dutch Lover, The Rover; or, The Banish'd Cavaliers; The Town Fop, Forc'd Marriage, The False Count, The Lover's Watch, The Ladies' Looking-Glass to Dress Themselves By; or, The Whole Art of Charming all Mankind.

This is a literal reprint of the First Edition—unabridged, and unexpurgated. An exceptionally fine set of this scarce reprint, of which only a limited number of copies have been printed.

Mrs. Behn devoted herself to intrigue and writing for support; and, as she had a good person and much conversational talent, she became fashionable among the men of wit and pleasure of the time. She published three volumes of poems by Rochester, Etherege, Crisp, and others, with some poetry of her own; and wrote seventeen plays, the heartless licentiousness of which was disgraceful both to her sex and to the age which tolerated the performance of same.

- 154 Facetiae. Moore (Thomas). The Poetical Works of the late Thomas Little. Post 8vo. boards, uncut. London, 1835.

Scarce. Very fine and facetious poems by Tom Moore, published under a nom de plume. $5.00

The colored plates, or Nature Prints, used in this work, are direct transfers from the insects themselves; that is to say, the scales of the wings of the insects are transferred to the paper while the bodies are printed from engravings and afterward colored by hand. The making of such transfers is not original with the author, but it took a good deal of experimenting to so perfect process as to make the transfers, on account of their fidelity to detail and their durability, fit for use as illustrations in such a work. And what magnificent illustrations they are, embodying all the beauty and perfection of the specimens themselves!

Edition limited to only 500 numbered copies, privately bound in a handsome levant morocco binding.

The standard work on the Asiatic and Oriental countries. Here is a set of books the like of which has never been seen before. It describes the manners, morals, customs, religions, art, literature, politics, industries, of all the great people who live on the other side of the Pacific, with whom our immediate future is vitally connected for better or worse. The day that Japan won over Russia marked the birth of a new courage in all the countries west of us, and the recorded observations of trained writers, skilled in all languages, took on a vastly increased importance.

These magnificent volumes contain over 7,600 pages, printed in large type, on excellent laid paper especially made for this edition, and placed in a de luxe binding.

- 224 Oriental Tales. Translated into English Verse. By J. Hoppner. Engraved frontispiece. 8vo. old mottled calf. London, 1805.

Should some of these Tales appear to bear a little hard upon the female character, the author would request the fair reader to consider that they represent Eastern manners and morals, and that they are the actions of a people whose gods were monsters or whose prophet was Mahomet. $5.00

A night telegram would be advisable if item is especially desired, as only one copy of most of the books listed in this (our special) catalogue are on hand, and doubtful whether duplicates can be procured. Always state number and catchword of item desired, as an error would lose you the coveted volume, and cause disappointment.

Updated editions will replace the previous one—the old editions will be renamed.

Creating the works from print editions not protected by U.S. copyright law means that no one owns a United States copyright in these works, so the Foundation (and you!) can copy and distribute it in the United States without permission and without paying copyright royalties. Special rules, set forth in the General Terms of Use part of this license, apply to copying and distributing Project Gutenberg™ electronic works to protect the PROJECT GUTENBERG™ concept and trademark. Project Gutenberg is a registered trademark, and may not be used if you charge for an eBook, except by following the terms of the trademark license, including paying royalties for use of the Project Gutenberg trademark. If you do not charge anything for copies of this eBook, complying with the trademark license is very easy. You may use this eBook for nearly any purpose such as creation of derivative works, reports, performances and research. Project Gutenberg eBooks may be modified and printed and given away—you may do practically ANYTHING in the United States with eBooks not protected by U.S. copyright law. Redistribution is subject to the trademark license, especially commercial redistribution.

START: FULL LICENSE

THE FULL PROJECT GUTENBERG™ LICENSE

PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE YOU DISTRIBUTE OR USE THIS WORK

To protect the Project Gutenberg™ mission of promoting the free distribution of electronic works, by using or distributing this work (or any other work associated in any way with the phrase “Project Gutenberg”), you agree to comply with all the terms of the Full Project Gutenberg License available with this file or online at www.gutenberg.org/license.

Section 1. General Terms of Use and Redistributing Project Gutenberg electronic works

1.A. By reading or using any part of this Project Gutenberg electronic work, you indicate that you have read, understand, agree to and accept all the terms of this license and intellectual property (trademark/copyright) agreement. If you do not agree to abide by all the terms of this agreement, you must cease using and return or destroy all copies of Project Gutenberg electronic works in your possession. If you paid a fee for obtaining a copy of or access to a Project Gutenberg electronic work and you do not agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement, you may obtain a refund from the person or entity to whom you paid the fee as set forth in paragraph 1.E.8.

1.B. “Project Gutenberg” is a registered trademark. It may only be used on or associated in any way with an electronic work by people who agree to be bound by the terms of this agreement. There are a few things that you can do with most Project Gutenberg electronic works even without complying with the full terms of this agreement. See paragraph 1.C below. There are a lot of things you can do with Project Gutenberg electronic works if you follow the terms of this agreement and help preserve free future access to Project Gutenberg electronic works. See paragraph 1.E below.

1.C. The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation (“the Foundation” or PGLAF), owns a compilation copyright in the collection of Project Gutenberg electronic works. Nearly all the individual works in the collection are in the public domain in the United States. If an individual work is unprotected by copyright law in the United States and you are located in the United States, we do not claim a right to prevent you from copying, distributing, performing, displaying or creating derivative works based on the work as long as all references to Project Gutenberg are removed. Of course, we hope that you will support the Project Gutenberg mission of promoting free access to electronic works by freely sharing Project Gutenberg works in compliance with the terms of this agreement for keeping the Project Gutenberg name associated with the work. You can easily comply with the terms of this agreement by keeping this work in the same format with its attached full Project Gutenberg License when you share it without charge with others.

1.D. The copyright laws of the place where you are located also govern what you can do with this work. Copyright laws in most countries are in a constant state of change. If you are outside the United States, check the laws of your country in addition to the terms of this agreement before downloading, copying, displaying, performing, distributing or creating derivative works based on this work or any other Project Gutenberg work. The Foundation makes no representations concerning the copyright status of any work in any country other than the United States.

1.E. Unless you have removed all references to Project Gutenberg:

1.E.1. The following sentence, with active links to, or other immediate access to, the full Project Gutenberg License must appear prominently whenever any copy of a Project Gutenberg work (any work on which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” appears, or with which the phrase “Project Gutenberg” is associated) is accessed, displayed, performed, viewed, copied or distributed:

This eBook is for the use of anyone anywhere in the United States and most other parts of the world at no cost and with almost no restrictions whatsoever. You may copy it, give it away or re-use it under the terms of the Project Gutenberg™ License included with this eBook or online at www.gutenberg.org. If you are not located in the United States, you will have to check the laws of the country where you are located before using this eBook.

1.E.2. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is derived from texts not protected by U.S. copyright law (does not contain a notice indicating that it is posted with permission of the copyright holder), the work can be copied and distributed to anyone in the United States without paying any fees or charges. If you are redistributing or providing access to a work with the phrase “Project Gutenberg” associated with or appearing on the work, you must comply either with the requirements of paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 or obtain permission for the use of the work and the Project Gutenberg trademark as set forth in paragraphs 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.3. If an individual Project Gutenberg electronic work is posted with the permission of the copyright holder, your use and distribution must comply with both paragraphs 1.E.1 through 1.E.7 and any additional terms imposed by the copyright holder. Additional terms will be linked to the Project Gutenberg License for all works posted with the permission of the copyright holder found at the beginning of this work.

1.E.4. Do not unlink or detach or remove the full Project Gutenberg License terms from this work, or any files containing a part of this work or any other work associated with Project Gutenberg.

1.E.5. Do not copy, display, perform, distribute or redistribute this electronic work, or any part of this electronic work, without prominently displaying the sentence set forth in paragraph 1.E.1 with active links or immediate access to the full terms of the Project Gutenberg License.

1.E.6. You may convert to and distribute this work in any binary, compressed, marked up, nonproprietary or proprietary form, including any word processing or hypertext form. However, if you provide access to or distribute copies of a Project Gutenberg work in a format other than “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other format used in the official version posted on the official Project Gutenberg website (www.gutenberg.org), you must, at no additional cost, fee or expense to the user, provide a copy, a means of exporting a copy, or a means of obtaining a copy upon request, of the work in its original “Plain Vanilla ASCII” or other form. Any alternate format must include the full Project Gutenberg License as specified in paragraph 1.E.1.

1.E.7. Do not charge a fee for access to, viewing, displaying, performing, copying or distributing any Project Gutenberg works unless you comply with paragraph 1.E.8 or 1.E.9.

1.E.8. You may charge a reasonable fee for copies of or providing access to or distributing Project Gutenberg electronic works provided that:

- You pay a royalty fee of 20% of the gross profits you derive from the use of Project Gutenberg works calculated using the method you already use to calculate your applicable taxes. The fee is owed to the owner of the Project Gutenberg trademark, but he has agreed to donate royalties under this paragraph to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation. Royalty payments must be paid within 60 days following each date on which you prepare (or are legally required to prepare) your periodic tax returns. Royalty payments should be clearly marked as such and sent to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation at the address specified in Section 4, "Information about donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation."
- You provide a full refund of any money paid by a user who notifies you in writing (or by e-mail) within 30 days of receipt that s/he does not agree to the terms of the full Project Gutenberg™ License. You must require such a user to return or destroy all copies of the works possessed in a physical medium and discontinue all use of and all access to other copies of Project Gutenberg™ works.
- You provide, in accordance with paragraph 1.F.3, a full refund of any money paid for a work or a replacement copy, if a defect in the electronic work is discovered and reported to you within 90 days of receipt of the work.
- You comply with all other terms of this agreement for free distribution of Project Gutenberg™ works.

1.E.9. If you wish to charge a fee or distribute a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work or group of works on different terms than are set forth in this agreement, you must obtain permission in writing from the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the manager of the Project

Gutenberg™ trademark. Contact the Foundation as set forth in Section 3 below.

1.F.

1.F.1. Project Gutenberg volunteers and employees expend considerable effort to identify, do copyright research on, transcribe and proofread works not protected by U.S. copyright law in creating the Project Gutenberg™ collection. Despite these efforts, Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, and the medium on which they may be stored, may contain “Defects,” such as, but not limited to, incomplete, inaccurate or corrupt data, transcription errors, a copyright or other intellectual property infringement, a defective or damaged disk or other medium, a computer virus, or computer codes that damage or cannot be read by your equipment.

1.F.2. LIMITED WARRANTY, DISCLAIMER OF DAMAGES - Except for the “Right of Replacement or Refund” described in paragraph 1.F.3, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, the owner of the Project Gutenberg™ trademark, and any other party distributing a Project Gutenberg™ electronic work under this agreement, disclaim all liability to you for damages, costs and expenses, including legal fees. YOU AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NO REMEDIES FOR NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTY OR BREACH OF CONTRACT EXCEPT THOSE PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 1.F.3. YOU AGREE THAT THE FOUNDATION, THE TRADEMARK OWNER, AND ANY DISTRIBUTOR UNDER THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ACTUAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, PUNITIVE OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES EVEN IF YOU GIVE NOTICE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGE.

1.F.3. LIMITED RIGHT OF REPLACEMENT OR REFUND - If you discover a defect in this electronic work within 90 days of receiving it, you can receive a refund of the money (if any) you paid for it by sending a written explanation to the person you received the work from. If you received the work on a physical medium, you must return the medium with your written explanation. The person or entity that provided you with the defective work may elect to provide a replacement copy in lieu of a refund. If you received the work electronically, the person or entity providing it to you may choose to give you a second opportunity to receive the work electronically in lieu of a refund. If the second copy is also defective, you may demand a refund in writing without further opportunities to fix the problem.

1.F.4. Except for the limited right of replacement or refund set forth in paragraph 1.F.3, this work is provided to you 'AS-IS', WITH NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY PURPOSE.

1.F.5. Some states do not allow disclaimers of certain implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain types of damages. If any disclaimer or limitation set forth in this agreement violates the law of the state applicable to this agreement, the agreement shall be interpreted to make the maximum disclaimer or limitation permitted by the applicable state law. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this agreement shall not void the remaining provisions.

1.F.6. INDEMNITY - You agree to indemnify and hold the Foundation, the trademark owner, any agent or employee of the Foundation, anyone providing copies of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works in accordance with this agreement, and any volunteers associated with the production, promotion and distribution of Project Gutenberg™ electronic works, harmless from all liability, costs and expenses, including legal fees, that arise directly or indirectly from any of the following which you do or cause to occur: (a) distribution of this or any Project Gutenberg work, (b) alteration, modification, or additions or deletions to any Project Gutenberg work, and (c) any Defect you cause.

Section 2. Information about the Mission of Project Gutenberg

Project Gutenberg is synonymous with the free distribution of electronic works in formats readable by the widest variety of computers including obsolete, old, middle-aged and new computers. It exists because of the efforts of hundreds of volunteers and donations from people in all walks of life.

Volunteers and financial support to provide volunteers with the assistance they need are critical to reaching Project Gutenberg's goals and ensuring that the Project Gutenberg collection will remain freely available for generations to come. In 2001, the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation was created to provide a secure and permanent future for Project Gutenberg and future generations. To learn more about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation and how your efforts and donations can help, see Sections 3 and 4 and the Foundation information page at www.gutenberg.org.

Section 3. Information about the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

The Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi and granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's EIN or federal tax identification number is 64-6221541. Contributions to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation are tax deductible to the full extent permitted by U.S. federal laws and your state's laws.

The Foundation's business office is located at 41 Watchung Plaza #516, Montclair NJ 07042, USA, +1 (862) 621-9288. Email contact links and up to date contact information can be found at the Foundation's website and official page at www.gutenberg.org/contact

Section 4. Information about Donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation

Project Gutenberg™ depends upon and cannot survive without widespread public support and donations to carry out its mission of increasing the number of public domain and licensed works that can be freely distributed in machine-readable form accessible by the widest array of equipment including outdated equipment. Many small donations ($1 to $5,000) are particularly important to maintaining tax exempt status with the IRS.

The Foundation is committed to complying with the laws regulating charities and charitable donations in all 50 states of the United States. Compliance requirements are not uniform and it takes a considerable effort, much paperwork and many fees to meet and keep up with these requirements. We do not solicit donations in locations where we have not received written confirmation of compliance. To SEND DONATIONS or determine the status of compliance for any particular state visit www.gutenberg.org/donate.

While we cannot and do not solicit contributions from states where we have not met the solicitation requirements, we know of no prohibition against accepting unsolicited donations from donors in such states who approach us with offers to donate.

International donations are gratefully accepted, but we cannot make any statements concerning tax treatment of donations received from outside the United States. U.S. laws alone swamp our small staff.

Please check the Project Gutenberg web pages for current donation methods and addresses. Donations are accepted in a number of other ways including checks, online payments and credit card donations. To donate, please visit: www.gutenberg.org/donate.

Section 5. General Information About Project Gutenberg electronic works

Professor Michael S. Hart was the originator of the Project Gutenberg concept of a library of electronic works that could be freely shared with anyone. For forty years, he produced and distributed Project Gutenberg eBooks with only a loose network of volunteer support.

Project Gutenberg eBooks are often created from several printed editions, all of which are confirmed as not protected by copyright in the U.S. unless a copyright notice is included. Thus, we do not necessarily keep eBooks in compliance with any particular paper edition.

Most people start at our website which has the main PG search facility:
www.gutenberg.org.

This website includes information about Project Gutenberg, including how to make donations to the Project Gutenberg Literary Archive Foundation, how to help produce our new eBooks, and how to subscribe to our email newsletter to hear about new eBooks.
